

Probably cloudy or partly so, and threatening to-day; clearing in the afternoon or evening, and fair to-morrow forenoon, and cooler.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

It costs $102,000 per annum to light the city with gas.

There are 106 regularly licensed hacks in Cincinnati.

EATHAN S. TOWNSEND, carpenter and builder, has made an assignment.

More than 2,300 children attended the Bethel Sunday-school yesterday.

MAYOR JOHNSTON has designated next Thursday, Nov. 23, as Thanksgiving Day.

CINCINNATI has thirty-two Lodges of Odd-fellows, with a membership of over 6,000.

JOHN B. McCORMICK is now the business agent of Miss Minnie Palmer, the actress.

Dr. O. E. DAVIS was slightly bruised by being thrown from his buggy on John street yesterday.

The "Aldines" give their fifth grand complimentary at Mozart, Thanksgiving eve, November 24.

The Shakespeare Club will read "Still Waters Run Deep," at Melodeon Hall, to-morrow evening.

NICHOLAS SMITH, the Race-street saloonist, lost $28 Saturday night at the hands of a sneak thief.

DELEGATIONS from the different lodges of Odd-fellows will visit Kirkup Lodge, Walnut Hills, this evening.

Nearly 300 new cases of small-pox have been reported to the Board of Health within the past 12 days.

On Thursday evening next the delegate meeting of the Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church will be held in St. Paul's Church.

Who owns the French clock, found in a basket by Officer Mitchell, on Vine street near Fifth? It can be seen at the Hammond-street Station-house.

HARRY B. CATLIN, of the Mint saloon, will have a hearing on the 19th, on the charges of grand larceny and receiving stolen goods. He is out on bail.

GUS WELSONER, a boy living at 263 Baymiller, and employed at Urban & Macomber's Safe Factory, had his arm badly mangled by machinery Saturday evening.

EMUEL JACOBS, a sixteen-year old boy, living at 128 Hopkins street, was sent to the Refuge by Judge Lindemann this morning, for beating his mother last Friday.

M. D. CONWAY'S last course of lectures will be commenced Wednesday evening, November 17th, with "St. George and the Dragon," Friday evening, "The Fossil Man."

The record of deaths in the city last week shows a mortality of 131 up to six o'clock Saturday evening, against 108 the week previous. Fifty deaths from small-pox occurred.

The Feast of St. Cecilia will be commemorated at the Cathedral next Sunday, Nov. 21. The choir will sing Messa's Twelfth Mass, and in the afternoon Lepeal's Grand Vespers.

The freight business is picking up. One day last week there were five hundred loaded cars on the track of the C. & D. R. R., between the depot and Cumminsville, awaiting their turn.

At Hopkins Hall, next Thursday evening, the colored people propose to give an entertainment, consisting of songs, instrumental music, recitations, &c., the proceeds to be given to the Colored Orphan Asylum.

PETER KLINE, the tramp who assaulted old Mrs. Finney the other day, in Delhi, appeared to answer the charge in the Police Court this morning, and his case was continued until next Saturday, his bond fixed at $1,000.

MR. B. H. ROBERS, of the firm of Putnam & Rober, who lives at 43 Wood street, will have a hearing on the 17th before Judge Lindemann, for running over a Mrs. Lewis with his buggy on Central avenue yesterday afternoon.

JACOB GARDNER, an old Ex-Workhouse man, was charged this morning with stealing a calf-skin valued at $27, from Peter Wittiger, of Camp Washington. The Judge sent him to the Work-house for thirty days and fined him $50.

JACK MALBY forfeited his bail ($40) in the Police Court this morning. He was arrested last night by Officers Hopper and Davis for having a regular-bull prize fight with Dick Collum last Saturday night at Oberkain's saloon, corner Betts and Freeman.

The case of the colored boy, Morris Taylor, who was arrested last night for stealing a basket of oranges from a Mr. Bacon, in the Sixth-street Market-house, has been continued until to-morrow morning. Morris says he works for a "tooth doctor; don't know his other name."

