

Fourth Edition.

THE WEATHER. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—For the Ohio Valley, Tennessee and lake region, stationary, followed by rising barometer, southerly, veering to cooler north-west winds, rain or snow, followed by clearing weather.

THE LATEST

In Brief. National Associated Press to the Star. New York, Dec. 22.—There was a heavy snow-storm here last night and this morning.

DOCTOR'S DROP,

Which he Got on The Man With a Shotgun.

Woman Horribly Cooked to Death.

Nat Harvey, the Fugitive Currier, Witness, Captured.

Special to the Star. GALVESTON, TEXAS, Dec. 22.—Nat Harvey, one of the three witnesses for the prosecution, who was present at the murder of Porter, and who absconded on the day set for trial at Marshall, this month, was arrested Saturday in Western Texas. It is thought Harvey was bought off by Currier, and only appears to testify at the trial for bail on December 31st.

METROPOLITAN MENTION.

SHERMAN SAYS HE DID IT. National Associated Press to the Star. NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Secretary Sherman, now here, is reported by the Herald as saying that with the assistance of several persons friendly to himself Senator Cameron was elected Chairman of the National Republican Committee, because he was deemed the most fit man for the position with respect to his chance for the Presidency. He added that while he had always been a sincere friend of General Grant, and had in the main supported him during his Presidency, yet he is now, as he was four years ago, of the opinion that it is not wise for Grant to be a candidate for a third term.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

TOM BRADY'S INTENTION. National Associated Press to the Star. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Tom Brady's friends say he has postponed his resignation as Second Assistant Postmaster General until after he sets through with the contest for two million deficiency for the "Star Mail Service." But for the hue and cry raised over this matter, it is said, he would resign at once.

CALIFORNIA CURRENTS.

KENTUCKY KNICKKNACKS.

Choice Currents Collected in the Corn-cracker Commonwealth.

Specials to the Star. RICHMOND, Dec. 22.—The funeral of Hon. Mr. Little, who was killed by Arnold, his brother-in-law, last Friday, took place yesterday, Rev. Mr. Furman, Presbyterian, officiating.

GREENSBURG, Dec. 22.—News comes from Cowan to the effect that Clark Ingram inflicted an injury on his wife from which it is thought she will not recover, by striking her on the head with a club. He has armed himself and is hiding in the brush.

FLEMINGSBURG, Dec. 22.—The special term of Fleming Circuit Court, which will be held here on Tuesday, will probably confirm the sale of the Pound Gap Railroad, as we are informed that Col. Berthoud has the bond required by the terms of the sale all ready to present to the Court.

LITCHFIELD, Dec. 22.—Three bad women were taken out, whipped and directed to leave for pastures new one night last week, and the Bevel Grove Church-house, two and a half miles from town, was burned to the ground.

SOMERSET, Dec. 22.—Mr. Brown has discovered a vein of very excellent coal on the land of Mr. Robert Graves, at Grundy, a few miles from this place, and an essay was made into the side of the hill where the vein was discovered.

PRINCETON, Dec. 22.—John Sassen, a prominent grocer, was knocked down on the street Saturday night and robbed of $300 and a store key. The guilty party has not been apprehended.

The case was investigated, and no inquest deemed necessary, as alcoholism was found to be the cause of death.

City Commissioners. An ordinance to change the grade of Price avenue, from Hawthorn Place to Park avenue, was transmitted to Council.

The Marietta & Cincinnati Railroad Company was granted permission to place two trestles in Gest street, for the purpose of raising a bridge crossing Gest street at that place.

A petition for the changing of the present crossing at the intersection of Perk and Gold alleys was referred to Mr. Wolfstein. The Clerk was instructed to advertise for proposals for the construction of sewers and drains in Sewerage Division No. 8.

The Engineer submitted a plat showing the property to be crossed by the proposed bridge over the Montgomery Road, and there being a question as to the city's title to all of said property, the matter was referred to the City Solicitor for investigation.

The weekly pay-roll was ordered paid, as follows: Street cleaning, $1,422; Parks, $164.20; Inspector of Street, $128; Inspector McLeinen-avenue, Sewer, $42; yardmen, $128; sewers, $83.03; repairs of streets, $355.03.
