AT MEMPHIS. MEMPHIS, July 19.—A. M.—Trains continue to go out crowded, and business of all kinds is at a standstill. The people who stayed and hoped are almost distracted by the news of the spread of the disease around the Hester neighborhood. This is the first indication that the disease was spreading. One case reported at Martin, Tenn., where the fever raged last year, Fred. Eckers, the barber, died last evening, which makes a total of 7 deaths to date. Three new cases were reported yesterday afternoon, making five new cases for the day.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—The infected brig Shasta has been anchored at a safe distance from shore and out of the way of passing vessels. The vessel will be cleaned and fumigated in the usual manner. Her cargo will be removed in lighters, so that the scouring may be exceedingly thorough. The latest report from the Lazaretto state that the patients are all improving rapidly, and showing signs of improvement. It is said the United States Consular Agent at Port au Paix, who gave the Shasta a clear bill of health on the 20th of June, when the disease was raging there, is to be made a subject of Government investigation.

NO NEW CASES AT NEW YORK. NEW YORK, July 19.—Superintendent Coville of the Quarantine Hospital, reported yesterday that no new cases of yellow fever had been admitted to the hospital since Wednesday, nor had any deaths occurred. Brick Eckman, who was admitted to the hospital Monday last from Havana, was still alive, but it was thought he could not live many hours longer.

TIDINGS AT WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, July 19.—Dr. Turner, Secretary of the Board of Health, at 9:15 o'clock last night received a telegram from Dr. Mitchell, member of the Board residing at Memphis, stating that Memphis is dangerously infected with yellow fever. This information is regarded by the Board as indicating the existence of yellow fever in epidemic form. The number of cases in Memphis last year was seven thousand six hundred, and the number of deaths five thousand one hundred and fifty. Dispatches received from New Orleans regard that city healthy.

QUARANTINE NOT RAISED. NEW ORLEANS, July 19.—News was received yesterday by telegraph that Galveston had quarantined against New Orleans, to take effect July 21st, giving as its reason that New Orleans has raised the quarantine against Memphis.

THE QUARANTINE IS NOT RAISED, but the President of the Board of Health here is vested with discretionary powers as to its enforcement.

Dr. Choppen has telegraphed the Galveston Board of Health that not a single case of fever existed in New Orleans.

THE TRIBUNE TO-DAY publishes a report that General Ewing, of Ohio, and Senator Barlow, of Connecticut, held a conference in this city Wednesday night to discuss a plan of alliance between the Ewing and Tilden branches of the party.

WOODFORD MINES. How They Disagree on the Tilden Kidnapping Story.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR. NEW YORK, July 19.—U. S. Attorney Woodford arrived from Europe last night, concerning John F. Mines' report of an interview with him published last month Woodford says: "I never had any communication with President Grant, Secretary Robeson, Senator Conkling or any member of the Cabinet as to what should be done in New York in case Tilden refused to abide by the decision of the Electoral Commission. I never received any instructions, advice or suggestions from them, or any of them, as to such a contingency; nor did I ever have any conversation with or communication of any kind with Secretary Robeson in regard to placing a gunboat in New York harbor."

Mines now proposes to publish a statement to show that his interview with Woodford faithfully portrayed the plans and intentions of the Grant Administration in relation to a revolutionary inauguration of Hayes, as detailed by Woodford to him.

THE FEVER FIEND.

Seven New Cases in Memphis To-day.

The People Stricken With Contagion.

Special to the Star. MEMPHIS, July 19.—Noon.—Seven new cases of yellow fever have been reported to the Board of Health up to this hour. The excitement is increasing to a panic heat, and everybody who can get away is fleeing precipitately from the city.

It is believed that there are three more cases that have not yet been reported. Some estimate the number of new cases to be as high as forty, but perhaps that is too high. The National Board of Health advise the people to leave the city at once, less the spread of the disease prove epidemic.

The Evening Herald to-day advises all who can to leave at once, as the municipal authorities and the Howard Association will not appeal for aid for those who may remain. Special trains are being sent out on railroads, all crowded. Country towns are quarantining against us, and the supply of provisions in the city is very small. Three of the police force have resigned.

TO-DAY AT NEW ORLEANS. NEW ORLEANS, July 19.—Noon.—All is quiet here and apparently healthy. The Sanitary Committee is hard at work cleaning the streets and alleys, and looking after premises that are not in good order. The news from Memphis is received with the greatest interest.

QUARANTINE AT GALVESTON. NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR. NEW ORLEANS, July 19.—The reports from Memphis create uneasiness here, but there is no general alarm. Quarantine has been established at Galveston, shutting out all mail, passengers and shipments from this port.

