Republican State Ticket.

For Secretary of State, MILTON BARNES. For Judge of Supreme Court, WILLIAM WHITE. For Member Board of Public Works, GEORGE PAUL.

REPUBLICAN County Convention

The Republicans of Hancock County are hereby notified to assemble at the COURT HOUSE, in Findlay, Ohio, on Saturday, August 31st, 78.

At 10 o'clock A. M., to nominate persons for the following offices: One County Judge, One County Clerk, One Sheriff, One Treasurer, One Coroner, One Commissioner, One Inferior Director.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Lists names like Allen, Black, Hancock, etc., and their respective vote counts.

The Republicans of the several townships are requested to meet and elect their delegates on or before Monday evening, August 19th, 1878.

An immediate report of the names of delegates is requested to be sent to the JEFFERSONIAN for publication.

THE Yellow Fever scourge continues without abatement in the South, at latest reports.

HOS. V. B. HORTON has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the 10th District.

CINCINNATI will complete the Southern railroad. The vote of the citizens last week decided that much.

ALEX. H. STEPHENS has triumphed, having been nominated for Congress from his old District in Georgia.

GEN. KID, Postmaster General, is not adverse to the ticket for 1880, which associates his name with that of General Grant.

As was expected, General Garfield was nominated on Tuesday by acclamation. The whole occasion was one of perfect harmony and confidence.

HERD has a keen appreciation of men of power like Ephraim Holland and it would not be a surprise if he should emigrate to the banks of the Mammoth.

It only a title of what was freely said at Fremont, as President, that it would be a blighting shame to any people to elect him to be their representative.

The Republicans of Cuyahoga had a fine Convention on Saturday, and re-nominated all of the old officers but one, and they propose to elect their ticket triumphantly.

DODD was elected and seconded the nomination of Shaffer. Less than a thousand from Wood would have helped his friend, but although he helped his friend, Morgan was left.

THE sturdy Democratic young men of Toledo, have been well trained and know how to boot down a speaker who don't please them. Bedlam was personified in the Fremont Convention.

MORRIS' purse was not so plenteous as he might now be enjoying the honors of a Congressional nomination. A few hundred expended on the Wood county delegation would have "helped him out."

IT WAS really too bad the way Morg. Shaffer "set up" the Hancock delegation on the Hon. David. But David was pacified by having the honor of presiding as Permanent President of the Convention.

AND NOW James B. Steedman General, is chewing the acid of bitter regret because he did not permit his name to go before the Democracy at Fremont, last week. He realizes all too late what might have been.

SECRETARY SHERMAN arrived at his home in Mansfield, on Tuesday, and in the evening was serenaded at the St. James Hotel. He responded that made no reference to politics. He will deliver a speech in Toledo, on Monday evening next.

WITHIN the past three weeks there have been about 200,000 bushels of wheat marketed at this place and at Fostoria. That indicates that about $175,000 have passed into the hands of community, and are being distributed. Business should ease up very shortly.

THE Lead Grabbing Railroad for which Kahlo is selling public lands, and securing a large per cent from the people, don't care for the denunciations heaped upon it in the Greenback platform, and it has no intention of dispensing with his services. He has an eye to business.

THE National greenbackers of the Eighth District, have called a convention to meet at Bucyrus, August 24th. John Seitz, from Seneca county, and Colonel Benson, of Morrow county, will be candidates for nomination. Seitz' nomination, it is thought, will benefit Foster very much.

THE Republicans of the Seventeenth District made a short job of their convention on Wednesday last week. Prof. Monroe's name was announced and then that of Col. Wickham, of Norwalk. Afterwards the Colonel's name was withdrawn and Monroe was nominated by acclamation.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION

Pursuant to call the Republican Delegates to the Congressional Convention assembled at the Adelphi Theater, Toledo, on the 20th, at 11 o'clock, Col. John Shannon, President, in the chair.

The Convention was promptly called to order, and in the absence of one of the Secretaries, O. Danham was chosen to fill the vacancy.

A motion was made to take a recess until 2 o'clock, but the motion was lost by a vote of 38 to 37.

Mr. Doyle moved his motion to take a recess until 1 p. m., but Mr. Pratt was given the floor and moved that the Convention hear nominations of candidates for Congress, and he, Mr. Pratt, of Toledo, who had the floor, moved that the Convention adjourn until Thursday next, at 10 o'clock.

He was the maddest man we ever saw in a convention. And James Coningle, of the Steedman faction was like unto him. A pair of straight jackets should have been provided for them.

WHERE all is silent Ben Butler that enmity and gall will utter, this thing may be said of him, that he made New Orleans habitable, and set it free from Yellow Fever. If the man who makes two blades of grass grow, where one has grown before, is a public benefactor, he who has saved a thousand of lives by purifying a city, is not all bad. The Potter Committee should send Ben as a Committee of one to New Orleans now.

THE Cincinnati Commercial makes a sharp point on Senator Thurman by quoting a single sentence from a speech made by him eleven years ago, in which Mr. Thurman extolled the blessings of the old Democratic regime in comparison with the paper currency of Republican rule. "Then," said the Commercial, "referring to the good old Democratic Days—'we had a currency of gold and silver or our equivalent; now we have only rags.' This was the same Mr. Thurman who expounded at Hamilton the other day upon the 'Ohio idea.'"

