

POETRY.

From the Wayne County Democrat.

INA.

BY MARIETTA.

Ina's eyes are bright and blue, Soft as Heavenly azure hue; Silken lashes half reveal Winking smiles which from them steal.

Dimples play at hide-and-seek, Upon Ina's soft young cheek, Like bright buds which nectar sip, Is her red and pouting lip.

Why is Ina blushing now? Why so sobered her fair brow? Why is her blue eye thus hid So demurely by the lid?

Why is Ina silent now? Why so pallid her white brow? Why does the fringed lid thus lie Nevels o'er her radiant eye!

Withered is the orange wreath— Cold the forehead underneath, Come false bride-groom who hath fled, Come and look upon the dead;

From the Iris.

FRIENDSHIP.

Could absence, distance, time or place, The ties of friendship sever, Remembrance of past joys erase, And blot them out forever.

But no; the intervening space, Which friend from friend may part, Can ne'er unfold those pleasing chords, That bind the willing heart.

A Dog Story.

A French paper states that a short time since, an inhabitant of St. Omer, wished to destroy a dog which was getting too old, took it to a river, tied a stone to its neck with a string, threw it in, and walked away immediately.

PROSPECTUS

FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL JOURNAL.

The editors of the United States Journal propose to commence with the next session of Congress, a weekly publication under the above title, to continue through the whole session, at the unprecedented low price of one dollar to each subscriber.

Administrators' Notice. NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber has been appointed and qualified as administrator on the estate of Leonard Burnett, deceased, late of Wayne county, Ohio.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE Ohio Statesman.

The undersigned respectfully announce to the Democracy of Ohio, that they have purchased of Col. Samuel Medary all his interest in the Ohio Statesman, from and after the 1st of July, 1845. The paper will, as heretofore, advocate unflinchingly, Democratic Principles and measures, and give the strongest support to the regularly nominated candidates of the democratic party, that it will be in the power of the undersigned to afford.

The undersigned have invested a large amount of capital in their present undertaking. They have brought to its support whatever of talent they possess. Their interest is identical with that of the West; and there is no incentive to exertion, no motive which can incite men to a faithful discharge of important duties, which is not moving them to labor for the good of that portion of the confederacy into whose hands the physical and moral powers of the nation are rapidly passing.

The undersigned propose making some mechanical improvements in the paper, which will render it more worthy the support of the public. A fair proportion of the paper will be devoted to miscellaneous reading and news matter.

TERMS. The Statesman is published Daily during the session of the Legislature, and Tri-Weekly the balance of the year at $5.00 Tri-Weekly the year round, at 4.00 Semi-Weekly during the session of the Legislature, and Weekly the balance of the year, at 3.00 Weekly the year round, invariably in advance, at 2.00

Persons desiring the Weekly paper for six months, can have it for one dollar, always to be paid in advance. Five Dollars in one letter in advance, will pay for two copies of the Statesman, published Semi-Weekly during the session and weekly the balance of the year, directed to the names ordered.

C. C. & G. R. HAZEWELL. Columbus, August 5, 1845.

NOW IN PRESS, Another New Illustrated Work TALES FROM SHAKESPEARE, BY CHARLES AND MISS LAMB.

THIS celebrated work has already passed through eighty successful editions in London, and is shortly to be issued here in a very superior style, with an ornamental initial letter to each story; the narrative to be embellished with elegant engravings, (from the Illustrated Shakespeare), and the pages surrounded with beautiful fancy-colored borders.

The key to Shakespeare would have been a more expressive and truth-telling title for this valuable work; for no person can read any one of these interesting tales without at once realizing that he understands and relishes better than he has ever done before the beauties of "the great author," the "world's Poet," "the bard of Avon," "the immortal Shakespeare," who wrote not for a day, but for all time.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.

INDUCEMENTS TO SUBSCRIBE.

To facilitate the getting up of Clubs for the new volume, we offer to Postmasters and others an original Portrait of Washington for every subscriber with three dollars enclosed—for every Club of two with five dollars enclosed—and for every club of five with ten dollars enclosed.

A subject for congratulation. The postage on Godey's Magazine and Lady's Book, to any distance, is reduced to 43 cents on each number, to commence on the 1st of July. It will then be cheaper than the large class of weekly papers, the postage of the former being only 43 cents and that on the newspapers 6 cents per month.

