The Board of Officers of the Chamber of Commerce held a regular meeting yesterday, but transacted no business of any great importance. Mr. Ryan gave notice that he would ask for a change in the Constitution, so that non-residents could be admitted on payment of a fixed price.

J. C. Short, son of the late Judge Short, died yesterday afternoon very suddenly in his office at Fern Bank, near the Short homestead. A report was spread around that Mr. Short had committed suicide, but it is most probable that his death was occasioned by heart disease. Deceased was very wealthy, being worth in the neighborhood of $1,500,000.

A called meeting of those interested in the Methodist Conference Dinner was held yesterday afternoon in the Trinity M. E. Church. The object of the meeting was to decide upon ways and means for the dinner. Another meeting will be held on Friday at 2 o'clock at the same place, to which all ladies who are interested or who will aid in any manner are cordially invited.

Work-house Directors. The Directors of the Work-house met in regular session yesterday afternoon. The contract for furnishing twenty-five thousand bushels of coal was awarded to Daniel Stone & Co. at their bid of 18 cents per bushel for second pool, 8 1/2 cents for second pool slack, 1 1/4 cents for Campbell's Creek, and 10 cents for slack Pomeoy.

Lane Seminary Commencement. The Board of Examiners for the closing examinations at Lane Seminary organized yesterday by the election of Rev. S. H. McMullin, of Circleville, as Chairman, and Rev. A. Richie, of this city, as Secretary. The Board of Trustees met at 10 o'clock to-day, and the Association of Alumni at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. Douglas Putnam, of Monroe, Michigan, will preach at 7:30 this evening, the Rev. W. C. Porter, of Fort Scott, Kansas, who was expected to preach the annual sermon, owing to an accident sustained by him at the moment of leaving his home in Kansas, being unable to be present as expected. The anniversary exercises take place to-morrow at 10 a. m.

The Wide Awake for May. The Wide Awake for May is an excellent number of this favorite little periodical. It contains a great variety of choice literature for the young, and elegant illustrations. Among the number of entertaining stories are "The Uninvited Guest," by Mr. Shellabier, better known as "Mrs. Partington"; "The Twin Cousins," by Sophie May; "Annette's Diary," by Mrs. Diaz, and a sketch full of humor and pathos combined, "Miss Troubles," also the two serial stories, "The Young Homesteaders" and "Five Little Peppers." The "American Artists" paper gives an account of Mr. Edwin Weeks Lord. The sketch of the life and writings of Jacob Abbott is also an interesting contribution. Amanda B. Harris has the first of a pleasant series of "How We Went Bird-sewing." There are, besides, several other narratives, tales, sketches, illustrated poems, and a very pretty frontispiece.

Board of Health. The Health Board met in regular session yesterday afternoon. Wm. Moorman was elected watchman, and Walker Bryant sweeper of the Sixth Street Market, and Bernard Estel, watchman, and Timothy Gleason, Sen., sweeper of Lower Market. Mayor Jacob, who had been empowered to appoint the wards to the members of the Board for the selection of District Physicians, made his report as follows: Mr. Bramble, the First, Fourth, Sixth and Eighth Wards. Mr. Seiter, the Second, Third, Fifth and Ninth Wards. POLICE COURT. Big Display of Wickedness Before Judge Wilson To-day.

Fred. Egner, the boy who figured so extensively in the Schilling murder, with his father and Rafer a few years ago, was arraigned before Judge Wilson this morning on complaint of his mother, who testified that he was in the habit of getting drunk, and that he could do nothing with him. She commenced talking about being a poor widow. "Oh, no, you ain't," interrupted the Judge, "but you ought to be." The son was sent to the Work-house for thirty days. Late yesterday afternoon Officer Manion undertook to arrest a man named Hugh Tracey, at the corner of Augusta street and Central avenue. Tracey turned upon the officer and began beating him, being assisted by a man named Pat Sullivan. Manion pulled his gun and shot at Tracey in the right arm. Other officers appeared upon the scene, and the men were arrested. Tracey's case was continued until to-morrow. Sullivan was sentenced to three months in the Work-house. Mary Morgan got ten days for drunkenness.

Benjamin Beteher, the driver of a night cart, for allowing his cart to leak all along the streets, was fined $10 and costs. John Lucas, for slugging Chas. Santeve, was fined $10 and costs. Pat Sweeney, Mary Beresford and Anna Johnson were charged with disorderly conduct and had their cases continued until Friday.

Mary Beresford, the former wife of the husband of Mrs. H. J. Osborne, of No. 18 Broadway, went to the latter's residence and threatened to whip her. Mrs. Osborne was not going to be whipped, however, and used a cowhide to good advantage upon Mrs. Beresford. Pat Sweeney and Anna Johnson took a hand in the row against Mrs. Osborne, therefore their arrest also.

