Execution in Canada. BRANTFORD, ONTARIO, June 11.—Fish Carrier was hanged in the Jail yard here to-day for the murder of his wife about three months ago. He asserted his innocence of the crime to the last moment.

National Greenbackers. They Hang on all Night at Chicago, And Adjourn Sine Die at Seven O'clock.

Weaver and Chambers for President and Vice President.

AFTERNOON SESSION. CHICAGO, July 11.—The Greenback Convention devoted its energies to the accomplishment of two things, namely, the adoption of the majority report of the Committee on Credentials and the admission of the Socialist Labor and Union Greenback delegates. It was 7 o'clock before this was accomplished and the delegates from the bolting convention entered the hall. Their entrance was the signal for a scene of wildest excitement, which rivaled in amount of noise, the greatest tumult which the Republican Convention indulged in.

Political Points. Illinois Democratic Nominations --Echoes From the Chicago Convention.

ILLINOIS DEMOCRACY. NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR. SPRINGFIELD, ILL., June 11.—Chairman McNeely called the State Democratic Convention to order at 11:40. Prayer offered by Rev. Mr. Prescott. Mr. McNeely said they should select delegates to Cincinnati who would select a Jefferson Democrat for President whom they would elect, and seat when elected.

Temporary Organization—Sam. S. Marshall, of Hamilton County, was made chairman. He said in substance that they had met to make arrangements to prevent civil liberty from perishing from earth; the Democratic party was never dead nor dying. It can only be defeated through the hands of blunders. Its opponents were weakened by a great mistake, and victory would be easy.

Judge Trumbull being called out said they had hard work before them if they hoped to win. The Republican candidates would poll the full vote of the party, and it was the Republican party that had to be beaten if the Democrats succeeded. They had a majority of the votes of the country and should rule it. He attacked the Republican nominees severely.

The usual committees were then selected and the Convention adjourned till 2 o'clock.

W. C. Goudy, of Lucas, offered the following resolution, which had been previously adopted by the delegates of the First, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth Districts:

Resolved, That the Democrats of Illinois favor the nomination of Horatio Seymour for President of the United States, and that the delegates and alternates to the National Convention be and they are hereby requested to use their best efforts to secure the nomination of Horatio Seymour.

A scene of the wildest enthusiasm followed, the delegates rising up in a body, cheering and waving their hats.

When applause had partially subsided, Bowman, of St. Clair County, moved that it be referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

In the midst of a great deal of confusion the friends of the other candidates, Davis, Palmer and Morrison, made speeches in favor of a motion to refer.

Whenever the name of Seymour was mentioned the Convention burst out in wild applause.

Davis' name was received with faint cheers, and cries of "No," "no." The delegates of twelve districts are for Seymour, six for Morrison, and one for Palmer.

Delegates were finally appointed to Cincinnati without instructions. A large majority are outspoken for Seymour.

Hon. Lyman Trumbull was nominated for Governor, and General Lew Parsons for Lieutenant Governor.

ECHOES OF THE CONVENTION. NEW YORK, June 11.—Echoes of the great struggle at Chicago still continue to reverberate, and they gather new strength as the Anti-Grant delegates return to the city, whence they started out a fortnight ago on what was generally considered a hopeless enterprise.

The choice of a standard-bearer having been made, the next thing in order is to organize, drill and arm for the coming campaign, and a crop of Garfield clubs may be looked for in a few days.

The many-hued views of representative people on the Republican nomination will scarcely give place to any fixed political interest until the Cincinnati Convention shall have completed its labors.

On the choice of the Democrats according to the opinion of a majority of those who have been interviewed on the subject, depends everything. A strong ticket, they say, would make the defeat of Garfield and Arthur a foregone conclusion. A defeat of the third-term factions seemed to give general satisfaction in some business circles, where it was thought that the nomination of Grant would have a disastrous effect on the interests of trade, as the policy of Secretary Sherman would in such an event receive a rude shock. Some of the Republican rank and file can not yet be brought to regard the Presidential team as likely to pull well together in the harness.

