LATEST LOCAL.

FALSE alarm from Box 17, corner of Front and Pike, at 11:50 this morning. JOHNNY OSTENBARE's base-ball nine played the Police nine yesterday afternoon, and beat them by a score of 11 to 10.

THE effects, consisting of a safe of clothing, watch and chain and $27, left by J. U. Price, the Walnut-street House suicide, were forwarded to Chicago today by Coroner Stich.

MIKE HUNTZ, a laborer in the employ of Marmet & Co. at the foot of Central avenue, had the thumb of his left hand cut off by a shaft of the elevator at noon. He was taken to his home on upper Vine street.

THE Enquirer appears this morning with the addition of a column on each page, making it the largest daily paper in America. The enlarged size will be used on Sundays and at times when a supplement would otherwise be required.

DR. BARBOUR is announced to preach at Robinson's to-morrow. Subject: "The time of trouble, the return of the Jews; Dawn of the Millennium, and the three worlds, or Bible plan of redemption." Further particulars are given in advertisement.

THE six-months' old child of Titus Speiler, who lives at No. 731 Central avenue, died very suddenly at 7:45 this morning. The child has been ailing since last Tuesday with his teeth, and his death resulted, no doubt, from that cause. The Coroner has been notified, and will hold an inquest this afternoon.

MARY SEGAL, Wm. Hill and Mike Floyd were arrested last evening by Officers Knox and Brazel, and locked up at Hammond-street Station, on charge of having stolen a basket full of numbers from one of the boats on the river. The case in the Police Court this morning was continued to next Wednesday.

The Horticultural Association met today in their rooms in the Grand Opera-house, Vice-President Mayor R. A. Moore in the chair. After reading the minutes of the previous meeting a very interesting paper was read, from Gottlieb Meyer of Walnut Hills, regarding his process of protecting the grapes by means of a paper or muslin bag to cover the grapes. The grapes should be covered when the size of a buckshot, and a grower need not fear mildew or rot; and it also hastens the ripening of the fruit, and prevents them from being eaten by birds and insects. All grape growers should take notice and try the experiment.

MARGARET SPERLOCK, a colored woman, weighing about three hundred pounds and wearing a blue dress, came into Jonathan Williams' saloon on the levee yesterday evening and desired to light her pipe. As she stooped down at the stove Jonathan took hold of a bucket of water and spread the contents over Margaret's bulky body. The latter did not resist the idea of being drenched, and took hold of an iron skillet and a couple of stove pipes and broke them over Jonathan's head. Margaret was arrested, and this morning Judge Wilson, taking into consideration that the provocation had been great, dismissed her on payment of costs.

The Dill Tragedy.

The bodies of the Dills, mother and daughter, present a curious phenomenon to-day. The arms and busts have turned red.

This discoloration has taken place since they have been at Habig's. A number of physicians have examined the bodies, and none of them can account for it. Said one of them to a STAR reporter to-day: "It is very curious. I can offer no explanation of it as all I have seen, altogether new to me. I have never, during my practice, noticed anything like it. The discoloration looks to me very much like an eruption of scariatica, but that it should manifest itself after death, is what seems so curious. It is a common thing for discoloration to take place just previous to dissolution, but not afterwards."

The bodies had not been removed up to 2 o'clock this afternoon, nor had Mr. F. J. Brickley been to look after their burial. Mr. Habig will not keep them longer than to-morrow afternoon.

Hon. Wm. E. Davis' Successor. Mr. A. M. Stem has been appointed by President Hayes Assistant U. S. Treasurer at Cincinnati, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. Wm. E. Davis.

Mr. Stem has been in business for a number of years in this city, and is at present Treasurer of the Greenwood Stone Company. He is an old acquaintance of the President, having been raised with him near Fremont, Ohio. He resides at No. 363 West Seventh street.

Board of Public Works. The Board met in regular session, all the members present and President Bell in the chair.

The Clerk was directed to advertise for sealed proposals to improve Peete alley, from Peete street to Vine.

The Engineer was directed to prepare ordinances to establish the grades of North avenue, from Van Hart street to Jonte avenue, and Margaret street, from Catherine street to Jonte avenue.

Mr. Louis Bultenberg came in a proposition to furnish music of the first-class order for concerts in Burnt Woods Park during the coming season for $100 for each concert, the number of musicians to be not less than thirty-five, with Michael Brand as conductor.

The Committee recommended the acceptance of the proposition, and the recommendation was adopted.

THE OVERAKER DEFAUCATION.

