THE LATEST POLITICAL POINTS.

Illinois Democrats in Convention To-day.

Governor Hendricks' Speech--New Yorkers On the Ticket--The Tammany Train--Maryland Democrats.

RENOMINATION OF SPRINGER.

National Associated Press to the Star. SPRINGFIELD, ILL., June 10.—Hon. Wm. M. Springer was yesterday renominated for Congress by acclamation by the Democratic Congressional Convention of the Twelfth District.

THE OREGON ELECTIONS.

PORTLAND, June 10.—M. C. George, Republican, is elected to Congress by about 800 majority.

The three Republican Supreme Judges have average majorities of over 1,000. The Legislature is doubtful, with the chances in favor of the Republicans.

ILLINOIS DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., June 10.—The Democratic State Convention meets to-day. There is a talk of supporting Henry H. Payne, of Ohio, and Clayton N. Potter, of New York, to offset Garfield and Arthur.

The Davis men are talking Seymour, probably as a blind. Perry H. Smith sticks to Tilden. Neither Bayard nor Hancock has friends here and Hendricks is seldom mentioned. Morrison will get a few delegates.

The contest is exciting most interest. There are a dozen or more candidates for Governor, among them Gen. Black, Gen. Farnsworth, L. F. Leiter, Perry H. Smith, Carter H. Harrison, Lyman Trumbull, etc. The Convention will be interesting.

At 10 o'clock S. S. Marshall was chosen Temporary Chairman, and nine Secretaries were appointed. The usual committees were named and a recess taken till afternoon.

Nearly every Democrat named for the Presidency has one or more friends among the delegates here, and it is not probably that any instructions will be given or preference expressed by the Convention.

Illinois alone offers four candidates for the Presidency, David Davis, Lyman Trumbull, John M. Palmer and Wm. K. Morrison, but both Seymour and Tilden appear to have as large a following here as either of the Illinois aspirants.

For Gov. Trumbull is perhaps most warmly urged, but there is some doubt whether he would accept as long as he can see a possible chance of national honors.

GOV. HENDRICKS' SPEECH.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 10.—The following is Mr. Hendricks' speech, delivered yesterday at the Democratic Convention:

"I thank you for the honor conferred, and will undertake to discharge my duties impartially, and I hope each member of this Convention will uphold his duty to the great Democratic party of the country and help me to preserve order all the time. Everything is auspicious. I felt it when I stood beside the polls this spring at the April election, and I felt it yesterday as the streams of men came from the North and the South and the East and the West to consider the interests of their country. I know it now, when I see before me a convention such as has here presented, coming from almost every neighborhood of the State; a convention of men that are interested in the public welfare and in public honor; a convention in numbers surpassing anything ever seen in the State of Indiana. I know that victory will sit upon our banner. [Applause.] They nominated a candidate at Chicago yesterday. I should say a ticket, if it would not be right to omit the last of the ticket. I take it that the ticket represents fairly the average strength of the Republican party. In every respect I think it so, and you and I, brother Democrats, don't lean upon the weakness of the ticket nominated yesterday. We lean upon the strength of the indomitable Democracy. [Applause.] Some and things took place at Chicago. [Laughter.] I know you think I am referring to the many truths they told upon one another. [Laughter.] That was not it. Yesterday the Republican party laid away forever the grim visaged warrior and plumed knight together. To-day they lie in the obscurity of defeat. The Republican party have said to the nations of the world that did Grant unconquered honor, that he is no longer worthy of sitting at the head of national affairs and it was no uncommon thing when that statement was made to mankind that General Grant was no longer worthy of support in the National Republican Convention. I have heard Democrats for the last two or three weeks inquiring who was the weakest man at Chicago? I care not for that. I repeat it, I care not for that. At the last election when Tilden and Hendricks were elected, [protracted applause] there was a majority on the Democratic side of the white voters of the United States of one million of men, and of the whites and blacks together, there was a majority of more than one quarter million. Now when we meet in Cincinnati to respond to Chicago, we meet with the assurance upon our side that we have this strength, this power, this sentiment of the American people upon our side. I take it for granted that the great Convention on the 22d of this month, representing the Democracy of this Nation, will so organize our party that success shall continue with the contest in November. I ask you now, as I announced to you that this Convention is organized and ready for that transaction of business; I ask again that each man of you assist in good faith and very earnestly in the maintaining of order in this Convention."

HOW THE TICKET TAKES IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 10.—With the greater number of Republicans who were at their places of business down town yesterday, there was a profound feeling and disappointment at the result, and no little adverse criticism of the dark horse from Ohio.

