

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

R. E. J. MILLS, Manager. Six Nights and Saturday Matinee. The accomplished and Popular Irish Comedian, MR. JOS. MURPHY.

WOOD'S THEATER.

"There's Millions in It." Every Evening during the week, MR. JOHN T. RAYMOND, in his great role of COL. MULLBERRY SELLERS.

PIKES' OPERA HOUSE.

TUESDAY. First Concert of the Series. CINCINNATI GRAND ORCHESTRA.

MARITANA.

THE OPERA OF MARITANA. Will be given by THE ARION OPERATIC SOCIETY. Wednesday Evening, December 20.

Robinson's Opera-house.

With the following cast: Miss Clara Dean as... Maritana. Mrs. Flora Mueller... Lazarillo.

MARRIED.

BRENT-SMITH-On Wednesday evening, November 29, 1876 (Thanksgiving eve), by Elder William F. Stratton, at his residence, No. 224 Highland street, Mr. John S. Brent and Miss Olive B. Smith, all of Cincinnati, O.

DIED.

COWDEN-Eddie Cowden, only son of Rev. T. S. and Emma Cowden, died Sunday, December 3, at 8 o'clock A. M.

WANTED--SITUATIONS.

WANTED-A SITUATION-To do general house work in the country. Good references given. Address ELLEN MOORE, this office.

LOST.

LOST-SLUE-On the night of November 18, a brand new suit of light-colored cloth, with white necktie and white shirt, and white ring around the neck; answers to the name of "Shorty." Return the same to Mrs. Michael Henney's, corner Front and Mill streets, and receive reward of $5.

WANTED--MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED-MONEY SAVED-By buying boots and shoes from T. B. DUBIAN, 347 Central avenue, near Richmond street. Ladies' custom made saddle-face gaiter boots and kid boots $1.00, men's calf and kip boots $1.00, and best rubbers 50c. det-90M, W&F

WANTED-BUY YOUR HATS OF MARTIN, at 42 W. Fifth st.

LEGAL.

W. M. F. THORNE, JOSEPH THORNE, Henry Collins and Wm. H. Thorne, partners, and trading under the firm and style of Wm. F. Thorne & Co., plaintiffs, vs. Abraham Malzer, Reuben Malzer, N. Malzer, Johnathan Rice and Rice, Slix & Co., defendants. Court of Common Pleas case No. 49, 01, -state of Ohio, Hamilton County, SS.-The defendants will take notice that on the 21st day of June, 1876, the plaintiffs in the above entitled action filed their petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Hamilton County, praying for judgment against the said defendants, Abraham Malzer, Reuben Malzer and N. Malzer, on their certain promissory note in the sum of three hundred and seventy-six and twenty-five hundredths ($376.25) dollars, with interest from March 4, 1875, and an order of attachment was issued by the Clerk of said Court and levy made on the property of said defendants; and unless they answer on or before the 7th day of January, 1877, judgment will be taken against them. CHARLES W. BAKER, det-61M Attorney for plaintiffs.

STEAMBOATS.

For Pomeroy. THIS DAY, 4th, at 5 P. M., POSITIVELY, OHIO No. 4, Pres. Ludwick, Master. Freight received at all hours on Wharf-boat, foot of Broadway. W. Monahan, Superintendent.

For Huntington. THIS DAY, 4th, at 5 P. M., POSITIVELY, The C. & O. R. R. packet FLEETWOOD, L. T. Campbell, Master. Freight received at all hours on Wharf-boat, foot of Broadway. W. Monahan, Superintendent.

For Chilo. DAILY, at 4 P. M., CITY OF PORTSMOUTH, S. Morgan, Master. Freight received at all hours on Wharf-boat, foot of Walnut street.

For Vevay. MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY, at 5 P. M., BANNOCK CITY, J. W. Kirby, Master. Apply on board, or at Kennell's, corner Main and Water streets.

For Louisville. THIS DAY, 4th, at 5 P. M., POSITIVELY, the U. S. Mail Line Steamer, GENERAL LYTLE, G. Dufour, Master. Freight received at all hours on Wharf-boat, foot of Vine street. K. M. Wade, Superintendent.

For Memphis. WEDNESDAY, 6th, at 5 P. M., POSITIVELY, JAS. D. PARKER, W. G. Fitchner, Master. Apply on board, or to Hays & Mosset, Agents, on N. O. wharf-boat.

