

THE DAILY STAR

MINOR LOCAL MENTIONS.

A call is out for a meeting of the Common Council at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

The Blaine Club, which was to have met last night, has postponed the meeting to next Wednesday.

A fire among some shavings in the cellar of a tenement house, No. 164 Pleasant street, caused the alarm about 9:30 o'clock last night.

The Mississippi Valley Dental Association met yesterday, and discussed several subjects of interest to the tooth-pulling fraternity.

In the case of Mattie M. Coleman, a verdict was returned of death from cerebral hyperemia, induced by intense mental anguish.

Marion McCann, an escaped prisoner from the Madison County, Ind., jail, was captured on the levee last evening by Officers Brasel and Knox.

The Arbeiter Bund met last night, when one hundred and twenty of the members signed a paper pledging themselves to pay their annual dues of $10 each in advance.

Miss Stratton, the lady Evangelist, will assist in the revival meetings commencing to-morrow evening at the Grace M. E. Church on George street, west of Cutter.

The body of a man found in a brickyard in St. Bernard, yesterday, could not be identified. A verdict was returned of death from exposure, neglect and want of medical attendance.

The new Republican Social Club of Cincinnati held a largely attended meeting last night at Oberkline's Hall, on Freeman and Liberty streets. Seventy-six new members were admitted.

Rooms have been engaged at the St. Nicholas Hotel for Speaker Randall and Mr. Barr, of the Pittsburg Post, who will make that hotel their headquarters during the National Democratic Convention in this city.

The Board of Directors of the Cincinnati Hospital met last night in monthly session. Bills to the amount of $6,406.53 were audited. The net cost per day of maintaining each patient during February was a fraction less than 48 cents.

A local appeared last Saturday evening giving an account of a serenade tendered to Mr. Conrad Langenberger by the Fairmount Horse Fiddlers. The musicians are now sad on account of having to make an assessment on each member of the band to pay for the refreshment served on the occasion.

A large and enthusiastic audience gathered last evening at Lytle Hall, on Sixth street, near Race, to hear Mr. Barney, the reformed actor, speak in the cause of temperance. Mr. Barney is an able and eloquent lecturer, and will address the citizens of our city on Friday evening at the same place.

In the case of A. & H. Strauss against M. Burns & Co., Justice Block yesterday gave judgment for the plaintiff in the sum of $85. R. P. Dustin, attorney for Burns & Co., was fined $5 and costs. He was then called to the stand again and was asked if he had ever heard any testimony as to the identity of the firm of M. Burns & Co. He refused to answer, and a new information was filed accusing him of contempt.

March Weather.

For the Ohio Valley, and during the month of March, winds blowing from the southwest or southeast, or from directions between those points, are found to be the winds most likely to be followed by rain or snow. Winds blowing from the north or west, or from directions between those points, are found to be the winds least likely to be followed by rain or snow.

Amusements.

"A Million," by the Florences at the Grand to-night and Saturday matinee. Friday and Saturday nights "The Mighty Dollar." "Drink" at Pike's every night and Saturday matinee. "The Galley Slave" next week at the Grand. "The Color Guard," an allegory, next week at Pike's. "The Danites" at Heck's next week in magnificent style. "Kit" at Heck's this week every night and matinee. The Vine-street Opera-house is offering a variety of attractions this week.

Ohio College of Dental Surgery.

The thirty-fourth annual commencement of the Ohio College of Dental Surgery was held last night at College Hall. The following is a list of the graduates: Ira Atherton, Cincinnati, Ohio; Will B. Ames, Fremont, Ohio; David Arter, Lima, Ohio; John O. Brockton, Pittsburg, Penn.; F. O. Brakes, Ashland, Ohio; J. M. Clyde, Owensville, Ky.; G. M. Cole, Pittsburg, Penn.; M. H. Fletcher, Richmond, Ind.; Hubert H. Gott, Cincinnati, Ohio; W. M. Garnett, Glasgow, Ky.; E. A. Galbrath, Newark, Ohio; John W. McGarry, Cincinnati, Ohio; A. N. Hauck, Shippensburg, Penn.; R. L. Hyde, Piqua, Ohio; A. W. Harlan, Chicago, Ill.; John M. Martindale, Minneapolis, Minn.; H. L. Millikin, Cincinnati, Ohio; W. S. Myers, Wauson, Ind.; W. P. Merrill, Rising Sun, Ind.; E. W. Nesbitt, Owensville, Ky.; E. W. Roland, Xenia, Ohio; Miss Annie Riley, Hamilton, Ohio; A. J. Richter, Milwaukee, Wis.; C. M. Richey, Shelbyville, Ind.; E. H. Steckman, St. Louis, Mo.; C. H. Snyder, Mansfield, Ohio; G. S. Street, Xenia, Ohio; G. W. Sparrock, Trinidad, West Indies; B. W. Wikoff, Sidney, Ohio; C. T. Wiant, Mt. Gilead, Ohio; Samuel Young, Jamestown, Tenn.