The bankers in Wall street are generally pleased with the ticket. Nothing could exceed the joy and gladness of the Democrats of this city, even with the uncertainty that shrouds their own future action. There is a feeling on all sides that the position is materially simplified.

They go into the Convention knowing what to expect from their opponents, and profess to believe that Garfield and Arthur can be easily beaten by any men they may see fit to enter for the race. At political headquarters calls of congratulations were numerous. Garfield's career was canvassed in no complimentary terms, and his weakness as a candidate was absolutely gloated over, while Arthur's name was received with a meaning smile.

Wayne McVeach, of Pennsylvania, who returned from Chicago yesterday, whether he had gone as a representative of the National Union League opposed to the nomination of Grant, said in reply as to what he thought of the nomination of Garfield: "I regard the nomination an excellent one. The Republican party has been saved. The action of the Convention enfranchises every individual member of the party and gives a death blow to political dictatorship in the States. Republican statesmen will hereafter be simply leaders, not bosses; the merit alone of a man determining his position in the party."

"The battle was fought not only upon the third-term issue but upon the abrogation of the unit rule and the relief of the States from the dictation of political bosses." Gen. Garfield can carry Pennsylvania against any man the Democrats may name.

Runners are rife that Tilden will soon announce his withdrawal from the field now that Grant has been shelved by the Republicans.

HOW TAMMANY WILL COME.

The preparations for the Cincinnati Convention are almost completed, and Tammany Hall will journey thither with a grand hurrah. A train of sixteen palace cars is to leave the Grand Central Depot the morning of the 19th, and will be drawn by three engines, headed by the Leviathan locomotive, Dean Richmond.

The cars will be draped in bunting and ornamented with inscriptions setting forth the glories of Tammany Hall. The engine Dean Richmond will carry the patriots of New York, and Seymour, the latter being announced as the next President of the United States. Regular delegations will begin to leave on the 17th. They contemplate no display.

The feeling against Tilden seems to have been intensified by the defeat of Grant at Chicago. Prior to that event many Democrats looked upon him as the right man to run against the General. But now the desire is, even it is said among some of those most earnest in his behalf, that he should resign and leave the field to some man upon whom the party can heartily unite.

This course is said to be far from Tilden's intention, since he views Garfield's nomination as a guarantee for his election.

MARYLAND DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

BALTIMORE, June 10.—The State Democratic Convention, to select delegates to the National Convention at Cincinnati, met yesterday.

It was resolved that the two-third rule should be strictly adhered to. When the name of Bayard was read the Convention broke out into most enthusiastic and long continued applause.

The following delegates to the Cincinnati Convention were chosen: Delegates at Large—Hon. Wm. Pinckney White, Ex-Governor Philip Francis Thomas, Hon. John Lee Carroll, Hon. Bernard Carter.

District Delegates—Richard Heaton, E. E. Jackson, W. Johnson, C. B. Roberts, Geo. Colton, Jas. Bond, Jno. W. Davis, Wm. Keiser, Barnes Compton, J. T. Bond, V. N. Baughman, and L. C. Smith.

The following were chosen Electors at Large: Meritt Steele, of Baltimore, and Thomas D. Hopway, of Hartford County.

INDIANA DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR. INDIANAPOLIS, June 10.—The new Democratic State Central Committee, selected yesterday, met last evening and organized by electing Hon. William H. English (chairman), and James H. Rice Secretary. Mr. English was sent for, and responded to the compliment in a speech to the Committee accepting the position. Hon. W. Scott Ray, Oscar B. Hard and Brownell were appointed as the Executive Committee.

TO-DAY IN CONGRESS.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—Mr. Reagan reported back again the amended conference report on the River and Harbor Bill, and it was agreed to. Mr. Tucker introduced a bill in relation to the duties to be levied upon certain descriptions of hoop and band iron, known as cotton ties. Referred. It levies a duty of 55 per cent. ad valorem and authorizes the refunding of all duties on these articles in excess of 35 per cent., paid since May 27, 1880.

Mr. Tucker and Mr. Blackwell both moved to dispense with the morning hour. The former said his purpose was to go into Committee of the Whole on the tariff bill, and the latter said his purpose was to reach the joint rule in relation to the counting of the Electoral votes.

In view of Mr. Tucker's suggestion the opposition to tariff legislation rallied and prevented the two-thirds vote necessary to dispense with the morning hour.

Mr. Harris, of Virginia, said he would like to reach and consider the bill in relation to the appointment of Deputy Marshals, and he inquired whether gentlemen on the other side were willing to fix a day for it.