The Pioneer Periodical of America—Godey's Magazine and Lady's Book, Vol. 1, for 1845.—In the Lady's Book you will find the best articles of poetry and prose by the best authors of the day. New Music, and, in addition, from three to five monthly plates, including the authentic Ladies' Fashions. The heavy postage tax on periodicals has been very detrimental to a great mail distribution. That tax has now been removed, and our subscribers, and those about to subscribe, will have to pay only about 43 cents per month postage on one of the best periodicals of the day.

This agreeable alteration of what was a very unjust law towards periodicals places us in a better position to mail subscribers. We give four times more original matter than any of the weekly papers—three engravings a month gratis, Original Music, and at less postage.

The best earnest publisher can give of what he can and will do next year is a reference to what he has done last year, or at any time for the last fifteen years.—Under this view of the case it would be quite sufficient for ordinary purposes for us to say that the high character this magazine for literary and artistic merit will be properly sustained. But we are aware that the rapid and dazzling succession of novelties which we have brought forward within the last few years naturally excites a lively curiosity, and every subscriber is saying to himself what will Godey do next!

It is merely with a view to gratify this curiosity on the part of our friends that we now proceed to enumerate some of the features of our next year's plan, promising however, that the enumeration must be partial and incomplete, from our invariable practice of seizing upon every new and brilliant form of embellishment the moment it presents itself, as well as securing the services of all the popular, lively and piquant writers the moment their characters are distinctly developed and pronounced.

Our original idea of illustrating American history by views of battle-grounds we are still calmly pursuing in a style that defies all competition. The not less brilliant idea of illustrating the heroisms of American Ladies by a series of engravings and narratives which will serve to place in their true light the patriotism, devotion and self-sacrifice of our female ancestors in the revolutionary war, emphatically called the Heroic Age of America, is also original with us.

Our original idea of illustrating American history by views of battle-grounds we are still calmly pursuing in a style that defies all competition. The not less brilliant idea of illustrating the heroisms of American Ladies by a series of engravings and narratives which will serve to place in their true light the patriotism, devotion and self-sacrifice of our female ancestors in the revolutionary war, emphatically called the Heroic Age of America, is also original with us.

Characteristic State Views, in which the peculiarities of Scenery, Costume and Customs of every State and Territory will be presented in succession. This idea of course will be claimed by others, but our readers will not forget to mark dates.

First Rate Steel Plates.—In addition to all these advantages, the privilege of engraving the premium pictures of the Apollo Association will serve to form a Keystone to one splendid system of embellishments.

The public know our literary contributors well, for they have long been in the habit of recognizing them as the leading writers of America in magazine literature—that literature which excels from the ablest pens their most piquant and brilliant Contributions, at the same time that it condenses into a compact pleasing form the Moral, the Useful and the Solid in Narrative, Sketch and Essay Writing.

It is only necessary to say that in this department we have Sartain, Sudd, and Warner, and each of them has several plates in hand. We shall, we think, have one in each number next year.

Authentic Fashion Plates.—Godey's Lady's Book is the only Magazine that can be relied upon for the real fashions. The fact is beyond dispute. In city, town, or village Godey's Fashions are always used by those pretending to taste in female habiliments. There are many attempts at imitation but most of them are three or four months behind the fashion, and many are old plates partially re-earnaed. No not deceived!

Terms of Godey's Magazine. 1 copy one year $3 2 copies one year, 5 5 copies one year, 10 8 copies one year, 15 12 copies one year, 20 40 beautiful engravings will be sent to the Postmaster who will forward us a club of 12 subscribers.

GREAT FACILITIES FOR CLUBS. In order to accommodate persons in large post towns who may wish to Club for the above works together, the following inducements are offered: One copy of Godey's Magazine and Lady's Book and Graham's Magazine $5. Two copies of Godey's Magazine and Lady's Book and one copy Neal's Saturday Gazette, $5. Three copies of Neal's Saturday Gazette and one copy Godey's Magazine and Lady's Book, $5. Five copies Neal's Saturday Gazette and three copies Godey's Magazine and Lady's Book, $10.

UNITED STATES SATURDAY POST.

New Volume, New Type, Old Friendships, and New Attractions.

The publishers of the United States Saturday Post feel constrained to make again their acknowledgments to the reading public for the liberal support which their paper receives. To show that they are not unmindful of the return which such patronage requires, it would be entirely sufficient to refer the reader to the established character of the Fireside Friend, which is pre-eminently the designation of this paper.

