THE St. Peter's Benevolent Society give their last entertainment and soiree for the benefit of the orphan to-morrow evening, at Exposition Hall. Extra preparations have been made for this occasion, and lovers of good music and good dancing should not fail to attend.

MR. JOHN ORVIS, Grand Lecturer, Sovereigns of Industry, gives a free lecture to the colored people in Allen Chapel to-night, Cor. 6th and Broadway. His lecture last night at Vander Hall was a success. A council of the order will be organized Friday night, twenty names being already secured.

ABOUT forty men are engaged in digging and building masonry at the head of Elm street for the Cincinnati and Clinton inclined-plane railroad. With good weather the enterprise will be in operation by the first of next May. It is to be 110 feet in length, with a total rise of 285 feet 4 inches, or 412 feet above low water mark. This incline will be a good thing for the Clifton people and visitors to the Burnet Woods Park.

YESTERDAY was the day appointed for the semi-monthly meeting of the Health Board, but as only three members were present, no business was transacted. Health Officer Quinn has his report ready, however, which, among other things, shows that small-pox is abroad in the land. He says that during the nine days of this month there have been 264 new cases of that disease, out of a total of 915 cases since it first showed itself last January. The ratio of fatal cases has been 25 per cent. of those reported. He earnestly urges immediate vaccination. The mortality from small-pox during the past month was 79. 16 of these were under one year; 22 of them were between 5 and 10 years of age. 25 cases occurred in the Thirteenth ward.

IF YOUR Throat Feels Sore or Uncomfortable, use promptly Dr. Jayne's Expectorant. It will relieve the air-passages of all phlegm or mucus, allay inflammation, and so give the affected parts a chance to heal. No safer remedy can be had for all Coughs and Colds, or any complaint of the Throat or Lungs, and if taken in time, a short trial will prove its efficacy.

Grand Orchestra Concert.

The Cincinnati Grand Orchestra will give the first concert of their season's series to-morrow evening at Pike's Music Hall. The orchestra will be augmented by many new performers of excellent reputation, and altogether a concert-union unequalled by any save probably the great Theodore Thomas' orchestra; and in point of numbers it even surpasses that—numbering at least one-fourth as many more performers. Their music is of the highest order, and embraces selections from such masters as Beethoven, Haydn, Von Weber, Gounod, Liszt and Goldmark. The overture from Weber's "Euryanthe," Haydn's "Thirteenth Symphony," Wagner's "Rielzi," and Gounod's celebrated ballet music, "La Reine de Saba," will be among the principal selections. This is probably the best programme as was ever presented to our music-loving public, and should be acknowledged in a substantial way—namely, by a full house.

Court Outings.

W. S. Porter vs. The Adams Express Company. Suit to recover $35 damages to a picture shipped from this city to Washington. Judgment for the defendant.

In the case of Henry Streuve et al., who asked for an injunction against the Fun Building Association, No. 1, the Court allowed a temporary injunction until further notice.

being unable to agree, were discharged yesterday afternoon. Ziegler vs. Kief & Co.; verdict for the defendant. Elizabeth Young was yesterday granted a divorce from her husband, W. S. Young, and alimony allowed in the sum of $900 per annum, and $150 for present relief. The Planchott libel suit is still in progress.

Amusements.

THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—Miss Minnie Palmer as "Little Silver" drew another good house last evening. The play ran very smoothly, showing Miss Palmer to much better advantage than on Monday evening. The support, especially on the part of Miss Fannie Lee and Messrs. Fiske and Vance, was excellent. The play is very interesting, and well adapted to Miss Palmer's peculiar style of acting, and will undoubtedly have a good run. Matinee to-day at 2 o'clock, on which occasion Miss DeForrest will appear as "Camille."

THE WOOD'S THEATER.—"The Wandering Heir" was the attraction at this house again last evening, the part of "Phillip Chester" being sustained by Miss May Howard. Miss Howard is not only a beautiful woman, but a fine actress, and would shortly become a great favorite in our city did she visit it often. The support was good last evening, but one or two exceptions. This evening "The New Magdalen" will be given, with Miss Howard as the heroine, "Mercy Merrick." Howard matinee on Saturday.

ROBINSON'S OPERA-HOUSE.—The Daniel Boone Combination gave Mr. Stevens' drama, "Name Unknown," at this house last evening to a good audience. Mr. Stevens is a fine actor, and was well supported last evening by his company. Matinee to-day at 2 o'clock.

THE NATIONAL.—This house was crowded as usual last evening, the D'Omers proving a great attraction. Mr. Foster, who remains at this house during the entire week, also appeared to great advantage in his sensational drama, "Saved from the Fire."

Safe in the Harbor.

Ah me! for aught that I could ever read, Could ever hear by tale or history, The course of true love never did run smooth.

Up in the beautiful little city of Bellefontaine, this State, there are two disconsolate, fond parents; they have lost their idolized daughter. This would be sad, if the cloud had no silver lining—for the girl. But it has. Miss Mattie C. Janney, a youthful maiden, fair and beautiful, with eyes of azure, and mouth

"On which the honey bee might sip, And dream of bliss in June." had a lover. His front name is William M. Smith. Whether or not the parents of Miss Mattie objected to this particular member of the Smith family on general principles, is nobody's business but theirs. They did object, hence this tale.

Last Sunday night, as the youthful couple were hanging over somebody else's gate—William wasn't a doctor around the front door of the Janney homestead—they each swore "by the moon, the inconstant moon," that ere another week rolled over their heads they would be man and wife. They meant it, too, for last Monday down they came to this city, to lose themselves amid its vastness, and at the same time consummate their vows. When it was found that the birds had flown, great consternation ensued, especially in the Janney family circle. The father couldn't pursue them, so he sent his son after them to forbid the bans. I don't know scoured the city, but found no tidings of the pair. At last, discouraged and disheartened, he posted off to Cleveland, hoping to intercept them there. As the happy pair was already married when he got there, and was blissfully sojourning at the Day House, in Covington, while he went hoofing it around after them, but too late, his ill-success as an amateur detective is not to be wondered at.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith (the younger) are still with us, enjoying themselves, and are as happy as big sunflowers. They sing to each other now "When come the wild weather, Come sweet or come snow, We will stand by each other However it blow."
