

WASHINGTON LETTER.
(From our regular correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—"Rally 'round the flag, boys!" That is the prevailing sentiment in Washington today, both in and out of Congress. We may not have to fight, but we must show the Spaniards that we are not only ready to fight but determined to fight, if the report of that naval court be that the explosion which destroyed the Maine was on the outside of the ship. The surface indications all point in that direction now. Had the court discovered proof that the explosion was due to an accident on board of the Maine, there is little doubt that the facts would have been promptly communicated to the administration and as promptly made public, in order to allay the excitement. As nothing has been sent to Washington by the Court it has been taken to mean that the investigation as far as it has gone, shows the explosion to have been on the outside; consequently due to treachery, and that the court is waiting until it secures the fullest proofs to that effect before making its report. Neither the President nor any member of the Cabinet will admit that the administration puts that construction upon the silence of the court, but there is no occasion for any admission from them; their official acts, in preparing for war, tell the story, and tell it so well that Congress is perfectly willing to keep quiet and allow the administration to play the game out.

Credit Where Credit is Due
The Rockingham Register, smarting under the defeat of the Rockingham Turnpike bill, says: "We would not for a moment belittle the achievement of an old friend like Mr. Bauserman, but we doubt if he would feel comfortable bedecked with laurels which properly belong to somebody else."
Mr. Bauserman does not desire any laurels of that kind, but at the same time knows that the Register has endeavored to place what properly belongs to him upon the brow of another. The facts are: Mr. Switzer introduced a bill which did not propose to reduce the toll. It proposed to take the management of the road out of the hands of the Company and place it into the hands of the Boards of Supervisors of Mr. Switzer's bill. Mr. Bauserman opposed Mr. Switzer's bill and offered a substitute for it, and the substitute was passed by the Legislature. The Register, therefore, thinks the credit belongs to Mr. Switzer. People who know the facts will not agree with it.

As the Editor of the Register was once a Shenandoah man, the following thing will be appreciated: "Mr. Bauserman properly represented his county, no doubt because it appears to be necessary for the people of Rockingham to contribute toward keeping up the road in Shenandoah, and the people of Shenandoah are naturally satisfied with that arrangement."
The people of Shenandoah pay for the use of the road the same that the Rockingham people pay—every man pays for what he gets. A few years ago, a destructive frost destroyed several bridges in Shenandoah, while none were destroyed in Rockingham, and the amount of money expended on the road in Shenandoah exceeded that expended in Rockingham, and hence this Editor says: "It appears to be necessary for the people of Rockingham to contribute towards keeping up the road in Shenandoah."
If he had reflected upon the subject, he might have added that the salaries of the officers of the company, for the last forty years or more have been from the county, and one demand a heavy money in indemnity from Spain for the ship and for the families of the men killed, has not been well received in Congress, where there is a very pronounced feeling against giving giving Spain an opportunity to settle such a score with money. A demand for indemnity, say those who oppose it, would be too much like assenting to the taunts of the Spanish press, that we are a nation of shopkeepers who value money above everything else. They also say that nothing but blood can satisfy such treachery as the blowing up of the Maine; but inasmuch as it is generally believed that Spain would refuse to pay the indemnity, anyway, no attempt is likely to be made in Congress to prevent the administration making the demand, if it considers it best to do so. Some think that Secretary Sherman was sent to the Senate to make this statement, in order to feel the pulse of Congress and of the public, and that if the sentiment against demanding an indemnity is pronounced, the idea will be abandoned by the administration. We shall soon know all about it.