For New Orleans. TUESDAY, 5th, at 5 P. M., POSITIVELY, CHARLES MORGAN, A. Stebbins, Master. Apply on board, or to Geo. Charter, Hays & Mosset, Agents.

PREFERRED SPECIALS.

CLOTHES WRINGERS. And stop ladders for sale and repaired. F. TETENBORN, 210 W. Fifth st. Jas-14-W.S.K.M.

TARR'S AVENUE BAZAR. Side planting made to order; double footing running 65, 3rd Central avenue, opposite Ninth street.

FOR SALE. Families or groceries in want of good flour-warranted to give satisfaction-can be supplied by going to the WEST-END MILLS. Your orders are solicited. Delivery free. JAMES K. HURIN, Sixth street, between Baymiller and Freeman. det-3m

Third Edition

The next twenty-four hours, probably fair, with rising temperature.

NEWS AND SUCH.

What They Say and Think at the Centers of Interest.

Together With Much They Say and Don't Think.

ALL GIVEN TO BE WELL SHAKEN BEFORE TAKEN.

THE LATEST

Special Cabinet Meeting. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—There is a special session of the Cabinet now in progress, at which all the members are present except Secretary Robeson.

Mr. A. S. Hewitt had another interview with the President this morning.

From South Carolina. Official dispatches have been received from General Ruger, and also from Governor Chamberlain, and have been read at the Cabinet meeting.

The President's Message will probably not be sent until Thursday, as he wishes to hold over until after the Electoral Colleges have met.

House of Representatives. As usual, a large crowd was present at the opening of the House of Representatives, and the galleries were well filled with spectators.

Mr. Cox nominated S. J. Randall as Speaker, and McCrary, of Iowa, nominated James A. Garfield. The former was elected.

Randall had 161 votes; Garfield, 83; Williams, of Wisconsin, 1; G. F. Hoar, 1, and Morrison 1.

The Speaker was conducted to the chair by Messrs. Cox and McCrary. He made a speech in which he announced the severely on the course of the administration, and drew out applause from the Democrats.

The Senate met and was in session for nearly an hour. The only matter of importance was the admission of the Senators from Colorado.

Great Excitement in Columbia. COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 4.—Mackey, Speaker of the Republican House, at 12 o'clock notified the Democrats that an armed force of the State Constabulary would eject them.

That Hayes-Roberts Interview. The Herald Pretends to Give a Correct Version of the Meeting.

Hayes Wants Peace and Reconciliation, and Proposes to Take Lamar into His Cabinet.

National Associated Press to the Star. NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—A Herald special from Columbus, O., giving a long story about the interview between Governor Hayes and Colonel Roberts, pretends to give a correct and authentic version of the meeting and the expressed policy of Governor Hayes.

It says Hayes first endeavored to have an interview with Lamar, but the latter declined, fearing that an improper construction would be placed on the meeting.

Col. Roberts was then asked to go to see Hayes in order to communicate Hayes' ideas to Lamar. They had a private conference at Columbus, when Hayes said he wished Lamar, Hampton, and other Southern men like them to know and be assured that he believed himself fairly elected to the Presidency, that he means to be President, to be his own man, and to have his own policy; that no man who had been prominently concerned in Grant's administration or elsewhere should have any office or power under his administration.

He thought reform absolutely necessary, and impossible, except by giving the men and dropping the men now in power and place. He thought Hampton had acted a noble part in recent events in South Carolina, for which the country owed him thanks.

If (Hayes) became President he should wish to call Lamar into his Cabinet, and he would frame his Southern policy on the advice of Lamar and Hampton.

The complaint of the Southern people about carpet-bag government were just. He favored justice to the negro, and was convinced this would be got best by trusting honorable and influential Southern white men.

The special wound up with the assertion that Hayes said in his own words that he would be elected, and his election thus publicly assured, he would have a private conference with Lamar and Hampton with the object of harmonizing differences and for the good of their sections, believing that reconstruction was absolutely necessary for the good of the whole country.

The interview from Another Standpoint. NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—A dispatch to the National Associated Press last night in reference to the interview between Hayes and Roberts, and the reports of Hayes' withdrawal, says: "There is the best authority for saying that no proposition was presented or discussed of the character set forth in the telegram sent from here to Democratic journals, purporting to be a report of the interview.

