We have a letter from the 80th to-day; too late for this week's issue; will appear in our next. The Fourth passed off in Urbana without any demonstration in the way of celebrating it. The boys, as usual, made the day noisy by a miscellaneous burning of powder, and our business men, very commendably showed their respect for the day by closing their stores. Rev. ADAM BOWEN, of this place, preached two sermons in West Liberty last Sabbath, which were received with great favor. Indeed, it was the popular expression that no sermons had been better delivered in that (M. E.) church for some time. Mr. Bowen promises much in his profession and for doing good. With the Fourth came hot weather—we let that our Jim declares that he can cook eggs by laying them in the window near which he stands "setting!" This is doubtless an "exaggeration!" but it is nevertheless so hot that if spectators would come around selling Greenland in chunks he would be selling a fortune in this part of the "Kountry." Oh that our Summer won't last all the year! Said Billkins to Simkins the other day when the latter and every "other man" in Urbana were excited over the War news—"keep cool, my boy!" "How in thunder can a fellow keep cool with the refrigerator 90 in the shade," replied Simkins, sorrowfully, as the "sweat of his brow" trickled gleefully off his nose; "Oh, for an out in some vast—'" "Ice house," added Billkins; "there's where you'd keep cool, my boy!" THE SEASONS.—We continue to chronicle the perfection of the seasons—perfect in all the crops—perfect in weather, for receiving the harvest in full ripeness. The smaller fruits have been brought in for sale in profusion and sold at low rates. Cherries are unusually abundant and it is pleasant to see persons return from the country with their day's picking which cost them only the labor of gathering. A BACHELOR friend of ours, was entrapped the other day—not in the meshes of matrimony, but in a more "embarrassing" position, probably. Going into an out-house of a lot on which several buildings "front" (one of which is occupied by ladies) he had to be a melancholy witness to a female hand turning the key in the door, and being too timid to make an outcry, remained "in duress vile" until some one happened along and released him from his captivity. Goals are goals in harvest time, you know. PERSONAL.—Our friend Lieut. Samuel H. Hamilton, arrived home Monday. He never looked better—his increased in fatness under the southern sun. May his shadow never decrease! Mr. John M. Cundiff, of the 13th Regiment, arrived home last week. Mr. C. has suffered so severely in his health that one hardly recognizes him—yet up to the time of his departure from the regiment he was on duty. This is highly creditable to him. ACCIDENTS.—A son of Mr. J. J. Robinson while picking cherries at Evans Wiley, Esq's, last Monday, was precipitated to the ground by the breaking of the limb of the tree on which he was standing, and falling on his arm broke it at the wrist. He is doing as well as could be expected. The same day about noon, Mr. Robinson, himself, stepped off a ladder in Helmick's cellar-way, and falling heavily on his foot sprained his ankle severely. Monday was an unlucky day to our friend, the Yankee.

URBANA UNION. CITY AND COUNTY. This Paper. THE question has been asked, whether the URBANA UNION will be a permanent paper. We answer that it is no temporary thing; it is meant to be permanent. It makes no debts, but pays as it goes. Those who wish to be subscribers must pay in advance else they cannot be subscribers. Customers for job work must pay on delivery, or they cannot be customers. The publisher wishes to be explicit—the URBANA UNION will do its duty, and will keep good its word. County Convention. THE URBANA UNION has been asked to give notice for the call of a County Convention to be held in Urbana on Saturday, 26th July, for closing delegates to a District Convention to be held at Piqua, on the 6th of August, for the nomination of a candidate for Congress. The Urbana Union is not authorized to do so, and in its judgement, the District Convention is premature. The people have not discussed the matter yet, and this movement must be meant for the benefit of those who expect to be on hand in time. Champaign county is only a voting power, and will support a sound Union man and none other. We thus make it known that a movement is on foot for such a meeting, which will no doubt be held. As the thing moves on we will have more to say. Who fixed the time of meeting at Piqua? Urbana Collegiate Institute. THE examination of the students of this Institution will take place on Wednesday, July 10th, commencing at 9 o'clock A. M. All who feel interested are invited to attend. The Commencement Exercises will be held in the Chapel of the Institute, Thursday Evening, July 10th, at 7 1/2 P. M. Porter's Brass Band has been engaged, and will be present to enliven the occasion. An admittance of 10 cents will be charged, the proceeds to be given to the Soldiers' Aid Society. The occasion will be one of interest, and we hope our citizens will, as heretofore, favor it with their presence. Several local and other items are deferred. The remaining members of the 69th's band arrived home to-day—all in good health. Our thanks are due Miss Ella Pence for some tastefully arranged cherry bouquets. Rev. J. F. CHALKLEY, formerly of this place is Chaplain of Col. Rankle's 45th Regiment—a very excellent man for the place. Do not forget the "Commencement Exercises" at the Seminary to-morrow evening with