Fireman's Gazette and the Post Office.
The Fireman's Gazette, of this week, which we are informed receives an average of about three exchanges per day, and whose correspondence is not half as large as that of the New York Ledger, has the following about the Dayton Post Office:
The Post Office of this city is a humber. A mechanic who works by the day or week, has no chance to get anything out of the office at all. They pretend to close at 6 o'clock, but a person who goes there a few minutes after six o'clock, will find the office closed. They have a clock in the office which is almost a half an hour faster than Dayton time, which they close by, and on opening the office, Dayton time is fast enough. In other places the Post Office are kept open for the accommodation of the public, and not just for those who can get there between the hours of 7 o'clock in the morning and 6 o'clock in the evening.
We have some little to do with the Post Office. We know that it is opened at a quarter before 7 o'clock in the morning, and does not close until half past 6 o'clock in the evening. The opening and closing is done on the time kept in the Post Office, which is the same that governs the railroads. The office is not regulated by the Town Clock, for if it was it would remain closed all day sometimes. But to be serious, the public, without distinction of caste or profession, will well understand the time of opening and closing the Post Office; and knowing that hours cannot be kept to accommodate every individual, they govern their visits accordingly.
We would rather say no more about "apt. Menken at the present time, as we prefer that our readers should have a breathing spell, but as our neighbor of the Xenia News is anxious to know "What's the matter?" we will briefly say:
Nothing is the matter; that is "nothing" party "lar." The "Captain's Captain" is peculiarly related to certain pages of our ledger; but as the relation is posted, and will probably remain undisturbed by any of the mutations consequent upon trade and commerce, we have made up our mind to consider it in the light of a "sealed book." The "little matter" to which we refer has nothing whatever to do with our opening of the "Captain"; we protest against having our motives tested by any such standard, because the standard is worthless, and besides, it is as absurd as worthless. We are not so stupid; our present position is evidence of the truth of the disclaimer. But we should not be grave upon a subject so trifling. "The matter," then, is simply that we consider the "Captain" one of the most serious notices which revolves upon an airy axis; a not dissent star, whose self-proclaimed have filled the measure of a Siddons, a Cushman, a Logan, & of emerald, who have bright niches in the historical firmament; and our mention of the imitation is intended only to depreciate it. That's all—"Vale."
Clergy and Laity.—For some time past there has been a difficulty brewing between the clergy and laity of Cincinnati, in regard to the latter assuming that the former claim to the prerogatives of the ministry. The fuss has at last taken the phase of an open rupture, some of the ministry openly denouncing the work of the laity in prayer and public meetings. The clergy might possibly be justified in their position could they show that the laity were actuated by improper motives, and that their labors are productive of harm; but they do not make any such claim. They simply say that the laity are infringing upon the episcopal office. They dislike to see souls saved by the exertions of any save they are ordained to preach. The position is untenable; the spirit is anti-Christian; and the sooner they are abandoned the better for the clergy.
GEMMAN TOWNSHIP.—Pursuant to a call of the Democratic Central Committee of Montgomery County. The Democracy of German Township assembled Nov. 17, 1895, to appoint Delegates to the Democratic District Convention; and organized by appointing Capt. William Leighty, Chairman, and J. H. Reid, Secretary, of said meeting.
Delegates appointed are as follows: Z. C. Catrow, E. Liggett and David Reif.
On motion the meeting adjourned.
WM. LEIGHTY, Chairman.
J. H. REID, Sec'y.

The Sons of Malta.
The Sons of Malta created quite a sensation here on Wednesday night by making their appearance on the streets about the hour of 12 M. in their regalia. The procession marched through the principal streets of the town, preceded by martial music after which they retired to their Lodge on Main Street. Although it had been but a short time since they date their existence at this place, they are already quite numerous and fast increasing.
At a meeting held a short time since in Dayton, Ohio, at which each Lodge in the State of Ohio and Indiana was represented by their G. B. J. A. and G. R. J. A., the propriety of building a Hall in Greenville, at a cost of $35,000, for the accommodation of the Indiana and Ohio Sons of Malta, and to make it their Head Quarters, was taken under consideration. Not being able to come to any satisfactory conclusion, a Committee of ten was appointed from each State, who are to make a report by the 10th of December.
The probability is that the arrangement will be effected, and if so, in the event a suitable piece of ground can be purchased, the building will be put under course of construction this winter. I had a conversation with one of the members of the committee, who informed me that there would be no difficulty in securing the building at any point, was it not that brother J. B. H. Hudson, of Montgomery county, was claiming the appointment of Inspector of Ferries of Honor of all the Lodges in both States—an important and lucrative office.
I was also informed that there was soon to be formed a Society called the Daughters of Malta—their regalia to be made up of the Sons, with a slight variation in the regalia. With this, I think all the Sons will be satisfied.—(Greenville Democrat.)

THE AMERICAN BONAPEARTS.—A letter in the Courier des Etats Unis, from M. Gallardot, dated Paris, Nov. 4th, says that Mr. Jerome Bonaparte, of Baltimore, who recently visited the United States, had refused the dignity of Senator of France offered to him by his father, Prince Jerome, in order to induce him to remain in France. Mr. Bonaparte preferred the simple title of American citizen to that of Senator of France. After the efforts made by the American branch of the Bonaparte family to obtain recognition as legitimate members of the Imperial family, the news of this refusal will create some surprise.
The little actress, Louise Paulin, who was decoyed away from California on the 20th ult., by George Berry, and sailed on the Uncle Sam, gave home-coming before she reached Acapulco—made a confidante of the Captain, and said Serrey had filled her imagination with golden visions of fame and fortune to be won soon and easily in New York. On being Acapulco, the American Consul was acquainted with the circumstances. The unhappy child was committed to his care, and she returned home by the first steamer. Serrey escaped punishment and lynching by a timely flight.
A couple (not long married) were contending about what should be the name of their first and only child.
"William, my dear, I want to name him Peter."
"Oh no, my love, I don't like Peter—he denied his Master. Let us call him Joseph."
"Why, William, I can't bear Joseph—he denied his mistress."
D. C. Dwyer, editor of the Free Press (N. C.) Times, fell into an old well in the Court-house yard on Thursday last, and escaped unhurt. However the editor may have been injured, he could not say after the accident, "It is well." Perhaps he was looking after truth, which, according to the old adage, is at the bottom of a well.
The following is old but good. Three editors are required to establish a paper in New Orleans—one to be killed in a duel, another to die with the yellow fever, and a third to write an obituary of his deceased associates.
