Practical.—Elder Dean will preach at Walker's Black-tow-er, at 10 1/2 o'clock and at night at the usual hour.

The Rev. S. G. Spruce of Milwaukee, will preach at the Third street Church, Sunday morning and evening.

Elder James Maple, of Franklin, will preach at the Court House steps, to-morrow afternoon, at half past four o'clock.

St. Paul's Episcopal services will be held to-morrow in the Hall, corner of Main and Second street, by Rev. Mr. Robbins at 10 1/2 o'clock a. m., and 7 1/2 p. m. All are invited—seats free.

A lecture will be given by L. Judd Pardee, inspirational speaker, at the Universalist Church, 84 Clair street on Sunday afternoon at 2 1/2 o'clock; subject "The Spiritual Awakening." Lovers of truth and eloquence attend.

Rev. W. S. Burton will preach to-morrow evening on "the fate of Judas," from the text, "It would have been good for that man if he had not been born," at the Universalist Church, on St. Clair street. Morning services at the usual hour. All are invited.

MAN NEARLY MURDERED, AND RESCUED.—On Thursday evening Mr. James Sisson, of Troy, arrived here by car, and while talking to a friend at the Depot, the Steady train started. Thinking it the D. & M. train he sprang aboard and did not ascertain his mistake until about 3 miles on the road to Springfield, when the Conductor asked for his ticket. At his request the train was stopped, he got out, and started back on the track. After traveling about a mile he met two men who stopped him and demanded his money. He told them he had but very little; but before he had time to hand over, they knocked him down and stamped him, when he lost his consciousness. While in this condition they robbed him of $20, and what else of any value he had on his person. He remained unconscious for some time, and when he revived he managed to crawl back to the city. It was ascertained that his head was badly bruised, and that two of his ribs were broken. Yesterday he was taken home on the train in charge of Rev. Mr. Moody. It is not likely that any clue will ever be had to the villains.

The prediction we made of the decadence of State Fairs, or parades, if that suits our neighbor of the Farmers' Gazette better, was by the authority of the people, who evince an unshakable disposition to stay away from such places. Their reasons for this are best known to themselves; we have so difficulty in accounting for them to our own satisfaction, as "one of the people." The clever man who prescribes over the destinies of the fairs generally, and who guards their interests with sleepless vigilance, should not believe that we intended anything invidious to his progress in the prediction referred to; we are a chronicler of passing events, and so that one "cast his shadow before," we deemed it proper to speak of it. If we needed any justification for the prediction, it would be found in the fact that of 6 large companies in this City, but one attended the recent State Fair in Zanesville.

The Farmers' Gazette of this morning, in giving the proceedings of the Farmers' State Convention at Zanesville, has the following: "The following is the throwing made by the different engines: First class through 400 feet of hose, 150, 150 and 500 feet."

The horse refers to the throw of the DeLuge company of this city, who took the first prize, a magnificent silver trumpet. Now the first throw of 150 feet was not made! The DeLuge made but two throws—the first 150, and the second 307 feet. These are the figures, Bro. Crowell.

We have heard from our fishing party at the Laramie reservoir. They report very scarce, very few being caught now by the most expert fishermen. They have gone into the sunfish business, and are taking them at the rate of 300 per day—large, black-floppers they are, about the size of a very big hand! The boys speak in the highest terms of Capt. John Wisner, who has rendered them every accommodation. The Captain keeps a boarding boat at the head of the feeder, and supplies his customers with bait, both, etc. We are promised some of the first bass caught by "the boys."

ONE QUIETMAN.—There was a lively time at Camp Quitman yesterday. Quite a number of citizens were on the ground, and held with interest the military evolutions performed by the troops. There were several drills and parades during the day, and a sham battle in the afternoon, in which Capt. Schifsky was accidentally, but not seriously hurt. The campment was broken up this morning.

The annual income of Mr. William McDonald, the owner of Flora Township, is said to be $20,000. He resides in Baltimore.

Lincoln at the Court House.

Hon. Abe Lincoln, at the time of going to press, is addressing about 200 people—citizens of Dayton and strangers—at the Court House. Mr. L. was introduced "to the people" by J. G. Laws, Esq., at just 10 minutes to 2 o'clock, P. M. He commenced by an apology, an unnecessary preface, considering the small crowd that had gathered to hear him. He immediately thereafter, ran off into his doctrine of "irrepressible conflict between the free and slave States," when we left him in the hands of a clever reporter, who will note his salient points.

Mr. Lincoln is a tall, spare man, dark complexioned with a pleasant countenance, and a long, slender, round head. He is not a very pleasant speaker. He cannot look retain a Dayton audience. The people look at him, listen a few minutes, and then—walk off.

His "Don't Know Beans"—A good story is told by an old farmer of a Reporter of the Cincinnati Gazette.

During the recent excursion trip to Toledo, when near Perryburgh, the Reporter made some equities of the farmer in regard to crops, etc., when a field of Buckwheat, in full bloom, arrested his attention.