A communication from Wm. Holmes, contractor for street repairs in the Eighth District, was received and filed. It complained of the unnecessary number of cars run from the Suspension Bridge Fifth and Vine streets, and stated that it was almost impossible for him to keep the street in repair in case of such a thing. The communication stated that two roads were using the street unlawfully, and that he would hereafter demand from the city additional compensation for repairing the street between the tracks of the City and Suspension Bridge Company street cars, from Washington street to Third street, from Walnut street, north to Fifth, west to Hooply, north to Eighth and west to McLean street.

It was resolved that the Engineer be instructed to prepare the necessary plans to improve Eighth street from McLean avenue to the foot of the Suspension Bridge. Also Court from Broadway to Gilbert avenue.

Fighting the "Cops." Officer Neiter, of the Oliver-street District, undertook to arrest a young man named John Finerman last night on Central avenue, near Liberty. On the way to the Station-house a cousin of Finerman, named Jack Finerman, and David Crawford attempted to rescue the prisoner. The officer was sorely hurt, but with the assistance of several citizens succeeded in getting the prisoner locked up. In the Police Court this morning Jack Finerman and Crawford got three months each. John's case was continued until next Wednesday.

A Narrow Escape. Officers Davis and Jacobs stepped into the Eagle Garden, corner of Betts and John streets, about 2 o'clock this morning to see how everything was going on. They had been there but a few moments when a rough named George Schwartz made a run at Davis with a butcher-knife. He struck at the officer with the murderous weapon, the edge of which just cut the skin clear across his throat. A good rap from the policeman's mace felled Schwartz, when he was taken to the Station-house. In the Police Court this morning he was bound over to appear before the Grand Jury to answer the charge of cutting with intent to kill.

THE DEMOCRATS.

A Convention of 1,250 Delegates.

The Date August 7th, and the Place Music Hall.

The Hamilton County Democratic Executive Committee met at noon at their headquarters, the late Lytle Gray's armory on Sixth street.

Mr. Nelson Gray presided, and Mr. Joseph Editor acted as Secretary.

Seventy-five members answered to their names at the call.

Mr. Ed. Nesbit was appointed Sergeant-at-Arms. The object of the meeting was to fix the date, time and place of the Convention.

Mr. Thomas J. Coon presided that the primaries be held on August 7th and the Convention on the 9th.

Mr. William Butler favored August 1st for the primaries and the 21st of August for the Convention.

Mr. W. H. Mathews wanted a day intervening between the primaries and the Convention, 20th of August and the Convention on the 7th.

Mr. Dustin offered as a substitute that the primaries be held on the 7th of August, and the Convention on the 9th. He wanted to see what the Republicans were doing and how their ticket was being taken among the elements.

Mr. Nesbit favored an intervening day. Mr. James Murray favored the 10th of August for the Convention and the 21st of August for the Convention.

Mr. Thomas J. Coon said that a number of Democrats were going to the State Central Committee meeting at Cleveland, and he wanted the 7th and 9th of August.

This motion and the amendments by Coogan and Mathews were adopted.

The motion of Mr. Mathews that the primaries be held on the 7th of August and the Convention on the 21st of August was carried.

Mr. Mathews moved that a Committee of Five on Appointments be appointed.

Mr. B. H. moved that one delegate be appointed for every fifteen votes cast for Paige for Secretary of the Convention from now on.

Mr. Mathews amended by one delegate to every twenty votes cast for Paige.

Mr. Mathews wanted the vote to be one vote for every twenty votes cast for Paige, and one delegate for every twenty votes cast for Paige.

Mr. Mathews spoke in favor of his motion as it was more Democratic in principle.

Mr. Nesbit moved that the motion be carried.

Dr. Devinney wanted each precinct to have one delegate for a town.

Mr. Nesbit then renewed his amendment of one delegate for each precinct as a basis.

The chair decided the amendment lost, but some members kicking the vote was called.

The result of the amendment, 20 against 25.

Mr. Dustin then amended the original motion that there shall be in addition one delegate for each precinct over ten votes under twenty.

Mr. Mathews favored Mr. Mathews. The vote stood 25 vs. 25.

The vote on the original motion was adopted.

This is a convention of 1,250 delegates.

It is resolved that the primaries in the city be held from 4 to 7 p. m., under the Haber law.

Mr. Nesbit moved that the time of the election be in each precinct.

Mr. Devinney objected.

Mr. Mathews was in favor of an election from 6 to 9 o'clock.

Mr. Nathan Lord wanted the election held from 12 to 3 p. m.

The result of the election (election from 6 to 9) was 20 to 1.

A motion that each precinct in the city hold its own election was adopted.

It is resolved that six members of this committee be appointed to act as a committee of five on Appointments, one to be the Chairman, and five citizens at large be appointed a Grand Music Hall for the place of Convention, and to take full charge of the Convention from now on.

The Committee will be published by next Tuesday.

Mr. C. B. Farrelly was appointed to fill the vacancy in the County from Wm. A. Place, in place of C. B. Farrelly, deceased.

Michael Gorman was elected to fill the vacancy in the County from now on.

An invitation to attend the State Central Committee at Cleveland was read.

Adjourned.
