CUPLE ASSAULTED WHILE IN SLUMBER.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Whitmore, formerly of Harrisonburg, who have been living for the last two years on a farm near Brandy Station in Culpeper county, were audaciously assaulted about 2 o'clock Sunday morning, and but for the ready presence of mind of Mrs. Whitmore and her ready use of firearms, both might have been killed. As it was Mr. Whitmore was badly beaten, his arm was broken and he was knocked senseless. His wife, although dragged out of bed and struck repeatedly with a blunt instrument, escaped with less serious injuries. Seizing a pistol which was near at hand, she fired on her assailant and ran him out of the bedroom. Up to this time he has not been captured.

The assault of the couple entered the house through an open window, made his way through a long hallway and deli the pair blow after blow with a heavy bludgeon. He first attacked Mr. Whitmore and, after knocking him senseless and breaking his arm, then turned his attention to the wife, whom he struck repeatedly, but to less effect.

Reunion of Blue and Gray.

Washington, D. C., April 12.—Veterans of the Civil War, both those who wore the blue, and those who wore the gray, at the battle of Gettysburg forty-eight years ago, will meet again on that famous battlefield this year, if the movement started by Lieutenant Colonel J. A. Waltrous, U. S. A., is carried out.

Owing to the fact that veterans of both armies are responding in large numbers each year to final "taps," Colonel Waltrous believes it would be better to hold such a reunion this year, rather than wait until the fiftieth anniversary of the battle. Much interesting historical data in regard to the conflict, it is believed, would be brought to light by this meeting.

DON'T OVERLOOK GOOD THINGS

The Man who invented the hinged collar button and got rich by it, saw a good thing that had been within six inches of millions of men's eyes for fifty years.

A young chap came into the store Saturday—wanted to know the minute he got inside whether we had such and such a suit that was in the window on Monday. No it was sold—"I knew it" he said "A friend of mine has it on."

"I've admired that suit in the window two or three times but I'll be GIGGEBER if I thought it could be bought for the price he told me he paid." "Got anything like it" "Why don't you put prices on them in the window?"

"WHO MADE THE SUIT ANYWAY?"

"It's a Schloss Bros. & Co. Suit."

Stanton Cadets are in Rebellion.

Stanton, Va., April 12.—Rebellion broke out in the Stanton Military Academy here to-day on account of their victory over their old rivals, the Augusta Military Academy yesterday defeating them 6 to 1 at baseball. The cadets thought they ought to have holiday to-day, and when it was refused they broke barracks, all but about seventy-five, who were headed off, and paraded the streets of Stanton, the greater part of the day in the rain.

Because of this outbreak the school expelled the four cadet captains and eight lieutenants, and as many more left on the strength of it. The officers of the school announced that they will run it, and enforce discipline at all hazards. There is a lot of wild talk among the boys about leaving, but it is not thought many more will go, but that all will submit to punishment, the character of which has not been made public.