Frank Gessler, charged with robbing Frank Bante of a watch and some money, had his case continued until to-morrow, he offering to turn up the property. He denies having stolen it, but says he took it from Bante for safe-keeping while he (Bante) was laying along the canal bank asleep. Charles Taylor and Horace B. Moore, charged with being fugitives from justice from the State of Louisiana, had their cases continued for two weeks to await the arrival of a requisition from the Governor of that State. John Miller, convicted of stealing a coat from James Peck, was sentenced to "thirty-fifty."

Grant Johnson, for vagrancy, was given three months.

Mrs. Geo. Woodruff, Penn Yan, N. Y., drowned her two children in a cistern, and jumped in herself, but was rescued. Temporary insanity.

Miss Ackerman, richly respected young lady, outraged by a tramp near Steubenville, Ohio.

Long Branch Hotel burned at Alameda, Cal. Mary Spaulding, a domestic, lost her life.

Cox, the murderer of Alston, in Georgia, has gone to the Penitentiary for life.

Young Knight's skull fractured while playing base ball at Webster, Ind.

Tom Carter, a homeless boy, killed by a fall at Titusville, Pa.

CRUSHING THE CHICAGOS.

Cincinnati Defeats Anson's Team in a Closely Contested Game--Other Games Yesterday--Notes and News.

The game yesterday between the Cincinnati and Chicago nines was a truly magnificent one. The Cincinnati boys never played together better or to more advantage. The audience looked "down in the mouth" in the third inning when the Chicago scored one run; but in the fourth inning, when the Cincinnati made three straight runs, they came near going wild. The playing of yesterday shows that the Cincinnati nine is equal, if not superior, to the Chicago team. The following is the score:

Table with columns: CHICAGO, AB, R, 1B, RB, PO, E. Rows for Dalgrymple, Gore, Williamson, Anson, Kelly, Corcoran, Flint, Burns, Quest, and Totals.

Table with columns: CHICAGO, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9. Rows for Chicago and Cincinnati.

Table with columns: CHIC. CIN., 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9. Rows for Runs earned, First base on errors, Left on bases, Struck out, Two-base hits, and Totals.

AT OTHER POINTS. BOSTON, May 5. Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9. Boston: 3 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 4. Providence: 0 0 1 0 0 2 0 0 3.

CLEVELAND, O., May 5. Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9. Cleveland: 0 0 1 0 0 4 0 0 1. Buffalo: 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 2.

WORCESTER, MASS., May 5. Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9. Worcester: 2 0 2 0 0 1 1 2 7. Troy: 1 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 3.

STRIKES BLAIKIE AS A GOOD THING. NEW YORK, May 5. Whether Mr. Blaikie will permit the Saratoga oarsman, Riley, to pull over the course with Hanlan and Courtney is now a very pertinent question with Blaikie. He was asked, "Why don't you have Riley row over the course with Hanlan and Courtney?"

NOTES AND NEWS. Four to two. Hip, hip, hurrah! The Chicago-Cincinnati game to-day. The Cleveland will be here the last of next week. The Chicago and Cincinnati leave to-morrow morning for Chicago. A tremendous crowd will no doubt turn out to witness the game this afternoon. The dark horse, Cleveland, got away with the Bison very nicely yesterday. They'll do it again. The Cincinnati can't play ball; oh, no; not a bit, but they got away with Anson's team yesterday all the same. Over two thousand people witnessed the game yesterday, and the grand stand was filled, a large number of ladies being present. After two strikes and a fair ball had been called on Gore yesterday, he made a home run. He made both of the runs for his club, and thereby saved it from being "goosed."

Courtesy Among Clerks. To a lady of refinement and taste this persistent practice of dictation indulged in by many salesmen and salesladies, too, is a great annoyance, and one which we would like to see remedied. The practice brings to the store less trade, and the merchants who permits makes less money during the year than his neighbor, who may have less smart but more courteous clerks. There is a good illustration of this in the success which has attended the establishment of Mr. F. Webb, Jr., the popular milliner on Fifth street, whose place is conducted upon the principle of true business courtesy to the most humble patron. He carries one of the largest stocks of millinery goods to be found in the city, and employs only the best skilled labor in his manufacturing department. His trade is now so extensive as to require the services of a buyer constantly in New York, and nearly every day he has a fresh arrival of goods. No goods are sold that will not prove exactly as represented, and persons unacquainted with the value of the goods they may select, will be treated with the same consideration as the most thorough expert. These are a few of the characteristics that have made his establishment so popular.