COALITION.

Investigating the Coal Committee of the School Board. The School Board Committee appointed to investigate the charges against the Coal Committee met again last night and examined witnesses. Several principals testified that they knew nothing about the coal delivered being short in weight, but value pertaining to railway improvement and progress. This is acknowledged to be the largest, most complete and comprehensive Railway Guide ever published in the country. It is issued monthly by the Railway Publishing Company, 46 Bond street, New York, and under the auspices of the General Ticket Agents' Association, being their recognized organ. Sent to subscribers at $4 per annum. Sold at 50 cents a copy by all news agents and periodical dealers, on all trains, at depots, etc.

FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 3.—Mr. Thurman, from the Judiciary Committee, reported adversely on the House bills for the removal of political disabilities of individuals.

The House bill to allow a drawback on certain manufactured articles of wood grown in the United States and exported was passed.

The House bill providing for the deficiency in the Star Postal Service was reported and ordered printed and recommended.

Various bills on the private calendar were considered, and the morning hour expiring, the Fitz John Porter bill was taken up and Mr. Logan resumed his remarks in opposition thereto. After debate the bill was laid aside and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

The Bill to Regulate Removal of Cases from State to Federal Courts was briefly considered. After discussion the bill went over without action, and the House took up the Senate resolutions relative to the late Senator Houston, of Alabama. Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. Wood, Cox, Atkins, Harris and others.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour, and go into Committee of the Whole on the Re-funding Bill, was rejected.

for railroad ties at Marietta, O., robbed of $1,400 worth of securities.

Kurtz & Turner's planing mill, Miller's lively stable, Devlin's marble shop, etc., burned at Princeton, Ind. Loss, $5,000.

W. H. Cummings, General Western Freight Agent of the New York Central Railroad, dropped dead at Buffalo, New York.

SPRINGFIELD, O.

The Art Loan Exhibition closes to-night. The town is full to overflowing with "Michiganers."

Miss Harrison, of Hennepin, Ill., is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Rogers, on North Limestone street.

Mr. Skinner, the new manager of the Lagoda House, is in the city and will take charge April 1st.

The Commissioners awarded the contract for making the iron fence around the new Court House to M. Hose & Lyons, of Dayton, O.

The Comical Four acquitted themselves very creditably last night at the Opera House. They had a very good and appreciating audience.

The funeral of Mrs. Swayne, wife of Dr. Swayne, will take place to-morrow, March 5th. Services at the residence, No. 62 South Spring street, at 2 o'clock.

The people of Springfield do not know as yet how many wards the City Council intends to make out of the city, but some are under the impression that there will be nine.

Mr. H. G. Hamlin will this season carry out his long talked-of purpose of building a large four-story building on the corner of High and Market street, known as the Baltimore grocery.

The ladies of the Colony of the Central M. E. Church will give an entertainment and supper at the residence of Mr. Wm. H. Houck, corner of Maple and Limestone streets, this evening. It will consist of music and tableaux. Supper from 7 to 9, Admission 25 cents.

Prof. Morse will lecture this evening and to-morrow evening at the Opera-house. To-night his subject will be "Household Art of the Japanese," illustrated by blackboard sketches. It will not only be a novelty, but instructive to those who have the good fortune to hear him.

McCrory, the pedestrian who won the match last Saturday, has been challenged by a Mr. Meridith, of Xenia, to walk 100 miles, square heel and toe walk, and will probably be accepted. Allison has also challenged him to walk again. We think he will have his hands full this time.

Tuesday afternoon the Trustees of the Children's Home held a meeting and Mr. N. M. Cartmel, the newly-elected member, duly qualified and took his seat. The new Board then elected Mrs. N. M. McConkey, of Pleasant Township, as Matron for the Children's Home, vice Mrs. Sloan, whose term expires on April 1st.

DAYTON, O.

One marriage license yesterday—Samuel Berry and Martha Locke.

The Dayton Bar Association will hold its eighth annual banquet at the Phillips House this evening.