Mr. Keifer suggested the first Monday in December next, and afterwards suggested that three hours would be sufficient for debate.

Mr. White and others objected, and demanded the regular order.

The Committee was then called in the morning hour, but not more than two or three reports were made.

Mr. Tucker moved to go into Committee of the Whole on the Revenue Bills. The tariff people withheld their votes and broke a quorum, whereupon Mr. Tucker said he did not desire to obstruct the public business and he would therefore withdraw his motion for this morning.

Mr. Bicknell moved to go to business on the Speaker's table, to take up concurrent resolution in relation to the Electoral Count.

TERRIBLE DOUBLE TRAGEDY IN NEW YORK. Special to the Star.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A horrible tragedy was enacted in a boarding-house in Delaney street this morning. John Gumpel and his wife kept the establishment. They occupied separate sleeping apartments, and had been estranged from each other for some time. The cause of estrangement was always kept a secret. Gumpel was fifty years old, and his wife much younger.

Shortly after breakfast this morning the servant girl having occasion to go upstairs heard groans on the second-story landing, and there found her mistress bleeding from a terrible gash in the throat. The police were notified and Gumpel was found in a room on the same floor dead, with his throat cut from ear to ear. The room was also found on fire, Gumpel having undoubtedly fired the house before cutting his own throat. The woman's injuries are fatal. It is supposed that jealousy prompted the deed.

A DESPERADO'S DEATH.

MURPHYBORO, ILL., June 10.—John Davidson, a desperado, had been drinking a great deal for the past day or two, and was square on his muscle and the best man on the globe. He went into the saloon of F. Gundmacher last night and selected a man named Kane as the person upon whom his muscle might exhibit itself. He struck Kane on the head, and was proceeding to demolish him when Kane stabbed and killed him. No one sympathized with the dead man, as he got what has been expected for years. Eight years ago Davidson shot and killed a man named Burns, for which crime he escaped conviction. Kane is a quiet, peaceable citizen.

THROUGH A BURNING BRIDGE.

BENHART, TEX., June 10.—The west-bound freight train on the Western Branch of the Houston and Texas Central yesterday suddenly turned the curve and approached the Sandy Creek bridge which was on fire. It was too late to stop the train, which was precipitated through the bridge, and first being wrecked, was burned. All the train men escaped.

ABE ROTHSCHILD'S CASE RESET.

MARSHALL, TEX., June 10.—Abe Rothschild's motion to quash the indictment against him was overruled by Judge Bouty. A bill of exceptions was taken, and the case reset for trial on Monday next.

FUSILLADE IN A BOARDING-HOUSE.

CLINTON, IOWA, June 10.—A thrilling tragedy, almost a double murder, occurred here yesterday at 5:30. At that hour a notorious thief, known as Humpty George, whose right name is Davis, entered Horace Fuller's boarding-house and compelled the landlord at the point of the revolver to show him the room occupied by Patrick Judge and wife. The latter was formerly the wife of Davis. The landlord went away, as did also the clerk, and left Davis, who forced open the door and began firing. Judge received the first shot in the arm. His wife received the second in the arm. Judge jumped out the second-story window. The third shot entered the casing as he leaped. The fourth shot came as the woman escaped through a side door. Davis escaped.

THE LOUISVILLE FIRE.

LOUISVILLE, June 10.—The loss of Arthur Peter & Co., by yesterday's fire is fully $100,000; that of Kahn, Wolf & Son's, about $40,000; that of Johnston, Newman & Co., about $10,000, the total being fully $150,000; pretty well insured.

National Associated Press to the Star.

JIM CURRIE'S CASE. MARSHALL, TEX., June 10.—Colonel Crawford, of Dallas, and Judge Mabey, of Jefferson, of counsel for Currie, are here in their client's interest, and it is said, will announce themselves ready when the case is called. It is reliably stated that Maurice Barimore is en route from New York to testify on the part of the State. COX AFTER GARFIELD.

This report contains all the testimony bearing upon Garfield's connection with Credit Mobilier case. The editor is exhausted, and there is a great demand for copies. Hawley made a point that the resolution was out of order, and Randall sustained the objections.

Complaints of profanity have been made anonymously against this particular parrot, and two young ladies say that it insulted them. It has been shot at and stoned, but unsuccessfully, and a strong mixture of poison, if it was really taken, had no effect whatever on the bird. The Board is considering the bird.

National Greenbackers.

Interesting Proceedings At The Chicago Convention.

