LAST EDITION.

WEST AND NORTHWEST.

Crookedness, Crime and Commercial Notes--The New Bishop--Charley Ross, and a Budget of Other News.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.--The report is confirmed that the Grand Jury of the United States Court at St. Louis has indicted Daniel W. Munn, late Superintendent of Internal Revenue for this district, on a charge of complicity with the whisky frauds, and that D. T. Linegar, of Cairo, Ill., Mr. Munn's former law partner, is also indicted. Mr. Munn solemnly states that this is the result of a base conspiracy on the part of the St. Louis whisky ring, of whose crooked ways he was the first to apprise the authorities at Washington, and that he is very confident of his ability to establish his entire innocence. The indictment was placed on file at Springfield today, and a copy sent to this city, and Mr. Munn will be arrested immediately. Rev. Geo. A. Cushman, D. D., President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, authorizes the announcement that the 8th of December has been officially designated by the presiding Bishop for the consecration of Rev. Dr. McLaughlin as Bishop of Illinois. The place will be the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul. The consecrator will be the Bishop of Michigan, the preacher the Bishop of Wisconsin, the presenters the Bishops of Minnesota and Nebraska, present and assisting the Bishops of Ohio, Indiana and Western Michigan. The Jake froze up as far as eyes can reach last night, and still remains closed save in the track of vessels. Accidents to vessels are reported from every direction, with some loss of life. The gales and freezing weather have proved very disastrous. The Pamlico, recently returned from Europe, is full of water. The schooners Sweetheart, Mary E. Perew, Francis Pains and Grenada are ashore at Sabeogyan. The Perew will probably be a total loss. The crew of the Perew were nearly perished when they were rescued by the citizens. The deck was under water and the ice thirty feet above the deck. The Chicago elevators are stored with 1,363,045 bushels wheat, 448,082 bushels corn, 374,759 bushels oats, 139,884 bushels rye and 314,907 bushels barley--total of 2,665,257 bushels, against 2,547,010 bushels one week ago, and 1,822,376 bushels at this period last year. The Milwaukee warehouses 1,030,100 bushels wheat, 9,049 bushels corn, 30,196 bushels oats, 3,741 bushels rye, and 151,481 bushels barley. Senator Logan is expected to leave for Washington last night, but is seriously ill with acute rheumatism and unable to see any visitors at his rooms in the Palmer House. The attack is not necessarily dangerous, but considerable anxiety is felt in regard to his condition.

DETROIT, MICH., Dec. 1.--At Greenfield, Mich., this morning, John Leecher hung himself in a hay-loft, temporary insanity is alleged as the cause.

QUINCY, ILL., Dec. 1.--The cold weather of the past few days has virtually closed navigation on the Mississippi river at and below Quincy. Several steamers have gone into winter quarters here, and others are fighting their way to St. Louis over ice and sand bars. The river is within a few inches of the low water mark, which makes navigation more difficult and boats are reported fast on the bars below here.

DES MOINES, IA., Dec. 1.--Several weeks ago a family, who gave the name of Clark, from Oneida county, N. Y., came here, having a boy five or six years old. Their strange manners excited the suspicion of the neighbors and caused an investigation by the police yesterday. They were arrested and the boy taken from them. He answers fully the description of Charley Ross. He is handsome, with dark brown eyes, light curly hair, and gives strange answers to questions, as if controlled by fear.

Mr. Ross, at Philadelphia was placed in direct communication with the boys at the Western Union Telegraph office yesterday. The man and woman will be guarded to prevent their escape, and the boy placed in other hands to await further developments.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Dec. 1.--A certificate of organization of the Burlington, Monmouth & Illinois River Railroad Company, was filed with the Secretary of State this morning. It is to be a narrow gauge road, and will run from East Burlington via Monmouth to Elvira, etc., in McLean county. The capital stock is $1,000,000.

New York.