In their opinion it is absurd to maintain that a proud, overbearing man like Conkling should receive such a terrible blow with equanimity, and in a forgiving spirit, and that such a petty crumb of comfort as giving his chief enemies the second place on the ticket would suffice to console him. They even go so far as to assert that the baffled syndicate, Conkling, Cameron and Logan, would rat or see a Democratic candidate elected that to be obliged to follow in the conqueror's train to the capital, and to witness the triumph of the present Administration with which Garfield is so entirely in accord.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE. NEW YORK, June 11.—A meeting of the National Democratic Committee is called for June 21st, at noon, in the Grand Hotel, Cincinnati.

A BROKEN BANK. Wine, Women and Fast Horses Captured the Cashier.

First National, of Newark, With Liabilities of $200,000.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR. NEWARK, N. J., June 11.—The First National Bank suspended to-day, with liabilities over $200,000. Its drafts were returned yesterday by the Third National Bank of New York, to the amount of $40,000.

This led to an investigation and the result. The capital of three hundred thousand dollars is impaired over two hundred and twenty thousand dollars. The cashier, James A. Hedden, left for Europe on Saturday on a leave of absence.

He is said to have lived high, indulging in wine, women, fast horses, etc. The Directors say he and the acting cashier, M. S. Thomas, knew all about the condition of the bank. The April statement represented the bank in good condition.

The Directors are all rich and the creditors are not likely to lose anything. The bank did not open to-day and there was much excitement in town over the suspension. Jabez Cook is President and Jas. A. Hedder Cashier.

Directors—Jabez Cook, C. N. Lockwood, W. H. Murphy, J. M. Brenen, J. J. Dickerson, John McGregor, Walter Geason, Geo. B. Jenkins, &c.

The Bank organized in 1862 under act of Congress. It has the finest bank building in Newark, worth fully $100,000.

NEWARK, N. J., June 11.—The failure of the First National Bank creates much excitement and consternation. It is reported that not over $50,000 will be saved out of a capital stock of $300,000, and that the directors were offered assistance from other banks last night, but they declined, being unable to put up collateral securities.

GALWAY GORE. Shed by the Constabulary at Roundstone, Ireland.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR. DUBLIN, June 11.—A dispatch to-day from Galway states that a serious riot occurred yesterday in the Parish of Roundstone, in the District of Connemara, Galway County, growing out of the attempt of process servers to enforce ejectments of tenantry. The latter resisted the process servers from the outset, and warned them from the neighborhood under a threat of violence if they persisted in their effort to serve process.

No attention was paid to these intimations, and the pester soon became so exasperated that the Constabulary charged the assembling people, which consisted of persons of both sexes, with swords. The people fell back, but not until numerous casualties had taken place, a few of which it is feared may prove fatal.

Roundstone is one of the parishes which have suffered greatly from the prevailing distress, and the attempt to eject any of the tenantry for non-payment of rent is regarded by many cool-headed persons here as a very ill-advised step. At present the outbreak is reported to have become quiet.

GLINTS FROM GOTHAM. Meanness, Meanderings and Monkey-shines of the Metropolitans.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR. NEW YORK, June 11.—The steamer Long Branch with an excursion party of 450 became disabled in North River last evening and drifted helplessly with the tide. The excursionists were greatly frightened, and a report that there was a hole in the steamer's hull and that she was leaking badly increased the excitement and there was a rush for the life preservers. One man seized four. Three were taken from him, and with the fourth he was hoisted over the guard-rail and dropped into the river. Somebody threw him a rope and he was taken on board again. Signals of distress were exhibited, the men shouted and the band played for help and a tug went out to their relief.

BURIAL OF BROUGHAM. The funeral of John Brougham took place yesterday from the Church of the Transfiguration, which was filled with actors, actresses and members of other professions. The service, which was without a sermon or music, was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Geo. H. Houghton, rector of the Church, and his assistant, the Rev. Alexander McMillan. The flowers consisted of a pillow of roses given by the Lotus Club.

When the coffin was taken into the church it was preceded by the clergymen and was attended by the pall-bearers, Edwin Booth, Judge Brady, Dr. Phelps, F. C. Bangs, John Carroll, Wm. Winter, S. L. M. Barlow and Noah Brooks. The remains were taken to Greenwood.

POISONED BY PARIS-GREEN. John Remsen, a farmer of East Norwich, L. I., was fatally poisoned on Tuesday by inhaling Paris-green while scattering it upon potato vines.

