LOUISIANA.

From the New York Herald Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.-The Herald's special from New Orleans says the general impression is gaining ground that the Republicans wish to delay action until the result in Florida is conclusively ascertained.

The success in Florida, or even in South Carolina, it is likely the Returning Board will decide in accordance with the already published returns.

Otherwise Hayes and Packard will certainly be returned. The reply of the Democrats to the letter of the Republicans is looked for with much interest.

The Democratic visitors regard the letter of refusal to their request for representatives at the sessions of the Returning Board as calculated to inspire the public mind of the North with the conviction of intended unfairness and partiality.

It is evident that the Returning Board intends to count the vote with closed doors.

The refusal of Northern Republicans to confer with the Democrats is in keeping with the policy of the Returning Board, and is very unfavorably commented on.

After referring to the course of Hon. Stanley Matthews, and a telegram from Hon. R. J. Ingersoll, he continues:

The rejoinder of the Northern Democratic Committee to the reply of the Republican Committee refusing a conference asked by the former body, is now being prepared by a Committee consisting of Judge Trumbull, Governor Curtin, Judge Sialo and Oswald Ottendorfer.

It will set forth that the Democratic Committee is here in obedience to the requests of a great party, to meet a similar Republican Committee by request of President Grant, and that it desires a fair and honest count of the vote, and it quotes the language of President Grant on the subject. It will declare that the act of the Returning Board and of the officials elected by the State Legislature have not been recognized as legal by the Republican United States Senate, and have been rejected by Congressional investigating committees.

It will instance the federal interference in the election, as shown by the presence of the army and navy, and will emphatically deny the Republican proposition that the President of the Senate counts the Electoral vote of the States, holding that the Constitution that his duty is merely to open the votes in the presence of the Senate and the House of Representatives, who then proceed to count the votes through the instrumentality of tellers appointed for the purpose, in accordance with the law and all precedents.

Governor Kellogg was called upon today by the Northern Republican Committee, and in the evening entertained them at his rooms in the St. Charles Hotel. General Sherman also called upon it, and the visit was returned at his headquarters in the afternoon.

Major Hancock, who was in command of the United States troops in West Feliciana, one of the alleged bull-dozed parishes, on election day, is here, and states that there was no intimidation or violence that would in any way change the result of the election. The usual vote of the parish is about 1,800. This time it was about 2,000, with a Democratic majority of 465. The trouble was that the negroes voted the Democratic ticket in large numbers. D. A. Webber, the Republican Supervisor of the Election in the parish, denies point-blank that there was any intimidation, and has refused to comply with Kellogg's request to protest its vote, and has handed in a clear and honest return of the ballot. The greatest act of violence committed in the parish occurred two days before the election, when Tom West, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, was shot in cold blood for heading a Democratic procession.

The Commercial correspondent, Dr. Redfield, telegraphs as follows:

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 16 6 P. M.-In a small back room, in this district, of the old St. Louis Hotel, the Louisiana Returning Board met, to-day, to arrange preliminaries for electing a President of the United States. All the members, Messrs. Wells, Anderson, Cassanary and Kerner, were present. The Democratic Committee, composed of Messrs. Palmer, Stallo and Trumbull, waited upon the Board, but without important result. The room was then cleared and the Board went into secret session. Mr. Wells was elected President, and Mr. Kerner, Secretary.

Envelopes laid before them was a sealed envelope addressed to Wells, coming through the city Post-office. Its contents was a threat of assassination if the vote was counted in favor of the Republicans, and signed "United Brotherhood of Louisiana."

The document reads: "We take upon ourselves the duty of reminding Louisiana our native State, from this hour, to pry up your prostrate, bleeding body. We have appealed to our Northern brethren in vain. We now propose to act and teach her robbers and desperadoes such a lesson as the world never saw. We will do our work and disappear before the hordes of the despot Grant can protect you."

A dozen clerks were appointed, stationary ordered and work laid out for the next meeting, which will be Saturday noon.

Mr. Wells insisted that all meetings be secret, but was overruled, and limited admissions will be allowed.

Wells and Anderson are plain looking planters, not less than sixty years of age. Wells was a Union man, Anderson a Confederate. Cassanary is an undertaker by trade, nearly white, and always free. Kerner is darker, was a slave, and is now a saloon-keeper.

The Board seems to have fair business training, but it is not overly intelligent. The Democrats are taking a large amount of testimony from the so-called black Democrats, to show that there is such an element here.

Leading men say that after the first meeting of Congress a committee will come here and make a searching investigation without reference to the Returning Board or their decision.

The Board will likely be at least two weeks in counting the Presidential vote. They will begin work in earnest Saturday. The disputed parishes will be taken up last.

Death of a Prominent Mason.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 17.-Dr. John Dove, aged eighty-four years, a native of this place, died this morning. He was for sixty-three years a Mason, during which he held high positions in that order. He was the oldest Grand Secretary in the world, holding the office fifty years, and was Grand Recorder of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar for thirty years.

