

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The wind blows bitter all night long, and coldly blows at morning.

OUR water pipes are sobering up from their late "big bust."

THERE is a horse and wagon awaiting an owner at the Third-street Police Station.

NOW is the time to take care of your Uster, lest you would sacrifice it to the hail thief.

THE Southern Railroad Bridge over the Ohio will probably be tested on Thursday next.

THERE were one hundred and forty-three lodgers at the different station-houses last night.

THE "big burst" seems to have come to an end. Only a few more breaks in the mains, all old ones, were reported last night.

MRS. FLORENCE L. GOULD, wife of Mr. A. T. Gould, night manager at the Western Union Telegraph office, died suddenly last night.

HUCKSTERS and farmers will be obliged to stop their wagons on Mound street, instead of forming a long procession to the westward on Court street.

JOHN JENKINS will serve thirty days at the Work-house for stealing a towel and two bath chains, all valued at $4.

SPECIAL trains on the L., C. & L. Railroad will be run to accommodate all who desire to attend Senator Morton's funeral, or to see the remains while lying in state.

OFFICER T. A. DUFFY, of the First District Police Station, took a horse and wagon to Macra's stable, on Plum street near Ninth, last night, where they await an owner.

A COLORED clergyman, Rev. Wm. F. Floyd, has been secured to take charge of the colored Protestant Episcopal Mission on Walnut Hills. He will officiate to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in Odd-fellows' Hall, corner of Gilbert avenue and Curtis street.

In addition to the regular programme which has been rendered at the National Theater this week a new attraction is offered for to-night. This is the glove contest between Jim Taylor and Billy Carroll. Matinee this afternoon and last performance this evening.

JAS. FALKEN raised a disturbance in a street-car yesterday at Fulton. On being ordered to leave the car he knocked the conductor against a window, breaking it into fragments, and then went out and hurled a boulder against the door. For this offense he will pay $10 and costs.

A SINGULAR accident occurred at Moerlich's brewery last evening. The workmen were engaged in pitching one of the casks when, from some cause, the pitch took fire, and the vessel suddenly exploded with a terrific noise. No one was hurt but in the excitement a fire alarm was turned on from box 93.

JAMES SMITH was before the Police Court this morning on a charge of assault with intent to kill. While playing billiards at Lew. Hyams' place, in the National Theater building, he quarreled with the latter about the price of a glass of beer, and it ended by Smith throwing the beer-glass against Hyams' head, which caused an ugly scalp wound. His case was continued until next Saturday.

THE Cumminsville police received a telegram yesterday morning describing a thief who had stolen a suit of clothes, a watch and chain, and $12 in money. The police were on the watch, and Henry Meyers was arrested on suspicion of the Steady-yards, while on the train. The watch and chain and a part of the money were found on his person, and when brought before Chief Wood he confessed that he was the thief.

DAY before yesterday two boys, Leonard Sherer and Jacob Huster, were arrested on suspicion of selling some clothes at a second-hand clothing store, of which they could give no satisfactory account. The clothes were identified and three charges of petit larceny were made against them. This morning they pleaded guilty to all three charges, and received a sentence of $200 and thirty days apiece in each case, in all $600 and ninety days for each. This will keep them at the "Work" about two years and a half.

The following action was taken by the Board of the Western Tract Society, at its meeting November 1, in reference to their late fellow member, Levi Coffin:

"Resolved, That while we mourn his absence, we acknowledge with gratitude the divine care over him for so many years, and the grace given to enable him while he lived to accomplish so much in the cause of righteousness, truth, and humanity.

"Resolved, That we tender our sincere sympathy to his bereaved widow and family in their affliction, and pray that he who has promised to 'relieve the fatherless and widow' may comfort them with the consolations of His spirit, and supply all their need, according to the riches of His grace in Jesus Christ."

Henry VIII. Last evening C. W. Cole, Esq., delivered the second lecture of the St. Paul M. E. Church free lecture course. His subject was "Henry VIII." Beginning with the war of the roses, he traced the history and condition of England down to the close of Henry's reign, discussing the character and actions of the king and the progress of the reformation during that time in a manner which showed an extensive knowledge of the subject and a careful preparation. The object of these lectures is to instruct as well as to please—a being fully attained. About one hundred of the lovers of learning listened to the lecture last evening and spoke highly of it. The third lecture will be delivered two weeks from last night by John Boise, Esq. Subject, "Rowland and the Parfaits."