No suggestion was made or considered on either side, or hinted at, that contemplated an abandonment of the Republican or Republican leaders in the South by Hayes in the event of his assuming the duties of President, nor was Hayes called upon to make or accept any concessions whatever. The only assurances given by Hayes were that he meant all that was implied in his letter of acceptance in relation to the South, and that he was only sensible of the fact that as yet the result of the Presidential election had not been definitely ascertained, and further that he was pleased with the growing feeling manifested on the part of leading men of the South to abide the result of the election, and to discourage all attempts at disorder.

Louisiana. National Associated Press to the Star. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 4.—The documentary evidence submitted by the Democrats was so voluminous that it will be impossible to examine it before Tuesday. The Republican visitors have all left for Washington, where their report will be completed.

General Sherman, in a conversation with the Hon. Geo. B. Smith, said that he did not regard it as possible for the Board to return Mr. Tilden as elected. The Democratic consultation rooms are closed. A. E. Burk, Chairman of the Democratic Registration and Election Committee, publishes to-day a statement giving the result of the recent election in this State, made from the official figures before the Returning Board. This statement agrees substantially with that of the Democratic Visiting Committee, which has been telegraphed.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 3.—Although the Board is about through with its labors, the work of taking sworn statements at the Custom-house still continues. The object is probably to show the North the diabolical means used to carry the five disputed parishes for Tilden and create public sentiment that will sustain the Returning Board, and show in the terrible array of the necessity of having such an institution. The Board is the only protection the R-publicans have against the Mississippi style of campaign at any time. But for this contrivance the minority would run over the majority with pistols and guns, just as they did in Ouachita Parish, and there would be no remedy.

[From New Orleans Special to Enquirer.] NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 3.—Several members of the Returning Board, with a number of clerks, have been locked in Antoine's room, in the rear of the Senate Chamber, nearly all day, and all approached to the room are strictly guarded by police. Last night the same force were at work at the same place until midnight, making compilations, not from the Commissioners' returns, as provided for by law, but from the supervisors' returns, which Hayes says will guide him in arriving at the final decision. It is plain now that he does not intend to give the evidence offered by Democrats the slightest consideration, and that the remark that he made yesterday when he said he didn't have time to go over it, but might employ some one to do it after the Legislature met, leaves no room to doubt that his conclusions have already been formed, and that he only wants to get figures enough from the statements to make a showing in justification of the outrage he contemplates perpetrating.

Florida. National Associated Press to the Star. NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—A special from Tallahassee says the official returns from Dade County have arrived, and show 9 votes for Hayes to 5 for Tilden, making a total majority for the Republican Electoral ticket in the whole State of 47. On the face of the returns one precinct in Dade County was thrown out by the County Commissioners for irregularities, but if given Hayes 5 majority. If the Board decides that it was improperly thrown out the Republican majority will be increased to 52. Col. Seifers, one of the Democratic counsel, has notified the Board that they would contest the election of F. C. Humphreys, one of the Republican Electors, on the ground that he was ineligible by reason of his being a shipping-master under the laws of the United States.

South Carolina. National Associated Press to the Star. COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 4.—Matters remain about as they were in the dual House. Both parties continued to occupy the Hall of Representatives yesterday.

Two of the most prominent Republican members (colored) from Beaufort, viz., Hampton and Myers joined the Wallace party and were sworn in. When Myers returned to his seat he was attacked by a colored member named Reed, to whom Myers rose to reply. Reed was recognized by Speaker Mackey and Myers by Speaker Wallace. Mackey ordered Myers to desist. Myers, not regarding Mackey as having an authority, continued speaking. Mackey then ordered the Sergeant-at-Arms to enforce his order, and at the same time Wallace ordered his Sergeant-at-Arms to do the same thing in regard to Reed. To both the officials appealed the members and a crowd of both parties surrounded them. The pressure was so great that Reed subsided. Myers proposed, Reed replying afterward, Speaker Wallace made a motion in the Supreme Court against Speaker Mackey to prohibit Mackey from counting the vote for Governor, and requiring him to deliver the returns to Wallace, who, he alleges, is the only true speaker of the House, also a motion for quo warranto on the Hayes Electors. Both cases are to be heard to-morrow.