The Weather--Church Troubles--Warlike Preparations.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.--The weather this morning continues intensely cold, though the keen, bitter wind of yesterday has somewhat abated. The ground is frozen hard, and thick ice was formed last night. In this city the thermometer at 8 o'clock this morning in the open air marked 12 deg. above zero. All vessels arriving present an Arctic appearance, being covered with thick coatings of ice. The members of Hanson Place Baptist Church, Brooklyn, held another meeting last night. The session was very stormy and lasted until after midnight, when it was decided by a small majority to request the resignation of Rev. Justin D. Fulton, pastor. The members of the church and the pastor have been in a controversy for a long time. The work of fitting out cruisers and generally strengthening the navy is actively but quietly progressing at the Brooklyn Navy-yard. The Ordnance Bureau is busily engaged preparing the armaments of the frigates ordered and ordered, which are being fitted out for sea service. All necessary stores for a three-years' cruise are ready to be put upon the triple-turreted monitor Roanoke of six guns is in the hands of workmen, making ready to go into commission. The slop-of-war Hartford will be ready to receive her crew in ten days. She will be fitted with torpedoes and apparatus. Other vessels now laying up are to be brought to the Brooklyn yard and placed in fighting condition. Every department of the navy is reported busy preparing the navy for active operations.

Washington.

The Indian Commissioner--The Message--Cattle Thieving.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.--The appointment of Commissioner of Indian Affairs has been, or will be, tendered, it is understood, to Ex-Representative William H. Upson, of Ohio, who was a member of the Forty-second Congress. For several days past, the Executive Clerks have been kept busy copying from a rough draft that portion of the President's message that has so far been written, and will probably be finished in time to be read at the Cabinet meeting to-day. The most important features of the message have not yet been written, and will not probably be ready to present to the Cabinet until Friday, and may, perhaps, be kept over to be considered at a special meeting on Monday morning next. The message will embrace the very latest phase of our Spanish relations, and in the accompanying documents will be found the correspondence between the two governments on the question which has given rise to important naval preparations on the part of the United States. The Navy Department has sent additional reinforcements to serve on board steam launches now doing patrol duty on the Rio Grande. The Government has received information through official sources that Mexican cattle thieves on the Rio Grande have contracted to deliver 15,000 head of cattle at Monterey. These cattle can only be secured by stealing. The Mexican Government has been notified of this, and is seemingly earnest in her endeavors to stop this sort of thing. Cattle thieves are also smugglers, and our Government has issued strict orders for the utmost vigilance in looking after them.

DEATH OF OUR MINISTER TO CHINA.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.--News has been received of the death of Hon. Benj. P. Avery, American Minister to China, who was appointed about two years ago to succeed Minister Lowe.

The Moody and Sankey Meetings.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.--The Moody and Sankey meetings for the past two mornings have been slimly attended, on account of the building, which is very large, being too cold.

Mr. Moody this morning changed the time for the meetings of prayer from 8 o'clock in the morning till 12, it being evident to him that in a day or two, he would have no audience at all, so great has been the falling off.

Fires.

MASON CITY, ILL., Dec. 1.--The Sherman House of this city burned yesterday.

OTTAWA, ILL., Dec. 1.--King & Brown's pump factory and two dwelling houses adjoining were destroyed by fire.

OSBERLIN, O., Dec. 1.--Two grocery stores and a book store, on North College street, burned yesterday. Loss $7,000.

LOWELL, MASS., Dec. 1.--A fire yesterday destroyed the Picher building of the Tremont and Suffolk Corporation. Loss $50,000.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Dec. 1.--A fire broke out here about 3 o'clock this morning in the brick block owned by Lewis Tabor. The lower and part of the upper floors were occupied by Robert Withers as a saloon and dwelling. The block and adjoining residence of Mr. Tabor was also destroyed. A man named Frank Smith, in the employ of Withers, was suffocated and his body nearly consumed. He was seen to come down stairs, but was unable to reach the door and no assistance could be rendered him. Loss, $7,000; insured for about $5,000.

BOSTON, Dec. 1.--The extensive hay sheds and wharf of Jacob Hittinger, at Charlestown, were destroyed by fire last night, with their contents--200 tons of hay. Hittinger's loss is twelve hundred dollars. Scott & Bridges, owners of the hay, lose four thousand dollars, mostly covered by insurance. The schooner Iris, lying at the wharf, was damaged to the amount of four thousand dollars, the fire preventing her from being towed away. The brig Mattie Eaton was also slightly damaged.

WHEELING, W. VA., Dec. 1.--Yesterday morning the Washington Hall building, in which the Legislature was in session, was discovered to be on fire in the third story. The flames spread rapidly and the Legislature was compelled to adjourn. The State records and papers were safely removed. The fire department was very tardy, and several citizens went into the building and fought the flames manfully. J. C. Oliver, an old Philadelphia fireman, was the first to enter the burning building, and was soon followed by two others, John Reed and John Moreland. They remained in the third story until the floor fell, carrying them with it to the room below, whence they were extracted horribly burned. Oliver died at 2 P. M. Reed and Moreland may recover. Loss on the building $45,000; insured for $17,000. Oliver's remains will be sent to Philadelphia to-day. The Senate will meet in the McClure House temporarily.