GEN. W. B. TALIAFERRO.
Death of This Gallant Soldier at His Home in Gloucester Co., Richmond, Va., Feb. 28.—Genl. William B. Taliaferro one of the best known men in Tidewater, Virginia, died at his home in Gloucester county last night. He was 76 years old. He was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor in the memorable contest of 1877, when Mahone was such a factor in politics, and was one of the leading aspirants for the honor.
Gen. Taliaferro was one of the most distinguished Masons in Virginia. He was past grand master, having filled the chair from December, 1874 to December, 1876. Ever since the war he was a regular attendant on the grand lodge. He took deep interest in all of the business of Masonry and was greatly beloved by the entire craft in this State. Some years ago General Taliaferro served the degree of his Scottish rite up to and including the thirty second and was devoted to the lofty teachings of the lodge of perfection, chapter of Rose Croix, council Kadosh, and consistory of matters of the Royal secret.
He was judge of Gloucester county for several terms and only resigned a few months ago on account of bad health. Previous to this he had served in the Virginia Legislature.

THE POOR OLD STATE.
On last Tuesday, there was quite a spirited discussion in the Senate of Virginia as to who was to pay for the Bailey speech which proved that every dollar of our money is now worth two dollars. As the free silver men were in the large majority, it was soon settled that the pay was to come out of the treasury of Virginia. As Mr. Bailey only came from Washington to Richmond, the cost of this political speech, as stated in the Senate, will only be from $250.00 to $500. If the argument advanced in Mr. Bailey's speech be sound, the real cost of this political speech to the members of the Legislature was from $500.00 to $1,000.00. Men who for three months have been trying to reduce State expenses by cutting down witnesses' fees, or those of Justices who receive but 50 cents for the trial of a case, and then spend five hundred dollars of the people's money to bring a man from Washington to teach them that our money is too good and ought to be cheaper, richly deserve being sent back to Richmond again, even if they don't go to the same house.

A Powerful Explosive.
Chicago, Feb. 28.—It is said that Wm. S. Darley, inventor of "minex," one of the most powerful explosives known to naval warfare, has been invited to visit Washington and demonstrate the powers of the product to Secretary Long. Fifty pounds of "minex" are said to be as effective as five times that amount of gunpowder. The new explosive only serves the purpose of its invention when it is thrown into water. On land it is harmless and cannot be exploded.

Teachers Institute.
The Ashby District Teachers' Institute met at the school house near Jerome, on the 12th inst. The Institute was called to order by the President, roll called, and 14 teachers answered to their names. Messrs. Grand and Danforth, of Madison District, being present, were received as advisory members. Mr. Elliott trustee, Noah Miller, was present during the entire session of the Institute. The meeting was opened by the presence of Miss Maguire, citizen, Isaac Miller, who manifested great deal of interest in school work. The secretary was ordered to have an abstract of proceedings of the Institute published in all the newspapers of the district. The first question, "What method would you take to interest your patrons in school work?" was discussed. The discussion was opened by S. S. Dellinger, who forebore to speak for the purpose of the teacher's doing extra work to advance the pupils. He was followed by Prof. Grandstaff, who showed in clear English that the best way to interest patrons in school work is first to interest the pupils. Messrs. Grand, Spitzer, W. B. Bauserman, Chas. W. Hepper, Perry Funkhouser and Chas. R. Miller followed in the order named, all of whom set forth the necessity of the school's increasing energy and zeal in the school work. The meeting was a success for the attendance and close attention of ladies and patrons showed it. The following questions were selected for next meeting: 1st. What is the best method of starting pupils in ungraded schools in the common school branches? to be opened by Milton Miller, 2d. Would the compulsory school law benefit the common school? to be opened by L. L. Lomas. A. Dodson was appointed orator, and Prof. Fenton Miller, essayist, at the next meeting. W. B. Bauserman is to read a declaration at the next meeting. The Institute adjourned to meet at St. Paul's School, Co., Va., on the 21st Saturday of March, 1898, at 9 a. m. Mr. Chas. B. Miller, a student of St. Paul's school, will deliver an address of welcome at the next meeting. A. DAVIS, Secy.