As a newspaper, dependent upon public patronage, "groves by what it feeds on" the publishers flatter themselves that the Post has increased in interest and value, with the steady and gratifying support which has been accorded to it, for a period of a quarter of a century. In this time, which has served for the life and death of whole generations of periodicals, and the rise, meridian and decline of many a rival, the Post has kept the even tenor of its way, by its own intrinsic health and strength—now following, often leading the public taste, but not departing from its independence to minister to the transient newspaper follies, which, compared to the Post, are indeed ephemeral.

We shall continue in this path, endeavoring, in the News Department, to present the latest and best authenticated intelligence, divested of party hue and interested bias, and resting solely on the basis of truth, as far as it is ascertainable. We endeavor to select and publish intelligence of value and importance to citizens engaged in all the three great interests, Agriculture, Commerce and Manufactures. In political intelligence we recognize only one party; and that is our country—our whole country. We know no sectional interest in our patriotism, no party lines in our politics, no sectarianism in our religion, but print and publish, "the greatest good of the greatest number."

To give the Saturday Post an importance beyond that temporary one which it derives from being the record of current events, and to make it acceptable to the family circle, we give to its columns the character of a weekly magazine, embracing Original Tales and Sketches, Original Verse and Essays, History and Historical Biography and Legends, Science and Statistics, Revolutionary Annals, Moral Tales and Traits of Character, Original Comments on Notables, wit and Humor; in a word, such a variety of matter as, (our own country first remembered,) the whole literature of the world may offer. The original translations from European Literature which have from time to time appeared in this journal, are referred to as an earnest that we have spared no pains to make the Post truly cosmopolitan in the Great Republic of Letters.

Volume twenty-seventh, upon which we are about to enter, will appear in new type, and with such other improvements and advantages as experience may suggest. To repeat the words of a former prospectus, our motto is still Excellence. Among the oldest papers on the continent, and possessed of all the advantages which long accumulated facilities afford, the conductors blend with these peculiar advantages, (not to be acquired in a day) all the advantages which each successive year presents to their notice, and all the changes for the better which occur to men in on doing well by a reading public which has always done well for the United States Saturday Post.

TERMS: 1 copy, per annum, $2 3 copies, do, 5 8 copies, do, 10 17 copies, do, 20 The money must always be sent in advance, free of postage.

REPRINT, OF CHAMBERS' EDINBURGH JOURNAL, published at the Albion, office 3 Barclay street, N. York. The first year of our reprint of Chambers' Edinburgh Journal being about to expire, we avail ourselves of the opportunity to say, that it has received a support commensurate with the intrinsic merit of the work, and that its continued republication is therefore established on a firm basis.

We shall feel indebted to subscribers who will make the Journal known in their respective neighborhoods, as well as give currency to the annexed terms of publication.

In order to put this work within the reach of all classes of the public, we have determined to issue it at the very low price of one dollar and a half per annum; and also to furnish it to agents at a discount from this price, of thirty-three and a third per cent. And in order to disseminate the publication still more extensively, we have determined to give individuals or companies of individuals who may order five copies the advantages possessed by agents, and to extend to them also the benefit of the discount.—A remittance of five dollars, then, provided it be in funds at par in the city of New York, or not more than five per cent. discount, will command five annual copies. The publication is weekly, contains eight pages, and is printed in the quarto form, with neat type and on good paper. It is scarcely necessary to state that the low price at which we offer the work, will oblige us to adhere to the cash system without any deviation whatever.

Editors throughout the country inserting this Prospectus four successive weeks, and sending a copy containing it to the Albion office, will be entitled to a free copy for one year.

The Western Literary Journal and Monthly Review. A monthly Literary Magazine, containing 60 large octavo pages entirely original matter, emanating from western writers, will be issued regularly from the first of November, 1844. It will be divided into two volumes per year, of 360 pages each, or 720 pages at the end of the year. E. Z. C. Judson and L. Hine Editors. Robinson & Jones, 190 Main st. et. Cincinnati, Publishers. Price $3 per annum, in advance, or within the first quarter.

Newspapers giving this a few insertions will receive a magazine regularly.

PROSPECTUS OF THE

United States Journal

BY JESSE E. DOW & CO.

THE first number of our new paper will be issued this (first) day of May, with an entire new dress—new type, fine white paper, with other important alterations and improvements. The paper will be devoted to a fearless exposition of Democratic principles; it will zealously and unremittently oppose each and every effort to establish a mammoth monarchy bank and other mischievous corporations and consolidations of wealth, which subvert the pillars of the Republic; it will oppose an oppressive and anti-republican tariff system, the assumption of the State debts by the General Government, and all other Federal principles which have an inevitable tendency to destroy public prosperity as well as individual happiness.—Against all such political delusions, we shall wage unchanging, uncompromising war.

