

For the next 24 hours cloudy and fair, followed by cloudy and threatening weather.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

REMEMBER, Hawley's is the place to find Sunday reading.

GOVERNOR-ELECT Rutherford B. Hayes is at the Gibson House.

A. B. MULLETT, Ex-Government Architect, is stopping at the Burnet House.

TO-NIGHT the great sword combat in Richard III, at the Grand. Be on hand.

LOTTA, in her new play, "Musette," will be the attraction at Wood's next week.

MISS JANE COOMBS, in the "Love Sacrifice," opens at the Grand next Monday night.

IRON for the building of the Cincinnati and Chicago railroad is now being hauled up the hill.

A MANSARD ROOF is being put upon the Carlisle block, which will make it the highest building in the city.

MR. ARMIN TENNER, Secretary of the Zoo, was called today. Mr. Peter Lucht made the presentation speech.

WM. OSTENDORF, who was so seriously hurt Thursday by Henry Schroeder, is reported to be in a serious condition.

THE Zoo-Zoo has received a loan from Uncle John Robinson a pair of lions with two cubs, and a spotted hyena.

GEORGE DELHAVEN, of Hippodrome notoriety, and Andrew Haigt, another well-known showman, are both sojourning in our city.

Mrs. S. M. J. HENRY, of Rockford, Ill., and Miss Frances E. Willard, of Chicago, address a children's meeting this afternoon at St. Paul's M. E. Church.

COLLECTOR LEW WEITZEL, from June, 1878, to October 1878, collected in Hamilton county $19,500,000 of internal revenue at a cost of one and one-sixth per cent.

BARNEY VINING, a coal-cart driver for Brown & Co., died shortly after midnight from the effects of being run over yesterday by a Little Miami railroad freight car.

BELEVUE, Ky., was lit with gasoline for the first time last night. The lamps on Fairfield avenue, extend from Williamson's new block down to the Taylor creek bridge.

DR. LORD, the lecturer, will be complimented by the young ladies of the Cincinnati Wesleyan College, who will give a parlor entertainment in his honor this evening.

THERE will be a Matinee at the Grand Opera-house, on Thanksgiving day, upon which occasion "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be given with a powerful cast and magnificent scenery.

THE Committee of Public Safety elected the following officers yesterday: C. H. Gould, President; A. H. Hinkle, Vice President; Peter R. Neff, Secretary; Robert Mitchell, Treasurer.

At the evening service of song, at Rev. Dr. Boynton's Church, tomorrow, (the Vine-street Congregational) two of Schubert's songs will be given—French horns and organ accompaniment.

A SMALL FIRE was discovered about half-past 10 o'clock last night among some rags in the basement of No. 223 West Fourth street. The flames were put out without any loss by a small Babcock extinguisher.

HARRY B. CATLIN, of the Race-street Mint saloon, has been acquitted of the charges made against him by his former barkeeper, Litchford—namely, stealing $300 from a printer named McLain, and receiving stolen goods.

REV. J. P. E. KUMLER, of the Third Presbyterian Church, will lead the union prayer-meeting this evening at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 a Bible reading will be given by Mr. Murray Shipley on the subject of "The Personality and Office-work of the Holy Spirit."

WILLIE SPAUL, the five-year old son of Anthony Spaul, died yesterday afternoon from his wounds caused by being run over by a Sixth street car. The inquest was held, but nothing further elicited than mentioned in our columns yesterday. The driver, Peter Gilas, was exonerated from all blame.

DR. LORD delivered a very interesting lecture at College Hall yesterday afternoon, which was listened to by a very good audience. His subject was "Lord Bacon," who, in the hands of the Doctor, was magnified even beyond what we have always been taught to believe concerning him and his greatness.

TOMORROW afternoon, at St. John's M. E. Sunday-school, a Bible reading, entitled "Drunkenness or Temperance," will be given. Addresses also will be delivered by Mrs. A. Wittenmeyer, of Philadelphia; Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, of Clinton, Iowa; Mrs. S. K. Leavitt, and Mrs. Lizette G. Bunyan, of this city.

CITY AUDITOR S. W. HOFFMAN's wife, by one of those foolish acts by which so many persons have been injured, came near being badly burned yesterday. To take a few stanzas from a pair of kid gloves, she used a preparation of benzine called "rose-oil." She put the glove on, held it near the fire, and the usual result followed. The oil ignited, and but for her presence of mind in smothering the flames in her dress-tails, would have suffered terribly.

CORNELIUS SCHAFFSTALL, a lad of about fourteen years, and an employe at P. T. Schultz's printing works, No. 134 Vine street, a few days ago had four fingers of one hand crushed between the machinery of a press. It is thought that he will be maimed for life. This is the fourth accident of the kind that has happened lately at that place, and it should be attended to by Mr. Schultz that his employes, hereafter, do not suffer in the same way, by the carelessness of themselves or of his own.