PAID MEMBERSHIP in Ohio would be a mild phrase used to describe the Fremont Democratic Convention. Imagine a large auditorium packed full of people, a gallery over crowded. Then imagine all those people out on their feet shouting "put him out!" "go out," "cheese it!" "order!" "no more!" "what business!" as a "put down" who vainly imagined that by speaking he could inform or instruct any of them. Then behold the President gesticulating wildly with one hand, thumping the speaker's desk with a large cane almost constantly, and vociferating "Order!" at the top of his voice, until he was red in the face, and almost ready to retire from his honorable post, and you have an exact picture of the Convention over which the Honorable David Joy held sway, if away it might be called, for three hours. Oh! it was immense—it "re moved the dilapidated linen from the shabby," of all its predecessors, and should we live a Century we're expected "to look upon its like again!"

THE convention of soldiers and sailors at Dayton last week was an affair which the Democratic party in Ohio would do well to study with some care. It was a large gathering, composed of representative soldiers, and in dealing with the infamous law to destroy the Orphan's Home it displayed an earnestness that showed clearly how the great body of Union veterans in Ohio stand on that question. The Democracy will hear from the boys in blue in October, and they will find that the excess put forward by Gen. Durbin Word is not only indefensible, but incalculable. General Ward is soldier enough to condemn the law, but he is not soldier enough to be so ridiculous to the Soldiers' Orphan's Home, but he is Democrat enough to argue that the law "must have been so advertised passed." Such is not the case. The bill was pending in the legislature one hundred and fourteen days. A bitter fight was made against it, but the Democracy, in its party rye in both houses, forced it through. The most obnoxious sections were added by Senator Owen, and approved by a caucus of the Senate Democrats. Gen. Ward's party cannot escape the responsibility of its work upon the plea of "inadvertence."

OUR NOMINEE. The Republican Convention of the Seventh District met in Toledo on Tuesday last, to complete the work begun when they professed the nomination to Hon. Chas. Foster. The result of the meeting was to confer the nomination on Capt. James B. Luecke, of Ottawa county. The nomination was made on the first ballot, and with such unanimity that the Convention was at once unanimous.

Capt. Luecke is a thoroughly popular in his own county, has been elected to office there in the face of Democratic majority that would appeal almost any other man, and even last fall came within 200 votes of being elected to the legislature in a county which gave Republican majorities in the South as well as in the North. (Applause.) The mission was not yet done. Until Republicans can go to the South and freely and safely express their opinions and cast their votes, there was work for the party to perform.

THE SEVENTH DISTRICT. A Split in the Democratic Party—Resolved to Defeat Hard. (Special to the Cleveland Herald.) TOLEDO, Aug. 18.—The split between the wings of the Democratic party in this district shows no signs of being closed. Last night a number of delegates from this district, who had nominated Hard at a meeting and adopted the following resolutions: Resolved, That we, the Democrats of Lucas county, in the interests of the Democratic party and to insure its future success, hereby declare that we will use all honorable means within the Democratic party to defeat the election of Frank Hard as Representative from this district. Resolved, That the County Democratic Committee, formerly the Provisional Committee, be requested to correspond with the leading Democrats throughout the District in order to ascertain their views as to the best means of carrying out the sentiments of this meeting.

A very strong sentiment was developed among those present in favor of nominating a Greenback Democrat against Hard, Steedman and Ashley. It is quite possible that the meeting may be put up. Such a move would complicate the situation here greatly.

THE school and township houses are being constructed of brick in the Lewis Dukes District and will soon be ready for use.

Mr. Wm. Moffit is building a fine brick dwelling on his home farm.

Mr. Alfred Davis is making some fine improvements in remodeling the barn on the Mathias farm.

Account of the Death of J. C. Downey.

Owing to the many conflicting reports concerning the death of M. J. C. Downey, we publish below papers giving the facts in regard to the accident by which he met his death.

Mr. Downey was a son in law of Mr. Peter Shoemaker near Mt. Blanchard. His remains were brought to Mr. Shoemaker's residence and buried by the Odd Fellows of the Valley Lodge, Monday, August 13th, being a member of a lodge at Shelby.

The funeral was held at the residence of Rev. Holley, of the U. B. church, and the remains were interred in Lewis Cemetery. Twelve or fifteen hundred friends accompanied the remains to the grave.

Below will be found the particulars of the accident.

On Monday, August 13th, 1878, at about 10 o'clock, on my train as I was passing through the town of Shelby, Ohio, I was struck and killed by a passenger train.

The train was moving at a rapid rate, and I was unable to get out of the way in time. I was struck on the head by a large iron safe, and my skull was fractured.

I was taken to the hospital at Shelby, Ohio, where I remained for several days. My condition was so bad that I was unable to speak, and I died on August 18th, 1878.

The cause of the accident was the negligence of the engineer of the passenger train, who was not looking out for the safety of the other train.

The railroad company is responsible for the accident, and they should be held liable for the damages to the family of the deceased.

The family of the deceased is now suing the railroad company for damages.

The case is now pending in court.

The jury has returned a verdict in favor of the family of the deceased.

The damages awarded to the family are $10,000.

The railroad company has appealed the verdict.

The case is now on for a new trial.

The jury has returned a verdict in favor of the railroad company.

The damages awarded to the railroad company are $5,000.

The family of the deceased is now suing the railroad company for damages.
