The ELECTIONS!

Victory! Victory!!

A Grand Charge by the Republicans upon the Center of the Democratic Lines, Resulting in their Complete Discomfiture.

"In the Sear and Yellow Leaf" They are Gathered unto their Fathers—The Last Sad Rites will be Paid their Remains
Tuesday, Nov.
2nd.

Indiana 7000 Majority for Republicans—A Gain of Three Congressmen Made—Both Branches of the Legislature Republican, Securing a United States Senator
in Place of Joseph E. McDonald, Democrat.

Ohio 20,000 Republican Majority and Gain Six Congressmen.

Good-Bye Hancock.

The result of Tuesday's election in Ohio and Indiana exceeded the hopes of the most sanguine Republican. Two years ago the Democrats had a plurality of 14, 118 in Indiana. The Legislature stood, Senate, Democrats 24; Republicans 23.
Greenbackers 3, Greenbackers 11. This was a great odds against the Republicans, and the Democrats were confident of victory, so much so that they boasted that if it went Democratic it would settle the Presidential question. The Republicans went into the fight with the determination to win. They have made a hard fight and the result is a grand victory, and Indiana joins the number of Republican states whose electoral votes will be cast for Garfield and Arthur.
The result in Ohio is no less encouraging and that state gives one of its old time majorities, adds six congressmen to its Republican delegation and makes the utter rout of the Democrats only the more complete. The result in these two great states shows that the people of the north are fully aroused to the importance of the contest in this campaign and settles the question, virtually, as to the election of Garfield and Arthur, the Republican standard bearers. This was really the first great battle of the campaign. Both parties had their ablest men in the field to direct the contest, and the overwhelming defeat received by the Democracy, is only the precursor of the complete annihilation of that party, November second.
It leaves the Democracy hopeless. The Solid South cannot save them.

A New Village.

F. E. Martin has laid out a village on Indian river where his store is located.
It was surveyed and platted by Oliver S.
Hayden, the Republican candidate for county surveyor, and the work shows that he is proficient in this kind of work and is highly creditable to Mr. Hayden.
The village is located on the north and south sides of the river where the Jackson, Lansing & Saginaw railroad crosses. It is in the midst of a good farming section and will, doubtless, become a center of trade for a large extent of territory. Mr. Martin, as many know, has quite an extensive store already there, and is doing a large business. He is preparing to build a good sized warehouse near his store for storing hay and feed, flour etc. The new village will, without doubt, become an important station on the J. L. & S. railroad, and will probably be the first station out from Cheboygan.

We have received the largest and most select stock of dry goods and ready made clothing in Cheboygan and are selling the same lower than any other house in town.

A. ANSPACH.

An elegant line of goods just received at Tibbott's new store, nearly opposite Post & Van Arsdale's.

Wetmore & Co. will have something of importance to say to the readers of the TRIBUNE next week.

Marine.

—The Keweenaw arrived up Sunday afternoon.

—The Lowell was in bound down Wednesday.

—The Oswegatchie called in bound up Wednesday night.

—The Lawrence was in bound down Thursday evening.

—The Milwaukee called in bound down early this morning.

—The St. Albans called in bound down Sunday night.

—The St. Paul failed to make her appearance here this week.

—The Pearl arrived up early yesterday morning, and landed a large amount of freight at this place.

—The propeller Nashua called in bound up, last evening. She landed a deck load of freight for Cheboygan merchants.

—The tug New Era arrived yesterday afternoon with four barges in tow. The latter are loading lumber, cedar posts and ties.

—The schooner Pensaukee arrived last Saturday, and took on a cargo of lumber from McArthur, Smith & Co., and left Tuesday evening for Chicago.

—The tug Charles E. Pendell was sold by Moles Brothers to J. Dingman of Mackinac, Tuesday of this week. The tug Clara Irvie being part of the payment.

—The propeller Champplain arrived up Monday and waited in port until Tuesday afternoon, when she took the barge O. J. Hale, loaded with lumber, in tow for Chicago.

—The tug Leviathan came into port last night. She is towing the barge Progress, a new barge just out, owned by Wolf and Davidson. The barge has a cargo of 80,200 bushels of corn for Buffalo. Freight 6 1/2 cents per bushel.

—The propeller Northern Queen ran aground just east of the entrance to the harbor early Friday morning. The captain had not heard of the change of range lights, and was looking for the red light. The propeller A. C. Van Rantle went out and pulled her off.

—The propeller Cannistow was run into by a schooner, supposed to be the Niagara, Thursday morning, and considerably damaged. They run her ashore near Waughans light, where she sunk in water covering her main deck. She was bound down with flour, pork, grain &c. The tug Winslow with the Leviathan's barge went to her assistance Thursday evening.

A Disgraceful Affair.

Many of our citizens are aware that for some time past there has been ill-feeling between John McKay, a well known citizen of Cheboygan, and John L. Smith, of Mackinaw county, growing out of business transactions on the north shore, about the merits of which we know nothing. Last Tuesday morning the two met upon Main street and the matter culminated in McKay allowing his feelings to get away with his judgment and his making a brutal attack upon Smith, who, we are informed by eye witnesses, offered no provocation nor made no resistance whatever. Mr. Smith was severely punished. He proceeded to get out a warrant for the arrest of McKay upon the charge of assault and battery. In answer to the warrant the latter appeared before Justice Sutton where he pleaded not guilty, stating that he had much business on hand and was not prepared to make a statement, but would be, in about ten days, and asked for a continuance. This, Justice Sutton, by the advice and with the consent of James J. Brown, Prosecuting Attorney, granted, putting it over until next Tuesday, releasing the prisoner without requiring any bail, or so much as asking Mr.
Smith if the time allowed McKay was convenient for him.

