Grand Haven, Feb. 20, 1855.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Ottawa, ss:—

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Ottawa, holden at the office of the Judge thereof, at Grand Haven, on Monday the 19th day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five: Present, Wm. HATHAWAY, Jr., Judge of Probate: In the matter of the estate of Patrick Maloney, deceased:

A PAPER purporting to be the last and testament of said deceased, having been filed in this office, by John Maloney, and asked for probate on the same, or that letters of administration may be granted on said deceased's estate; thereupon it is ordered, that Monday, the 27th day of March next, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs at law of said deceased, all other persons interested in said estate, be required to appear at a session of said probate court, then to be holden at the office of the Judge thereof, at Grand Haven, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted; and it is further ordered, that said petitioner, John Maloney, give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Grand River Times, a newspaper printed and circulated in the county of Ottawa, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

WILLIAM HATHAWAY, Jr., Judge of Probate.

To Parents and Children.

Harper's Story Books.

A monthly series of Narratives, Dialogues, Biographies, and Tales, for the instruction and entertainment of the Young. By JACOB ABBOTT. Embellished with numerous and beautiful Engravings.

NOW READY:

1. BRUNO; or, Lessons of Fidelity, Pance, and Self-Denial, taught by a Dog.

11. WILLIE AND THE MORTGAGE, showing how much may be accomplished by boy.

It is the design of the publishers to render this in every way the most attractive and valuable series for the young ever offered to the public. They are confident that they have facilities for giving it that wide circulation which will warrant them in expending upon it all the resources of geographical and illustrative art. The illustrations will be numerous, and in all respects equal to those furnished in "Harper's Magazine." The successive numbers of the "Story Books" will embrace a variety of subjects and different styles of composition, including narratives, dialogues, descriptive essays, and entertaining stories of a character to interest and delight the youthful mind while imparting information that will be important in subsequent life. It will be the constant aim of the author to furnish a series of volumes adapted to family reading. He hopes so to combine the presentation of important and interesting facts with the circulation of sound principles in the morals, and religion, that the "Story Books" will form a welcome and efficient aid in the work of home education. Though not intended to be exclusively religious character, they will be so designed to exert a moral and religious influence on the minds of the readers, as to adapt the use of Sabbath School Libraries.

TERMS.—Each Number of "Harper's Story Books" will contain 160 pages in small quarto form, very beautifully illustrated, and printed on superior calendered paper.

The Series may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, and Postmasters, from the Publishers, at Three Dollars a year, or twenty-five cents a number.

The two Periodicals, "Harper's Monthly Magazine" and "Harper's Story Book," will be supplied to subscribers at Five Dollars a year, and will be published on the first day of each month.

The Postage on "Harper's Story Books," which must be paid quarterly in advance, is as cents.