"What a fine field of white beans that is!" said the Reporter.

"Beans—indeed?" replied the farmer, "why that is Buckwheat!"

"Oh! I had beautiful white grain it is! The specimens I have been accustomed to seeing have produced a very dark flour."

"Yes, so will this produce dark flour," rejoined the farmer. "What you saw was not the grain—it was the blossom!"

"Oh—oh!" replied the Reporter, who repeated into silence.

We will just add that the editor alluded to was the "agricultural" reporter of the Gazette, and was out gathering reliable items about the crops! The clever people who read and laugh over the "sage disquisitions" about the crops, etc., in the City papers don't know (but suspect) they are written by men who "don't know beans!"

SEVERAL CORRECTIONS.—Mr. Henry Lutz, an old and respectable resident of Darke county, whom we used to know as a Whig, and who has recently acted with the Republicans, publishes the following "Notice" in the Greenville Democrat of this week:

Mr. Burton—Heretofore I have been a Republican, and a supporter of that party; but, upon thorough investigation of the questions at issue between the two political parties, I have come to the irrevocable conclusion that the principles promulgated by the Democracy are such as to underlie the entire fabric of our Republican institutions, and in conformity with those of the framers of our Government. In consideration of this, I shall hereafter be found laboring for the advancement of the doctrines of the National Democratic party.

HENRY LUTZ.

The people may know who are, par excellence, the friends of public instruction, when we state that at the meeting of the Directors of the Dayton Library Association last night, only Robert W. Steele and I. H. Kierstead, Esq., were present. They doubtless compared notes, and after resolving that politics took precedence of instruction, separated.

Our Gazette neighbor grows enthusiastic over the call for the Republicans to meet and hear Lincoln this afternoon, and Schenk tonight. It reminds us of old "40 times," when the people would answer to such appeals. The time has passed, however; but our neighbor seems determined to keep it in remembrance.

Col. Hiram Fuller, who has recently enjoyed the intimate friendship of Ex-President Pierce, says that it is utterly useless to recommend his nomination by the Charleston Convention. Nothing can induce him to accept a second nomination, or a public office of any grade.

RETURN MARCH.—The troops from Camp Quitman, preceded by the Regiment Band, passed along 3d street this morning, on their return. They did not look fatigued, and walked as alert as though they had not been three days in Camp.

A call was published in the Journal and Gazette for a meeting of the "Live Republicans of the Fifth ward on Friday night last. Just twenty-five responded to the call. The Republicans of that ward are in "good condition" to start a grave yard!

Some persons, who become engrossed in the present, do not think of the preparation against the changes which are so frequent in our climate. Wash Wilson "don't belong to that set." He has for some time past been caring for the soles of his constituents, the people, and has now every variety of gaiters, boots and shoes; for the season. Give him a call, Main st., just below market.

The replying about the City on Sabbath has been justly commended for some time past. The people expect the police to see that the practice is broken up. We invite them, to our extent, to exercise their vocation to-morrow.

See notice of sale of furniture at the residence of Mr. Henderson, corner of Main & Fifth streets, on Tuesday morning next.

See notice for proposals for "privileges" at the County Fair.

HORACE GREASELY DELIVERED UP.—Heber C. Kimball made a speech at the Mormon Tabernacle the other day, in the course of which he disposed of Horace Greaseley as follows:

Speaking of thistles reminds us of a bright idea of Greaseley's. He thought it would be a wise notion to sow Canada thistles all along the plains, between there and the States, to feed stock upon. Why that would kill all the cattle with the bloody murrain, and prick us to death. So much for Greaseley's judgment! What a fruitful imagination he must have! He is the greatest liar on the face of the earth. Why, bless your souls, he is the father of all liars. He will go to hell, and be the father of all liars there. "Amen." "Amen" sounded throughout the congregation.

Letters from Zante (Ionian Islands), of 16th August, 1889, state that current crop this year is in a very prosperous condition. The blight, which for five or six seasons past has caused the total destruction of the vines, has entirely disappeared. Zante would perhaps make twelve million pounds, of very excellent quality; Cephalonia, thirteen millions; and Morea, fifty millions.

The editor of the Fredericksburg, Va., News, who is summing up White Sulphur Springs, writes of a colored man whom he has found there, who is an ex Judge of the Superior Court of Liberia. At present he is superintendent of the bath house. He was born free, had $1,500, and concluded to go to Liberia, and was appointed Judge by President Roberts.

Another company of orphan children, numbering about fifty, left New York on Tuesday, for Indiana, under charge of Mr. Tracy, of the Children's Aid Society. They were generally under twelve years.

Four men, W. Havington, Henry Jewer, his brother, and Thomas Reed, residing at Point Prairie, Mo., went to Alton, Ill., recently, sold their grain for nine hundred dollars, and left to see some friends. They have not been heard of since, and are supposed to have been murdered.

