COURT-DAY.—A big crowd attended court, last Monday. Many of our friends were among the number and they gave us the most satisfactory evidence of their appreciation of the Herald.

We feel grateful for their kindness and hope they may have many friends who will emulate their example.

There were also a few candidates in town. So many clever fellows were never known to run for one office. You can scarcely wish a friend success without hurting the feelings of another friend standing by.

For the names of our readers are referred to the column of announcements where you can find the names of the candidates.

THANKS.—A number of our subscribers appreciating the stringency of the lines and the necessary wants of publishers have been remitting by mail. These friends are assisting us materially and we shall put forth every effort to make the Herald worthy of their continued support.

Every week we scatter over 1000 copies. These are read by not less than 5000 people. Our circulation is principally in our own county, where it reaches every post office, besides we have a general circulation throughout the United States, a few copies being sent to almost every State in the Union.

Within the last week we have received encouraging letters from Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Texas. Letters for publication from these states, as well as from our subscribers in California, Arizona, Nebraska, and other Western States should be read with interest by friends of the writers who still reside near the old homesteads.

Going, going, away they go, immense bargains being sold by P. Heller & Co. at their daily auction sales, this week. A few days longer and then you will have to pay the usual price and enormous prices charged for goods elsewhere.

Buy while you have a chance and secure bargains at P. Heller & Co.

IMPROVING.—Our town-council have manifested an inclination towards the improvement of the sidewalks. We are informed that the Committee on sidewalks are going to advertise for proposals for curbing the walks. Many people are generally anxious for it to begin. There is no reason why it should be longer postponed.

DEATH OF A VA. EDITOR.—John Finks, for over thirty years identified with newspaper enterprise in Virginia, and since 1867 senior and proprietor of the True Index of Warrenton, died Monday of last week, at his residence in Warrenton, Fauquier county.

NOTICE.—Our sales will continue for the balance of the week. You will do well to call and give us a bid, goods at your own price. Auction at P. M. and 7 P. M. daily, don't miss the chance. P. Heller & Co.

On the 6th inst. Samuel Madison, colored, accidentally shot Lee Johnson, colored, of New Market. They went hunting, and Madison's gun went off accidentally, the contents of which took effect in Johnson's leg, just above the ankle.

Ladies, your attention. We will sell on Friday at 1 o'clock exclusively for the ladies and at 7 P. M. for men, the ladies will do well to put in their appearance. P. Heller & Co.

VALENTINE DAY.—Look out for next Friday. Many of our young men who are too diffident to propose face to face will send gushing epistles to their fair dulcineas on that day. The bashful or backward young men are getting scarce, but there are some of them yet left, and they are worth winning. The young man that is always ready to say sweet things and to propose, at the first chance, is not always the best investment. Look out for the sweet notes of the bashful boy. They are a treasure for any young lady.

I have been entirely cured of a sore throat by two applications of Keller's Roman Liniment. CHAS. E. MERRILL, No. 1 Truck Co. Wash. D. C.

Valley News.

Bridgewater Enterprise: Very much sickness, the result of the recent severe cold weather, is prevailing in Bridgewater and surrounding country.

Spirit of the Valley: Col. T. A. Jackson, of Ottobine, is suffering with a very serious attack of rheumatism.

Rockingham Register: On Sunday afternoon last, several boys from town, five white and two colored, wandered into the country, and having nothing else to do deliberately set fire to the dry grass, in the meadow of Rev. Daniel Landes. The wind was very high and the flames spread rapidly, and but for the prompt efforts of Mr. Landes and his neighbors there is no telling the amount of damage that might have been done to the fencing and other property.

It was by the greatest exertion that the fire was subdued. The names of all the parties are known, and it is to be hoped that parents will exercise sufficient control over their children to prevent their indulgence in such wanton wickedness.

On Tuesday last, Daniel Falk was married to Miss Ida Miller, daughter of Samuel Miller. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's parents, in Brook's Gap, at 11 o'clock, in the morning. About 1 o'clock Mrs. Miller, the mother of the bride, was taken sick, and at half past 3 o'clock she was dead. It is not often the case that the altar and the grave are brought so close together in the same house.

Winchester News: The meetings in the Braddock street M. E. Church, South still continue to attract large congregations, and the interest is unabated. The number of conversions in this church up to this time is about fifty.

Services are held daily and nightly in the Loudoun street Presbyterian church. The pastor Rev. Mr. White, is assisted by Rev. Mr. Fleming, of Woodstock.—This gentleman is an earnest and eloquent preacher. The meetings will be instrumental in adding many members to the church.

At the Kent street Presbyterian church the religious feeling is growing daily. Rev. Dr. Bowman, of Harrisonburg, has been assisting the pastor, Rev. Dr. Graham, during the past week.—The church is filled nightly with eager listeners of the word.

A three-year-old child of Geo. Toliver, colored, living near the depot, was burned to death Tuesday afternoon.—It seems that the child was left in the house with several other children, and its clothes caught fire and before aid could be summoned it perished.

The Spirit of Jefferson: We are informed, from an authentic source that negotiations have been pending and will in all probability have been consummated by the time this paper reaches our readers, whereby the Cumberland Valley Railroad Company will agree to commence the immediate construction of the link of road from Bedington, on the Martinsburg and Potomac Road, to connect with the Shenandoah Valley at Shepherdstown, and the contractors of the Shenandoah Valley will build the road at once through Clarke, Warren and Page counties to Luray, completing it to the latter point by the 15th of June next. Work will be commenced simultaneously, on the Bedington connection, on the Shenandoah Valley at the entrance of Clarke county, and on the south side of the Shenandoah river near Front Royal, working towards Luray.

