JOHN M. REINBERGER has commenced proceedings against Henry Meyer to recover $20,000 damages by reason of Meyer's having testified before a magistrate that his reputation for truth and veracity was bad, and that he would not believe him under oath.

The many friends of Dr. Lord will be pleased to learn that he will deliver another lecture at College Hall to-morrow afternoon. Subject: "Abelard and Heloise." At the First Presbyterian Church, Walnut Hills, to-morrow night, he lectures on "Alexander Hamilton."

Mrs. ELIZABETH FORMOHR was found dead in her bed, at a late hour Saturday night, at her home, 144 1/2 West Street. The coroner was called out to examine the body, but no one was necessary to hold an inquest, as he decided that her death resulted from a sudden and severe attack of asthma.

The alarm of fire from Box 95, about 6 o'clock last evening, was caused by the explosion of a coal-oil lamp in the third story of 408 Elm street, occupied by E. D. Koufsky and family. The flames were extinguished before the arrival of the engine, and luckily no one was injured.

An alarm of fire from box 83, at 9 o'clock Saturday night, called the attention of a small cottage at the junction of the Lebanon and Montgomery roads. Coal oil explosion. No damage. At midnight a shed on Ramsey street near Front caught fire, but was extinguished without the aid of the engines.

A SUIT has been commenced against the city by the L. C. & L. Railroad Company to recover the rent of certain premises which the company claims the city holds of them as tenants, the market-space east of the Plum-street depot being one of the pieces described in the petition. The amount claimed is $10,875.

The passenger train which left the Little Miami depot at 7:15 A. M., Sunday, was assailed by a shower of bowlers when near West Jefferson, O., and the windows in the two coaches were broken, and the conductor, Charles Holman, cut in the right temple. The train was stopped and no one was captured. The same train was fired into with a pistol last week.

We are pleased to state that Captain George W. Brady has been restored to duty, and is assigned to the Oliver-street Station, relieving Captain Ed. Hudson, who will take Brady's old place at Ninth-street Station. Lieutenant Brady, of the Twenty-first Ward Station, restored to duty, and Lieutenant Williams, of the Walnut Hills Station, have exchanged places.

SUITS were brought yesterday against Charles E. Cist by Peter W. Buer and Edward De Stryker, the former for $3,849 and the latter for $1,000. The suits are both upon notes upon which the interest has alone been paid. Attachments were asked upon the ground that Cist has absconded with a view to defraud creditors. Mr. Buer also alleges that the indebtedness was fraudulently incurred.

The oral examination of the District Schools in music, this week, will take place as follows: Monday afternoon, Twelfth District; Tuesday morning, Fifteenth District; Tuesday afternoon, Twenty-sixth District; Wednesday morning, Eighth District; Wednesday afternoon, Ninth District; Thursday morning, Second District; Friday morning, Sixth District. The public are invited to attend the examinations.

THE RAW, blustering winds of winter, search out the weakness of all who are predisposed to Lung Complaints, and in consequence, Colds, Coughs, and Bronchial Disorders everywhere prevail. Those who have contracted Colds should be especially careful, and not imprudently wait until by constant coughing, they so irritate and rack their Lungs as to bring on themselves a very serious Pulmonary Affection. Let them rather treat their symptoms rationally, and at once, and by the prompt use of Dr. Brown's Expectant Cure for Colds, and all accompanying Soreness of the Throat.

GEORGE BROWN, a white knight of the razor, made "a clean shave," last week. He shaved his employer, Charley Fahr, who keeps a barber-shop near the old Brighton House, out of several of his best razors and $20 in money. Also Superintendent Jim Morgan, of the Work-house, who owed Fahr a balance of $22.00 on a horse trade, was approached by the smooth talker, Brown, who presented to Major Jim what purported to be an order for the payment of said sum. The draft was honored, soon after which Brown jumped the town, in the direction of Toledo. Should he return he'll board with Morgan a spell.

Silver Wedding. Mr. Dunholter and his amiable wife celebrated their silver wedding at their residence, 240 West Sixth street, Saturday evening. Seven of their children, with their families, were present, and the occasion will long be remembered by the participants. Mrs. Dunholter was presented with a full set of silverware, cutlery, and other beautiful and appropriate articles.

How on Court Street. Henry Hafer keeps a grocery and saloon on the south side of Court, between Mound and John. Saturday evening a woman named McHugh, living close by, visited the store to make some purchases. An angry dispute arose between the saloonist and Mrs. McHugh as to the report circulated by a neighbor woman relative to a small fire which occurred in Hafer's store not long since. The row ceased temporarily when Hafer threw a glass of beer in the woman's face and thrust her into the street.

She yelled for her son George to come. A crowd by this time had gathered, and soon after George made his appearance upon the scene. Several bricks were thrown, but it is generally supposed they came from George's hand. One of them crashed through the window and struck a boy named Henry Friedhoff, Hafer's clerk, in the face, cutting it badly, blacking his eye, making an ugly wound in his forehead, laying bare the skull. He was senseless for a time. Dr. Schneider dressed his wounds, and there are good prospects of his recovery.

