

POETRY.

Printing Office Melody. THE PRESSEMAN. Pull up my boys, turn quick the rounce...

Let fly the fishes now, my boys, Who are more proud than we? While wait the anxious crowd without...

Be careful of the light and shade, Nor let the sheet grow pale. Be careful of the mothy looks Of every head and tail.

Though high in office is our stand, And pious is our case. We should not cast a slur on those Who fill a lower place.

The gaping world is fed by us, By retail knowledge here, By feeding them we feed ourselves, Nor deem our fare too dear.

PARTING SONG.

Come, let us part with lightsome heart, Nor breathe one cliding sigh, To think that wings of rainbow plume So soon should learn to fly.

The wild bird's song is loud and long, But the sweetest and the best, Laid on the breeze the loveliest, To seek his lonely nest.

The moments fled, like violets dead, Shall never lose their power; For grateful perfume ever marks The memory's withered flower.

I dig, I hoe, I plough, I mow, I get up wood for winter, I reap, I sow!

SONG.

I do suppose, All knowledge flows Right from the printing press So off I goe, In these 'ere clo's, And settles up—I guess.

A Curiosity of Literature.

A gentleman paid a year's subscription for the Mirror, some time since, with directions that it might be sent to a young lady in a neighboring town.

Mr. Sir my wife requested me to write to you and say to you, that communication which she received by your aid and assistance she wishes to be discontinued a mediately now and forever.

Respect.—The Philadelphia Keystone says the flags of the various steamboats on the Delaware were hoisted at half-mast on Tuesday, in respect to the memory of General McDonald, of Baltimore, a merchant, old steamboat owner, and a soldier of the Revolution.

It is merely with a view to gratify this curiosity on the part of our friends that we now proceed to enumerate some of the features of our next year's plan, promising however, that the enumeration must be partial and incomplete.

Our original idea of illustrating American history by views of battle-grounds we are still calmly pursuing in a style that defies all competition.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

Whereas, by the act of Congress, approved March, 1843, entitled "an act for the sale of certain lands in the States of Ohio and Michigan, ceded by the Wyandot tribe of Indians, and for other purposes," the President is authorized to cause the lands in the States of Ohio and Michigan, to which the Indian title was extinguished by a treaty with the Wyandot tribe of Indians, concluded at Upper Sandusky, March seventeenth, eighteen hundred and forty-two, to be offered at public sale, under the superintendence of the respective registers and receivers of the land offices at Upper Sandusky and Detroit:

Now know ye, that I, James K. Polk, President of the United States, do hereby declare and make known that public sales will be held at the undermentioned land offices, in the State of Ohio and Michigan, at the periods hereinafter designated, for the disposal of the public lands hereinafter named, the Indian title to which was extinguished by said treaty, upon the terms and conditions prescribed in the act of Congress aforesaid, to-wit:

At the land office at Upper Sandusky, in the State of Ohio, commencing on Monday, the twenty-second day of September next, for the disposal of the public lands within the limits of the undermentioned township and fractional townships, viz:

South of the base line and east of the first principal meridian. Fractional townships one, two, and three, of range thirteen. Fractional townships one and three, and township two, of range fourteen.

Fractional townships one, two, and three, of range fifteen, with the exception of the following tracts, viz: the section or part of section numbered sixteen in every township, which shall remain for the support of common schools; the tract in township two of range fourteen, which includes the town of Upper Sandusky, laid off by the surveyor general into town-lots, out-lots, streets, and avenues; and the tract of two acres of land in section twenty-nine in township two, of range fourteen, including the stone meeting house and burying ground near to, and north of, Upper Sandusky; and the tract of one half acre in the southeast quarter of section eight, in township three, of range fourteen designated as the "Grave Yard Reserve," on the Farm of Silas Armstrong.

Also, at the same time and place, for the disposal of the town lots and out-lots of the town of Upper Sandusky, in township two south, of range fourteen east, on the left bank, descending, of the Sandusky river, excepting four town lots, to be selected by the register and receiver before the day of sale, for the use of, and to be vested in, the town, when it shall become corporate; excepting also the town lots and out lots vested in the county commissioners of the county of Wyandott, by the provisions of the act of Congress approved February 23, 1845; and also excepting the lot designated as the "Grave Yard," containing one acre, near the council house, within the town.

The minimum price of the town lots is fixed by the law at twenty dollars per lot, and of the out lots at the rate of fifteen dollars per acre.

At the land office at Detroit, in the State of Michigan, commencing on Monday, the sixth day of October next, for the disposal of the public lands within the limits of the undermentioned sections, viz:

Sections twenty three, twenty four, twenty five, twenty six, twenty seven, twenty eight, thirty five, and thirty six, and the fraction of section twenty two, containing eight acres, on the south side of Huron river; all in township four, of range nine.

The sales will each be kept open for two weeks, (unless the lands are sooner disposed of), and no longer; and no private sales of land in the townships so offered will be admitted, until after the expiration of the two weeks.

The minimum price, at public and private sale of the lands designated in this proclamation, lying within the limits of Ohio, is fixed at two dollars and fifty cents per acre; and of those within the limits of Michigan, the minimum price is two dollars per acre.

When a tract on which improvements are situated shall be offered, if the appraised value of the improvements be not bid-den in addition to the minimum price of the land above stated, such tract shall be withdrawn from sale, and shall again be offered at a subsequent public sale, due public notice first being given, when directed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, this sixteenth day of June, anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-five. JAMES K. POLK, By the President: JAS. SHIELDS, Commissioner of the General Land Office.
