

REMEMBRANCE.

The flower you save repotes
Where Love's dear relics are
It sleeps among the roses,
Shed in a crimson jar,
Whose lifted lid discloses
The dreamers red and white,
From whose sweet lips
The fragrance slips,
Recalls dead delight.

The love you gave in token
Of all the happy years,
Fond words by fond lips spoken,
Joy kisses, sorrow's tears—
Alas! the heart is broken
That holds them, yet they lie
In slumber there,
Still sweet and fair,
And shall until I die!

TREATMENT OF DEAFNESS.

A Skillful Physician Mentions Several Remedies and Tells How to Use Them

In answer to several readers, regarding the treatment for deafness, I submitted their query to a skillful physician, and this is in part his answer: In treating a case of deafness, the conditions leading up to the trouble must be taken into consideration, as the causes that produce or continue the trouble are numerous. There is but one or two known remedies that will relieve a thickening of the ear drums. Regarding the remedies mentioned by your correspondent, I have little faith in any beneficial action following their administration, and never advise their use. * * * One remedy that can be relied on to assist in the restoration of the thickened ear drum, is an oil made from the blossoms of the common field mullein. Gather the blossoms when in full bloom, pick them as both or fruit jar; when full seal air-tight, and set the jar in the sun for a month, at the end of which time you will have about three ounces of a sun-distilled extract from the blossoms. Strain this out carefully through several thicknesses of muslin, and add to the oil one-fourth of its bulk of alcohol to prevent souring. This is to be put into the ears, a few drops two or three times a day. I have known this remedy to do wonders, especially in deafness of old age. The most useful medicine to use in connection with this mullein oil is Pulsatilla (made from the Turkish pasque flower; but it must be made from the green plant, and not a green tinge.) Of this, put a teaspoonful into a four-ounce bottle, and fill with water, taking a teaspoonful of the mixture five or six times a day. This will cause absorption of whatever thickening there may be, and will cure a large percentage of catarrhal deafness, which is, in the majority of cases, the cause of the thickening of the drums. It should be remembered that such a cure can not be compassed in a short time, but must be taken for months to insure results.

There is but one place known to me where this mullein oil, made as I have directed, can be had, although many dealers carry it in stock—of which no two samples are in any way alike, the most of it being sweet ordinary oil digested with the dry leaves of the plant, and entirely worthless for the purposes named. It is in no sense a patent medicine, and can be made by any one, and, if not in two great a hurry for it, wait until next fall, gather the blossoms and make a supply for yourself. This oil is also a new remedy for children who wet the bed, put ten or fifteen drops into a half glass of water and give teaspoonful doses of the mixture several times a day.—E. R. W.

Now, friends, you who intend to make use of this remedy, cut this article out and paste it right where you can find it for use, next fall. It will certainly not harm, if it does not help, and that is more than can be said of many of the recommended medicines now on the market. Remember that Naaman, in order to become clean of a dreadful disease, was simply told to bathe himself a certain number of times in a neighboring stream, and on doing so, he was healed. Don't be afraid of the simple remedies.

The Sams.

"Hello, Bill, old man! Well, well! I haven't seen you since the old days, when we used to run around together."

"No, Jack. Ah, those old days! What a fool I used to be then!"

"I tell you, I'm glad to see you. You haven't changed a bit, old man." Philadelphia Ledger.

Time Limit Fixed.

"Jane, hasn't that young man gone yet?"

"He is just going, papa."

"Jane!"

"Yes, papa."

"In precisely sixty seconds you will say, 'He has just gone.'"

"Yes, 'papa'—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Doctors are Puzzled

The remarkable recovery of Kenneth McIver, of Vancetoro, Me., is the subject of much interest to the medical fraternity and a wide circle of friends. He says of his case: "Owing to severe inflammation of the throat and congestion of the Lungs, three doctors gave me up to die, when, as a last resort, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery and I am glad to say, it saved my life." Cures the worst Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Teacillitis, Weak Lungs, Hoarseness and L. Grippe. Guaranteed at B. Schmidt's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Howell—Who was the fellow who went around with a lantern looking for an honest man?

