

WOODSTOCK, VIRGINIA.
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1905.

MR. M. B. WUNDER ELECTED CLERK OF SHENANDOAH COUNTY.

The election on last Tuesday resulted in the election of Mr. M. B. Wunder, as County Clerk over Mr. L. S. Walker, the present incumbent. The contest was a bitter factional fight. The democratic factions were tolerably well united on Wunder, while the republican factions were divided, one of which zealously supported Mr. Wunder. Heretofore Mr. Mr. Walker, had a considerable support from the democratic faction of which Mr. Wunder was considered a member. The Tavenner & Bauserman faction of the democratic party heartily supported Mr. Wunder, and to their active efforts Mr. Wunder's victory is, in no small degree due. In most of the precincts the Walton-Newman faction supported Wunder and this was a contest in which the democracy presented almost a solid front. The republican vote cast for Mr. Wunder was large at many of the precincts. Mr. Wunder is well qualified to fill the position to which he has been elected.

Mr. Walker was first elected Clerk in 1881. He was capable, accommodating and popular. In fact, he was considered one of the best clerks in the State, and we doubt whether he had a superior in Virginia.

The strongest argument used against Mr. Walker was his long term of office. The fact that other gentlemen had been defeated by this cry, made it more effective in the contest just closed.

It is very evident that the voters of Shenandoah have decided against long terms, and others may now readily read "the handwriting on the wall."

The contest was not a personal one. Mr. Walker was greatly assisted by his personal popularity. He had been in office, a long time, and had been very courteous and accommodating to all, without regard to their party affiliations, and hundreds of voters considered themselves under obligation to him for favors received at his hands.

To the factional fight in the republican party and the skillful manner in which the democratic party was managed by its leader, the result is to be attributed.

Capitalist a Suicide.

Fredericksburg, Va., Nov. 5.—Mr. Alexander W. Black, a capitalist of Pittsburgh, committed suicide here last night by drowning in the Rappahannock river. He was 56 years old and an invalid. In an effort he made to escape from the Mary Washington Hospital he jumped from a window and broke his leg and has since had to use crutches. Recently he had been under the care of Dr. J. N. Barney at a private house, and a guard was kept with him constantly. For several days he had been very despondent. At midnight last night the guard found that Mr. Black had disappeared, and search was immediately made, but no trace was found until early this morning when his body was discovered floating in the river.

Mr. Black owned the Chancellorsville battlefield in Spotsylvania county, near this city, as well as large property holdings in Allegheny county, Pennsylvania.

Heirs Expect Millions.

Winchester, Va., Nov. 5.—Advices from Denver, Col., state that a large number of holders of Baron Adam Fisher, a wealthy Hollander, are receiving their shares in his vast estate, which is being divided by the Holland authorities. Mrs. A. G. Curtis, of Cannon City, Col., gets the largest share, $4,000,000, and others in proportion to their kinship. Two of Baron Fisher's brothers came to America 100 years ago and settled near Philadelphia. Baron Fisher owned many of the Holland canal systems, and at his death he left them to his 200 heirs, nearly all of whom lived in America. A few years ago the Baron's will, deeds and other valuable documents of his were found in an old trunk. Steps were immediately taken to have the estate settled. Reports say that it amounts to $160,000,000, according to some accounts. It is stated that the Fishers of this section of Virginia are the direct descendants of Baron Fisher and his two brothers.

Germany, France, England, Italy, Russia, Japan and other foreign countries are to be invited by Mr. Harry S. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition Company, to make military and naval displays in Hampton Roads during the exposition two years.

Samuel Martin, of Chesterfield county, was attacked by negroes and dangerously wounded.

LIGHT VOTE IN VIRGINIA.

MEASURE RETURNS GIVE SWANSON 20,000 TO 25,000 MAJORITY—FEW REPUBLICAN GAINS IN LEGISLATURE.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—Returns from the State at midnight were meager, but a light vote has been polled and Swanson's majority is estimated at between 20,000 and 25,000. Judge Lewis, the republican candidate for Governor, did not poll the vote he was expected to get, and it appears that even the full registered negro vote did not come out to the polls.

The republicans have gained one or two members of the House, but none in the Senate so far as heard from, and the democrats will have about the same majority on joint ballots as in the last General Assembly.

Lewis's vote in the Ninth district, will fall considerably short of Slomp's in the congressional election last fall.

Staunton, Va., Nov. 7.—Augusta county and city of Staunton give the democratic State and legislative ticket about 600 majority.

Stannardsville, Va., Nov. 7.—Greene county gives Lewis 7 majority for Governor. Page (dem.) is re-elected County Clerk over Lynnwood Mitchell (rep.) by 21 majority. N. B. Early, jr., (dem.) carries the county for House by 16. With his majority in Madison he will win by 250 to 300.

