C. O. R. R. Table for the Stations in Belmont County. Table with columns for station names and times for morning and evening trains.

Announcements. Editor of the Belmont Chronicle: You will please announce the name of JOHN H. JOHNSON as a candidate for the office of Treasurer of Belmont County...

Teachers Examination will be held at the usual place, on Saturday August 8th at the usual place, on Saturday August 8th at the usual place...

TO CORRESPONDENTS: "J. D." will have to stay with us another week. "A. S." can not be known for several days to come...

Celebration.—The colored people will hold a celebration at Cadiz, on the 1st day of August.

Dead Scott Decision, with the full report of each of the Judges.

Hugh Miller's Testimony of the Rocks, together with a number of new works, just received and for sale at the Chronicle Book Store.

We will next week publish the speech of Senator TRUMBULL, of Illinois, at Springfield, in reply to Senator DOUGLASS. It is the ablest and most convincing speech we have read for many a day...

CHARLES BARNARD sent the Committee on Summer Fruits some of the finest specimens of Currants we have ever seen. They were the Mrs. Victoria, White Dutch, Common Red, Red Dutch, Black Victoria and Cherry...

Gony's Ladies Book for August, is on our table. It is an excellent number, and usually more than welcome to our Sanctum.

The contents of the number are—Pala's Pride, the Lost Diamonds, the Birds of the Pees, the Tall Family in America, Old Shoes, Box of Blocks, to Alice, with a Boquet, &c. Would you know your duty? Go and subscribe for GODET.

We call attention of our Readers to the following New Advertisements in today's paper.

STONE & THOMAS, selling at greatly reduced prices. FURBER & HULLHORN'S. Notice of Stockholders, of the Central Ohio Rail Road.

EDGERTON'S Sugar Grove Nursery. Pi is a common article in the printing office, and the printers think of it with perfect horror. But not so with the Pie who got the other day. The "Boys" would want one like it every day...

Doctor, we hope your Strawberry apples may last forever, and may they frequently be knocked into Pie. Young man, do you want a wife? then go to Loydville, and be quick, for we can scarcely keep one of the "Boys" in the office, so anxious is he to be off.

"Fan Tax Mayor I. A." says "the uninitiated would say that the 'seldom get time to go more than half a square from home,' therefore we should have assistance in 'getting up locals.' To the initiated we would say we do need a local, but not so bad here as elsewhere. In our sister city of Bridgeport, for instance, where fights, law suits, R. R. accidents, &c., are every day occurrences, there is a fine field for locals. What says 'Fan Tax Mayor I. A.' to locating there? An ancient poet was once insulted by a lady, but see how gracefully he forgave her: 'A lady once told me, and in her own house, she did not care for me three days of a town. I forgive the dear creature for what she said, and for ladies in talk of what men in their bed.' We freely forgive the 'dear creature' for this time.

ROT—Last night the quiet of our town was disturbed by strange sounds and strange scenes. Boys and men, and men and boys, were hurrying hither and thither and among them was a man—won't you say, but that was 'in 'quip' pretty deep. The last that was heard from him, he had been pretty deep in a well contiguous to the steam mill, and came out with the determination to leave town in the morning, we guess the 'boys' gave him a free pass.

They next visited a learned coddler about six feet in his boots. They did not get him into the well, but they emptied near a well of water on his premises, and it is likely the cooling beverage quieted for a time the spirits. In this case they acted very judiciously, breaking the poor man's wind.

JEAN WILLIAMS, of the Woodfield Spirit, dropped into our sanctum this afternoon. The Locofoco of Monroe talk of sending Jean to Columbus to make laws for the people, and we confess we would rather see him go there than any Locofoco we know of. May his shadow never grow less.

Horrible Murder. WM. TATE, formerly a resident of this County, was most brutally murdered on his own premises near Keokuk, Iowa, on Wednesday July 8th. It would seem that ASBREW TWELVEY (the murderer) had tried to shut a road through part of his farm, for which Mr. TATE had a deed. A law suit was the result, and TWELVEY was cast, who increased him, that he had carried a pistol ever since for the avowed purpose of shooting Mr. TATE. He had frequently blocked the road with brush, logs and rails, had thrown down the fence and led the cattle into the grain fields, and various other depredations which Mr. TATE bore, thinking that his spite would soon be satisfied; but it grew worse the less the notice was taken of him. On the day the fatal occurrence transpired, Mr. TATE had gone to a neighbors house on some business, on returning, found TWELVEY again tearing down his fence, when the following altercation took place, as quoted from a letter sent to his friends in this vicinity. "Mr. TATE said what in the world TWELVEY are you destroying my fence for? In return TWELVEY said, damn you, I'll put you out of that soon, and with that he threw the axe, from him, drew a revolver, and fired but missed him, the second shot was the fatal one, the ball striking him, on the right side, at the pantaloons pocket, passed through his bowels and lodged in the left side, between the skin and flesh, a third shot striking his right arm, burning his clothes, but otherwise doing but little damage. Mr. TATE was able to get home where he lingered until Friday morning in great pain. TWELVEY made no secret of the act, but rather boasted that he had shot TATE. He was arrested and got out on bail, to appear for trial at the coming court. Mr. TATE was 48 years of age, leaving a wife and four children, together with numerous friends in Iowa, and this county, to mourn his loss. He was a man of known integrity, & of a quiet peaceable demeanor, a good neighbor and one respected by all who knew him.

BEAVER, 18th July, 1857. DEAR CHRONICLE.—The 'cheated term' still continues,—"the dog rat rages," and all the world, and rest of mankind sweats, excepting always those lucky occupants of the Arctic regions, who are never troubled about the heat. By the way, this would be a capital time for poor Lady Franklin to get recruits for another expedition in search of Sir John.

