

OUR NEXT-DOOR NEIGHBORS.

Pickings by Star Reporters in Neighboring Cities and Towns.

LEXINGTON, KY.

Mr. John F. Walsh opened his pool-room Saturday night.

Messrs. Treacy & Wilson shipped a large number of valuable horses the past week.

Miss Florence Mitchell, the charming young actress, arrived in this city Saturday.

The agent of the C. S. Railroad says that gold is being passed freely at the ticket-office.

Captain C. H. Morgan has taken possession of his new position at the Eastern Lunatic Asylum.

Corn is being cut and is in fine condition considering the late storms, and is turning quite a large yield.

Hon. A. S. Berry, of Newport, is giving some attention to the matter of a water supply for this city.

The funeral of Mrs. John Garmley took place from St. Paul's Church Saturday morning and was largely attended.

The C. & R. R. track is being raised twelve inches along its entire length, and new ballasting put in of cracked rock.

The new market-house is already ready for the roof, and is quite an imposing structure and a great improvement to that end of the city.

Judge Royalty held an inquest Friday evening on the body of a colored infant found in the Poor House pond near this city. No one to the perpetrators of the crime, and a verdict in accordance with the result.

The suit of the milkmen to test the validity of the ordinance requiring them to pay an annual license of $10 was decided Saturday by Judge Becker, of the Common Pleas Court, in favor of sustaining the ordinance.

The Lexington Liederkrantz has been in existence only a few months, and is promising to become quite an institution. The late picnic was given for the purpose of fitting up their new hall, and hope they raised money enough to carry out their intentions.

CANED.—The members of the Fire Department presented Chief Conlon with an elegant gold-headed cane Friday night. After the presentation speeches were over Mr. Conlon invited the boys to a grand outdoor supper, which was prepared in the most sumptuous style.

The trotting races will begin here next Monday, October 13th. Among the successful horses to be present are So-go, Orange Girl, Von Avnia, Steiway, Clifton Boy, Kitty Bates, John E. Monroe, Chief, Bonsetter, Driver, Charley Ford, Post Boy, Coaster, Jewett, Dick Wright, and other great trotters.

GEORGETOWN, KY.

There will be a double wedding in the Christian Church next Tuesday.

Married, at the residence of the bride, Thursday, at 4 o'clock, p. m., Miss Lucy Smith, of Versailles, to Mr. John Cole, of Georgetown.

Married in the Baptist Church, Thursday at 11 o'clock, a. m., Miss Katie A. Lyon to Mr. Luther F. Easter, of Lexington. The church was crowded, there being more gentlemen than ladies present, a phenomenon that never was known before to occur in the history of weddings.

John A. Marshall was arrested in Sadeville Monday, for shooting J. P. Bell with intent to kill. Marshall and Bell were neighbors living in Scott County, near the Owen line. Mrs. Marshall and Bell both say that they met in a field when she asked Bell to loan her a dollar to go to Lexington. Bell answered her by making an indecent proposition, when she said she would tell her husband. The next day, while Bell was standing with others, Marshall approached unobtrusively and shot Bell. The ball entered near the spinal column, passed under the heart and through the body, and then through the arm. Marshall left the county, but returning last week, was arrested. He, with several others, got hold of some tangle-foot whisky, and, as a result, row fights were the order of the day. Knives and revolvers were the only ornaments used by the party. Marshall was allowed to go home, his father stating that he would be responsible for his return. He had an exciting trial Wednesday and was bound over to the Circuit Court. Bell has recovered. He has a family, and is well connected. Warrants were issued for the arrest of Jacob Neal, Wm. Marshall, Joe Grayman and Bert Slatter for disturbing the peace.

CYNTHIANA, KY.

The interest in the lead and silver mine is increasing, and a company is forming under the name of "Blue Grass Lead and Silver Mine Company." For the prosecution of the work. The ore grows richer the deeper the shaft is sunk, and it is hoped will prove valuable and lasting.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The Criminal Court has been in session all week, with Hon. George Perkins, of Covington, on the bench.

The Grand Jury have found several indictments for misdemeanors. Indictments have been found against Charles, Joseph and Ben. Jameson, Thomas Layton and Wm. Nichols, for horse stealing. Nichols was tried, pleaded guilty and sent up for three years and six months.

Charles Jameson pleaded from jail some weeks ago, and is still not out even yet.

The cases against Joe and Ben. Jameson and Thomas Layton have been called, but laid over till Monday. The defense is conducted by Judge C. W. West and Captain W. H. Ratcliff, while W. W. Cleary, Attorney for Commonwealth, is assisted by Hon. A. H. Ward and Hon. J. Q. Ward.