TAMMANY WINS IN NEW YORK. New York, Nov. 7.—McClellan, the Tammany candidate for Mayor has been re-elected, and Jerome, the independent candidate for District Attorney, is defeated by Osborne, the Tammany nominee. It is probable that the whole Tammany ticket has been elected except in the case of president of the Borough of Brooklyn, which goes to Bird S. Coler, the municipal ownership candidate.

INDEPENDENTS SWEEP PHILADELPHIA. Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—The reform forces in Philadelphia have swept the Penrose-Durham organization out of power by a majority that may reach 70,000. The machine organization is claiming the city by 15,000 but the claim is discredited.

ANOTHER DEMOCRAT IN MASSACHUSETTS. Boston, Mass., Nov. 7.—The democrats and tariff-revision republicans of Massachusetts today delivered a knock-out blow to the Lodge machine, electing Charles W. Bartlett, (dem.) governor over Curtis Guild (rep.).

MARYLAND DEFEATS AMENDMENT. Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—The constitutional amendment is defeated in Maryland. The American claims a majority of 18,000 against it. This is a severe blow to the democratic organization and to Senator Arthur P. Gorman, its acknowledged leader.

DEMOCRATS SWEEP OHIO; BOSS COX BADLY BEATEN; PHILA. RING SMOTHERED. The Good Government ticket was elected in Philadelphia by 50,000. For State Treasurer, Berry, Democrat, was elected by 100,000.

DEMOCRATS SWEEP OHIO; BOSS COX BADLY BEATEN; PHILA. RING SMOTHERED. Cincinnati and Boss Cox will quit politics. Tom Johnson was re-elected Mayor of Cleveland.

THE ENTIRE REPUBLICAN TICKET WAS ELECTED IN MASSACHUSETTS, GUILD BY 33,000 AND DRAPER BY 2,000. Gov. Utter, Republican, was re-elected in Rhode Island by a slightly increased plurality over Dr. Garvin.

CHICAGO REPUBLICANS ELECT A MAJORITY OF THEIR TICKET. In New Jersey the Republicans had a sweep. Bookwater, Republican, was elected Mayor of Indianapolis. Louisville went Democratic. Schmitz, the Union Labor Mayor of San Francisco, was re-elected. Bridgeport and Andover, in Connecticut, defeated their democratic administrations.

THE DISFRANCHISING AMENDMENT IN MARYLAND WAS DEFEATED. President Henry St. George Tucker, of the Jamestown Exposition Company, left for New York to begin his tour of Europe in the interests of the exposition.

BLOOD-LETTING GOES ON.

MANY SECTIONS OF RUSSIA STILL IN HANDS OF RIOTERS.

While the situation in St. Petersburg is quiet, murder and pillage continue at Kremenchug, Kischeneff, Minsk and other places.

Victims of recent rioting in St. Petersburg were buried without disorder, the Social Democrats stating only a truce exists.

At Minsk 100 persons were killed and 600 wounded by troops. St. Petersburg papers are demanding Gen. Treppoff's removal.

Quiet seems to be returning in Odessa, where the Jews of the poorer class were the worst sufferers. The most horrible atrocities were practiced.

Nineteen persons were killed in the demonstrations at Tula, Russia. A serious uprising is reported at Gori, Caucasus, and 14 persons were killed at Tiflis.

Crowds estimated at 200,000 persons hold patriotic demonstrations in Warsaw, Russian Poland.

BADLY MIXED IN RUSSIA. The revolt in Russia becomes more complex daily in its political ramifications, and a fear is expressed that Count Witte will be unable to bring order out of chaos.

Of the six-thousand persons wounded in the Odessa riots, 964 are dead, and the merchants are in dread of bankruptcy.

Disorders are reported from many quarters where Jews are not the only victims. The Government continues to issue appeals for confidence.

Because Russia resented the Kischeneff petition of 1903 as interference, President Roosevelt is unable to take any steps in behalf of the persecuted Jews.

The success of the Finnish struggle has led to a revival of struggle for autonomy in Poland.

A bomb thrown at Novo Georgievskoye, Russia, killed the commander of the fortress and wounded his family.

William T. Stead suggests that American warships be sent to St. Petersburg as a refuge for Americans in case of necessity.

MAY BE 3,500 DEAD. London, Nov. 6.—The Odessa correspondent of the Standard, under date of Nov. 5, 5 P. M., sends further sensational accounts of the riot there. He says:

"There have been more horrifying massacres and fiendish cruelties, but the districts where these took place are now cordoned off by troops. Probably the total killed will number 3,500 and the wounded 12,000. In the suburb of Moldovanka alone 1,000 victims remained in the street from midnight until noon, when the authorities hastened to collect and bury the bodies in great pits, in order to conceal their number. Two private doctors attended more than 300 children of both sexes, who had been horribly gashed about the head and shoulders with sabers."

"Heaping insult on injury, the civil Governor today, when the butchery had ended, asked the householders to subscribe $100,000 to pay the police an increase of wages."

PRISONERS SET FREE. St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—Many touching scenes were witnessed yesterday when the political prisoners were released under the amnesty decree.