Cincinnati Choral Society. The Cincinnati Choral Society gave a fine entertainment, the first of this season, at Pike's Opera-house last night. Ferdinand Hiller's cantata, "The Song of Victory," was rendered for the first time in Cincinnati. The solo passages of the cantata were sung by Miss Weizsaecker. Miss Johnson rendered very acceptably the solo assigned to Mrs. Clark, who was absent on account of sickness. The singing of the "Inflammation" from "Stabat Mater" by Miss Florence Morrison was another evidence of her high talent. The chorus sang several shorter selections. A duet, which was warmly applauded, was sung by Miss Jones and Mr. Helmeccamp. The large audience and the interest which was evinced leaves no doubt of the high esteem which this society has already secured.

The Chlo. A delighted audience, which filled the hall to overflowing, witnessed the third entertainment of the Chlo Dramatic Club at Thoms' Hall last evening.

The plays produced were "All Alone" and "Freedom of the Press," and were rendered in the usual excellent style of this club, which is now recognized as one of our leading amateur dramatic organizations. The cast of "All Alone" was as follows:

Col. Challice (Alone)..... Mr. S. G. Best
Stratton Strawn (Fortieth Cousin)..... Mr. H. A. Antram
Bertie Cameron (Capt. of the 10th)..... Mr. H. C. Clabby
Dr. Micklewhite (Emily) (Physician)..... Mr. E. M. Roberts
Maud Trevor (Lost and Found)..... Mrs. Best
Mrs. Thornton (A Day of Sunshine)..... Mrs. Thornton
Miss Marsh (Maid)..... Miss Marsh
Miss Watson..... Miss Watson

We consider worthy of special mention the acting of Messrs. Best, Antram and Roberts, and Miss Marsh's "Mrs. Thornton" was worthy the imitation of a professional.

The farce was rendered with the usual vivacity of the club, and kept the audience in a continuous roar of laughter.

Board of Councilmen. The Board met in regular session yesterday afternoon.

The notice of claim for damages suffered on account of trestle of Southern Railroad Bridge in crossing Richmond street and McLean avenue, and passing over four lots of land belonging to C. Heibel—claim, $15,000. Filed.

Mr. Clark presented a resolution forbidding the locating of any wharbois at the Public Landing in the future without permission from the proper municipal authorities. Adopted.

Mr. Von Seggern presented a resolution asking that the advertising of city ordinances and resolutions in German papers be discontinued. Referred to the Law Committee and the Auditor.

An ordinance to authorize the South Covington & Cincinnati Street Railway Company to run cars between the Suspension Bridge and Fifth street. Passed.

The city printing matter, disposed of by the Board, will be found in another column.

THE DEAD SENATOR. Cincinnati's Tribute to His Memory. A meeting of citizens was held last evening at the Gibson House and the following resolutions adopted:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this committee that we recommend to the people of Cincinnati, as a proper method of paying respect to the memory of the great War Governor and Senator, O. P. Morton, of Indiana, deceased—

"First—That we suggest to the Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Trade, that they appoint committees to express their sentiments on this sorrowful occasion, and appoint members of their respective bodies to represent them at the funeral at Indianapolis on Monday next.

"Second—That we recommend to the city authorities as a method of paying respect to the memory of the deceased Senator to toll the bells of the Fire Department and draw the building of the city in mourning; and that his Honor the Mayor be requested to carry into effect this resolution by convening the Common Council to take such action at the premises as they may see proper.

"Third—That we recommend to our citizens generally that so far as possible they attend the funeral of the illustrious dead on Monday next, and that the committee appointed this evening have full power to carry out all arrangements, and report through the papers the proceedings of this meeting and such further recommendations hereafter as they may see proper to suggest."

In accordance with the second paragraph of these resolutions, his Honor Mayor Moore has called a meeting of the Common Council for 3 o'clock this afternoon, to take action on the Senator's death.

All citizens desiring to attend the funeral at Indianapolis will attend a meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Gibson House.

CITY ADVERTISING. Municipal Maneuvering of the City Ring. At the meeting of Council yesterday afternoon, the following communication from City Auditor St. Hoffman was sent in:

"CITY AUDITOR'S OFFICE, CINCINNATI, NOV. 1, 1877. To the Honorable the Board of Common Council:

"GENTLEMEN—I have to represent that the Cincinnati Enquirer has contracted for city advertising under the resolution passed by your honorable body, owing to the great delay in its passage.

"Respectfully yours, S. W. HOFFMAN, City Auditor."

The Enquirer found that it could do better in dropping the contract, the delay giving it $1 per square.

A resolution was immediately adopted, after receipt of the above, to authorize the City Auditor to contract with the Enquirer to do the additional advertising at his bid.

This resolution has already passed the Aldermanic Board, and now Hoffman may consider himself authorized to award the contract.

Mr. Abbin offered a resolution to authorize the Auditor to contract with the Free Press at its bid of 134 cents. This was adopted and goes to the Board of Aldermen.

