REPORTED FOR THE DAILY EMPIRE

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

REBELS AT FRANKFORT.

LOUISVILLE, Oct 5 P. M.—Telegraphic communication with Frankfort has just been restored.

The wires will keep peace with our army, as it proceeds southward.

The rebels inaugurated Richard Howe, for Governor of Kentucky.

At Frankfort Bragg and Humphrey Kirby Smith made bitter anti-Union speeches. Kirby Smith was there. Backner was expected but was not present at 5 in the afternoon.

The rebels burned the railroad bridges whereupon all their infantry left for the South. Rebels cut off one span of the bridge to South Frankfort; soon thereafter Scott's cavalry departed.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Oct 6.—The Richmond papers of Saturday are received.

The Examiner says Congress again indicates an adjournment coincident with a feeling of depression and apprehension in the public mind. The special adjournment in the Executive management right or wrong, has brought to us its bitter fruits.

A close, vigilant and firm performance of congressional duties is as much demanded by the public exigencies as a wild and bold control of the army.

A resolution has been adopted in the rebel Senate for the appointment of a committee of thirteen to take testimony relative to the outrages committed by the Yankees.

The evidence is to be collected and preserved in a credible form, in order that the truth of history may be vindicated and the perpetrators of the outrages delivered to the just indignation of present and future generations.

According to the debates and reports of the Rebel Congress, the Post Office Department is not self-sustaining.

A bill has been introduced to provide against foreign counterfeits of Treasury Notes.

The bill provides that if such counterfeit notes are introduced by officers and soldiers of the United States, the offender shall be deemed guilty of felony, and shall suffer death, on conviction, in any Military Court.

An Act was passed authorizing the manufacture of shoes and clothing for the army of the Confederacy.

It provides for bringing into the country, duty free, cards, card clothes, machinery, and all other articles necessary for the purpose.

A joint resolution has been adopted by the Virginia Legislature, providing that no person within that State shall be tried or imprisoned for driving therefrom, putting to death, by any means any person found on that soil, aiding or abetting, or in any other way, giving effect to that State or its borders, to the lawless and fiendish Proclamation of the President to liberate the slaves.

The number of sick and wounded paroled by the United States cavalry at Warrenton recently is 811. A large majority were not required to take an oath or sign any writing, hence the papers say they cannot be considered as paroled.

The railroad bridge over the Rappahannock was completed on Wednesday and the locomotives Hero and Old Abe and a few others were brought safely over to the rebels together with a large quantity of rolling stock, &c.

Those of the locomotives captured by the rebels from us were in good order while the others need repairs.

The State of Mississippi and that part of Louisiana east of the Mississippi river is announced as a separate military department to be under charge of Major General Pemberton.

FROM FT. MONROE.

FT. MONROE, Oct 6.—The steamer Matamoros arrived this morning at Fortress Monroe, from Aiken's Landing, from which we obtained Richmond papers to the 4th.

In the Virginia legislature, Mr. Petersburg offered the following—

Whereas, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, by his recent Proclamation, is acting in contempt of the principles of the property in slaves; which is no less concerned in the Federal Constitution than in ours, and is aiming by said Proclamation, to excite servile insurrection in our midst.

Resolved, therefore that no person in this State shall be held to have committed any offense against the criminal laws, therefore, or shall be required to answer at any time for an act done in driving from the State, or putting to death, any person with, or without arms, who may be found on our soil, aiding in any way, to give effect to the fiendish purposes of said Proclamation.

LATEST NEWS.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

DISABLED VOLUNTEERS.

WASHINGTON, Oct 7.—It is understood that disabled volunteers, or such as are not sufficiently strong to serve in the field will be detailed for guard duty at the Hospitals.

Lord Lyons is expected to return to Washington in the English steamer of the 11th.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct 5.—Tribune special says the country has yet to bear of one resignation in the army in consequence or under the excuse of the President's proclamation of freedom, on the contrary several of our Generals belonging to that class whose resignation was most loudly threatened have declared that it is time for the President to give slavery its death blow.