its many attractions. We have a letter from the 80th to-day; too late for this week's issue; will appear in our next. Frauds upon the County Treasury. On the 24th June, 1861, Joshua Saxton received from the Auditor of Champaign county, an order on the County Treasury for 118 Dollars, 80 cents, on the following bill: ACTING CHAMPAIGN COUNTY J. Saxton Dr. 1861. To Printing Laws of Ohio, 108,000 ems $112.00 The bill itself was a falsehood; he never did print the laws; and the law which authorized the printing of the General Laws in newspapers, made it the duty of the County Auditor, Probate Judge and Prosecuting Attorney of each county, to contract for the publication of the same in two weekly newspapers printed therein. The law further required that each person publishing the general laws under that provision, should file his account with the Auditor of the proper county, which account shall be accompanied by one copy of each newspaper containing said laws and also his affidavit in the following form: "I, Joshua Saxton, do solemnly swear that the general laws, a copy of which is herewith presented, were published in the Urbana Citizen and Gazette a newspaper printed by me in the county of Champaign, and that the same contains 108,000 ems, and that this publication I am entitled to 118 Dollars, 80 cents, according to contract." There is no such affidavit on file, and such an affidavit would have been a criminal offense, for the laws never were published in a newspaper printed in Champaign county—and it was a gross fraud on the Treasury. He bargained with the county officers to print the general laws in his paper and he did not do it. But having received a circular from the office of the Cleveland Herald, announcing that the Herald office would print the laws in an extra sheet, and that they would contain 198,000 ems, he procured from that office a few hundred copies of that sheet, with the heading changed to read "Urbana Citizen and Gazette—Extra," and for which he charged about two Dollars per hundred, he palmed these off as a compliance with his contract, and drew the 118 Dollars, 80 cents. Of course he avoided making the oath required by law. But he had a stronger reason. On the 12th June, 1861, the Herald office sent out the following circular: "DEAR SIR—The actual measurement of the Laws just published is 166,000 ems instead of 198,000, as we supposed when received and we issued a circular. They are nearly all set in Agate and there are 31 ems in a line. Yours, &c., FAIRBANKS, BENDISY & CO. Twelve days after this circular was issued, the bill was presented for 198,000 ems and paid. Some people may think that the Hand-bill practice has a fair piece of cheating against a County Treasury but what will they say about charging 198,000 ems, when the quantity was but 166,000, and the party knew it? And here is another case: On the 23rd June, 1862, Levi Geiger, Prosecuting Attorney of Champaign county, drew from the County Treasury two hundred Dollars for his services at the June Term, without any special order of the Court. On the 30th April, 1862, a new law took effect fixing the compensation of Prosecuting Attorneys, and providing as follows: "The Prosecuting Attorney for each county in this State shall annually receive, for his services in civil and criminal business, which now are or hereafter may be required of him by law, to be paid out of the treasury of his county on the order of the Court of Common Pleas and warrant of the County Auditor, at such times and in such instalments as the court may direct the following compensation and no more, to be graduated according to the federal census: in each county containing less than twenty thousand inhabitants, not exceeding 300 Dollars; in any other county, not exceeding one Dollar and fifty cents for each one hundred inhabitants, which such county may contain. The same act repealed all former laws allowing compensation to prosecuting attorneys." According to the census of 1860, Champaign county contains 22,740 inhabitants, and if the Court had fixed the compensation at the highest sum allowed it would be 340 Dollars and 50 cents for each year, or 113 Dollars and 50 cents each term. But the Court did not fix the allowance, and no money could be drawn. Did the Prosecuting Attorney know of this new law? If so why did he draw 200 Dollars? If he did not know of it, what excuse has he for not knowing it? TUNDS OF RESPECT.—At a regular communication of Harmony Lodge, No. 8, F. & A. M., held on the 12th day of June, 1862, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted: Whereas, The Great Master above in his infinite wisdom, has seen fit to remove from our fraternal embrace, by the hand of death, our worthy brother, John W. Taylor, therefore be it Resolved, That in the death of Brother Taylor, his wife has lost a kind and affectionate husband, community a good citizen, and our order a devoted member. Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the mandate of an All-wise Providence in removing our brother from labor to reward, we would tender our heartfelt sympathies to the family of the deceased. Resolved, That as an evidence of our respect for the deceased, we will wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of 30 days. Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the papers of our Town, and a copy thereof be presented by the Secy of this Lodge to the widow of our deceased brother. JAMES G. OGDEN, Wm. MATEE, Committee. A. C. HUBBERT, Secy. SUBSCRIBERS for the Urbana Union; one Dollar per year in advance.