IT IS BUT wretched policy to allow yourself to drift into an incurable disease, by neglecting the earliest and most tractable symptoms. By contentedly waiting for a cold to get well of itself, many a one has so damaged the structure of his lungs, as to put him beyond the reach of medicines, before being conscious of danger. How much safer on the first indications of a cold, to resort to Dr. Jayne's Expecto-rant, an efficacious remedy for Coughs, Asthma and all Bronchial Affections, and sure to exert a beneficial influence on the organs of the Chest.

The Kevo Goose. One of the liveliest sights during the raid on the Fifth-street kevo den, last evening, was the rapid descent from the two-story window of the noted celebrity, commonly called "The Major."

As the kevo goose winged its flight amidst the scattering checks through the back window, the Major spread his coat tails and followed suit, trusting in Providence for his safe delivery. His gallant minuette bustled and fluttered in the wind.

The checks rattled like hail about his head, he whistled and twisted through the air, out-doing little "Ala, the Sky Rocket," in his wonderful flight. It was sublime. He knew he must alight some time, but when? It came at last; he felt a tender portion of his system strike something, his teeth rattled, his eyes started almost from their sockets, the knotted and combined locks did part, and each particular hair stood on end. Tableau: "Where am I?" said the Major and began to climb the slippery heights of a shingled roof, searing sundry amorous cats that were enjoying a little game of keno among themselves. He wandered like an escaped burglar over the house-tops, in momentary danger of being shot as a crackman. Finally a scoullery maid kindly drew him in a back window by the hair and ushered him a foot-bagrimed wretch to the street below. No bones were broken, and save a few loosened teeth, the Major was O. K. He departed a sadder but wiser man.

MADE IN THE U.S.A. NEW PUBLICATIONS. Scribner for December! SCRIBNER for December is a notable number in the quantity as well as the quality of its material, containing 100 octavo pages, with seventy illustrations. There are instalments of two SERIAL STORIES, SEVEN OAKS, by DR. HOLLAND, which is here finished, and GABRIEL CONROY, By BRET HARTE. SHORTER STORIES, SKETCHES OF TRAVEL, with Pictures from the Nile, and in SPAIN; Poems, with Illustrations; "Pictures from Japan"; Essays on Labor and Finance; besides an unusual variety and interest in the Editorial Departments. But the papers which will be likely to attract widest attention, are Two Illustrated Narratives of Exploration, the one in the Old World and the other in the New. "THE DISCOVERY of the SITE of SOLOMON'S TEMPLE," made by Prof. HENRIK, and a chapter of discovery in lower Colorado, entitled "THE ANCIENT PROVINCE OF TUSAXAN," by MAJ. POWELL, one of the most interesting and important of his contributions to our knowledge of that strange and hitherto almost unexplored region. The present instalment of GABRIEL CONROY, by BRET HARTE, will more than justify the praise bestowed upon the opening chapters. The Boston Post says: "If the opening chapters foreshadow fairly those that are to succeed, it will stand unrivaled in American fiction, and quite unrivaled as the representative of that fresh and spontaneous literary culture that has acquired unwonted strength and freedom from contemplation of nature's grandeur in the far West. It is a serial that will make every new number of Scribner's eagerly sought, if it had nothing else to recommend it." The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says: "The picture is powerfully done. The illustration is spread before you; you step on the blazed pine and read the cry for help from the canon; then a haggard, starving man hurries into the landscape, the more to impress the image of his resolution. The scene is preparation for the horrors of that brutalized camp in the canon is perfect." The Canadian Illustrated News says: "All that is expected of it is fulfilled in the opening chapters, which are replete with sensational power, and if the rest of the work maintains this standard, we shall have found at last THE American novel." The Hartford Courant says: "The study of American progress would be incomplete without a knowledge of the life which Mr. Harte writes about. In his way his writings are of importance, and essentially a national treasure." The S. S. Times, of Philadelphia, says: "Bret Harte's opening description of a snow storm in the Sierras is worthy of a place alongside of Dickens' picture of the snow on the sea-coast in "David Copperfield." The Cincinnati Gazette says: "The style reminds one strongly of the vivid prologue of Sue's 'Wandering Jew.'" The Pittsburg Chronicle says: "It is a wonderful picture, and the story with such a fascinating opening, can not fail of becoming one of the great novels of the year." Scribner will begin in January another AMERICAN SERIAL STORY, by an AMERICAN AUTHOR, an Historical Romance: PHILIP NOLAN'S FRIENDS, By EDWARD EVERETT HALE. The scene of this story is laid in Louisiana and Texas, at a time when that territory was first Spanish, then French, and then American, and when war was imminent, to obtain control of the mouth of the Mississippi. It is likely to be the great Romance of the Mississippi valley, as GABRIEL CONROY will be of the Pacific slope. SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY is now recognized, both in this country and in England, as the great representative American Magazine. Encouraged by the favor accorded to it by a generous public, we shall during the Centennial year, to eclipse its former achievements in both Literary and Art departments. SCRIBNER is sold by all First-Class BOOKSELLERS and News-dealers, at $3 a year, or 35 cents a number. SCRIBNER & CO., 745 Broadway, N. Y.