The Amount So Far is $5,426. The County Commissioners, together with Ex-Sheriff Springmeier and Chas. W. Baker, Prosecuting Attorney of the County, were this morning still engaged in the examination of the books of the sheriff's office, and up to the present writing, it had been ascertained that Overaker's account with Wallace is $4,530 short. Ziegler's account to Springmeier, his successor, is short $495; but the account with Hart to Ziegler is square to a dollar.

Mr. Wallace informed a STAR reporter this morning that Springmeier has paid $3,000 of back dues to him (Wallace) on account and that the balance will be paid over some time this afternoon. It is due to Mr. Springmeier to say that he is acting the part of an honorable man in this business, and is doing all he can to make things square.

Adding the amount which Overaker owes in the two accounts with Springmeier and Ziegler it will be seen that the total amount of his delinquency amounts to $5,426. This covers the business as far as the costs and fee accounts are concerned.

POLICE RELIEF ASSOCIATION. Business Transacted To-day. The Board of Directors of the Police Relief Association met in regular session at the City Building this morning, with all the members present.

The Committee on Constitution and By-laws reported, and the report was adopted. The Secretary made an estimate of the expenses for the ensuing year, and reported that the funds on hand amounted to $234 50.

The Board then elected W. J. Richards, of the Bremen-street Station, as Vice President.

The following Committees were elected: Relief Committee—Lieutenant F. W. Meyer, Tass, Sweeney and W. H. Devine. Reporting Committee—H. M. Miller, John Schneider and W. J. Richards.

A claim from James McFarland, patron at O'live-street, for relief on account of sickness, was received and referred.

A communication directed to the Board of Police Commissioners from Jacob Patten, an ex-member of the force, asking permission for the police to sell tickets for a picnic benefit, and referred by said Board to this Association, was received.

BURGULARS BAGGED.

A Bad Crowd of Youthful Thieves. For a number of years the Little Miami Railroad has been suffering severely from the raids by gangs of thieves and burglars, who have robbed the cars in the neighborhood of the depot of large amounts of freight.

A few days ago Officers Kline, Shedy and Streeter, and private watchman Harmon, captured one of these gangs. Their names are Frank Kamp, Charles Schrei, and William and Jackson Tyndall.

The two former seem to have been the boldest of the gang and the most successful in getting away with the goods. They generally operated in the night-time, by taking off the doors of the cars in a skillful manner, take out what articles they desired, and then reclose the doors in such a way that the railroad officials would have no suspicion that they had been tampered with.

The men went on with their game once too often, for a few days ago, a caddy of tobacco, a bolt of valuable cloth, and boxes of cigars were found in their possession. They had also stolen a case of oysters. A lot of other articles were found hidden in various places around the depot yard, all of which had been placed there by these young thieves.

Kamp and Schrei and the Tyndalls were arraigned in the Police Court on a charge of burglary.

The former two waived an examination, and were bound over to the Grand Jury in the sum of $1,000 each. The Tyndalls were dismissed, but required to sign a bond to appear against Kamp and Schrei.

The officers are of the opinion that they have broken up the worst gang of thieves that has been interesting their depot and yards.

Alleged Highway Robbery.

Philip Kuhn from Reading, and Chas. Taulman from Lockland, both canalboatmen, were locked up yesterday evening in Bremen-street Station by Officers Edl G., Woeber and Hennekes on suspicion of highway robbery.

About eight days ago a resident of Lockland was knocked down and robbed of a gold watch and chain and $50 in money. Kuhn and Taulman are supposed to be the criminals. Last evening the mother of the latter sent some washing to him, and when the officers opened the bundle they found the following letter, which shows that Taulman is considered a bad character even in the estimation of his mother:

"Charley, for your sake and my sake, why do you stay around Cincinnati and around the boats? You lay yourself liable to be arrested any hour. Do you know that it is a penitentiary offense, that you have done? How often I have told you you would never get short of the Penitentiary if you did not let liquor alone. If you were the only one that had to suffer—but oh, my God, how your poor old mother suffers, so disgraced. I am a going to St. Louis, if I live, for I don't want to stay here. Why don't you try and go up to Toledo? Likely there is more work there than here. Don't stay here. YOUR MOTHER."

In the warrant their names are given as Henry Beale and Fred Kline. Strassburg carried on a saloon at the above place, and his accomplices did the work of making the spurious coin, half dollars, in the second story.

On searching the premises the officers found a lot of dies, quicksilver, counterfeiters' tools, and a large quantity of forged coin.

Deputy Marshal Jeffries, Detective McGovern and Col. Snelbaker proceeded about the same time, armed with a warrant, to the corner of Main and Twelfth streets, and arrested an old man named Fred Stump and his wife.