The Pomeroy Faction Assimilates To-day.

National Associated Press to the Star.

CHICAGO, June 10.—The Greenback Convention was called to order by Mr. F. P. Devese of Pennsylvania, Chairman of the Executive Committee, and opened with a prayer by Rev. Mr. Ingalls. The prayer produced a rather novel incident. The preacher called attention to the fact that ministers of the Lord had agreed to join on a certain day in prayer for the two great Conventions at Chicago and Cincinnati, but refused to pray for this Convention.

"Wherefore, O Lord," said the preacher, "we ask thee to grant thy blessing on us Greenbackers." At this rally the audience, which evidently had a surplus of enthusiasm, broke into cheers. While the call of the committee was progressing, a New York delegate created a sensation by rising and moving that the picture of Zack Chandler, which hangs over the Speaker's desk, be taken down.

The Chair ruled the motion out of order. Pending the call of States, a motion was made and carried that the resolution of the National Executive Committee, recommending to the most favorable consideration of the Committee on Credentials a proposition to admit fifty delegates each from the Union Greenback and Social Labor Parties, and to give them representation on several Committees, be referred to the Committee on Credentials.

At this point another excited debate broke out over the pictures which the Republican Convention have left hanging about the hall. There were conflicting motions, half a dozen men speaking at once and considerable confusion, but at last the whole subject was tabled.

The Chair announced that there was a delegation of ladies present who desired to present a memorial.

A resolution to hear the ladies' memorial was carried, and the memorial was presented. The memorial was from the Woman Suffrage Association, advocating the right of woman suffrage, and asking the Convention to put a woman suffrage plank in its platform. Speeches were delivered at the evening session by Dennis Kearney and others, and after Kearney's speech the Convention adjourned until to-day without having effected a permanent organization.

CHICAGO, June 10.—The Pomeroy or Club faction of Greenbackers met at 10 a. m. to-day in Farwell Hall. Some important business was transacted and they are now awaiting the arrival of the Committee from the Exposition Convention to escort them into the regular body.

Ovations looking to unity and harmony were made on both sides last night and the intention is to drop Dillieya, of New Jersey, whom the Pomeroy men nominated at St. Louis last March for President.

All will unite in nominating a new man—Weaver, Chase, Davis or Butler—while the Pomeroy men's candidate for Vice President, Chambers, of Texas, will be the nominee of the present Convention for that office. In this way all factions will be conciliated and the party expects to enter this Presidential campaign with greater strength than ever.

The National Greenback Labor Convention met promptly this morning. The first business was the report of the Committee on Credentials. Two reports were presented and a long contest over them followed. The majority report was recommended:

First—That the delegates from the Sociological Labor party to the number of 44, no more than 6 of whom shall be from the State of Illinois, and also the duly constituted delegates of the Union Greenback party to the number of 187 be admitted to seats in this Convention.

Second—That all the delegates admitted to the Convention, who were not elected under the call of the National Greenback Labor Committee, be furnished seats in this Convention with the respective State delegations to which they belong, and that they have a voice in casting their vote of the State, but the vote of no State shall thereby be increased.

Third—That the accredited delegate present from each State or Territory be authorized to cast the full vote to which such State or Territory is entitled under the call of the Convention.

The minority report objects to this last recommendation and recommends as a substitute a resolution that each State shall be entitled only to so many votes in the Convention as there are actual delegates present accredited from said State and that the delegates from the social labor party vote by themselves.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

A resolution was offered and voted down that the whole question of admitting others than the regular delegates to take part in casting the vote of any State be referred to the State delegation before the report of the Committee on Credentials was disposed of. The Committee on Permanent Organization announced that it was ready to report, and the Convention decided to consider this report first.

The committee reported the name of Captain Richard Trevellick, of Michigan, for Permanent President, and Charles R. Litchman, of Massachusetts, for Permanent Secretary, with a list of assistant Secretaries, and after some confusion caused by attempts to change the list of assistant Secretaries, this much of the report was adopted. Captain Trevellick declined to make any speech beyond merely thanking the Convention and assuring them that they must keep order, to accomplish which much needed rest be stationed the Barge-at-Arms and his assistants in the several aisles.

A message was received and read from the Farwell Hall Convention, requesting the delegation which it sent to the Convention in the Exposition Building to return to Farwell Hall. The Convention then adjourned until 3 o'clock.

Wm. Langenbeck's bakery, No. 571 Elm street, was robbed about 8 o'clock last night of two pairs of bracelets, a pair of ear-rings and a gold ring, worth in all about $65, and $5 in money.