At the Schlüsselburg fortress up the river, where the most dangerous political prisoners are kept in solitary confinement, a great conference gathered looking for loved ones who vanished years ago and whose whereabouts were known, but only four were released. Disappointed women waiting for sons, husbands or brothers wept.

A man named Franko and a woman, who said they had spent more than 20 years in prison, came out with long white beards. They knew practically nothing about what had occurred during their long imprisonment. Sasonoff, the murderer of Interior Minister von Plehve; Peter Karpoivich, the assassin of Minister of Public Instruction Bogolopoff; Gerolinni, the chief of the terrorist conspiracy, and other terrorists were not released.

Editor Hartin Kicks Who Gave Him a Black Eye. When the jail was on fire the other night the editor of this paper sustained a black eye from an object thrown from a window. Since then a young man who lately calls himself into prominence boasts that he had the pleasure of striking us. We know who accidentally did it and have no ill feeling toward him. To the fellow who boasts that he did it we would say that the only thing we know of his hitting at that time was a lot of apple-jack and the terminous of his spinal column striking the earth when he attempted to go about over a roof.—Franklin Review.

Mayor H. C. Burgess, of Strasburg, has served notice on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad that if the company does not take steps to stop its trains into that town, instead of stopping at Strasburg Junction, by the time the town council holds its regular meeting, legal steps will be taken immediately to compel it to comply with the terms of its charter, which requires trains to run into the town.

Lee's Body Servant Dies in Northland.

Asbury Park, N. J., Nov. 4.—Wm. T. Evans, former body-servant and guard for Confederate General Robert E. Lee, lies dead in West Asbury Park. Evans' age is believed to have been about 81. He was a slave.

Evans was at Appomattox when Lee met Grant at the surrender. Evans witnessed also the hanging of John Brown. Evans' freedom was purchased when he was two years old.

After General Lee's death Evans drifted North, and he refused to mingle with the Northern "colored trash," as he called it, but didn't like the business. He did odd jobs for little pay and with the memory of his Southern luxury and distinction to cheer his old age.

The Drummer's Furlough. Countess Drummer boys have swelled the ranks of horse dets, and the heart of many a stern officer has been moved to pity for the childish drummers in his regiment. In the critical days of the civil war an order was issued that under no circumstances should a furlough be granted. Just then "General Scott," a Ohio drummer boy, aged thirteen, became terribly homesick and hungry for a sight of his mother.

Poor little General Scott! He had been in many battles, always obedient and fearless. But he was beaten at last. His lip quivered and his eyes filled with tears.

The bandmaster wrote out a brief statement of the case, but carefully avoided asking for a furlough, and sent General Scott with it to the line of officers. General's Countess, Hayes and Crook, added to it a line and then it was laid before Sheridan.

"No furlough can be granted," wrote the hero of Winchester, "but General Scott is hereby ordered to repair to his mother and to report again at headquarters in thirty days." It was that that the drummer boy went home on duty.—Youth's Companion.

THIRD LUNGS. One of the exhibits in an English anatomical museum is a collection of three lungs preserved in alcohol. One is white, one is black, and the third is a mixture of the two, one being a dirty gray.

The first was taken from an Eskimo who all his life had inhaled the pure air of his northern home. The black was taken from a miner who had spent years in the production of coal. The third was from the body of a London man, and the tint was produced by the inhalation of the soot carried in the air.

It is a certain fact that the lungs of the miner were in a more healthy state than those of the city dweller, since the grit in his tissues was pure coal dust, while the discoloration of the other was due not alone to soot, but to the dust of a city's streets composed of a thousand and one deleterious elements.

The Skipper's Comment. A burly, thick headed skipper had been given the command of a little steam cutter. Going up with great pride on to the bridge of his new ship, the first thing that caught his eye was the engine room telegraph. "What's that for?" he demanded. "Why, that goes down to the engine room," was the reply. "You see all the orders on it—'Full speed,' 'Half,' 'Slow,' 'Stop.' You just have to move the handle." The old man was charmed. "If I put the handle to 'Full,' will she give full put the handle to 'Stop,' will she stop sailing?" "Certainly." The old man was still more charmed. Finally, after thinking some time, he heaved a great sigh of pleasure. "Why, that's fine, man! That's clever! That does away with all them nasty imps of engineers!"

The Dog and His Master. Men and women are very much like clocks. Some are always on time, some are never on time, some are always in order, some are never in order. And, while you may be able to tell something of a family by its timepiece, you can tell more by the nature of the dog that greets you at the gate. A dog grows up after the fashion of its master or its mistress; a kind gentleman will not have an ugly brute on his place.—Exchange.

Less Than Cost. "But," protested the broker who had advertised for a confidential clerk, "you want too much salary." "I've had a great deal of experience in the brokerage business," urged the applicant. "But you ask too much for it." "My dear sir, assure you I'm offering it to you for much less than it cost me."—Philadelphia Ledger.

"There was a mouse in the room your highness, and for fear it might disturb you I shot it."