NEWS FROM THE METROPOLIS

The Old Tweed Ring. National Associated Press to the Star. NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The Herald this morning, in a long article on the subject of the Tweed Ring, says most of the exiles are in constant communication with New York, and it is even asserted that some of them have secretly visited New York, transacting private, law or other business, and quietly depositing again. It is also said negotiations have been entered into between the representatives of Peter B. Sweeney and Richard B. Connolly and proper city officials to compromise matters. Sweeney and Connolly profess their willingness to surrender certain property and money on a guarantee that legal proceedings be dropped. Attempts are also being made to include Tweed in the arrangement, by which it is claimed the city will recover back more stolen money than it ever will recover under the present aspect of affairs.

Senator Sharon Will Not Resign. A Herald special from San Francisco denies that Senator Sharon intends resigning. He says if he was so inclined the present crisis has decided him to resign, and whether it would necessarily throw the election of President to the House of Representatives, and of Vice President to the Senate.

That Interview. NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—On the subject of the interview between Hewitt and the President the Evening Post publishes the following special: "WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The President stated that it was not his province to decide whether the elections in the States had been fair or not, but assuming Congress should decide to throw out the Electoral votes of Louisiana in consequence of frauds of returns, we discussed the effects of such action on the final result, and whether it would necessarily throw the election of President to the House of Representatives, and of Vice President to the Senate."

"ABRAM S. HEWITT."

FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

Mr. Randall for Speaker. National Associated Press to the Star. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Mr. Randall was nominated at the Democratic caucus Saturday night for the Speakership on the first ballot, receiving 73 votes against 63 for Cox. Saylor was nominated by Banning, but withdrew before a ballot was taken. Morrison was not placed in nomination at all, as he withdrew quietly before the caucus convened.

All for Compromise. The lobbies of the hotels are crowded with members gravely discussing the situation. On every hand one hears talk of compromise. Even the most ardent of partisans hope everything will be settled quietly, all recognizing the importance of something definite coming speedily to relieve the business interests of the country. There are many plans discussed among the leaders of both parties, and as a general thing the situation is more hopeful.

No Message to-day. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—The President will not read his message to Congress to-day. It will probably be sent in to-morrow.

Honors to Garfield. At a caucus of Republicans held this morning, Garfield, of Ohio, was nominated by acclamation for Speaker of the House, and the votes of the Republican members will be cast for him.

The Republican Caucus. The Republican caucus this morning was presided over by Judge McCrary, of Iowa.

No action beyond the nomination of Mr. Garfield was had, although the general situation was discussed for three-quarters of an hour. The attendance was not large.

FOREIGN.

National Associated Press to the Star. IN FRANCE. PARIS, Dec. 4.—The French Ministry have resigned in consequence of Dulaure's defeat in the Senate.

M. Simonin has been engaged by the Siecle to write articles on American topics.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 4.—Mr. Schuyler, of the American Legation at Constantinople, has returned from Bulgaria and reports the condition of the people as rapidly improving.

Twenty-five thousand troops have been massed upon the line of the Pruth.

STORMS ON THE ENGLISH COAST. LONDON, Dec. 4.—A terrible gale has prevailed throughout the British Isles since Saturday. Floods are reported in many places, and have caused much damage. There have been numerous disasters to shipping on the coast, with considerable loss of life. The waters of the Thames are very high, and a disastrous overflow is feared.

REVOLUTIONS IN BUENOS AYRES. LONDON, Dec. 4.—A violent revolution broke out in the city of Buenos Ayres, and simultaneous with this movement Enteries had revolted against the National Government.

LATEST LOCAL.

CHARLOTTE SCHUMACHER was appointed administratrix of GUSTAV SCHUMACHER. Personally, $300.

POLICE COURT Clerk John B. Bender received the following fines and costs during last month: City cases, $1,063 55; State cases, $615 50. Total, $1,679 05.

DAISY CLARK, an inmate of Lizzie Manly's ranch, on George street, was arrested this morning by Constable Sam. Bloom on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Harriet Cohen, of Fifth and Race streets, who accuses the devious Daisy of stealing a sealskin sack, of the value of $150. The case will be heard before Judge Schwab on the 8th inst.

Marriage Licenses. The following marriage licenses were issued since our last report: Jos. V. Cook and Margt. V. Walker. Jas. Fogarty and Alice G. Bailey. Jacob Metz and Mary Christman. Jacob Miller and Mary Valentine. J. L. Sampson and Nancy Olden. Henry Wilbers and Phoebe Pickens.