The cheapest and quickest route to the Zoological Garden, is by way of the Main street line of cars, the Inclined Plane and Mt. Auburn road. The entrance to the Garden is on the east side of the Carriage Pike, a short distance north of its intersection with Ludlow avenue.

Mrs. MARY HARVEY, of Livingston street, near Lind, has a brute for a husband. He struck her with a chair, cutting her head quite severely, and the poor woman was found wandering alone on Main, near Liberty, last night. She refuses to tell where her husband can be found.

Mrs. HENNA HUNT, "the lady with the long hair," now comes forward and acknowledges her participation in the "Klax" fraud. She has been employed sometime by some men who have an office on Vine, above Seventh, to advertise their "Hair Compound" by personal exhibition of her remarkably long hair. She says: "Having been defrauded of my wages, and part of my own hair for wigs, and frizzes, also a valuable umbrella and a dollar's worth of insertings, I now pronounce the scheme a miserable humbug."

IT IS BUT wretched policy to allow yourself to drift into an incurable disease, by neglecting the earliest and most tractable symptoms. By constantly waiting for a cold to get well of itself, many a one has so damaged the structure of his lungs, as to put him beyond the reach of medicines, before becoming conscious of danger. How much safer on the first indications of a cold, to resort to Dr. Jayne's Expectant, and Sore-throat Remedy for Coughs, Asthma and all Bronchial Affections, and sure to exert a beneficial influence on the organs of the Chest.

A French widower says that when a Frenchman loses his wife it is as if a duty to cry over her loss, and then it comes a habit, and finally a pleasure,

The Music Hall.

The total amount of citizens' subscriptions up to Saturday night, foots up $35,197. Ten thousand dollars more will make the Music Hall a fixed fact, which amount the committee are sanguine of securing this week.

Relief Union. The twenty-seventh annual report of the Cincinnati Relief Union was made by the President, R. B. Moore, at their meeting Saturday night in the Council Chamber. From it we learn that the expenditures for relief to the poor by this Union since the last report amounted to $14,844 69; balance in Treasury, $770 43.

The Exposition Buildings. A paper submitted by Mr. Truman B. Handy to the guarantors of the Exposition Fund, to be signed by them, relinquishing their claims to the proceeds of the sale of the Exposition buildings, is to-day being circulated for signatures. The buildings, boiler, machinery, shafting, pipes, &c., will bring at least $4,000, which amount it is proposed to donate to the Springer Music Hall Fund.

Stolen Tickets. On the night of the 9th inst, the ticket-office of the Ohio and Mississippi Railway Company at Moore's Hill was broken into and a large number of tickets stolen. These tickets found their way into the hands of the ticket scalpers in this city, and a portion of them were sold to innocent parties, from whom the tickets were taken by agents of the Company and passage refused.

This should be a warning as to the importance of purchasing only at the authorized offices of the Company. The tickets have been secured and will be dealt with according to the law governing such cases.

Where is Michael Smith? A man at an early hour this morning called at the house of Officer E. P. Higgins, No. 337 Main street, and after making some noise proceeded to undress in an out-house, supposing, it is presumed, that he was at home. After taking off his clothes, as if about to retire, he wandered off, and nothing more was heard of him.

In his pockets was found a bank-book, showing that Michael Smith has a deposit of $195 in the Northern Bank of Kentucky.

If the man was Mr. Smith, and he will call on Officer Higgins, he can at once dress to make himself presentable.

David Hinton, Esq., The Main street merchant, announced his intention two years ago of giving $50,000 to the city, to be used in the construction of an esplanade on Fifth street, east of the Davidson Fountain. The project has since that time lain dormant. Seeing that the city, in its present crippled condition, financially, can not aid him in his enterprise, he now proposes to give a further amount that may go far beyond his original donation. He will ask of the city a width of forty feet in the center of the block. To admit of this grant, a proposition will be presented at the next meeting of the Board of City Improvements, asking for a reduction in the width of the sidewalks on that block from sixteen to thirteen feet.