Powell—I don't know, but if he were to try it today somebody would steal the lantern.—Woman's Home Companion.

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Original Laxative Cough Syrup, the best known remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Lastes good and harmless. Sold by L. R. Irwin.

A school teacher instructing her classes in grammar, according to an exchange, wrote this sentence on the board for correction.

"The horse and the cow is in the lot." No one seemed to know what was wrong with it, till at last a polite little boy raised his hand. "What is it, Johnny?" asked the teacher. "You should put the lady first," corrected Johnny.

Some people are so lucky as to fall in love without hurting themselves.

If you are troubled with Piles and can't find a cure, try Witch Hazel Salve, but be sure you get that made by E. E. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. It is the Original. If you have used Witch Hazel Salve without being relieved it is probable that you got hold of one of the many worthless counterfeits that are sold on the reputation of the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The Room at the Top.

"All the lower berths are taken," said the ticket seller. "You'll have to take an upper berth."

"Of course," grumbled the professor. "There's always room at the top.—Chicago Tribune

"Do you ever swear when your collar buttons roll under the bureau?"

"I keep a man to attend to such things," answered young Mr. Nurchigh laughingly.

"The buttons or the swearing?"—Pittsburg Post.

"They say he gambles."

"Yes, but he does it in a perfectly honorable and gentlemanly way. He invariably loses."—Chicago Tribune.

The best way to rid the system of a cold is to evacuate the bowels. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar acts as a pleasant, yet effective cathartic on the bowels. It cleans the head, cuts the phlegm out of the throat, strengthens the bronchial tubes, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough etc. Sold by L. R. Irwin.

Heart Weakness.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has made many hearts well after they have been pronounced hopeless. It has completely cured thousands, and will at most invariably cure or benefit every case of heart disease.

Short breath, pain around heart, palpitation, fluttering, dizzy, fainting and smothering spells should not be neglected. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and see how quick you will be relieved.

It cannot make a new heart, but will restore a sick one by strengthening the heart nerves and muscles, relieving the unnatural strain, and restoring its vitality.

"I had a very bad case of heart trouble. For six months I could not work. Last July I was blowing my nose and feeling bad all day; in the afternoon I lay down for three times. My heart throbbed as though it would burst through and I had difficulty in getting my breath. I purchased a bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and before I had used half of it I could lay down and sleep all night. Presently I had my heart as regular as clock work. I feel like a new man, and can work comfortably for an old man, 84 1/2 years old."

H. D. McCall, Frost, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

Bill of the American Bird.

The song in the slaughter of eagles has set in. American eagles and golden eagles particularly have fallen victims to the insatiate desire of men to kill. If there is any sentiment in this country at all it ought to be sufficient strength to prevent the destruction at least of the American eagle, as "theoretically is our national bird." It has already become so rare as to be a novelty and to lead correspondents to consume much space in giving the details when some hunter brings an eagle down. It is singular that men with guns want to destroy the very last survivor of a disappearing species of bird or animal. One would think that the rarer a bird or beast became the greater care there would be to protect it. But the lust for trophies will not have it so and the slaughter of eagles will go on until this great bird shall be extinct, except, perhaps, in the national reservations, where the government's strong arm extends.—Indianapolis News.

Fine Farm for Sale Near Edinburg, Virginia.

An unusually valuable Farm 84 of mile from Edinburg, Va., containing 2 1/2 acres of land, 1/2 of which is in timber and 30 acres in fine river bottom, not subject to injurious overflow, a large good dwelling of about 10 rooms and a well and two porches—large barn and all other necessary outbuildings in good repair, the place is well fenced with wire. This farm is very productive, and there is on it an almost inexhaustible deposit of the finest "mineral clay" which is very valuable, the owner having tested its value through the various improved methods of brick making, and it proved unequalled as a brick product; it therefore presents an attractive proposition for manufacture of brick on a large scale and is only one mile from the Southern Railroad at Edinburg, Va.