The Warren Sentinel says there are over 200,000 spores piled at the depot in Front Royal awaiting shipment to northern factories, and pertinently remarks—"Why are they not put into wheels at home?"

Mr. D. T. Young, who appealed from the decision of the County Court, has succeeded in obtaining license to sell liquor in Luray.

Mr. Robt. Nelson, of Kernstown, last week killed a fine lot of hogs—it was perhaps the best pen of hogs in Frederick county. The following are the figures: 328, 412, 414, 416, 428, 456, making a total of 2,454 pounds. Who can beat it?—Win. News.

Messrs. Hottel & Painter, of Shenandoah, can beat it. They killed a pen of hogs that weighed 517, 400, 432, 430, 438, 428 and 436. Total 3138. Average 448.

CATCHING SALMON AT KANAWHA FALLS.—The Kanawha Falls correspondent of the Fayetteville Enterprise says:—"Jim Rhodes caught a fine salmon a few days ago, which weighed 7 1/2 pounds. Mr. Hindles also caught a fine one, weighing about 8 pounds. The fishing promises to be fine this season."

Stonewall Jackson's old sorrel war horse, which bore his master under the moon on the fatal night at Chancellorsville, is still living at the Morrison homestead, in Lincoln county, North Carolina.

An excellent opportunity is now offered every one to purchase bargains, at the great auction sale of P. Heller & Co., in Mr. Nelson's Store Room, this sale will only continue for a few days longer, goods at your own prices.

FURNITURE.—We are glad to note that the manufacture of furniture in Woodstock, is becoming a considerable enterprise. Messrs. Fravel & Bro., with their increased facilities, are manufacturing large quantities of first-class furniture and now our young and enterprising friends Silas B. Albert and John W. Fravel have embarked in the same business. Persons desiring to purchase furniture should call to see them in the building formerly occupied by Mr. George Fravel. Their furniture is modern in style and substantially made.

Vick's Illustrated Magazine is at hand, full of beauty, full of instruction and full of all that is good. We wish all the ladies in the land, could see a month before the perusing of its pages, which at the end of twelve months, would furnish no mean knowledge of botany, and practical flower culture, besides other valuable information.

MURDERED AND ROBBED.—As Mr. Howard Holtzclaw, telegraph operator and ticket agent at Warrenton Junction, Va., on the Virginia Midland railroad, was returning home last Thursday night from his office, between 11 and 12 o'clock, he was waylaid, fatally murdered and robbed of his watch, chain and money. His body was found a quarter of a mile from the station with a large bullet hole in his forehead. John Williams, alias Richmond, colored, has been arrested and lodged in jail at Warrenton, charged with being the murderer.

Delay is dangerous when worms are found consuming a child. You will find Shiner's Indian Vermuge a reliable remedy. It will not fail to destroy and expel worms. Try it. For sale by J. S. Irwin & Son, Woodstock, Va.

J. Ward Wood, Esq. of Hardy County, has the largest herd of Short-horns in that County. His herd consists of the fancy bull, "Archie Ruby" and fifteen females, of the following families: Carabines, Rubys, Daisy and Young Phylissis. He has one pure steer that weighed on the 7 day it was weighed on the 12th of 1,205 pounds; a 13 month old heifer which weighed 1054 pounds; and a calf at 6 months old, which weighed 652 pounds.—Grant County Gazette

NOTICE.—I will receive proposals until the first day of March, to wainscot the court room. Specifications furnished on application to me. The object is to ascertain the cost of the work, with the view of having it done, if the cost is not too heavy. P. E. HUSTON, Committee.

A shipwrecked sailor waiting for a sail is like a business man sitting at home and nursing a cough or cold.—Get Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and be cured. Only 25 cents a bottle.

Any Patent Medicine Advertised in this paper can be had of B. Schmitt at the regular price. June 12-14

MARRIED

On 6th inst by E. B. Shaver, Mr. William Hurtbaugh, to Miss Almira Williams, both of this county.

On Feb. 6th, in the M. E. Church South, at Strasburg, Va., by the Rev. L. E. Williams, H. Nelson of Washington Co. Md., to Miss Eliza J. Ross of Strasburg Va.

DIED.

Departed this life in Woodstock, January the 30th, very suddenly, Mrs. Barbara Elick, aged about 71 years.

The deceased was very unassuming and quiet in her manner, and having for many years been a member of the Lutheran church, we entertain the hope that she "sleeps in Jesus". M.

On the 6th of Feb. Mrs. Catharine Elborn passed from earth, at the age of 74 years, and a few months before she was ready to depart and be with Christ. Her church membership was in St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran congregation. M.

Near Sansville, on the 2nd inst. Mr. Christian Summey, aged 94 years, 7 months and 4 days.

Mr. Summey came with his son to Shenandoah Co. Pennsylvania a few years ago, and lived here for many years a faithful and devoted member of the Father in Israel, and Israelite without guile, a meek and humble follower of Jesus. He walked with God, and of him it can truly be said, he lived, and yet he did not live in the flesh, was the life which he lived in the flesh, was the life which he lived in the flesh, and he lived and gave himself for him. With Paul "he looked not at the things which are seen, but at things which are not seen." lived, and moved, and had his being in the spiritual, unseen and heavenly world.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c. I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH P. LEXAY, Station D, Bible House, New York City. Jan. 15-17.