From the Sixty-Sixth. WASHINGTON CITY, June 22, 1862. Mrs. MARY E. WILLIAMS—Enclosed we send a list of the sick and wounded of the 66th Regt. and have made it as near correct as we could, no doubt there are mistakes, and omissions of names of men who are in the hospitals. It is a job which I little thought, before leaving home, would be so bad to accomplish: the men are much scattered throughout the different Hospitals. Each Hospital has many patients; and when one goes are admitted without any regard to the regiment they belong to; this causes a great deal of trouble to show us the sick. At the Mansion House Hospital I do not believe there is a person in Ohio who could find all our men in a day without a guide, even if he had the number of the bed. We have been distributing our things; the men are very much pleased to see us. At the Mansion House, yesterday, we had the credit of being the only persons who brought anything for the sick. The Hospitals are generally clean and kept in good condition; they have as far as I can learn a good supply of beds and clothing. Handkerchiefs are in great demand, so much so that we may have to tear up some of the sheets to be used as handkerchiefs. The friends of the sick and wounded in writing, should direct their letters to Washington city, and name particularly the Hospital; if the patient is removed the letters will be forwarded. The regiment embarked yesterday on boats at Alexandria, destination unknown to the men. I shall be informed as soon as they reach their destination. If any of our men get worse, I will write or telegraph to their friends if it should be necessary. Yours, in haste, W. W. HEMCK, W. A. HEMCK. "After Shields' (now Ferry's) division had embarked at Alexandria, General Tyler, by his earnest entreaties, succeeded in procuring orders for the disembarkation of his brigade—in which is the 66th—and they are consequently yet at that point. The latest intelligence from the Regiment states that they will remain there during the warm weather (until September, perhaps) for the purpose of recruiting up, both in numbers and the general condition of the brigade. During that time Captains Baird, Horr, McMoran and others will remain at home recruiting, and it is hoped that their popularity and energy will enable them to fill up the regiment to the minimum number at least. To do this it will require three hundred or four hundred men. Let the ranks be filled up! Join your home regiment, which has done so nobly, and now calls for more men!—Ed. Ustox. We give this week a list of the orders on the County Treasury drawn by the County Auditor during the month of June, omitting the orders for Soldiers' pay, which are a mere agency. Hereafter we shall give the list weekly—and, perhaps, it may be found that a little precise knowledge of who draws money, and for what, may lead to profitable conversation about our small public affairs. McClellan had repulsed his headquarters, and the army had advanced some five miles toward its destination. The correspondent of the Philadelphia Enquirer states that the Richmond papers of the 4th acknowledge the loss of 30,000 men, though they claim the victory. The correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, of the same date, reports that McClellan is pushing rapidly forward, driving the enemy at all points. The gunboats accompanied his advance, shelling the woods and scattering the enemy, his main force following in support. We have omitted to notice in this the new dress of the Tiffin Advertiser, one of the finest of our exchanges. It looks as gay as a young married couple. The Toledo Blade has, also, come out with new type, &c., and states that it is prospering better than ever. All of which we are pleased to see and hear. NOTICE.—The Stockholders of the Addison and Casswater Turnpike Company, are hereby notified that a meeting of the Stockholders of said Company, will be held at Thacker's Schoolhouse, in the township of Loud Creek, Miami county, Ohio, on the 16th day of August 1862, for the purpose of determining the rate of toll to be assessed on each shareholder in said company to meet the existing liabilities of said company.