The last assembly meets at the Roller Skating Rink to-night, the proceeds are for the benefit of the Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Mr. John Flory, of Indianapolis, has been appointed Manager of the American District Telegraph Company, vice W. C. Wieman, resigned.

A thunder-storm broke over the city about midnight; about 1 o'clock the rain changed to hail that fell as large as peas and for several minutes.

Messrs. McEuse and Lyon, of Dayton, were yesterday awarded the contract for building an iron fence around the new Court-house at Springfield.

The contempt case against Captain L. P. Thompson et al., still holds the fort in the Probate Court. The case was continued last evening until to-morrow morning.

Company A, Harries Guard, will hold a fair at their Armory, beginning on the 24th inst., which will close with a military ball. The proceeds are to go to the Company for uniform account.

A delegation of Philharmonics will attend the Theodore Thomas Symphony Concert in Cincinnati, at Music Hall, to-night, going down on the 4:30 train this afternoon, and returning home after the concert.

Roundsman Bruner yesterday arrested Frederick Brabham on a charge of burglary and larceny at the office of Lydenburg's coal and wood yard, near Jefferson street and the canal. The office was burglarized of fifteen cents and some postage stamps.

The Montgomery County Horticultural Society convened yesterday at the residence of Mr. L. D. Reynolds, West First street. On account of the funeral of President Olmer's father yesterday afternoon, Vice President Ewing presided over the society.

William Turner, Sr., who for the past thirty-one years has been a resident of Dayton, died yesterday at his late residence on East Water street. Mr. Turner was born in the County of Wicklow, Ireland, and emigrated to this country in 1847, landing at New Orleans. In 1849 he arrived in Dayton, and for the past twenty-seven years has been employed at the Car-works. He will be buried to-morrow p. m.

I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and found it the best cough remedy I ever tried. 920 Walnut street, Philadelphia, November 27, 1876.

A beacon in distress is "Dr. Sellers' Cough Syrup," the most efficacious remedy for coughs, colds, and whooping cough. Price 25c.

CATARRH—Positive and permanent cure for Catarrh, Pile-ann, constitutional and local treatment. We guarantee a cure in every case. Address DR. KITZMILLER & KITZMILLER, Piqua, Ohio.

James Stroud shot and killed by Scott Hopkins, at Chester, S. C.

Mrs. Ramsey's daughter fatally shot accidentally at Mitchell, Ind.

Allice Hoffman attempted suicide in a court-room at Pottsville, Pa.

Geo. H. Tarravars, flagman, aged seventy-eight, killed by cars at Chicago.

Edward Bechtel's wife accidentally fatally poisoned at Wabash, Ind.

Joseph Bryan, aged fourteen, given ten years at Baltimore for attempted murder.

Jeremiah Webster shot and killed John Gutliff at Chillicothe, Ill. Both farmers.

Nine prisoners at Belvidere, N. J., attacked and beat the jailer and made their escape.

Ten buildings, including the Odd-fellows' Hall, burned at Seguin, Texas. Loss, $15,000.

Rev. William R. Ault, aged seventy-one, married to Mrs. Hulz, aged sixty-eight, at Buck Creek, Ind.

The sale of Dawes & Irish, contractors

HALE'S HONEY. HOREHOUND & TAR! The Great National Specific for the Speedy Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, SORE THROAT, LUNG and all BRONCHIAL COMPLAINTS. The Honey of the Plant Horehound soothes and SCATTERS all irritations and inflammations, and the Tar Balm Abies Balsames CLEANSSES and HEALS the throat and air passages leading to the lungs. FIVE additional ingredients keep the organs cool, moist, and in healthful action. A Cough may be fully termed the preliminary stage of Consumption, a malady of which HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR is the surest known preventive. Therefore, delay not a moment to take this CERTAIN SPECIFIC. CHILDREN derive great benefit from its soothing properties, when suffering with Croup and Whooping Cough. PRICES:—50c. and $1. Large Size Cheapest. C. N. CRITTENTON, Sole Proprietor, New York. PIKE'S TOOTHACHE DROP CURE IN ONE MINUTE.

FURNITURE. HORST & WACHENDORF, MANUFACTURERS OF AND DEALERS IN FURNITURE, MATTRESSES, LOOKING GLASSES, Etc. 319 and 321 Main Street, below Eighth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. Everything at the Lowest Possible Prices, and Goods Guaranteed.