The case against Ernest Roper, for manslaughter, is continued till next term. An indictment has also been reported against Roper, for malicious cutting. This indictment will probably be changed to one of mayhem, as Roper cut off his antagonist's nose.

LAWRENCEBURG, IND.

People from far and near flocked to Lawrenceburg today to see W. W. Cole's Electric Light Circus. It is a good show and people were well pleased.

Yankee Plazaf was the recipient of a very pleasant surprise by the Liedertafel Orchestra last Saturday evening, it being his forty-first birthday. A sumptuous repast was spread for all invited guests.

AUBURN, IND.

Five hundred people from here are in attendance at W. W. Cole's Great Electric Light Circus and Menagerie in Lawrenceburg, this (Monday) afternoon.

At the regular Council meeting Mr. Wm. Thompson was awarded the contract of making two fire cisterns, one on the corner of Second and Main streets, and the other on Judiciary street. Six bids had been sent in and read. Mr. W. Thompson being the lowest bidder, was accordingly given the contract.

The largest funeral that ever traversed the streets of Aurora took place at 3 p. m. yesterday. It was the cortege which followed the remains of Adam Herdgen, of whose death the Star made due mention. Odd Fellows, Freemasons, Knights of Honor and the Aurora Fire Company, of which he was an active member, paid their last rites and due respects. The above-named lodges consisted of persons representing Aurora, Lawrenceburg, Rising Sun, Hillsboro, Wilmington, Ind., and Petersburg, Ky.

BELLEVIEW, KY.

Special meeting of Council to-night. Professor Adams' class will sing in the key of C to-night.

Constable Tom Guy has moved to Bellevue from East Newport.

Mr. Richard Merrill, of Clermont County, Ohio, is visiting his brother John Merrill, of Berry avenue.

The entertainment on Wednesday night should be well attended, as a good programme will be given.

Little Charlie, the youngest son of Mr. Spence Reeves, was severely bitten on the leg by a dog a few days ago.

The Misses Lizzie and Carrie Schofield have returned to their home in Madison, Indiana, after spending a week with their cousin, Miss Agie Schofield.

The contract for the building of the M. E. Church was signed seventy-five days from now the church shall be ready for dedication. This will be a few days before Christmas.

A meeting of the Trustees of the M. E. Church will be held to-night at the residence of Mr. Ballance when the contract for building the Church will be awarded.

The temperance meeting last night was a large and enthusiastic one. Professor McGinnis excelled himself in speaking. Other good speakers were attentively listened to. Three persons took the pledge.

AVONDALE.

Upwards of $200 were realized from the picnic held at Borman's Park for the benefit of St. Andrew's Church.

The Republicans of this village will hold a mass meeting at Avon Hall to-morrow evening, the speakers being Benjamin Buttrick and Richard Smith.

The Orphan Asylum picnic yesterday was largely attended, the hill cars being taxed to their utmost capacity. The assembly was exceedingly orderly.

A crowd of drunken loafers entered the saloon of Louis Groll, on the Carthage Pike, about 9 o'clock last night, and called for drinks, which were refused them, Groll telling them that the law forbade selling liquors to minors, whereupon the young men withdrew and amused themselves by throwing beer kegs through the saloon windows, and demolishing all the furniture they could lay their hands on. Groll sustained a severe cut on his right arm, to say nothing of his loss of property, which was great. Warrants were issued out this morning and placed in the hands of Marshal Brown, who will doubtless have the young rascals within the clutches of the law before night.

DAYTON, KY.

Meeting of Council to-night. Rev. Dr. Skillman is quite ill.

Mr. Keenan Kelsey, of Butlerville, O., is visiting friends here.

Baptist Friends Society to-morrow night at the residence of Mr. Isaac Walker.

The family of Rev. Mr. Zimmerman will remove to Danville, Ky., to-morrow.

Mr. Fossett, the well-known pilot, is spending a few days with his family here.

Henry Barnes Lodge, P. and A. M., hold their regular monthly meeting to-morrow night.

Mrs. Mulberry, of Raylton, Ill., who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mahan, has returned to her home.

It is reported that Mrs. Maria Firth, formerly Maria Mallitt, has recently died at her home in Colorado.

The personal estate of the late Mrs. Rosa Cole was sold Saturday at auction. Mrs. Cole left $50 to the Dayton Baptist Church, but most of her estate was willed to an orphan asylum.

The following real estate transfers are reported for Dayton:

Levi Peters and wife to R. W. Nelson, Lot No. 13, in Barton Hazen's addition to Dayton, 37 feet front on Walnut street by 105 feet deep; $1,500.