SPORTING DOGS. Six fine sporting dogs from the kennels of the late George C. Colburn were sold by auction at Barker's yesterday morning for ridiculously small prices, ranging from $3 to $55.

SALVATION ARMY COMPLAINED. The Salvation Army, who have started a series of gospel meetings on a vacant lot on New York avenue, Newark, have been complained of to the Mayor as conducting the meetings in such a manner as to be a great annoyance to the residents of the vicinity.

A HAZARDOUS GAME. Gamblers Released on a Writ of Habeas Corpus.

A Constable With His Ax in the Chief's Office -- Chief Carson, His Clerk and the Constable all Arrested.

A raid was made on a hazard game at the corner of Fourteenth and Vine streets last night, and although no game was in progress at the time the entrance was effected the following persons were arrested and taken to the Bremen-street Station-house, where a charge of suspicion was put against them: Lewis Bieler, James Francis, Newman M. H. Hod, George Miller, Alexander Hamilton, Willard Hamilton; Thomas E. Corcoran and Frank Ast. The Hamiltons were afterwards released on their own recognizance, but the others were refused bail.

This morning Thomas Shay, the attorney, called on Colonel Carson and asked him if any charge was to be put against the men still locked up. The Colonel replied that the men were held on suspicion.

Shay said no more, but went before Judge Foraker and got out a writ of habeas corpus. Deputy Sheriff Meyer served the writ on the Chief who denied having the men in his custody. Meyer informed the Chief that he wanted no funny business in the matter at all; that he had come to get the men and have them home.

The Colonel saw that Meyer meant business and turned the prisoners over to the Deputy Sheriff. They were taken before Judge Foraker, who ordered two of the gamblers, Hood and Miller, remanded to the custody of Colonel Carson, but further ordered them to be released on $200 bail, if it was offered. The bail was readily given, and the case set for to-morrow morning.

When Hood and Miller were arrested about $170 was taken from them and turned over to the Chief's office by the officers in charge of the Station-house. This afternoon after the men had given bond for their appearance to-morrow to answer the charge of being known gamblers, Colonel Carson refused to give them their money.

Shay immediately went before Squire Schrab and got out a writ of replevin for it. Constable George W. Long was detailed to serve the writ. He presented it to Colonel Carson and the clerks in the Chief's office, but they acting upon orders from Carson refused to give up the money. Long then walked around the counter, when a rush was made for him by half a dozen detectives.

"Stand back, gentlemen," said Long, and they stood back. Then Long procured a broad-axe and proceeded to demolish the drawer where property taken from prisoners is kept. Colonel Carson kept warning Long all the time to be careful of what he was doing.

The drawer was burst open, but the money was not there. Clerk Joseph Gaul had it stowed safely away in his pants pocket. The safe was opened, and every drawer and closet in the office was ransacked, but it is needless to say the constable's labors were for nothing.

He then swore out a warrant against Chief Carson and Joseph Gaul and they were arrested on the charge of interfering with an officer. They gave bail before Squire Schrab for their appearance to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mayor Jacob signed their bond. To get even, Colonel Carson had Long arrested for "injuring fixtures." He was locked up at the Ninth-street Station-house, and up to the time of going to press had not given bond.

DISHONORED CHECKS IN LONDON. National Associated Press to the Star.

LONDON, June 11.—Great excitement exists in Throckmorton street, Threepenny-alley street, Chapel Court, and other moneyed centers, in consequence of the checks of various firms connected with the Stock Exchange, which were given at the recent settlement, being returned unpaid at the last moment.

It is reported that the amount represented by these dishonored checks is over £200,000, more than $1,000,000. The difficulty is said to have been brought about by the failure of a large operator in European stocks.

THE GLASGOW IRON MARKET. National Associated Press to the Star.

GLASGOW, June 11.—Since yesterday the anticipated reaction in the iron market, which was temporarily strengthened by the efforts of certain speculators to cover short sales, has set in, and the quotations are now 45 shillings 10 pence.

WASHINGTON NEWS. SPRINGER INVESTIGATION CLOSED. Special to the Star.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The Carlisle Committee concluded its investigations to-day. Mr. MacLennan, Chief of the War-rant Division of the Treasury, verified his tracings from an anonymous note and Finley's writing.