The effect of the resolutions will be that the responsibility will be shifted upon Auditor Hoffman, who will undoubtedly be very careful that his paper shall have the advertising at $1 per square as long as possible.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY. Experience of a Pike-street Resident with Two Burglars. A few minutes before 9 o'clock last evening Mr. Charles D. Irwin, who lives at No. 34 Pike street, just above Pearl, came down from the second story of the house to the rear of the ground floor for some water. He had a coal-oil lamp in one hand, and while passing through the dining room to the kitchen, noticed a shadow peering through a window on the south side of the house. Mr. Irwin picked up a poker, set down his lamp, quickly opened the door and passed out into the private entry towards the spot where he had seen the face. He found that there were two men there, evidently with the intention of burglarizing the house.

No sooner had Mr. Irwin got outside than a flash was seen and the report of a pistol heard, the ball whizzing by his head.

At the same time Mr. Irwin was knocked down by the fall of one of the intruders. He lay stunned on the bricks. Members of the family, neighbors and policemen, hearing the shot, at once hurried to the spot and took Mr. Irwin into his house, where, after the administration of proper restoratives, he soon revived.

No clue could be obtained as to the whereabouts of the would-be assassins.

FALL FROM A FOURTH STORY. A Wonderful Escape from Death. This morning about half past 9 o'clock, while two painters were at work in the fourth story of the new building, erected on the site of the old "Buckeye Dining Rooms," next to Wood's Theater, one of them, named Al. Runion, lost his balance and fell out of the window.

In his fall he struck a skylight over the ground floor. This was composed of four glass panes, and was held together by galvanized iron ribs, two inches in thickness.

Runion broke two of these lights, one of the ribs, and going through them struck a ladder standing beneath, and landed upon the floor.

He lay there for a few seconds, bleeding somewhat, but then, strange to say, picked himself up and walked to his boarding-place.

He was in the employ of Evans & Dickson, No. 62 East Sixth street.

Railroad Accident. At an early hour this morning a freight train, bound to this city, jumped the track near the switch at the upper end of Glendale, on the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railroad. The track was torn up for a considerable distance, and eight of the cars loaded with lumber and iron completely wrecked. No one was injured. The Cleveland train, a passenger train and another freight train were delayed for about an hour by the accident, and passengers to this city had to be transferred to special cars telegraphed for. The road will be open again this afternoon. The accident was caused by a broken beam dropping on the track from one of the cars.

THE UNION DEPOT. Report of the Board of Transportation Committee. The President of the Board of Transportation has received from the Committee, consisting of Messrs. Simpkinson, Kinsey, Gordon, Mitchell and Laws, a report from which we extract the following:

"Your committee upon whom the work devolves of obtaining information as to the best location for depots to accommodate the railway traffic of this city, beg to report that they have been cordially met by the managers of railways centering here, from whom they learn that good progress has already been made in acquiring property for depot purposes, in the location which seems most natural and convenient for the present and prospective business of Cincinnati. Sketches are herewith submitted, showing the location referred to, to which it will be seen, fronts on Central avenue, between Second and Pearl street, one hundred and forty-four feet, and extends westward to Park street, giving ample room for the Union Depot for the head of the city, convenient for all our railways and remarkably accessible to business. This property is controlled by railway companies whose lines already terminate here, and who propose to join with other companies in the creation of a commodious and convenient Union Depot, wherein all may acquire rights upon the basis of original cost, either by joining in the ownership or paying as rental a fair interest upon the cost. To make this plan perfectly feasible, John street, from Second to Pearl, should be vacated. No doubt the city will do this upon the petition of owners of adjacent property, who will not be backward in a request which must redound so much to their advantage and so largely benefit Cincinnati. A railroad company which owns a large tract of land immediately west of the location described, now partially occupied by lines running into Plum-street Depot, proposes, in case the Union Depot project is successful, to permit the use of their grounds by such other lines as join in this movement upon the basis of the original cost of the property, and such cost may be paid in the purchase of a proportionate interest or by a moderate rental. The advantages of a depot readily accessible from the business portion of the city are too evident to need any argument, and if suggestions in this direction are needed they may be found in the location of the two depots almost at the extreme ends of the city, which have already cost our citizens in extra hauling, extra travel, etc., a sum nearly or quite equal to the original cost of the two excellent lines they were erected to accommodate. And it is certainly time to give official expression to the memory of a few means to economize this expense."

Stylish Fall Overcoats for $7, $8 and $10, at Mabley's Mammoth Clothing House.

Everlasting Perfume. Murray & Lannan's Florida Water has often been styled the "Everlasting Perfume." It is indeed true that its delightful and refreshing fragrance lingers for many days around whatever it touches—unlike the ordinary perfume, that leave no trace of their momentary existence, save the sickly, heavy odor of rancid oils. Buyers should always ask for the Florida Water prepared by Lannan & Kemp, New York.