Second Lieutenant Charles J. Lynde, of the fifth regiment of Infantry, was recently tried by court martial in Utah for insulting and striking Lieutenant Wharton, and for disobedience of orders. He was found guilty and sentenced to be dismissed from the army. The President has approved the sentence.

Mr. Gerrit Smith, the Peterboro' philanthropist, pays for all the articles, letters and sermons which he causes to be printed in the papers. With him it is a direct matter of business. It would be well if many others who ask the "favor of space" copied his example.

There was lately an exhibition at Sidney, Australia, a set of horse shoes made of native gold, weighing twenty four ounces, and worth about five hundred dollars. They were made for a pony in New South Wales.

It is authoritatively stated that the amount of money remitted home by Irishmen resident in America, the last year, for the purpose of assisting their friends to emigrate, was $2,360,000.

The tax levy of New York for the next fiscal year is $2,560,000, a tolerably large sum for that municipal government. The rate is $1 75 to 100 on the $100, the valuation of property being $551,923,100.

Very pretty Geneva watches are sold in Paris this season in the form of a heart, in that of a tulip, or representing a shell, on which are admirably painted views of Geneva, or pastoral scenes.

Horrible Murder at Piqua. An article from the Piqua Register, for which we are indebted to Mr. James Taft the courteous Express Agent on the Dayton and Michigan Railroad, gives a part of the particulars of a horrid murder committed on the person of a man named Manning. The Register says:

We have visited the scene of the murder, and seen the murdered man, whose name, according to the marks on his clothes is "MANNING."

We found two wounds in the neck, one made by a ball passing upward and backward, from near the angle of the jaw on the right side, and out of the back part of the head; the other made by a knife from the point of the entrance of the bullet, across the neck—the point of the knife passing out on the left side, dividing the carotid artery, jugular vein, trachea, and oesophagus.

The longest was being held when we arrived. On his person we found a white silk handkerchief—marked "Manning"—as also was the shirt which he wore, which was entirely new—never having been washed.

His undershirt was also new—in his dress shirt was a common breastpin, and in his pocket was found a foreign percussion cap, one ball, undoubtedly placed there by his murderer, a rusty knife marked "N. M.," a tooth brush, two combs, some chewing tobacco, and a pipe.

He had on a pair of fine calf-kn boots—new—marked A. Phillips, Boot & Shoe Maker, 2 doors east Montgomery House, Dayton, O.

That a foul murder has been committed there can be no doubt, and we trust that retributive justice may yet overtake the inhuman perpetrators of the deed. It was the opinion of all present that the murder was for money.

He is supposed to be an American by birth, and not a few pedlar, as was stated in our first bulletin.

We made careful inquiries last evening, at the Montgomery House, and of Mr. Phillips, in relation to the gentleman, but could ascertain nothing reliable. The clerk of the Hotel thinks a gentleman by that name stopped at the House some time last week, and Mr. Phillips thinks a pair of boots were sold about that time, though he makes none but custom work.

The big horse show in Hartford, Connecticut, which was to come off this fall, has fallen through—for this year.

The big horse show fall through here—for a dozen years at least. Strange coincidence.

De Lave, the rope-walker, it is said, intends to have his sister cross the rope at Rochester N. Y., in the course of the season.

The fool had better "have his sister cross the rope" about his neck, and walk off.

The editor of the Kentucky Age says: "The other day we saw several Irish laborers trying to decipher a notice headed 'public sale.' The notice although written tolerably plain, could not be read by the emigrants, and they requested us to read it for them, which of course we did. At the conclusion, one of them turned to his comrades and remarked, in a very impressive tone: 'Well, be jabbers, I'll never buy of a man who's so regardly that he won't have got his advertisements printed; he chatted the printer and he'd chaise us.' They all acquiesced in his decision."

Mr. Kendall's experiment of sheep and horse raising, near New Braunfels, in Texas, has been more successful, as he himself writes under date of 20th August. He weaned one thousand five hundred lambs in one day, of the average of four months.

THE NEW WONDER!

Peter Josse's Hair Restorative

THIS Hair Restorative is now acknowledged to be the best ever invented for all diseases of the Hair and the Scalp, and it has effected wonders wherever used. Several of our articles have tried it, and speak in the highest terms of its curative properties. The following is one among the most authentic testimonials just received by the Proprietor:—

DAVON, Sept. 9th, 1888.

Mr. P. Josse:—For several years past, from some cause, our hair has been gradually falling out, until entire baldness threatened us. We have tried various remedies, but without any good result. We were induced to try your "Restorative" by hearing it highly spoken of by those who had used it, and who assured us that it had the effect of bringing a new and vigorous growth of hair upon their heads. We have used it, and its good effects are plainly visible in the renewed growth of hair where we were fast becoming bald. We cannot recommend the Restorative too highly.

Yours truly, W. M. SWALEM, O. N. BROADWELL, GLEN TRENER, J. J. AWALAM.