ST. LUKE NEWS.
The sick of this section are all getting better. A good deal of playing has already been done for spring crops. How can you tell a dog wood tree? By its bark.
The two most popular words in the United States now are Klondike and Spain. Yet both are remote from us. If the poultry yard doesn't pay your grocery bill then one of two things is true—Either the fowls do not have the proper attention or your credit is too good at the grocery store.
A writer once said that brains would tell. Some time ago I read something in it is brains that keeps a man from falling. Some men tell their wives everything that happens, and there are others who tell them a great many things that do not happen.
Mr. Isaac N. Risher, son of Mr. Wm. Coffelt left last week for Ohio.
The foundation site has been dug out for the Lutheran parsonage at Zion's Church, Fairview.
Mr. Nanson Winick is taking an active part in this construction.
The first newspaper was published in England in 1588, called the English Mercury, and a little boy out here says the first one in the United States was the Woodstock Herald. The latter are the initials of papers published to day.
The school at this place is very large and well attended, and all seem to be improving nicely under the efficient teachers, Mr. Samuel Hornsby and Miss Bessie Cline. Respectfully,
N-Ray.

Nashmore and River Bend.
Hen fruit is currency in our section now. It is 10c, 12c or 15c a dozen.
Mr. Ida Sherman has purchased a piece of land of the Samuel Hookman farm from Mr. L. J. Funkhouser, on which he expects to build.
Our friend, Frank Rish, son of Mr. Chas. Rish, who had been suffering very severely from an abscess in his ear, is better we are glad to say.
The death of Mrs. Emma Smoke, wife of Mr. John Smoke, a full account of which appeared in your last issue, has caused a feeling of the deepest sorrow to pervade all hearts in this community.
We are sorry to hear that Mr. Levi Johnson is complaining very much at this time.
Our friend, Woods Rittenour, President of the Luce Kila Club, of Neelmore, is still holding the club together.
Quilts and carpet takings are very popular with the ladies of this vicinity. Several have been held recently, one at Mrs. Joseph Teawalt and one at Mrs. Geo. Cooley, at both of which a good dinner and a pleasant time were enjoyed.
Mr. Joseph Smoke, of Rockingham county, was visiting his son, Mr. Jno. C. Smoke, on the river near town, Saturday and Sunday last week.
Mr. Milton Bowman has about completed his new mountain road from his place, known as the Daniel O. Bowman farm. The road runs from the farm along the mountain until it intersects with the Fort road, so that Mr. Bowman can now cross at the river bridge in case of high water. It is a great improvement to the Bowman farm.
Mr. Wm. Spiggle, we learn, is going to work for Mr. Milton Rush during the coming season.
On last Monday our friend Arthur Russell left for Ohio, where he expects to secure employment. Good luck to you Arthur, in your western home.
We learn that Mr. Dick Thompson will leave next Tuesday for Illinois.
OLD SHUCKS.
READERS NEWS.
The weather continues fine such that gives delight to the industrious farmer. Those who were reported sick at our last writing have about fully recovered. Mr. Sam Shuttles has been making his visits here quite frequently lately. It is quite evident that one of our bellies is the attraction. Welcome, Sam.
Mr. D. A. Bowman is now moving on his beautiful farm (known as the Wm. Coffman farm) which he has recently bought.
We are glad to receive Mr. Bowman as a neighbor and wish him much success.
Dr. Hoffman has moved a saw mill into his woods, for the purpose of sawing lumber to erect a barn on his farm.
Mr. H. Haun has put a new Phone in his house. Tom wants to be up to date and know what is going on.
Jno. Bowman, is all smiles as he was the recipient of a fine little girl baby.
As the time is nearing for "Fare" to his departure, he seems very melancholy.
We are unable to account for "Kibb" being at home Sunday night. It must be a case of the "Grippe."
TERMS: Double pay for rapid preparations to commence building his house, early in the spring. Jno. will have a nice place when once finished.