United States Court. The case of Robert Frey, charged with illegal voting, was called and some of the testimony taken.

The case of Frank Westjohn is set for to-morrow morning.

The case of Florence Lorenz, Joseph Mathews and John Watson were not called.

A number of witnesses were called up to testify in the case of Josepha Fuller, who pleaded guilty last week to the charge of illegal voting.

Funerary. Jacob Pfeiffer, 5 years, city. Conrad Leibold, 65 years, Germany. Carolina Falke, 25 years, city. John P. Felks, 3 days, city. Frank Readmond, 14 months, city. Philomena Abers, 4 months, city. Edgar H. Cowden, 20 years, Kentucky. Sarah M. Evans, 30 years, Ohio. Henry Seeler, 77 years, Germany. Rosa A. Gurth, 75 years, Germany. Mark Custer, 30 years, Germany. Infant Burko, still-born, city. Jacob Hummel, 46 years, Germany. Eldie Niehaus, 4 months, city.

Police Court. Miscellaneous—Thomas L. Smith, aiding a prisoner to escape, continued to December 9; John Jennings, exposing person, $25 and costs; Uriah Hartman, malicious destruction of property, dismissed; Pat. Mullany and Jas. Carey, murder, continued to December 9; Michael Quinn, malicious destruction of property, costs; B. H. Meyers, fast driving, costs; J. A. Gall, abusing family, 60-100.

Drunk and Disorderly—Chris. Ennis, $1; Mary Williams, costs; Edw. G. Spears, $1; George Bruns Riebler, $1; George Hatch, $4-100; Jas. Rodgers, 30 days; Thos. Morrow, $1; Albert Burley, $1; Edward Ansbury, $10; Michael Gallagher, 30-100; John McCarty, $5; Wm. Corbett, Michael Fay, Wm. Crussie and Mark Wilson, dismissed.

Assault and Battery—Robert Wilson, dismissed; Emma H. Wialon, dismissed; John Bailey and John Welsh, dismissed; Wm. Gansman, $20; J. C. Weissenann, dismissed.

Permit Larceny—Wm. McHugh, continued to December 7.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Business Transacted by the Board This Morning. The Board met in regular session, all members present, and President Bell in the chair.

A petition from Geo. W. Martin to allow him to grade Morgan street in front of his premises, at his own expense, was referred to the Committee on Grades and Improvements.

A communication from L. V. Lewis calling attention to the bad condition of Brown street, was referred to the Engineer and Superintendent of Street Repairs.

The following was adopted: "Resolved, That the City Solicitor be authorized to take such steps as may be necessary to collect all water rents due the city from Louis Fagan's Sons for water power used by them at Lock No. 6 of the Miami & Erie Canal."

A. Journeaud.

OUT ON THE LOOSE.

Three City Officials in the Role of Hunters. Every once in a while you can hear of city-bred youths and men going out to the country on a hunting excursion. The C. B. Y. don't know any more about the woodcraft than a hog does about the inside of a watch, but still it sounds big to say "I'm going to take a hunt next week," and the party—here's always two or three greeners together, you'd notice, load themselves down with bird-shot, powder and the necessary paraphernalia, and start.

Last Thanksgiving Day, Jack Noble, of the City Street Cleaning Department, with Frank Ratterman and John M. Rankin, of the Board of Public Works, took a trip to the wilds of Kentucky after game. Not one in the party ever shot a gun in their lives that they didn't turn a back somersault, but the spell was on them and it couldn't be controlled. Florence was reached in due time, and to provide against accidents their gamebags were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."

Thus equipped the old trappers trudged through fields, in hollows and over hills for two long hours seeking for a place to lay for 'em. They hadn't lain long before the awful truth dawned on them that the most of their ammunition—their gamebags—were filled with Geoffrey's cordial, and they broke for the woods. Ratterman, whose ideas of the nature and habits of the denizens of the fields and woods had not been improved by slinging a quill for several years in the old Board of Improvements, thought rabbits were the inhabitants of trees, so he took along a holly-sized pole and a right step-ladder. Jack knew better than this, but as he didn't want to hinder about such small game as that, it led a tobacco box full of salt for the capture of wild turkeys—and he was fixed, hinkie, in order to give his partners to understand that he'd been there before, "didn't say anything, but looked wise."