Should the action of Council be favorable, he intends to begin work in the spring, and as soon as the esplanade is completed will proceed with the work of decoration, which will be, no doubt, as at first suggested, a forum, surmounted by a pedestal, upon the top of which a statue will be placed, the sides of the structure containing various appropriate designs in bronze statuary.

Amusements. The amusement public will almost have a surfeit of sweet things this week, three first-class theaters and two variety shows rivalling each other with long lists of unusual attractions. First at the Grand Opera-house we are to have the superb Salviu, the great English tragedian who has created a greater sensation throughout the country than any foreign actor who has visited our shores since the days of Macready. Salviu created a sensation, it is true. Like Cesar, he came, he saw, he conquered. But Salviu did not speak our language, which prevented a direct comparison of his talents with those of any of our own great stars. He did not come to wrest the laurels from Booth or Davenport. With Mr. Sullivan, however, it is different, and the American people are fair-minded as they will, and then we shall have an opportunity of judging of this great actor for ourselves.

WOOD'S THEATER.—Lotta begins an engagement at this house this evening, in "Zip," Fred. Marsden's drama, supported by one of Cincinnati's greatest favorites, Mr. E. A. Locke. This announcement is enough to fill the house.

ROBINSON'S.—The famous McKee Rankin combination, in the "Two Orphans," with Miss Kitty Blanchard as "Henriette."

THE NATIONAL.—Extraordinary attractions are offered at this house at this week, prominent among which are the wonderful feats of little Ala, termed the "Sky Rocket."

Court Outings. SUPERIOR COURT. William Cronney vs. Marshall McKay, Neil McKay and the Trustees of the Southern Railroad. Question of Jurisdiction. Demurrer overruled.

George Miller vs. Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railway Company, suit for damages. The plaintiff having had his hand crushed by an engine of the above company, an incompetent engineer being in charge at the time. Demurrer overruled.

The Weed Sewing Machine Company against G. W. Lowrey and H. Veyan, principals, and A. B. Ledwick and G. Mead, sureties. Demurrer to the petition.

Britton vs. Brown and Braisted. The plaintiff sued the defendants for laying a black pavement on Race street between Fourth and Fifth streets, and for material furnished. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $433 against both defendants.

W. J. Byrne vs. Charles Hill. Verdict for plaintiff for $438.

John Tompkinson vs. H. F. Goodhue and W. F. Goodhue, partners as Goodhue &

Co. Suit for damages for personal injury.

Verdict for the plaintiff against Daniel F. Goodhue, and assessed the damages at $3,000.

F. G. Planchet vs. J. H. Buehing. Libel suit, verdict for defendant.

Catherine Blum vs. Plus Blum, decree of divorce granted on the ground of habitual intoxication, and awarded the custody of the children to the plaintiff.

The will of Julia A. Miller was presented for probate. On testing of the same it was found to be invalid, and testatrix was not in a condition of mind to execute a will, Judge Matson refused to admit it to probate.

Ethan G. Townsend, of Delhi township, made an assignment to Isaac Britton, for the benefit of his creditors. Bond $10,000.

Abel E. Chamberlain was appointed a Trustee of the Widows' Home.

Light Oils. The London Times says: "The Bank of England clips every light sovereign that comes into the bank. The weighing of every sovereign is accomplished quickly; 3,000 are weighed in an hour with one machine. Mr. Palmer, deputy governor, informing the House of Commons, Select Committee of last session on banks of issue, that last year the Bank of England weighed coin to the amount of $23,100,000, and rejected $240,000, or about 3.6 per cent, as being light gold. For this last amount the bank paid the value, making a deduction for the deficiency of weight, which is generally about threepence or fourpence per light sovereign. It was stated to the committee that boxes of correctly weighed gold, sent by the Bank of England to Scotland, frequently come back without having been opened, and Mr. Palmer stated that there is then a reduction for light weight. He explained this by adding that the mere shaking of the sovereigns on the journey will make a slight difference. There is a point at which every sovereign becomes light, and many sovereigns turn that point in the journey. Mr. Hodgson, a member of Parliament, a bank director, stated that in a box of 5,000 sovereigns the number which would be found to have turned the point would generally be about eight, if they have not been disturbed; and he added: "You are aware that the sovereign which is in your pocket is not the same sovereign at 12 o'clock at night." After this rather alarming announcement it is satisfactory to find Mr. Hodgson stating also that the charge for light weight on the eight deficient sovereigns would be about 2d. per coin, making only 16d. on the box of 5,000, he says he, "it really amounts to nothing."