JEROME NEWS.
This community was terribly roused last week over the excitement of a rabid dog, fortunately he did not bite anything, but is claimed to have entertained the peculiarities subject to hydrophobia, but some claim it was only a wild excited freak, but the work of this thoroughly investigated the matter and believes it to be a fact that the dog was shot by Mr. Amos Funkhouser, one of our cautious and honorable citizens which is convincing of the truth in the case for Mr. F. would not stoop so low as to destroy any one's property without a just cause.
The 22nd of Feb. was a big day at Jerome, St. Paul's school gave the first community well arranged and satisfactory exhibition, in commemoration of the birthday of that man who has been so long to none.
A grand debate was held at St. Paul's on last Friday night on the subject: Resolved, That Washington did more for his country than Abe Lincoln. The subject was shyly discussed on both sides, but owing to the absence of several orators on the affirmative side, it was decided by 2 to 1 in favor of the negative.
The people of our community are not in any way alarmed, that the President will declare war against Spain.
The sick are all growing better, but our community is moving off as nicely as a new pin. Everybody busy at work, one to arrive in this community during this busy season of the year, would be reminded of the 24 hours old city built in the ravines of the Rockies. Socky.
Messrs. O. B. and C. G. Miller took a trip to Lost City on last Friday.
Just at this writing we learn that Mr. J. H. G. Dellinger left for New Market, where he expects to spend a short while in visiting friends and relatives. We wish him a pleasant intermission.
The above named Mr. Dellinger in conjunction with Mr. C. G. Miller, will soon begin work on the side, which they have quite recently returned. They are very able blacksmiths.
Mr. Bus M. Miller is now agent for some jewelry house of New York. He is making good success.
Messrs. D. T. and C. B. Miller are contemplating a trip to Neelmore, W. Va.
We learn that Mr. H. D. Funkhouser has rented the sugar camp belonging to Mr. Jacks a Fry.
Mr. Oscar Miller has stopped taking music lessons at Mr. A. Barb's of New Market Springs.
We are sorry to state that Mr. Isaac No. 1 one of our aged citizens is still on the sick list.
Mr. P. J. Miller is visiting at Jerome. American Perseimous.

Household Gods.
The ancient Greeks believed that the Penates were the gods who attended to the welfare and prosperity of the family. They were worshipped as household gods in every home. The household god of today is Dr. King's New Discovery. For consumption, coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, chest and lungs it is invaluable. It has been tried for a quarter of a century and is guaranteed to cure or money returned. No household should be without this good angel. It is pleasant to take and a safe and sure remedy for old and young. Free trial bottles at B. Schmitt's Drug Store, Regular price 50c and $1.00.
In Champagne.
The French Liner La Champagne, from Havre was towed to Halifax N. S. Sunday evening. She was due to arrive in New York Sunday the 20th inst. including passengers and crew, she has over 300 persons on board. After La Champagne had been drifting for days on the Newfoundland banks, with her engines disabled and her crew shaft battered, the Boston-bound freighter Rome from Liverpool, came along, picked her up and brought her into Halifax without further mishap. The Holland-American Line steamer Rotterdam arrived at New York on Saturday night, having on board the third officer and nine of the crew of the La Champagne. They were picked up from a life boat on February 24, in 43. 10 latitude North and 57 longitude West. Some of them had their hands left frozen. They reported having left their ship on Friday, February 18th, in search of assistance. La Champagne carried away her tall end shaft on Feb. 17 and anchored on the Newfoundland banks in 43.27 latitude North, and 52 longitude West, the ship being light and all on board well.
If you want to keep your hogs healthy while penned, feed them our special health time a week. If charcoal is not available, stone coal will also answer an excellent purpose.

Scott's Emulsion
Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda as the standard, and the purchaser who wishes to procure the "standard" will be glad to know it has been of proved benefit, should not for one instant think of taking the risk of using some untried preparation. The substitution of some thing said to be "just as good" for a standard preparation twenty-five years on the market, should not be permitted by the intelligent purchaser.
Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.