Amusements. Miss Fannie Palmer, a young lady quite prominent both in literary and social life, makes her debut to-night at the Grand Opera-house, in "Edith; or, Stricken Blind." Miss Fannie Morant has had the lady in training for some time past, and speaks very confidently of her success. Miss Palmer appears for two nights only, being followed upon Wednesday evening by the Kellogg English Opera Troupe, who open in "The Tall-man." The "School for Scandal" on Wednesday matinee, with Miss De Forest as "Lady Teazle."

Frank Frayne, with dog, horse and gun, open at Wood's to-night in "81 Slocum." Mr. Frayne is probably the finest marksman in the country, and nightly astonishes his audience by shooting an apple off his wife's head, and other remarkable feats, all of which are performed with an old-fashioned Kentucky rifle. He remains during the week, to be followed next week by Joseph Proctor as "Nick of the Woods."

Alice Placide at the National to-night, supported by a strong stock company and a long list of variety stars.

Court Callings. Conrad F. Miller made an assignment on Saturday, for the benefit of creditors, to C. F. Hornberger.

A motion for a new trial in the case of G. F. Plantholt vs. J. H. Bueuing was overruled.

The case of Joseph A. Hemann vs. Rother and Anna Maria Linn was held under advisement by Judge Cox.

Geo. Vogel vs. Geo. Pflirman, suit on a building contract; verdict for defendant.

Peter W. Buer vs. Charles E. Cist, Daniel Weber and Daniel B. Sargent. A petition was filed in this case alleging that the plaintiff is holder of a note made by Chas. E. Cist for $5,000 on September, 1871, payable in six months.

The petition was accompanied by an affidavit for attachment, stating that Cist had absconded with intent to defraud creditors; also, that he fraudulently contracted the debt and incurred the obligation on which the suit was brought.

The Egner case still in progress. The Indianapolis, Cincinnati & Lafayette Railroad Company vs. The City of Cincinnati. The plaintiff in a petition filed Saturday, seeks to recover $15,875 for rent of property held by the city of the plaintiff, the principal lot specified being the old market space on Pearl street, between Elm and Plum, in front of the railroad depot.

F. M. Reinberger has brought suit against Henry Meyer for defamation of character. He claims $20,000 damages.

New Mexico's Cattle King. [From the Denver News.] A letter from Santa Fe, tells about a "cattle king" of New Mexico: to the southeast of Santa Fe, near Fort Stanton, is the famous Chisum cattle rancho, containing about 1,600 sections of land, on which Mr. Chisum has at this time 80,000 head of cattle. He claims that he can fill an order for 40,000 heaves, sent him by telegraph from New York, on ten days' notice. By this it may be, in the "cow king" of Mexico, to use a provincial phrase. He employs in all about 100 "cow boys" and "cow punchers"—and in other words he employs mounted men to picket the rancho day and night, winter and summer, to see that the cattle do not stray off the pasture selected by him for his own use.

And like a sentinel walking his beat, the cattle guards ride up and down the lines and are relieved with due regularity. In the fall about this time, they have the "cattle drives," which means taking these vast herds from the distant ranges to market. They find a shipping point now at Wichita, or Great Bend, in Kansas, or at Grand and Animas, in Colorado. And whenever it is known at which point the important "drives" will strike there is where the vintures are found. The cattle men are rough, generous, and often intemperate, and the gamblers and prostitutes of the entire land look forward to fall trade with great anticipation. Very often the officers of the law are set at defiance, the cattle men and licentious women run the town, and the entire proceeds of ten thousand heaves squandered in a single night.

A Sea-Serpent in Conflict with a Whale. [From the Liverpool Courier.] The Zanzibar correspondent of the Western Morning News, writing under date of October 30, says: "The bark built here arrived at Zanzibar, with cargo for Her Majesty's ships, off Cape St. Roque, South America, when was presented that made the crew aguish—noting less than a great sea-serpent engaged in a conflict with a whale. It had wound itself twice round the whale, and was twirling it with tremendous velocity, lashing the water into foam. The noise could be distinctly heard on board, and after bat-ling for some time they both disappeared. "The serpent's length can be imagined. It had two coils around a full-sized sperm whale, with thirty feet clear at each end. Its diameter was from three to four feet. They saw it twice afterward. Once it came very close to the vessel, and raised itself about sixty feet out of the water, as if about to attack them. I have questioned men and officers, trying to find out any discrepancy between their statements, but am a convert to the belief that it was seen." Another naval officer writes to the Western Morning News to precisely the same effect; and the officers of Her Majesty's ships on the station are said to be convinced of the truth of the story.

"I say, Pat, what are you about? Sweeping, out the room?" "No," answered Pat; "I am sweeping out the dirt; and leaving the room."

Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cents.—Every case of Croup can be cured when first taken by DR. TOBIAS'S VENETIAN LINIMENT. Warranted for 25 years, and never a bottle returned to the same effect; and the officers of Her Majesty's ships on the station are said to be convinced of the truth of the story.

DRAWING TABLETS. FORBRIGER'S DRAWING TABLETS, PREPARED BY ARTHUR FORBRIGER, Supt of Drawing in the Public Schools of Cincinnati, O.

Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4 Nos. 5, 6 and 7 Have been prepared to meet the requirements of Primary or District Schools. Are intended for use in Grammar or Intermediate Schools.

PRICE: No. 1 Tablet.....15 cents. No. 2 Tablet.....20 cents. No. 3 Tablet.....25 cents. No. 4 Tablet.....30 cents. No. 5 Tablet.....35 cents. No. 6 Tablet.....40 cents. No. 7 Tablet.....45 cents. Manuals, No. 1, 10c; 2, 3 and 4, 75c each.

The design, arrangement and construction of these Tablets, is directly at variance with that of any other plan ever presented, and below will be found some of the reasons which led to their publication, and practical hints in reference to their use:

1. THE CHARM OF NOVELTY maintained. The different sheets of the Tablet being fastened together, the pupil is unable to see the lesson in advance, and he does not become tired of seeing the designs which are constantly presented to the eye, often far in advance of the lesson upon which he is immediately engaged. Thus the charm of novelty is maintained, and with it increased interest in the study.

2. ABUNDANCE OF MATERIAL. Each Tablet contains sufficient material for a year's work, and a greater number of exercises and more paper than can be found in any of the Drawing Books now published.

3. THE SOLID SURFACE, which is retained to the very last sheet, removes the elasticity of spring, which is so objectionable; it being the immediate cause of bad lines in the Drawing Books now generally in use. Irregularities in the surface of the desks do not affect its use in the least. The compactness and solidity prevent the leaves from being ruffled and soiled, while their size does not cause the same inconvenience to the pupils, especially when seated in double desks, which is experienced when using drawing books.

4. CONVENIENCE IN EXAMINING. The sheets being separated from the Tablets, after the completed exercises, should be preserved, and each lesson of the class kept together, either on the shelf or in the envelopes prepared for that purpose, correspondingly numbered on the outside. It will be found much less tedious to examine from FORTY to FIFTY sheets of one lesson, than to handle from FORTY to FIFTY books, and search for that particular lesson in each.

TESTIMONIALS. CINCINNATI, May 26th, 1875. "FORBRIGER'S DRAWING TABLETS" were introduced into one of our primary grades at the beginning of the present school year. They have proved so successful that Principals and Teachers unanimously favor this introduction into the remaining grades of our school. I believe that the Tablet system is destined to supersede the Book system in the schools of our country. JOHN B. PEASLEE, Superintendent of Public Schools.

CHILLICOTHE, O., May 16th, 1875. ARTHUR FORBRIGER, Esq.: Dear Sir—I have had the pleasure of examining your system of Drawing, and can commend it as systematic, well suited to graded schools, and especially that it commends itself as a self-teaching system. We shall most probably introduce the system into our schools the coming year. Yours very truly, G. A. CARPENTERS, Supt.

CINCINNATI, April 30th, 1875. PROF. FORBRIGER: Dear Sir—I have observed, with care, your system of Drawing Blocks, since their introduction into this school, and I am convinced that the plan is an excellent one. The lessons are so graded as to lead, by easy steps, to the acquisition of that skill in the formation of lines, and the construction of figures, so essential to correct drawing. The form of the Tablet, each lesson being abolutely new, while it stimulates the curiosity of the pupil, yet prevents that familiarity with the drawings which breeds indifference. I sincerely hope their success may be commensurate with their merits. Yours, PETER H. CLARK, of Gaines High and Intern. Schools.

RIVERSIDE, Ohio, April 16th, 1875. MR. ARTHUR FORBRIGER: Dear Sir—Your Drawing Tablet, No. 1, is the best thing of the kind I have ever seen or used. I intend to introduce the succeeding numbers, as I need them. This system must prove a success, as it is the only one that can be used by any teacher, regardless of his lack of ability in drawing. Another important advantage is, that several grades may be instructed at once. This side given to the pupil keeps him from becoming discouraged, yet leaves him abundant chance to make use of his own powers. My scholars are always eager to know what their next lesson will be, as they can not find out until the present one is finished. The Teacher's Manual, with each number, is very suggestive, and supplies a great need in this direction. In fine, your Drawing Tablets bear evidence of your being a practical and enthusiastic educator in Art, while too many systems are got up merely to sell, and are successful only because they are as good as any other system. That is now ended, for your Drawing Tablets are very much superior to all others. With best wishes, yours truly, FRANCIS E. WILSON, Riverside School.