R. W. Nelson to Henrietta Peters, Lot 12 in block 4, fronting 33 feet on Front street, in Dayton, by 110 feet deep; $1,000.

Rev. Wm. McAfee, who preached an eloquent sermon in the M. E. Church yesterday morning, is a native of Belfast, Ireland. During his years of ministry in this country he has been the pastor of the Ludlow Church, and thence he went to Augusta. He is now transferred to one of the largest churches in the State, at Louisville, Ky. In appearance he somewhat resembles Sam. Snvrl, of Bellevue.

SPRINGFIELD, O.

The stock of the late Dr. Longstreet is being sold this afternoon upon the Fair Grounds.

Miss Lillian A. Barber, of the Northside, is visiting at Bryant, Ohio, where she is the guest of Mrs. Harriet Keck.

Ada Goens must have done something mean, or why would they sneer the register at Mast's Hotel de Spring with her name.

During the Patton street ceremonies on Saturday night some of the patrons who had retired executed in escaping some meritorious high leaps.

A workman employed at the Redmond Mills, just east of our city, while walking in this direction on Saturday night, was knocked down by unknown parties.

Louis Bushnell, mentioned in connection with the pilfering of Humphrey's fill, in Saturday's issue of this paper, was, upon appearance before our Mayor, discharged, there being no evidence introduced to convict.

Tom Ford intended on Saturday night to teach his old woman civility. Tom's efforts were rewarded by having an ear clapped, an oyster dropped on his eye, his scalp ruffled, and being landed in the Station-house, docketed against family.

WELL, WHO'D A THUNK IT.—Here's something we gleaned that we give unto you. It's a dash at the amorous grade, and got scooped on Saturday night in the Patton street raid. Yes, and this sweet-scented fellow was docketed at Spring street in the following order: Henry Bell, A. R. Tomlinson, James Edwards, Samuel Jones, Thomas Jones, W. B. Haslin.

YANKED AGAIN.—Chief Schuchman and Marshal Hayward, reinforced by Officers Foster and Mast, raided on Saturday night the trio of Patton street den, presided over by Morris McKinney and Timpley, where they were found. Besides the above mentioned, Alice Worthington, Jennie Johns, Pet Orbert, Hattie Stone, Leaf Steiner and Josie Boyd, all of whom, with the exception of the controlling harlots, were taken to Spring street and locked up for the night.

At an early hour on Sunday morning Officer Fred. Foster appeared at Mast's, having in tow Henry Plack, George Lohner, Moses Ward, Martin Kuntz and Dan. Lewis, all young men who had been arrested on East Main street, where a door of a house had been burst from the inmates by a blow dealt by one of those parties. None of them at first were inclined to peach, but when turned into the hallway Lohner melted and gave Kuntz away. All the others were discharged with the exception of Lohner, who gave bail to appear as a witness.

BROOKLYN TO BAY.—Detective John T. Norris and Marshal Hayward arrested on Sunday afternoon on Columbia street, Lee Morgan, who is supposed to be the man who, on the 31st of August, last, murdered at Cambridge City, Ind., one Patrick Carroll. Morgan was found at the house of his father, who moved into our city recently. Word was received by telegraph on Sunday night from F. T. Marquis, Marshal at Cambridge City, asking for a more complete description of Morgan. Should the same be satisfactory, he will be taken there to-day.

COMANCHES GORBLER.—Everybody who strolled over the business portion of the city on Saturday night must have seen them, and our neighbors in the suburbs must have heard them. They came from Urbana, behind a fiery nag, and they were just boiling full of fire-water. As they swept through our streets our "coops" turned their business eyes upon them, but their conveyance was too fleet, and it was only when dashing up High street when brought to a halt by Chris. Holloway catching hold of the animal that our force got to interview them. When landed they gave Andrew Meyers and Maggie Maloney as their names, and said that they had come from their homes at Urbana for a "lark." Meyers is well connected, having relatives in our city.

SABITLOS.

The new street cars made their first appearance yesterday.

Gu's Hine set a grand free lunch yesterday before his old friends.

Charles Jackson, one of the drummer boys, has gone to Indiana on a visit.

James Morrison is still an intense sufferer from the loss of his left eye last Friday.

The members of the Hamilton Light Infantry and the soldiers and sailors attended the funeral of John H. Hull.

The daughter of John Salyer, who lives north of town on H. P. Miller's farm, fell from a tree yesterday and broke her neck.

Mr. Samuel S. Winterstein left the employ of J. P. Davis Thursday. He has been an upright, clever and pleasant clerk for the above-named firm some three years, and is deserving of the highest merits and warmest encomiums.