From the Partisan Correspondents.

Mr. J. B. McCormick, the Enquirer's correspondent in New Orleans, telegraphs to his paper as follows:

Activity at the Navy Yard.

Considerable activity is observed at the Brooklyn Navy-yard and large quantities of ammunition have been placed on the vessels of war stationed there. The Marines have also been given special instructions, and together with the watchmen on duty have been provided with extra cartridges and revolvers.

The authorities are very reticent, but it is believed these movements have reference to possible disturbances in the South. Commander Nicholson had a two hours' conference Wednesday with the Captains of the frigates Minnesota and Colorado, but the nature of the consultation is kept secret.

Missionary Appropriations.

The Methodist Episcopal Missionary Committee, to-day, made the following appropriations:

Japan, $15,000; Arizona, $2,000; continental fund, $25,000; incidental expenses, $25,000; office expenses, $14,000; and disseminating missionary information $25,000.

LATEST LOCAL.

The Police were paid to-day.

FREDERICKA SCHULTZ escaped last Wednesday night from the Lunatic Asylum, and has not yet been captured.

A MAN named Frederick Soebeta, while walking along Fourth street, between Walnut and Main, about 5 o'clock Thursday evening, lost his money, amounting to $500, and consisting of $50 notes, two $5, and the rest in $20 notes.

MAGGIE ANN SCHAEFFER, from Omaha, who claims to have been outraged by expressmen, left town to-day, there being nothing in the case, excepting her own statement. The expressmen implicated were of course honorably discharged.

JOHN BATTLE and Timothy Donnelly, two expressmen, were locked up in Hammond-street Station by Officers Knox and Brazell. There is another expressman to be arrested. It is alleged by a man named Thomas King that the above party charged him $9 for conveying him from the Little Miami Depot to the U. S. & D. Depot, on West Fifth street.

THE contested election case of Kiehn-birth against Bernard was continued yesterday afternoon. City Clerk Richard Bohner refused to produce in Court one of the ballot-boxes committed to his keeping, and as order for his arrest for contempt was made and served. Bohner was let go on his own recognizance. City Clerk Richard Bohner was taken before Judge Matson on a habeas corpus, and the case continued until Monday. He gave bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance.

LOCAL PERSONALS.

JOHN KING JR., Vice President of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, is at the Grand Hotel.

MR. HENRY BEVIS has been appointed Superintendent of the Camp Washington engine-house.

GEN. THOMAS T. ECKERT, President of the Atlantic & Pacific Telegraph Company, is in the city.

The Rev. C. L. FINDER, formerly of this city, has accepted the Rectorship of the Church of the Epiphany at Urbana.

SQUIRE JOHN ANTHONY, the handsome dispenser of justice, on Ninth street, will celebrate his forty-eighth birthday to-morrow.

DR. C. A. HONTHUMB, editor of the Freie Presse, is the author of the new comedy entitled "Exploir," which the German Theater company will perform at Robinson's Opera-house to-night.

THOMAS MEARA, the late efficient Lieutenant of the Police Department, has embarked in his former business. It is pleasing to perceive such an industrious inclination. Mr. Meara will undoubtedly succeed in his business as produce dealer.

MESSRS. EASMAN, Vanduyke, Cappeller, Kumer, Tezzer and Turrell, of the Twenty-fifth Ward, all in a squad, paraded along the railroad track this morning, each armed with his chosen weapon-shoot-guns, canes, dinner-satchels and pent-up wind. Their convocation was innocuous, and from a square distant sounded as follows: Buckaroo-Damn-Kellogg-Louisiana-Old Sam-Grant-You Go-Fair Count-Sure-You Bet, &c. &c.

Davenport Club.

The performance of "School" by the Davenports at Robinson's Opera-house, last evening, was the most enjoyable entertainment they have given this season.

The piece was cast as follows: "Lionel Beaulieu" Mr. Pape; "Jack Purvis" Mr. Sherwood; "Dr. Sutcliffe" Mr. Harms; "Sean Parin-tosh" Mr. Callahan; "Kru" Mr. Harvey; "Vaughn" Mr. Sears; "Mrs. Sutcliffe" Mrs. Hodgson; "Halla" Mrs. Sherwood; "Naomi Light" Miss Donnelly; "Laura" Miss Armstrong; "Miss Bowman" Miss Gendron; "Miss Dean" "Nettie" Miss Gendron; Grooms, School Girls, etc.

The play went off with very few hitches, and proved immensely amusing. Mr. Sherwood was exactly at home as the nonchalant "Poyntz." We have never seen him do better. Pape's "Beaulieu" was easy and graceful. Mr. Callahan's rendition of a shattered old man was very amusing. He had the regular Southern skip and walk. Harvey's "Kru" was a capital piece of character acting-a disagreeable role being done in a faithful manner.

Mr. Harms was good at first, but towards the last seemed to hardly know his lines.