The Lexington Press is responsible for this: In this city there lives a bank officer who has a favorite dog of great intelligence, one that has been his constant companion for years, and has intelligently watched his master's ways all the while. This dog happened on one occasion to be in the counting-room of another bank about the hour of closing, and discovering the teller counting out his funds, watched the operation intently until the pile of bills had been completed, and the estimates were being made. The figures and the count did not tally, and the teller turned to his desk to make some further search for funds, when the dog lifted himself quietly up to a level with the desk, took the entire pile of bills in his mouth, and walked deliberately out and away. The teller finishing his search, turned to recount the funds, when lo! there was none to be found. What had happened? The pocket in front was closed, and there was no human being near. Startled, he turned just in time to see the dog passing out the door, and to his amazement had the dog greenbacks in his mouth. His canine dignity seemed to be a part of a hurry, for neither bank officers nor bank dogs ever so far forget that otium cum dignitate, which is one of the inalienable rights of a teller, as to get in a hurry; but falling into the slow, dignified step acquired when following his master, he made direct for his own bank, where he walked in and deposited the gains in the teller's box on the floor of the bank. Nor did he yield willingly to the surrender to its owner, until the superior moral perception and moral suasion of his master had been evoked.

The Texas Constitutional Convention has adopted a most comprehensive article providing for State control of railroads. It gives to the Legislature the power to construct and operate connectous with intersecting roads; prohibits consolidation of parallel or competing lines, or the consolidation by contract or under judicial sale of any road within the State with one organized under the laws of another State, or of the United States, and reserves to the Legislature the right to establish reasonable rates and to enact laws prohibiting discriminations. The peculiarly Granger feature of the article is the clause requiring any road hereafter constructed to within three miles of a county-seat to lay a track thereto and establish a depot there.

The fervor of brotherly love between the Courier-Journal and the mild-mannered gentlemen of the Cincinnati Enquirer increases daily. In response to the choice array of epithets bestowed upon him by the Enquirer, the Louisville editor replies with complacency: "To be blackguarded by a small trader and shallow-burning politician, is always an evidence of merit which is grateful to our souls." He then calls the inflation leaders "braying asses," and in the language of Pope, inquires: "What must be a priest when the monkey is a god?" After alluding to the same gentlemen once more as "appends," the Courier-Journal closes by renewing its former suggestion, that they be drowned like "so many blind kittens."

Feminine Thrift.—A Kansas wife, with the help of three daughters, made more money this year raising silk than her husband, with three boys, made with a farm raising wheat.

THE SUN. DAILY & WEEKLY FOR 1875

THE APPROACH OF THE PRESIDENTIAL election gives unusual importance to the development of 1876. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over eighty thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in its columns, with important, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is our aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing that would offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legibly printed.

The Agricultural department is a prominent feature in the WEEKLY SUN, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the WEEKLY SUN is their paper especially. It belongs to no party and obeys no dictation, considering for principle, and for the election of the best man. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knaves, and the markets of every kind and the fashions are regularly reported.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-cent columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount or allow any premium to friends who make special efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which requires payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, will twenty cents, the cost of prepaid postage added, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, postpaid for one year.

We have no traveling agents. THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-cent columns. One $1.20 a year, postage prepaid. No discount from this rate.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 100,000. All the news for 9 cents. Subscription, postage prepaid, 55 cents a month, or $5.00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent.

Address "THE SUN," New York City.