Avery's Crooked Trouble.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 1.--In the Avery case yesterday Wm. J. Bassett was sworn: I was Gauger at Tincher's; I did crooked gauging by the advice of Joyce and Everest. They told me whatever was done at Tincher's was all right, and they paid money in illicit whisky. There was about sixty barrels run. I was at Janet's; they ran crooked; I kept no account of the crooked; sometimes there were twenty-three barrels a week; got my money from Janet; I got two dollars a barrel for myself. I talked with Everest, and he said I would have to do as others did if I wanted to keep my place. Everest told me Avery and Babcock were in the ring. We got information of the raids occasionally. I was in the office about a year. Everest said he took money to Joyce.

J. T. Donohue was recalled, and identified the dispatch dated December 5, 1874, to Joyce from Babcock. The following is the dispatch: WASHINGTON, Dec. 5, 1874. General John McDonald, St. Louis: Can not hear that any one is gone or is going. [Signed] BABCOCK. Judge Krum asked to submit a few questions in regard to the remaining counts, as the first counts are already before the jury. He read the third count and commented at length upon it, averring that his client should not be held under it. Gen. Henderson replied at some length to the argument of Judge Krum. The Court instructed the jury that a verdict would not be called for on the first, second and fourth counts of the indictment. He also stated that the third count would be the only one upon which he would charge the jury to decide the case. Judge Krum opened for the defense, and in a pointed manner explained to the jury what the defense expected to prove, and asserting that Avery had no connection with the ring, but that fact they must determine from the evidence. He said he would read letters from Joyce to Avery to show that Joyce did frequently sign his letters.

Mr. Douglas took the stand. He said there was one man in the Department, and not Avery, whom he had suspected, and who was changed from one room to another in consequence. I found out afterward, however, that I had done him great injustice, and would therefore prefer not to mention his name. Cross-examined--I changed the clerk referred to within two years of May last. It was on account of a suspicion that he was unfaithful. I did not suspect Avery. Things would come out that I wanted kept secret. Joyce and McDonald were familiar with the rules and regulations. The Court then adjourned until 10 o'clock to-day.

General Dyer last night received the following: WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 30.--To Hon. D. P. Dyer, United States District Attorney, St. Louis: I am absolutely innocent, and every telegram which I sent will appear perfectly innocent the moment I can be heard. I demand a hearing before the Court, where I can testify. O. E. BABCOCK.

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Dec. 1.--Captain Walcott, of the steamer Sunnyside, from Albany, reports his vessel cut into by the ice, at 2 o'clock this morning. He ran ashore, but she broke in two, slipped into deep water and sunk. He reports eleven persons drowned, six of whom were waiters and chambermaids on the boat, the remainder passengers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 1.--A fire broke out about one o'clock this morning in the round-house of the Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western railroad, on the west side of the river. There were eight engines in the house at the time, and all were badly burned before the fire-engines arrived. Loss on engines is estimated at from forty to fifty thousand dollars, and on the building from fifteen to twenty thousand dollars.

The Great Street-Car Builder.

The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal says: John Stephenson is the great street car builder of the city. He makes cars for the world. No nation can compete with or undersell him. While I was talking with him he was making a contract for cars for Bombay. Twelve cars were ready for Liverpool. Others were on the wagon for London. Another lot for Australia, Norway, Austria, St. Petersburg, and also America, and over our boundless continent. Liverpool cars are double-deckers, but Americans won't ride in them.

All English cars have the windows fastened down, and they can't be sold unless they are. These cars the English can not make, though they have had the pattern for a number of years. Nor can they wonder if nations make a rubber car spring. All are made here. Mr. Stephenson ships no cars. He delivers all his work in New York. Each nation, company, or man who trades for a car pays for it in New York. No contract is taken unless the contractor has a banker in New York who will pay for the car when it is done. Mr. S. builds nice cars a week. He can take an order and have a car ready to ship in four days. Each car costs $1,000, gold.

Two old crows which perch on a tree in Dudley Mass., every afternoon, and crow until hundreds of others are collected--are called Moody and Sankey.