The girls were each and all admirable, displaying the naive and archness of school girls in a way that was extraordinarily funny. The audience was large and extremely enthusiastic. In consequence of the opera troupe coming in next week, the Club will give no performance until the 30th, when "The Merchant of Venice" is to be performed with Mr. J. E. Sherwood as "Shylock."

Cameron, refusing to obey order of the Board of Health, continued to Nov. 23; Jas. H. Fawcett, rape, dismissed; Anthony W. Westerman, embezzlement, dismissed; Philip McGuire, robbery, struck from docket; Wm. Tannessy, larceny, dismissed.

Drunk and Disorderly-Peter Bossler, continued to November 29; Michael Fay, Wm. Corbett and Wm. Cruse, $3, execution suspended; Wm. Ratcliff, Michael Finn and Dennis Qualey, $10; Margaret Campbell, dismissed.

Assault and Battery-S. McVay, continued to November 18; Henry Wegman and Barney Wegman, continued to November 23; Thomas Gowgrove, $9-$500; Francis Sweeney and Jane McGuire, continued to November 15.

Pett. Lorenzy-Wm. Quinn, $9-$100.

Commissioner's Court.

Thomas O'Meara, who is charged with having in October voted in the Eighth and Eighteenth Wards, waived an examination and was bound over to the Grand Jury. His bond was fixed at $1,000. He was not committed to jail, as it was thought that he would take the bail.

Frank Mulville will be tried this evening on the charge of having passed a counterfeit $10 note on a druggist named Helman.

The following marriage licenses were issued since our last report:

George Stacey and Kate Clara. B. F. Johnson and Lizzie Sargent. Carl Albrecht and Anna Haegeley. Charles Schermer and Sophia Smith. Peter Weltman and Louisa Weber. F. M. Zumstein and Isabella Botker. J. H. Doughman and Mary J. Groves. Leopold Schaefer and Rosa Weil.

Mortality.

Clara Pohl, 3 years, city. Samuel Jenkins, 24 years, America. Lizzie Patt, 24 years, city. L. Bachmann, 33 years, Germany.

There is a lady in San Francisco-Mrs. Frank G. Edwards-who enjoys the proud distinction of being the first woman in this country to shoot at and hit a target at the distance of one thousand yards. She acquires the Greenmount posture, which most ladies would consider slightly inconvenient. The California Rifle Association has voted her a gold medal. She shut her eyes and screamed very loud.

Rev. W. H. H. Murray is writing a "piece" entitled "The Story of a Man who Didn't Know Much." It is not known whether it is an autobiography or merely refers to a man who made an election bet on two wrong sides.

Third Edition

THE SITUATION TO-DAY

As Seen From All Possible Standpoints.

News and Conclusions that Make Good Reading.

But Don't Help One to a Knowledge of the Result.

What the New York Journals Say.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.-The Herald, on the Presidential contest, says the problem is not yet solved, and it is probable we shall not get decisive official news from any of the disputed States for a week or ten days.

The World still feels warranted from its advice to believe in Tilden's success, and is assured that he has a majority of votes cast in all three of the disputed States.

The Times contents itself with a general discussion of the situation, but makes no assertion in reference to the claims of either candidate.

The Tribune also refrains from making any allusion to the probable success of either Hayes or Tilden in its summary of the political situation.

The Tribune says the Governor of California denies that he has said he will not certify to the election returns of that State.

The Situation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.-At the political headquarters things are notably quiet. The scene is very different from that of a few days since. Public interest in the present political crisis can scarcely be measured, however, by outward appearances. There is no great public excitement, no surging crowds at headquarters, no bustling mobs gathered at the newspaper bulletin boards, but there exists a powerful under-current of interest in the political problem now being solved by the nation. The officials at Democratic headquarters are besieged with inquiries, personal, telegraphic and postal, from all parts of the country for news as to the election. They stated that they had no news of any kind. The situation remains practically unchanged. That they had no doubt of Gov. Tilden's election, but when the result of the official count in the South would be, was impossible to tell.

Gov. Tilden is sanguine of the election being declared in his favor. He daily receives a large number of visitors, and is seemingly the most unconcerned person of them all.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.-The Government is without official information concerning the action of the Canvassing Boards in either South Carolina, Florida or Louisiana. Private dispatches received here to-day from all three States, from both Democratic and Republican sources, still claim the States for their respective parties. Very little attention is paid to such dispatches, all parties here preferring to wait for final action of the Returning Boards.

FLORIDA.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.-The Secretary of the National Republican Committee received the following telegram this morning:

"TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 17. To Hon. Richard C. McCormick, Washington, D. C.:

"All right here. How is it elsewhere? [Signed] "F. W. OSBOURNE."

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 17.-Attorney General Wm. A. Coker, of Florida, has sent the following dispatch to the Gazette of this city:

"TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 16.

"The returns of the County Managers of the election are not yet in. The Board of State Canvassers, of which I am one, does not meet until thirty-five days after the election, but you can rest assured that Tilden has carried the State and that Drew, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is also elected. I do not think the Radicals can cheat the Democrats out of the election."
