CITY AND COUNTY. Advertising. Has enlarged many a small business; Has revived many a dull business;

Attention!—If any of our friends have copies of the first number of the Urbana Union they will favor us, exceedingly, by handing them in, soon.

Tax Democracy of Champaign County and all others who are in favor of the Union, the Constitution and the Supremacy of Law and Order, will meet in convention at the Court House in Urbana, on Saturday, the 30th day of May, 1863, at one o'clock, P. M.

County Convention. The several Townships in the county are entitled to a representation in said county convention as follows (allowing one vote for every 50 votes cast for Judge Hanney at the last State election, and one vote for every fraction over 25 votes so cast):

Urbana Township, 6 delegates. Mad River " 4 " Jackson " 4 " Adams " 3 " Harrison " 2 " Salem " 2 " Rush " 2 " Wayne " 2 " Union " 2 " Concord " 2 "

The several Townships will select their delegates to said county convention on Saturday, the 23rd day of May, 1863, at 2 o'clock P. M., at their usual place of holding their township conventions for such purposes.

Mayor's Proclamation. WHEREAS, some of the most respectable citizens of this village have, as eye-witnesses, reported to me the fact that certain saloons or eating houses, restaurants, groceries, coffee houses, cellars and other places of public resort, were intoxicating liquors are sold in violation of the law, have been kept open during all the hours of the night, and that young men, and even men of families, have been known to leave only at the dawn of day, and that certain places among the classes of houses above designated have been known to keep open on Sundays through side or back door entrances:

Now, therefore, as a measure for the PUBLIC SAFETY OF THE TOWN, and to prevent disturbances of the public peace in the night season, and upon the Sabbath day, I, William Patrick, Mayor of the incorporated village of Urbana, and by virtue of the same the commissioner of the public peace within its limits, do hereby declare, publish and proclaim, that if the individuals who keep the places above specified shall not close the same at the usual hour of other business houses in the village, and if good faith keep them so closed during unusual hours and days, the proper steps will most assuredly be taken to have the same most effectually closed by the public authorities as public nuisances. Landlords and tenants, govern yourselves accordingly! This is no idle swagger, but put forth in good faith, and if not heeded, the Prosecuting Attorney of the County will be furnished with the names of the witnesses who will testify to the facts complained of.

Done at the village aforesaid, this 13th day of May, A. D. 1863. WILLIAM PATRICK, Mayor.

Give the advertisement of Langstroth's Bee Hive. This excellent invention needs no recommendation from us.

Soldiers' Bounty. By a late act of Congress it is provided that soldiers "wounded in battle" and discharged by reason thereof, shall receive the same bounty that they would have received had they remained in the service for two years.

The 42d Ohio was in the battle at Grand Gulf, Mississippi, but we have no information yet of any casualties in the company from this county. The regiment suffered little, if the accounts received are correct.

The Conscriptus.—We mentioned last week the appointment of Mr. A. C. Duell as Provost Marshal for this District. Since we are informed that General John H. Young has been appointed Commissioner and Dr. E. D. Gilson Surgeon.

Spies Shot.—The two spies, resident of Kentucky, who were sentenced by General Burnside and the Government to be executed for treason, at Johnson's Island, were shot there last Friday, and their bodies sent to Cincinnati. The body of each man was pierced by five balls in the region of the heart.

WAR MEETING OF THE COLORED FOLK.—A. P. Dunlap, Agent of the Military Commission of Massachusetts for the State of Ohio, is raising recruits for the 55th Regiment of Massachusetts (colored) volunteers, announces that John M. Langston, of Oberlin, Ohio, will address the colored people of Urbana on "The War and the Duty of the Colored Men at this Hour," next Sunday evening, May 24. All persons are invited to be present.

The people of Urbana can have some satisfaction in knowing that they were not so demonstrative over the bogus news received last Sunday a-week of the capture of Richmond as were the inhabitants of other places, Bellefontaine, Piqua, Sidney, Tiffin, Fremont, Sandusky, Toledo, and other Union places, went it "heavier" than our folks. In Fremont and Sandusky they got up processions, fired cannon, had speeches, &c., under the wildest excitement imaginable.

"Very Good!"—Such was the exclamation of all who saw the performance of the Carter Zouave Troupe at our Union Hall last week. It is, in fact, the best trained troupe, and gives the best exhibitions of its kind in America.

We might make special mention of each member of the troupe, but all are so good in their respective parts that we have not the room to present. Conspicuous are Misses Ada (a child of fine dramatic talent—the 'star' of the company), Minnie, Edie, Maggie, (a real good dancer), Jennie, (a sweet 'un), and Master J. (smart Young America). Their splendid Zouave Drill, ballet performances and charming minstrelsy in Old Folks' costume, are each attractive enough to insure good houses. The harpist, Signor Girard, and the violinist, Mr. Ohlfeld, are first-class artists. The troupe can expect full houses whenever it visits us.

