

A late London paper contained an advertisement, offering a choice lot of manuscript sermons for sale. The Boston Transcript remarks:—"A friend connected with the book trade informs us that about three years since a London Bookseller consigned an invoice of manuscript sermons to a publishing house in Boston, and that they were all sold, privately, in a very short time, at fair prices. The story is true. We know who received them, and who sold them?"

INDIANA MARBLE.—The Mount Vernon Court states that Mr. Owen, State Geologist, has recently discovered in Posey county, Indiana, an extensive bed of excellent marble, handsomely shaded with beautiful variegated veins running through it. It is said to be fully equal to that used in the Eastern cities for mantels.—Cin. Gaz.

LOSS OF THE STEAMER WM. WELLS.—This boat, which left on short time since for Texas, was totally lost on the 12th inst. about four miles west of the mouth of the Calcasieu River. The boat was commanded by Captain J. Perry, and we believe owned in this city. The New Orleans Merchant, of the 22d inst., in noticing this disaster, says:—"We have not been able to learn whether she struck any other bank or swamped, but most probable the former is the case. The schr. Champion was engaged at the mouth of Lake Sabine, to proceed to her, for the purpose of saving as much of the cargo as possible, and to proceed with her to Galveston. There has been no loss of life in this disaster."—Cin. Gaz.

DIED.
In this city, on Saturday, the 14th inst. FRANCIS ELIZABETH, daughter of Henry Reed Jr. Esq., aged 4 months.
