The Case-Yrisarri Treaty.
Washington, April 19.
The amendment to the Case-Yrisarri Treaty provides that the United States shall engage to use due vigilance and all lawful means to prevent the organization of hostile parties in this country, intended for the invasion of Nicaragua. While some prominent gentlemen look upon this as a reflection on our good faith in carrying out the neutrality laws, and as unnecessary, others are disposed to regard the ratification as an evidence of the disposition of Nicaragua to cultivate friendly relations with the United States.

As to the amendment it is not certain that it will be acceptable by the administration, which has not given to it due consideration.
With regard to the efforts of the British authorities to remove the obstacles of the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty, recent appearances of no assurances are such as to change the belief that there will be a favorable solution of the question.
It has heretofore been confidently stated that the Paraguay fleet had been ordered to Central America, but such does not now seem to be probable, although several of the vessels will be sent to the Gulf, when they shall be put in commission. It is considered that there is sufficient force in Central America for all practical purposes.

Another Revolution.
Philadelphia, April 19.
The barque Joseph Maxwell, Captain Davis, from Langara, March 26th, and Puerto Cabello on the 23d of April, arrived at this port this morning. Captain Davis reports the country throughout in a state of revolution. Commander Pinto on the 23d of March, had routed General Garayvez from Burdabulo, and had killed some few of the negroes. Garayvez is said to have about five thousand men, but is very scarce of arms.
General Sempronio had killed some few of about 100,000 worth of property. There had been quite a contest when the Government troops retreated. Puerto Cabello was all up in arms and the stores were compelled half the time. Troops were landing every day from the East.

Washington Items.
WASHINGTON, April 19.
The State Department is in receipt of voluminous dispatches from Commissioner Bowlin concerning Paraguay affairs.
The Winnebago delegation of Indians, yesterday, bared, with impressive ceremony, their prophet and orator, the most prominent man in the tribe.
Judging from certain indications, the news from Nicaragua is not of such a character as will alter the alleged policy of the administration concerning that republic. Much interest is manifested in diplomatic quarters in regard to the subject.
It is stated that Gen. Jerez will return to Nicaragua on the 4th of May.

New Haven, April 19.
The annual conference of the Methodist church is in session in this city—Bishop Jencks presiding. A resolution was passed, almost unanimously, declaring that slave holding is a sin and should be inserted in the general rules as one of the things for-bidden by them.

Baltimore, April 19.
Lord Napier and family left the city this evening for Annapolis, whence they will depart in the British frigate Curacoa.

New Orleans, April 19.
Capt. Bassier and John Vernon, proprietors of the Courier, had a reconnoitre with this morning. Bassier was dangerously wounded.

St. Louis, April 19.
The river has fallen six inches in the last six hours, and still continues to recede. All the upper streams are reported on the decline. Clear and warmer.