PAINTS, OILS, &c. WM. C. MAHON & CO., Manufacturers and Dealers in Paints, Oils, Brushes, Putty, Window Glass, Mixed Glass Paint, AND—PAINTERS' SUPPLIES, 222 Walnut St., bet. 5th and 6th. TYPE, PRESSES, &c. FRANKLIN TYPE FOUNDRY, 165 Pine Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. ALISON, SMITH & JOHNSON. The type on which this paper is printed is from the above Foundry.—Ed. 57p. E.

PROPOSALS. SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at the City Clerk's Office, in Covington, Kentucky, until 12 o'clock noon of THURSDAY, April 1, A. D. 1880, when the bids for the same will be opened, and no bids thereafter accepted or opened, for the building of Conviction City Jail, Mayor's Court Office and Jail's residence, according to plans and specifications on file in the City Clerk's Office. The building to be commenced immediately after the contract is awarded, and to be completed in all respects on or before December 1st, 1880. Bids will be received for parts of the work, as classified in the plans and specifications; also, for the whole work complete in one bid. Each bid must be accompanied by the bond of two responsible persons in the sum of ten thousand dollars, that the bidder will accept and perform the contract if awarded to him. Approved security will be required for the faithful performance of the contract work. Bidders will indorse their name and address upon the outside of the envelope containing their bids. Bidders to use the pre-printed forms, as none others will be received. Copies of the specifications, form of proposal and form of contract may be obtained on application to the City Clerk. CHAS. J. TRANTER, President, GEO. H. DAVISON, City Clerk. mh2-ft

MILL MACHINERY. I. & E. GREENWALD, 248 EAST PEARL ST., CINCINNATI. MANUFACTURERS BEST QUALITY OF MILL MACHINERY. For Flour Mills, Paper Mills, White Lead Mills, Powder Mills, Mines, Distilleries, Elevators for Grain, Coal, etc. Have extensive and complete assortment of Gearing, Pulley and Hanger Patterns, Shafting and miscellaneous machinery made promptly to order.

REMOVAL. We have moved our place of business to NO. 751 WEST SIXTH STREET, NEAR CARR. As we have increased our facilities, and have a large and well assorted stock of LUMBER on hand, we are prepared to fill any and all orders on short notice. Call and see us, or use "Bell Telephone."

THOS. GILPIN & CO. BOOKS, &c. AT STEVENS' BOOK STORE—Just received the March St. Nicholas, a splendid number. Also 1,000 new boxes of nice Note Paper and Envelopes to match, at prices to suit, etc. Also a full assortment of the celebrated Oxford Bibles for Sunday-school Teachers, New Books and Magazines, besides many novelties in Stationery articles suitable for Household Ornaments, and for Anniversary and Wedding Presents, Prizes for Scholars, &c., &c. 89 W. Fourth street

MANUFACTURERS' SUPPLIES. MANUFACTURERS' AND ENGINEERS' SUPPLIES. Belting and Packing, Hose and Pumps, Brass Goods, Iron Pipe, Pipe Fittings, Steam Gauges, Water Gauges, Rabbit Metal, Valves, Cocks and Connections, Pipe Tongs, Dies and Taps, Fine Brushes, Boiler Trimmings, &c., &c.

T. J. NOTTINGHAM & CO., 212 W. Second St., Cincinnati. UNDERTAKER. DUNKMANN & CO., UNDERTAKERS. Embalming promptly done. Ice used when required. Office calls attended to day and night. Manufacturers of all kinds first-class Wood Coffins and Cases. Keep constantly on hand a full line of trimmed and untrimmed Coffins and Cases for the trade at manufacturing prices. Office and Warehouses, Nos. 173 and 175 Clinton, between Linn and Baymiller streets. Night Office, at Livery Stable, southwest corner of Linn and Everett streets. 167-171th & 174th

INSURANCE. FIDELITY FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, Brick Buildings Insured from $100 to $250,000, 76 W. THIRD ST., CINCINNATI. E. V. BROOKFIELD, President. CHARLES RULE, Secretary. 2025-17th, 7th, 8

NOTICES. I SELL THE BEST PORTLAND CEMENT. At 50c per barrel less than all others do an inferior article. JOHN V. NICOLAI.

FEATHERS. DON'T CROAK ANY more about hard times, 30,000 pounds of Splendid Feathers For only 15c per pound, in lots to suit. Large pound pillows $1 each. Full size bolsters $1.50 each. 35-pound beds $2. A discount to large buyers. H. C. DRESHER, Successor to Morrison & Co., 21 West Sixth street, between Main and Walnut, up stairs.

HERBALINE. HERBALINE BITTERS. HERBALINE BITTERS. THE BLOOD PURIFIER. John Keethan, Gen'l Agent, Cincinnati, O.