Tribune correspondent says Gen Sigels scouts just returned from Thoroughfare Gap report no enemy in sight this side of the mountains.

They further learned that the enemy main force was at Winchester.

The rebel wagon train had all been sent to Stanton and their cattle to meet Jackson.—Longstreet's column was reported to have commenced retreating to Richmond. This latest statement is doubted at Sigels headquarters.

The President returned from the upper Potomac thoroughly gratified with the condition of the soldiers of the federal army. He found them well clothed, well fed, well disciplined, in the best of spirits, eager to be led to battle and full of enthusiasm.

A despatch to the New York Times from Bull's army, dated Floyd's Fork, Oct 3, says we had a fierce skirmish yesterday evening. The 4th Indiana Cavalry attacked the Rebel advance at Floyd's Fork.

The fight lasted 30 minutes. Our Cavalry drove the Rebels before them. The rebels then turned three pieces of artillery upon the position from which they had been driven, thinking our men occupied it, but our artillery had taken a more secure position.

The rebels finally retired. Their loss was nine killed and three wounded. We lost six men killed. The Colonel of the 4th Ind Cavalry was shot in the head and is mortally wounded.

The Times correspondence says—A despatch just received from its special correspondent at Sandy Hook, near Harper's Ferry, states the 8th cavalry regulars and two batteries have just returned from a reconnaissance. Towards Charlestown they found the enemy there and captured a rebel Captain.

Citizens of Loudon county feeling to escape the last rebel description in that quarter are reaching Washington.

On this occasion every person capable of bearing arms, including all Quakers and boys over 16 years old, are forced into the ranks. They have also taken every horse left in the county for the secession army. Also every thing else they could lay their hands on.

The Government is about to send a commission to the West to investigate the present Indian difficulties. It is asserted there can be no doubt of the fact that arms have been furnished the Indians by persons engaged in British interests.

Judge Smith, of Wisconsin, and two well known Jurists will leave to-morrow for Beaufort, S. C. as a commission to carry into effect the confiscation act.

Bonds of the Rebel Government have been secretly sold in Baltimore within the last few days at 15c on the dollar, or one thousand dollar bonds for 150 dollars, payable at Baltimore in U. S. currency.

Capt. Barrett, of McLean's Brigade, on Saturday made a dash into the village of Haymarket and succeeded in capturing eight rebel soldiers, including a Lieut. who went there enforcing the conscript law. No other rebels seen.

PENNSYLVANIA DRAFT.

HARRISBURG, Oct 6.—An order has been issued to drafting Commissioners of the several counties directing that all persons who have been exempted from military service, because of illness, but who shall become citizens before the day of drafting, shall have their names placed on the list subject to the draft.

Gov. Curtin by Proclamation offers $1000 reward for the apprehension and conviction of the wretch who, near the city on Friday, brutally and inhumanly murdered a little girl named Mary Elizabeth Gorman.

OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS.

HARRISBURG, Oct 6.—All the accounts in foreign journals relative to European intervention in American affairs are mere speculations as it is known here that nothing upon that subject exists in a definite or official form.

It is ascertained that large supplies of cotton for parts of Europe are obtained on the Rio Grand. Mexican vessels are engaged in supplying foreign ships. It is suspected that Texan planters convey their cotton to Brownsville, Texas, whence the article is clandestinely carried to the Mexican border.

On the 8th of September there were twenty vessels there waiting for cargoes, including an English steamer, which had £50,000 worth with which to purchase cotton.

Col. Felix Salm is mustered out of the service to date from the first inst.

Gov. Morton of Indiana was complimented with a serenade to-night, he said if the rebellious States should succeed, it was impossible that the others could remain together. He entertained no doubt of the power of the President to issue the emancipation proclamation.