On Friday last our town was the medium of the transportation of the aggregated municipal wisdom of the cities of St. Louis, Cincinnati and Chillicothe, to Baltimore. They went we presume to eat (if possible) at Baltimore as much as the Baltimoreans eat off from them in the late excursion. President Brooks, & O. R. R., sent them a polite invitation, (unpolite) that their visit was ill-timed, but all would not do. They were bent on going, and they did. This thing of getting up excursions on Rail Roads, for the exclusive benefit of hotel keepers, is a stupendous humbug, purely American, it is true, but nevertheless a humbug. The Cincinnati Commercially properly styled the 'great excursion,' is a fine one, and very near having its solution of continuity' destroyed at this point, but the train on the B. & O. R. R. waited some eight or nine hours, seemingly anxious to accommodate such a preponderance of aldermanic wisdom.

Allow me to congratulate you on your correspondence who so liberally supplied you last week. I was sorry my humble scribbling was not on hand to be dignified by being issued along with such a godly company. You are a very good fellow, and I am glad to see you. I gave it to a friend to deliver to you, and I suppose, he forgot it.

The river is now nearly the attenuated stream, Robert J. Walker some years ago represented it. He said it was frozen up for six months in the year, and was dried up the other six. Bots are still plying up and down, but unless something happens, (and something hardly ever does happen,) they must soon stop.

An excursion train went from here to Barnesville yesterday, to enable all persons who desire to attend a projected meeting of the Baptist (Campbellite) church in progress in that place.

Hoping the present article may arrive more promptly than the last, I am Yours, &c., LOCALITIES.

BARNESVILLE, July 20, 1857. MR. EDITOR: 'Keep cool' should now be the motto for the people, when the mercury stands at 90° in the shade, and Old Sol is pouring his scorching rays upon the parched ground. Such has been the state of affairs here for several weeks, and we feel like trying Sidney Smith's experiment of 'taking off our flesh and setting in our bones to cool.' With such a temperature, business must necessarily be dull, and as our two principal crops, Wheat and Tobacco have been shipped, further operations in the produce line will be light.

We are pleased to learn that the wheat prospect in this region is very promising, and our farmers will be in the midst of harvest this week, and the best of all is—that, at their very doors, they have the best wheat market in the State—no wonder then that the elongated visages and croaking voice of the sons of the soil give place to cheerful faces, for they have a bright prospect ahead, and the crops, soil and comfort of life around Barnesville, are unsurpassed.

I am happy to state, that the amount required to complete the new M. E. Church has been subscribed and the work on the building will soon commence, and be furnished by October. The old house occupied by the Methodist, has been purchased and will be repaired and by the society of Disciples as a place of worship. The latter named denomination is holding a series of meetings here, which have been attended with success. A number have joined, and been immersed.

On Saturday last our officers arrested a man named Dettler, charged with offering and passing counterfeit money. The 'stuff' was ten dollars bills, purporting to be of the N. W. Bank of Va., payable at Wellsburg, Va., there are well executed and are calculated to deceive the best Judges. The fellow passed off the notes upon a merchant and in attempting it again was detected. The Justice committed him (in default of

The famous steamer 'Buckeye State,' seven days ago last February, went down a few days ago for the last time—to be broken up at Cincinnati. Her machinery to be transferred to a new boat. In May, 1850, under Capt. Sam. Deas, she made the celebrated run from Cincinnati to Pittsburg, the best time ever made up the Ohio river—raising the '24 hour pole,' placed, we believe, by the Telegraph No. 2, in 1848 near the mouth of Little Hocking, and planting some six miles above, a short distance above Parkersburg; a point which no boat since has been able to reach in 24 hours from Cincinnati. The splendid 'Union Line' steamers, in 1853, said they were going to attempt the pole to Marietta in 24 hours, and made attempts at it; but the Buckeye State still has 'the horns,' an honor which her memory will probably continue to wear.—Iron Age Register.

JOHN QUERRY and JANE QUERRY, of county Antioch, (since married to—GAIN, probably) who are supposed to live in Richmond, are informed of the death of their sister, BARBARA QUERRY, and that they, together with ANDREW QUERRY, and the children of a deceased sister, who reside in county Antioch, Ireland, are heirs to a small property left by BARBARA, in Belmont County, Ohio. They will write to JOHN DEWOS, at Clayville, Ohio, who has been appointed administrator. (Network papers please copy.)

JOHN B. GOGGIN is about starting for Europe. He intends staying there three years.

EXHIBIT FLEET.—Sixteen of the eighty-seven vessels sunk during the war on the Black Sea, have lately been raised, and a number have been since fitted for service.

There is to be a National Emancipation Convention at Clayville, Ohio, on the 23rd, 24th and 25th of August, called by Elisha Burritt, to discuss his scheme for the peaceful removal of slavery.

There are 647 prisoners in the Ohio Penitentiary, the greatest number ever known to be confined within the walls at one time.

WELL DONE.—Among the first acts of the new York Police Commissioners, after the substitution of MOTOR WOOD, was to cause the Liquor Shops to close on the Sabbath day. The order was generally promptly obeyed. The order was at least nine-tenths correct, but why not chain the devil all the week!

GRAND BANQUET. Baltimore, July 20.—The grand banquet to the Western visitors, came off this evening, in the Maryland Institute. The hall was elegantly decorated, and the galleries are crowded with ladies. The tables make a magnificent appearance. The Mayor presided. Speeches from Mayor Swan, P. White, of Baltimore, Gov. Chase, of Ohio, Daniel M. Barringer, of N. C. Judge Prodan, of Cincinnati, and others. The cost of the banquet is over six thousand dollars.