We do not blame McKay for this. It was natural that he, if not ready for trial, should desire an adjournment until such time as he would be prepared, but we would like to ask the voters of Cheboygan county if they believe in this kind of justice. Had it been some laboring man arrested for some minor offense, do you think such leniency would have been shown? All know that such has not been the case. The Judge would have insisted upon trial at once and if convicted the judgment would have been $5.00 or $10.00 fine and 329 cost, or a term in the county jail.

Mr. McKay is a well known citizen and we presume would have had no difficulty in securing bail and it would not have been a hardship to him had he been required. We have no doubt but he will put in an appearance at the time to which the continuance was made, but that is not the question. We do not believe in having two rules governing the action of the prosecuting attorney and justice. We believe in equality before the law and in serving all alike, and we believe that the voters of Cheboygan will express the same opinion at the polls on the 2nd day of November.

The Democrats have dodgers out for a grand excursion to Salt river, on Tuesday, November 2d. They advertise the fare to be only $3.29. For particulars apply to Judge Sutton.

OUR CANDIDATE.

For the Largest Representative District in the State—its Growing Importance—Reasons Why it Should be Properly Represented in the Coming Legislature.

From Chippewa County News.

We had barely time last week to make the simple announcement that the Republican nominating convention had unanimously named Henry W. Seymour, of this place, as their candidate for representation in the State Legislature. It is needless to say that the nomination is exceedingly gratifying to us, and we believe that we are giving public utterance to the sentiment of the community at large, where Mr. Seymour is best known, regardless of political association, when we make the statement that no other nomination could have been made.

The counties constituting this representative district are Chippewa, Cheboygan, Mackinaw and Schoolcraft, four of the largest counties in the state, forming, as far as territory is concerned, probably the largest representative district in the state. When it was organized into a district five years ago it contained a population of only 8,500. To-day the same district contains a population of 16,143, or more than double. When organized five years ago this vast territory was known to the rest of the state as a wilderness of forests and swamps, of no other value than for the pine timber which was known to abound in portions of it. To-day the attention of the entire state is directed to the counties comprising this district, for their extensive natural, and rapidly developing agricultural resources.

The Legislature of 1875 built better than they knew. Here were four counties, comprising a territory larger than several of the states in the union, having no representation that day. How to dispose of them without encroaching upon the claims and plans of old sections, was the chief attention paid them.
They were organized into a legislative district. And this was only five years ago.

To-day, we see in these same counties, an era of development and prosperity equalled by no other section of the state. We see lands which were then considered to be practically valueless, sought after as among the best for agricultural purposes. We see immigration pouring its wealth of labor and capital into its borders. Through every county in the district a railroad is under contract, and in the process of construction, and during the coming season, the wilderness of five years ago, will be in direct commercial relation with the older and more developed sections of the state.

Within the borders of this district are three of the most promising towns in the state, Sault Ste. Marie, St. Ignace and Cheboygan, towns which are destined by all the principles of development to become cities. Taken all in all, there is not today, a legislative district in the state of more relative importance than this. There is no other district in the state which is in every way, both in town and country, developing as is this one.

This very development renders it necessary that it should be fitly represented by a man who fully understands the nature of this growth, and the principles of political economy underlying the prosperity a man who not only understands these things, but who possesses the ability and influence, to grapple with all questions of interest to this section of the state, which may arise in that body; a man who will see that such laws are enacted as will place the counties composing the district, in such a position as their importance demands.

Without saying anything in dispar-agement of the candidate named by the legislature, we will say that Mr. Seymour is a man who will not only understand these things, but who possesses the ability and influence, to grapple

John Taylor, the ranking member of the twelve mormon apostles, has been chosen president of the Latter Day Saints, to fill the place left vacant by the death of Brigham Young. Taylor has the failings without the executive ability of his predecessor, and the control of affairs will practically rest in the hands of others.

Engineer Menocal has reduced the length of his proposed Nicaragua canal to 53 miles, and the estimated cost to $41,193,839. This is about one half the estimated cost of the Panama canal, as stated by De Lesseps. The prospect of either canal being soon put in operation is not flattering. They will be opposed to the bitter end by the Pacific railroad interest, and it is still an open question whether either canal would be a profitable investment.

Gen. C. H. Howard, who was adjutant-general of the left wing of the army of the Potomac under his brother, Major-General O. O. Howard, at the battle of Gettysburg, denies the statement of Gen.
Slocum, that Gen. Hancock selected the battlefield. Gen. Howard stated to a reporter that he went upon Cemetery Ridge with his brother, Gen. O. O. Howard, on the morning of July 1. The latter said: "Here is the military position," and there located the troops. Gen. Hancock did not arrive until 4:30 p. m., and soon retired to his own command, 20 miles distant. Gen. Slocum did not come until sunset. Gen. Howard's statement corroborates Gen. Grant's assertion about the battle of Gettysburg.

cock, of Fenton, returned from service at his church, where he had been actively engaged, and in a few moments after entering the house was dead. He had been about 60 years old, and had passed many years in the work of the Master. He "died with the harness on."

The Lansing Republican says that H.
A. Chaney, reporter for the supreme court, states that the opinion in the case of Robertson vs. the Commissioner of the State Land Office, is the commissioner of the State Land Office, the rights of Mr. Robertson arose under compiled laws of 1857, section 2,551, which provides that when a purchaser of state lands has paid the purchase price with interest, he should receive from the commissioner a certificate entitling him to a patent. Robertson had completed the payment, but on demanding a certificate was refused by the commissioner because of an amendment in the law, which added as a further condition the requirement that the taxation and other charges should be also paid. But as Robertson had fulfilled the only condition imposed by law at the time of making