The Fair opened this morning and all day will be spent in setting things in place. Quite a few entries were made, and some articles taken to the grounds Saturday. Floral Hall presents a fine appearance, and in fact everything looks neat and tidy.

The Niles Tool Works has already received one gold medal, four silver medals and one bronze medal for best displays at the Exposition. The Long & Allstatter Company have also received two silver and two bronze medals for punching machinery, walking cultivator, &c.

FOOLS ON FOOT.

Thirty-Four Tramps Trotting After O'Leary's Belt.

Pluck and Perseverance of Madame Anderson.

Pedestrianism.

ONCE MORE FOR THE BELT.

New York, Oct. 6.—Promptly at 1 o'clock this morning the walk for the O'Leary belt opened at Madison Square Garden with the following starters: Joseph Allen, of Rensselaer, Mass.; John Bergman, of Jersey City; Chas. Boyle, of Montreal; Ed. Brand, of Ashbury, Canada; A. F. Sullivan, unknown; Tim. Brody, of Greenport; John A. Broadgast, of Toronto; Blower Brown, of Fulham, England; M. Costello, of Fishkill Landing, N. Y.; Richard Cromwell, the Indian scout, from California; Peter Crossland, of Sheffield, England; Ben. Curtian, of New York; Conrad Davis, of Kerry, Ireland; K. O. Dickinson, of Philadelphia; John Diller, a baggage-man on the New York Central Railroad; Thomas Costello, the rat-catcher; J. P. Dushane, of Neweaston, Pa.; Walter E. Kersoll, of Chicago; Frank L. Edwards, champion of California; Alfred Elsen, of Connecticut; Christian Faber, of Newark; John W. Hill, of Ravelock, L. I.; T. Fox, of Clairville, N. Y.; Howard, of Glen Cove, L. I.; Martin Kemmerer, of Lockport, N. Y.; David McKee, of New York City; Wm. McLean, the base-ball umpire; James McLeary, of Alexandria, Scotland; James Mahoney, of New York City; Wm. Murphy, of Haverstraw; John Perkins, of Brooklyn; Albert Pierce, a negro of this city; Samuel Russell, of Chicago; Wm. Taft, of New York; Cyrenus Walker, of Buffalo.

At 2 o'clock Fitzgerald had made 9 miles, the others ranging from 5 to 7.

The following are the scores of the leading walkers at 8 a. m.: Murphy, 32 miles; Faber, 35; Taft, 39; Howard, 39; Hill, 39; Russell, 35; Elson, 36; Allen, 36; Fitzgerald, 30; Curran, 39; Walker, 37; Fox, 39; Boyle, 35; Edwards, 36.

A. M.—Murphy, 43 miles; Faber, 43; Taft, 43; Howard, 39; Brondzeest, 40; Elson, 38; Allen, 41; Fitzgerald, 44; Curran, 44; Walker, 41; Fox, 43; Boyle, 37; Edwards, 40.

BLOWER BROWN BEHIND.

This morning Blower Brown was the first man to rest, and on returning to the track did not hurry himself. His trainer said: "Blower is all right; he is only allowing his opponents to gain a lead. It's a long race, you know, and half of these blokes will be done before to-morrow night."

MADAME ANDERSON'S PLUCK.

Madame Anderson began on Saturday evening the task of walking 4,236 quarter miles in as many consecutive quarter hours in Tivoli Gardens. Before midnight she was informed by police she could not continue her walk in public on Sunday. She was exceedingly angry, but stopped walking. At 12:02 this morning she again commenced walking and promises to show the people of New York the greatest six-days walk they have ever seen.

GENUINE WALKING LUNATIC.

Mary Agnes Garahan, dressed in a handsome black calumnet, creased with silk, is in prison to-day as a crazy woman. She was racing the streets yesterday with two corns in her hands. She said she was practicing for the O'Leary belt and that in the spring she was going to England to challenge Rowell.

TRICKS OF THE TRADE.

A morning paper says Civil Engineer Haswell's discovery that eight laps of the track used in the International Pedestrian T-urnament were fifty-four inches less than a mile gives color to rumors of unfair work in the late contest. It is now openly asserted that Rowell feigned sickness on the fifth day in the interests of bookmakers and for the purpose of exciting public interest anew, thus increasing the receipts at the gate. It is interesting to note that these international contests are yet to be developed.

TEN-MILE RACE AT JERSEY CITY.

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 6.—There were three starters in the ten-mile race yesterday. A man named Welch, a native of Jersey, won in 63 minutes and 7 seconds. Sweeney and Williams ran a mile race, the former winning in 5:13.

Base Ball.
