Poetry.

The Beauty in the Forest.

Where the trees are green and fair; There is beauty in the meadow...

There is beauty in the fountain, Singing gaily at the play.

While rain or dew are glittering On its silvery shining spray.

There is beauty in the moonlight When it falls upon the sea,

While the blue, foam crested billows Dance and frolic joyously.

There is beauty in the lightning gleams That over the dark waves raves;

Oh! the world is full of beauty When the heart is full of love!

There is beauty in the brightness Beaming from a loving eye,

In the warm blush of affection, In the tear of sympathy!

In the sweet, low voice whose accents The spirit's gladness prove!

Oh! the world is full of beauty When the heart is full of love.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.

HOUSE.—The House went into the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union on the President's Annual Message.

SENATE.—Messrs. Hunter and Toombs asked, but the Senate refused to excuse them from serving on the French Spoils Bill Committee.

Mr. J. Glancey Jones submitted a series of resolutions referring to the various branches of the message the appropriate standing committees.

Mr. Chaflin thought they had plenary power and ample instructions for the course they deemed proper to pursue.

GOLD FEVER IN THE LAKE SUPERIOR COURTNEY.

We learn from a private source that considerable excitement was lately caused at Ontonagon, by the arrival of a party of Indians from the head waters of the Menominee river, bringing with them some remarkably fine specimens of gold bearing quartz.

They represented that the country was rich with the species of mineral. Some of the leading mining men of Ontonagon, after examining the specimens, formed an agreement with the Indians to guide them to the place from which they procured the specimens, and also to keep the matter a secret for the present.

By their special request the Ontonagon papers are also silent in regard to the expedition. The Menominee river rises in Marquette county and flows southeast into Green Bay. It forms the southern boundary of the Peninsula.

The heavy snows which have lately fallen will, perhaps, prevent the expedition from reaching its destination this fall.

Dayton Empire.

TO THE CORN-GROWERS OF THE WEST.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says: It is well known by all farmers who have taken the trouble to examine this season's crop of corn, that it does not harden, and from the fact that the late sharp frosts took place immediately after heavy rains, all standing corn was more or less frozen, (indeed some of it solid) and such as was put up in shock, had not only stood a good chance to be nipped by the frost; but from the soft state it was in when gathered, had a great tendency to sweat. These facts combined will, in a great measure, destroy its germinating powers. And it behooves all farmers to commence at once and select their best corn for the coming planting, as unless they do, their labor will be in vain, and we shall hear more complaints of the corn not coming up, than ever before.

Farmers, look to this, oblige yourselves and serve AMERICA.

FORTY SEVEN STATES.—The Boston Journal says, would one believe, without looking into it, that we were in a fair way of carrying the number of sovereign States, originally thirteen, and now thirty-one, up to forty-seven! But so it is—There are Oregon, Kansas and Minnesota, whose constitutions are already formed or forming. It is hoped they will be admitted the coming winter, making the members of the Confederacy thirty-four.

Then New Mexico, Nebraska and Washington, already thriving Territories, will swell the aggregate up to thirty-seven. Four new states to be carved out of Texas, according to conditions in the treaty of annexation, will give us forty-one. Two additional States demanded from the area now included in California, would make forty-three; Arizona, Neosho, Dacotah, and Columbus Territories carry us up to forty-six—and lovely Utah will be the forty-seventh.

ADOLESCENT ORTS INDIAN.—"Dearest, I will build thee a nest all covered with ivory, in some secluded vale, close by a purpling brook, moonbeaming over its pebbly bed; thou, incessantly babbling daisies, tinkling strain, 'love, love,' where the atmosphere is redolent with soothing, spicy aromas, that make the eye languish, and the heart dissolve in the liquid fumes of love—where the balmy morning zephyrs sigh in the dense forest's leafy mass, chanting melody—where the tiny songsters that whirl in ethereal space warble naught but love. I will plant thee a garden of gorgeous love-lilies, culled from nature's most ardent designs, warmest dainties, and sweetest smelling incense!"

"Delphic, dear, don't forget to have a patch of cucumbers and inyuns—they are so nice pickled!"

THIS MONK WAX.—Intelligence has been received that Fort Bridges, which was to have been the winter quarters of the Utah U. S. Army, has been destroyed by the Mormons. The fort was situated one hundred and thirteen miles from Salt Lake City, from which it was separated by a range of mountains. The Utah expedition is at the mercy of the Mormons, probably by this time surrendered to the polygamous prophet, is the drift of the news.

The official vote of Minnesota has been received. The entire Democratic ticket is elected. Messrs. Rice and Shields were elected United States Senators on the 15th ult.