LAYER NEWS.—Just received at G. W. Collins' Photograph Gallery, the largest and best assortment of Photograph Albums, (of all sizes and qualities) that has ever been brought to Urbana, all of which will be sold at the very lowest prices. Call and see them before buying elsewhere, as it will be to your interest to do so.

This is the place to get the best Cartes de Visite, or any other kinds or sizes of Photographs and Ambrotypes that are made in the United States, as thousands of people can testify. If you don't believe it, come and see for yourself. Admittance free. Rooms North East Corner Public Square, Urbana, O.

"Moral Suasion."—Rev. Mr. Parsons, Chaplain of the 66th, in a letter to the Ohio State Journal states the following: "A scene occurred at the hospital in front of Fredericksburg which is deserving of notice. Two seceding ladies in silk came into the hospital on Tuesday morning, and were talking in great glee with a 'Red' officer who was wounded. They spoke in severe terms of the Union cause and army—when an old Union woman, who was waiting upon the suffering, caught up a barrel stave and fell upon them and smote them until we were obliged to take her away. The old lady apologized by saying 'that she was sorry to do anything to annoy the wounded; but that such things needed a little moral suasion.' The boys gave her three cheers, while the gentle sisters took their departure.

Explanation from the Mayor.

Mr. Editor, Sir: The inquiry has been made of me as to the meaning of the proclamation of 13th inst, in regard, to the keeping of saloons &c., &c., closed on Sunday, when the family have to use the entrances of the business rooms for egress and ingress. All I have to say is that when necessity really exists and is used solely and only for such purposes by the family, or friends who really wish to visit the family, and when, from all the circumstances, the public are satisfied that no liquor of any description or name is sold or given away in violation of law, it will not contravene the object of the proclamation.

No civil rights that belong to all citizens are intended to be interdicted by its requirements. "The public safety (of all) and the prevention of a disturbance of the public peace are the motives for the measure." But as to unusual hours of the night, there can be no good reason why they should not be closed at the usual hours for closing all business houses.

And from my own observation I am now established that much of what has excited our fears for the last few weeks has in a great measure grown out of late night drinking, and therefore, the proclamation must be adhered to, and the owners of the establishments themselves are as deeply interested as others in this measure; and it is hoped they will yield cheerful obedience to the requirements, as they are all reasonable and right in good morals and sound law.

WILLIAM PATRICK, Mayor. URBANA, May 20th, 1863.

It must be a pleasure to the ladies to call at Glenn's and see the many useful and elegant articles of housekeeping goods to be found there; and a still greater pleasure to know that they can be purchased at so reasonable figures. The bird cages are handsome and neat, and the table cutlery of the best looking styles. The Willow-Ware commends itself to everybody. We cannot "see" how Jim can remain a "beeh" with so many Willow "cabs" in view all the time.

The lot adjoining G. Ellis & Co's clothing store (West) was recently sold at Sheriff's Sale, bringing $1155; nearly 30 feet front—about $38 a foot. Mr. Edward Jennings, one of the "solid" men of Urbana, was the purchaser. As Mr. J. owns the (late) Helmick property, he can, by building on the grounds just purchased, have the largest L room in Urbana.

The calls for the State Convention have been made by both parties—Union and Democratic. The convention of the latter is held on the 11th day of June and that of the former on the 17th. According to the ratio, Champaign is entitled to five votes in the Democratic and four votes in the Union Convention.