Mr. Holloway commissioner of Patents said the State of Indiana has 102,000 men in the field and would furnish more if necessary. Abraham Lincoln is Commander-in-Chief of the army and to his aid he invoked the aid of all loyal men.

Col. Meredith of Indiana a participant in the recent battles made a few remarks, his allusions to General McClellan and Hooker were received with cheers.

MORE ABOUT THE CORINTH FIGHT.

GRANT'S HEAD QUARTERS, Jackson, Tenn. Oct 6.

Maj. Gen. Halleck—Gen. Ord and Harburt came upon the enemy yesterday, and Gen. Harburt having driven in small bodies of the rebels the day before, after seven hours hard fighting drove the enemy five miles back across the Hatchee towards Corinth, capturing two batteries, about 300 prisoners and many small arms. I immediately urged Gen. Sosemans of these facts, and urged him to push on the good work. The following dispatch has just been received from him:

CHICKSAW, Oct 6.—The enemy is utterly routed throwing everything away. We are following sharply.

W. S. ROSECRANS.

Under previous instructions Gen. Harburt is also following. Gen. McPherson is in the lead of Rosecrans' column. The rebel General Martin is said to be killed.

U. S. GRANT, Maj. Gen.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

WASHINGTON, Oct 7.—The following report has been forwarded to the Head Quarters of the army.

HEAD QUARTERS, DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF, New Orleans, Sept. 23.

To Maj. Gen. B. F. Butler, Comd. Dept. of the Gulf.—Pursuant to your orders of the 13th inst. I embarked on the afternoon of that day on board the Steamer Ceres, as Lakeport, with three companies of the 12th Regiment volunteers, commanded respectively by Capt. J. Thornton, Farrington, and Wister and one Company, Capt. Pickering, of the 12th Mass. Regiment. I had previously sent 100 men of the 13th Conn. on board the Gunboat New London, whose commander, Capt. Read, had kindly consented to co-operate with me. The object was to surprise the village of Ponchartraine, the head quarters of the rebel Gen. Jeff. Thompson, 43 miles north of the city, on the line of the Jackson R. R. To that end the New London was to land her men at Manchac bridge, whence at daybreak next morning, they were to drive the enemy that might be found there northwards to Ponchartraine, while the remainder of the force having found the way fifteen miles up the Tangipahoa in the night, were to land and march six miles westward and capture Ponchartraine in season to secure those of the enemy who had been driven up from Pass Manchac. The attempt at surprise failed, for not only was the New London unable to get over the bar at Manchac Pass in the darkness, but the Ceres being too large for the easy navigation of the narrow and winding Tangipahoa, failed in each of the two succeeding nights to reach her destination on that river, in season to admit of our gaining Ponchartraine before daylight.

I resolved therefore to go with that steamer to Monchee bridge and did so on the morning of the 15th. From that point Captain Wister was sent with his company southward to make the distraction of the Rail Road on Monchee Island complete which duty he thoroughly performed. Captain Pickering's company was left to guard the steamer, and the companies of Captains Thornton and Farrington began a forced march of ten miles upon Ponchartraine, a locomotive one mile below the village gave notice of our approach which could not be concealed and ran northward giving the alarm to the village and thence to Camp Moore for reinforcements.

We met on entering Ponchartraine a charge of consister at 73 yards from a light battery, in charging which Capt Thornton fell severely wounded, his company then, under Lieut. Hight, reinforced Capt Farrington's platoon on the enemy's right, while Lieut. Coan with the second platoon of that company took a position under partial cover of the left of the enemy's line. From these positions our men poured in so deliberate and destructive a fire that the enemy was driven from the field.

The artillery galloped away followed by the infantry on a road through the forest in a north westerly direction.

We then set fire to a train of upwards of twenty cars laden with cotton, sugar, molasses, &c., and took the papers from the post and telegraph office, destroying the apparatus in the latter, and Jeff Thompson's sword, spurs, bridle, &c. from his quarters in the hotel.