By order of the Committee yesterday counsel for Finley and Donnelly submitted written arguments, which were to be printed for the use of the Committee. Mr. Springer presented a written argument to show that the anonymous letter was written for Finley, acting as Donnelly's counsel, and that both are responsible for it.

In addition to the expert testimony Springer presented as a part of his written argument an elaborate opinion furnished him by David T. Ames, a noted expert of New York, who testified in the Whit-taker case. Ames is of the opinion that Finley wrote the anonymous letter.

He gives twelve convincing reasons therefor, and gives his opinion that it was impossible for King to have written the letter, but thinks Finley simulated several characteristics of King's penmanship.

Joseph P. Rogers, of Columbia, had a valuable gold watch stolen from him yesterday at Woodland Park. He hung his vest, containing his watch, on a book while he rolled a game of tenpins, and when he took down his vest the ticker was gone.

DEMOLISHING AN ACTOR. A deranged woman attacked George Edgar, the actor, on the street yesterday and almost demolished him with her umbrella.

PROF. STEWART ON GARFIELD. NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR. NEW YORK, June 11.—At last night's session of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, Prof. Stewart remarked that one of the most noted instances in the life of General Garfield was that he had a mother who sacrificed for him, and that when he was going away from home he bade him remember his God, and study books. The consequence is Garfield is one of the best men in the land to-day. It is Emerson who says that men are what their mothers make them.

FIGHTING THE ARMY WORMS. Terrible ravages are being made by the army worms on the Long Island and Jersey farms. The farmers are making a stout defense against them with trenchments of ditches and lines of fire. In many cases the green crops have been cut down to save them from the insect.

The potato bugs, or Colorado beetles, have also made their appearance in alarming numbers in West Chester County, this State.

NEWARK BANK SUSPENDED. The suspension of the First National Bank of Newark, N. J., is announced this morning.

The failure is said to be a very bad one. The officers are unable as yet to give any details. The cashier has gone to Europe.

FAIR HEEL-AND-TOE. O'Leary's Big Walking Match at the Highland House.

The big walking match, fair heel-and-toe, under the direction of the famous Daniel O'Leary, began at 11 o'clock to-day at the Highland House Belvedere. The preparations were completed about 10 o'clock to-day, the carpenters not being able to start at laying the edge boards until midnight owing to the Marine Engineers' picnic. There are seventeen laps to a mile. The track is sprinkled with sawdust at times to suit the purpose of the walkers.

The following rules are to govern the walkers in the race that is to last six days of twelve hours each:

Contestants passing each other must be at least ten feet in advance before taking the pole.

Any competitor jostling or interfering with another shall render himself liable to disqualification, such disqualification to be at the option of the referee.

Competitors will be held responsible for the conduct of their attendants while on duty.

Any competitor detected in unfair walking will be cautioned. For a second like offense he will have one lap deducted from his score. For the third like offense a mile will be deducted from his score, and for the fourth and any subsequent offense he shall be subject to disqualification or the infliction of such penalty as the referee may direct.

Competitors withdrawing from the contest will at once notify the official score keeper.

Competitors must be costumed in a neat and appropriate manner, and if not approved of by the management, a change must be made.

Mr. John Pierrepont is the business manager, and will see to it that everything is done in shipshape style.

The following shows the correctness of the track: CINCINNATI, June 11, 1880. To Whom It May Concern—This is to certify that I have measured the track at the Highland House Belvedere for Mr. Dan O'Leary and the same measures (15 inches from the inside rail) exactly 310,585 feet, or 17 laps to the mile.

Harriman, Haverhill, Mass.; Gus Olmstead, Chicago; Fred Krohn, New York; Dennis Driscoll, Lynn, Mass.; George Smith and Oliver Gorion, Dayton, O.; L. D. Thompson, James L. Hann, James Waters and Charles A. Rivers, Cincinnati; George Hanwaker, New York; G. Detchan, Peoria, Ill.; E. Tracey, Baltimore; Patsy O'Brien, Covington, and Dick Willis, Avondale.

Tracey was the first to make a mile in 9 minutes and 4 seconds. He was closely followed by Harriman and Sherry. Hanwaker was the last to score.

The race is a close and exciting one. There is good music to cheer the boys in their walk.