"Negro Recruiting." MR. EDITOR.—Having seen in the last issue of the URBANA UNION, an editorial with the above title, I feel that justice demands a response. The Union makes an assault upon T. D. Crow Esq. And for what? Because, T. D. Crow the colored people who for two years have been contemptuously spurned for even attempting to take any part in the war, with arms and hearts ever open to their country's call, had heard the noble call of the old Bay State (Mass). They held a meeting in the Court-House. The two gentlemen who had been engaged to address the audience were not present. Mr. Crow who was present as a spectator, was called out by the whole audience white and colored, when he arose and intelligently and enthusiastically urged colored men to volunteer. The Union making a fling at his name, says, "it was the general impression that it (the meeting) would have been more successful had there been less crowding done." &c. If any such impression exists anywhere it must have originated with a class of individuals who either do not know anything about it or are determined to make a false impression. I have conversed with the greater portion of the intelligent colored people of this community, and they all say that Mr. Crow got the volunteers by his manly speaking. The result, &c. was seven or eight recruits only, says the Union. Just let me say that at that time and since fifteen colored men have volunteered to go in Massachusetts Regiments and help put down the Rebellion. Have white men done any better in the same length of time in proportion to their numbers? If "niggers" can save you white men from the draft no body but traitors will object. The Union paper says "Jones very sensibly told them (the colored people) that their present rights were just and sufficient." This Mr. Jones, I think, is J. V. Jones as the Union calls him made a most excellent short speech, but not "the speech of the evening." That was made by Mr. Crow. These two gentlemen were educated, I presume about the same time. Mr. Jones has always been associated with a people who have been despised of their just rights political and educational, having access to only one grade of schools and a very inferior one. While Mr. Crow has such advantages as this country affords to white men. We are not complaining about this nor have we complained heretofore as the history of our people in this land bears testimony. Yet we have all the while been thinking and feeling on the subject. If Mr. Jones and other colored men really evince the good sense and ability, for which the Union pretends to give him credit, this itself would be a reason why they should be admitted to an equality of political rights at least. As to the equality of all respects the writer of the Union article need have no fear. G. W. GUR.

THE URBANA UNION made no "assault" upon T. D. Crow, Esq., "because, forsooth, the colored people," &c. "heard the call of the noble Bay State." We have not the slightest objection to their hearing "the call of the noble Bay State" or any other Merry Andrew confederacy. Our readers will not expect us to say anything in reply to the balance of this communication, as the truths in the case are such as to cause the community to concur in what was expressed last week. The writer of this will not oppose or discourage negro volunteering, but that can not save him from the draft (as is asserted). He would have been in the army long since were he physically able; and that, too, at great sacrifice, perhaps, as a man who has entered the service from Champaign county. As he could not go, he rendered his humble aid to the cause; and is proud to know that in his journalistic capacity and otherwise he has been the instrument of adding hundreds to the ranks of the Union Army. This is not said in egotism but as an expression of what he knew to be the duty of a loyal man.

We cannot regret what was said last week, as we have the assurance of many citizens that our remarks then did the "cause" of negro recruiting more good than did the meeting. The colored people will have no injustice done them intentionally by the URBANA UNION; and with this we dismiss the subject entirely, as we have not the time nor the space to occupy with anything so unimportant.

Home-ick in Union County.—A vagrant negro named Cordell, was killed on Saturday night a-week about half a mile south of Marysville, by Patrick Connelly, under the following circumstances.—Connelly had for some time been missing his fowls about his premises, and believing some one was stealing them, he concluded on Saturday night to watch. He loaded his gun with shot and secreted himself in his stable. Sometime in the night he discovered three persons around the stable endeavoring to effect an entrance. One of them climbed up into the mow, and was in the act of appropriating some fowls when Connelly commanded him to leave or he would shoot him. The fellow, however, anxious, no doubt, to procure his Sunday dinner, and not retreating suddenly as thieves usually do, Connelly tried the virtue of cold lead upon him which caused him to change his position for the earth below. The charge of what entered his neck and upper part of his breast, killing him instantly. The Coroner's Jury returned a verdict in accordance with these facts. The negro was buried on Sunday.—Columbus Journal.

This will undoubtedly stop petty thieving in Union county; and the same means would effectually accomplish the same end everywhere. It is meet to say that Connelly offered himself up to the authorities immediately, and was discharged at once.

A GREAT many of our citizens are acquainted with Thomas R. Roberts (formerly of West Liberty and a son-in-law of Rev. Mr. Kimber of this place) who has just received the appointment of Provost Marshal in the Second District of Ohio (Hamilton county). Mr. R. served in the gallant 13th Ohio as Captain and Major. The Commercial of Friday thus speaks of him: Col. Roberts, appointed in the 2d District, is a gentleman who has served in the army with credit to himself and advantage to his country. He is not as well known here as some of the other applicants, but the large number of our young men who served under him during the "siege of Cincinnati," were very favorably impressed by him, and he will enter upon the discharge of his duties with the entire confidence of those by whom he is best known.

I. O. O. F.—The Grand Encampment closed its annual session at Zanesville, on Tuesday. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: M. W. Grand Patriarch, James Nesbitt, of Troy; M. W. Grand High Priest, R. K. Cox, Jr., of Cincinnati; Grand Warden, E. B. Dubell, of Cincinnati; Grand Scribe, W. B. Hubbell, of Cincinnati.

The annual session of the Grand Lodge meets in Steubenville on Tuesday next, 12th inst.

CAPT. SAMPSON, reported missing, has turned up at the camp of paroled prisoners at Annapolis. We trust that the others missing will be, at least, equally fortunate.