The Farmer and the Mechanic who produce all the real capital of the nation, will find in our paper an unwavering champion of their inalienable rights; the long cherished principles of the editors are too well known to the public to require any pledge upon this point. To the Miscellaneous Department particular attention will be devoted; the Ladies will always find in our columns a choice selection from the current literature of the day, as well as original contributions from the most talented writers of which our country can boast. A general summary of Foreign and Domestic news will be furnished; a regular price current and a correct list of the prices of stocks will also be given.

The conductors have already secured the aid and co-operation of a large number of the most distinguished literary and political writers of the day, arrangements will also be made, at the earliest period possible, to embellish our columns by the contributions of correspondents from abroad. With this brief and imperfect outline of our plan, we very respectfully submit our claims to an extensive patronage to the consideration of a generous public.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

Whereas, by the act of Congress, approved March, 1843, entitled "an act for the sale of certain lands in the States of Ohio and Michigan, ceded by the Wyandot tribe of Indians, and for other purposes," the President is authorized to cause the lands in the States of Ohio and Michigan, "to which the Indian title was extinguished by a treaty with the Wyandot tribe of Indians, concluded at Upper Sandusky, March seveneenth, eighteen hundred and forty two," to be offered at public sale, under the superintendence of the respective registers and receivers of the land offices at Upper Sandusky and Detroit:

Now know ye, that I, James K. Polk, President of the United States, do hereby declare and make known that public sales will be held at the undermentioned land offices, in the State of Ohio and Michigan, at the periods hereinafter designated, for the disposal of the public lands hereinafter named, the Indian title to which was extinguished by said treaty, upon the terms and conditions prescribed in the act of Congress aforesaid, to wit:

At the land office at Upper Sandusky, in the State of Ohio, commencing on Monday, the twenty second day of September next, for the disposal of the public lands within the limits of the undermentioned township and fractional townships, viz:

South of the base line and east of the first principal meridian. Fractional townships one, two, and three, of range thirteenth. Fractional townships one and three, and township two, of range fourteen.

Fractional townships one, two, and three, of range fifteen, with the exception of the following tracts, viz: the section or part of section numbered sixteen in every township, which shall remain for the support of common schools; the tract in township two of range fourteen, which includes the town of Upper Sandusky, laid off by the surveyor general into town-lots, out-lots, streets, and avenues; and the tract of two acres of land in section twenty-nine in township two, of range fourteen, including the "store meeting house and burying ground near to, and north of, Upper Sandusky;" and the tract of one half acre in the southeast quarter of section eight, in township three, of range fourteen designated as the "Grave-Yard Reserve," on the Farm of Silas Armstrong.

Also, at the same time and place, for the disposal of the town lots and out-lots of the town of Upper Sandusky, in township two south, of range fourteen east, on the left bank, descending, of the Sandusky river, excepting four town-lots, to be selected by the register and receiver before the day of sale, "for the use of, and to be vested in, the town, when it shall become corporate;" excepting also the town lots and out-lots vested in the county commissioners of the county of Wyandot, by the provisions of the act of Congress, approved February 28, 1845; and also excepting the lot designated as the "grave yard," containing one acre, near the council house, within the town.

The minimum price of the town lots is fixed by the law at twenty dollars per lot, and of the out lots at the rate of fifteen dollars per acre.

At the land office at Detroit, in the State of Michigan, commencing on Monday, the sixth day of October next, for the disposal of the public lands within the limits of the undermentioned sections, viz:

South of the base line and east of the meridian, and on both sides of the Huron river. Sections twenty three, twenty four, twenty five, twenty six, twenty seven, thirty four, thirty five, and thirty six, and the fraction of section twenty two, containing eight acres, on the south side of Huron river; all in township four, of range nine.

The sales will each be kept open for two weeks, (unless the lands are sooner disposed of,) and no longer; and no private entries of land in the townships so offered will be admitted, until after the expiration of the two weeks.

The minimum price, at public and private sale, of the lands designated in this proclamation, lying within the limits of Ohio, is fixed at two dollars and fifty cents per acre; and of those within the limits of Michigan, the minimum price is two dollars per acre.

When a tract on which improvements are situated shall be offered, if the appraised value of the improvements be not bid in addition to the minimum price of the land above stated, such tract shall be withdrawn from sale, and shall again be offered at a subsequent public sale, due public notice "first being given, when directed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office."

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, this sixteenth day of June, anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty five. JAMES K. POLK, By the President.
