

WOODSTOCK, VIRGINIA.

FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1910.

WHISKEY GONE; KILLS TWO.

Stanton, Va., May 8.—Angry because some one had stolen his whiskey in a prohibition town. Arch Brown, 35 years old, shot up a neighbor's house this afternoon, killed two persons and wounded two others, one of whom may die. The dead are: Perry Hoy.

A boy named Higgs, 8 years old. Abe Hoy, a brother of the dead man, is probably mortally wounded, and a Mr. Higgs, father of the murdered boy, was also shot.

The tragedy occurred four miles from the city at a house where the Hoy had gone to visit friends. Brown, who had been drinking, suddenly burst upon the gathering and opened fire with a shotgun. Perry Hoy and the Higgs boy dropped at the first discharge. Both died instantly. A wild struggle to get out of range followed immediately, but Brown kept pumping a deadly fire into the fleeing group.

Abe Hoy received four charges of buckshot as he was making his escape. He and the elder Higgs are in the hospital and the former's condition is reported to be precarious.

After the tragedy Brown walked to the city and immediately sought the jailer. "Mr. Powell," he said in a nonchalant manner, "I have just killed Perry Hoy and young Higgs. I guess you had better lock me up."

He was taken into custody, and the reports of the tragedy were verified soon after.

Brown takes the situation calmly, though he says he is sorry that he killed the man and boy. "I wanted to kill Abe Hoy—he stole my whiskey," Brown said after he was locked up.

According to a story told the police, Brown had given Abe Hoy a quantity of whiskey to keep for him. He is alleged to have drunk the liquor, and this enraged him so that he procured a shotgun in order to "get even." All Stanton was stirred up by the tragedy, and throughout the city the appalling murder is the topic of conversation. Early in the evening talk of violence was rife, but cooler heads soon prevented any imminent trouble.

Great-Grandfather Weds.

Keyser, W. Va., May 6.—John Cain, aged 74, and Miss Elizabeth Porter, aged 28, both of Keyser, were married here yesterday by the Rev. M. B. Lambkin of the Presbyterian church.

The bridegroom, who is one of the pioneers of Keyser, is the father of a large family of children, and has numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

James Hay, of the county of Madison is proclaimed the Democratic candidate for delegate in the House of Representatives in the United States Congress for the 7th Congressional District of Virginia at the regular election to be held in November, 1910, he having complied with the regulations required by the committee and no other candidate having appeared.

TOM'S BROOK.

The closing exercises of the High School were held in Junior Hall on Wednesday night, May 11th.

It was quite a success. The hall was packed to its utmost capacity and many were unable to gain admission, and during the rendering of the program which lasted three hours, there was not a dull moment.

The meeting opened with prayer by Superintendent Dr. L. L. Smith. Professor Harloe, then very eloquently stated the purpose of the meeting, after which the debate "Resolved that the world is growing morally better," began. The affirmative side was handled by Mr. James Borden, and Misses Anne Wolfe and Nellie Keller, while Mr. Roy Baerman and Misses Golda Crabbill and Mary Sibert spoke on the negative. The judges were: Mr. Charles G. Maphis, of Charlottesville, Rev. Walters, of Winchester, and Miss Emma French, one of the faculty, deliberated and stated that the contest was a very close one, but that they inclined to the affirmative side and decided in their favor.

Miss Nellie Keller was awarded a gold medal for having the best essay. Graduating diplomas were awarded to Mr. Joel Borden, Misses Edna Hamman and Annie Dean, by Rev. Walters, of the Christian church, of Winchester.

The review of the work of the session, and farewell remarks by Professor Harloe brought the meeting to a close.

The evening was very much enlivened with some fine selections rendered by Shaffer's Orchestra, of Woodstock. The teachers have returned to their homes.

Mr. Park Smith has recovered from an attack of rheumatism sufficient to walk down town and his many friends are glad to greet him.

Miss Harloe, of Winchester, came up last week with her brother, Prof. C. B. Harloe and to witness the closing exercises of the school. She and her brother, accompanied by Misses Annie Wolfe and Mary Snarr, attended the closing exercises of the Strasburg school Tuesday evening.

Mrs. F. Snarr and Mrs. O. G. Borden spent Tuesday with Mrs. E. M. Funk, at Middlebrook.

MT. JACKSON.

Miss Regina Jones is in a hospital in Washington for treatment.

Mrs. Susan Fultz, who has been visiting relatives in Edinburg and at Bowman's returned to her home a few days ago.

Mr. Homer Boyd, of Laporte, Ind., visited friends in town last week.

Mr. Frank Pennybacker was taken with a severe hemorrhage of the nose last Sunday morning and was hurried to a hospital in Winchester in an automobile.

Mr. R. R. Rinker spent several days this week with Capt. Funkhouser and family.

Mrs. Kate Johnson spent a part of last week with her daughters in Woodstock.

Mrs. John Lantz, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Hamme, near Mt. Clifton, returned to her home in Washington last Sunday.

Mr. Frank Dellinger expects to erect a handsome dwelling on the lot adjoining Dr. Moore's residence on Main street.

The three year old child of Ned Spinner, colored, caught her clothing while playing in the fire last Saturday afternoon and was so badly burned that she only lived an hour, and was buried Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Mr. Shearer, of Richmond, preached to large congregations in Mt. Calvary Lutheran church last Sunday morning and night.

Mr. C. L. Bowman, of Washington, D. C., was in town on business several days last week.

Miss Virginia Kinker, of Rinkerton, visited friends in Winchester this week.

Mr. Ed. Funkhouser, of Trenton, N. J., and Prof. Chas. Funkhouser and son, Grey, of Dayton, Va., spent a part of last week with relatives here.

Mrs. Jacob Downey is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Wisman, near Woodstock.

Mrs. Magnus Young and little daughter, Martha, who have been visiting Mrs. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Moore, returned to their home in Washington, D. C., last Friday.

EDINBURG.

Mrs. Virginia Mantz visited friends in Woodstock this week.

Mrs. Sam'l Hoffman who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dinges returned to her home in Woodstock the first of the week.

Mrs. Claud Wilson will move to Maryland in the near future where she will make her home.

Miss Mary Mantz and two friends of Baltimore, spent a part of last week at her old home in this place.

Mrs. Dr. Hisey who is the possessor of a number handsome gold rings which she prized very highly, some of which had been handed down for generations, always carried them on her person when she was not wearing them on her fingers she carried them in a chamois skin bag around her neck as she was afraid the house might burn and she would lose them. She went in her bath room one day last week and laid the sack of jewelry on her dresser, a few minutes later some one came in and gathered up the sack with a lot of papers and threw it in the stove. The mistake was not discovered until after the jewelry was very much damaged.

Miss Edith Miller has been on the sick list for the past two weeks.

Mr. John Wightman who is in business in Bridgewater, Va., spent last week with his parents in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Harrisonburg were in town on business last week.

The anti-saloon league will hold an all day meeting here today (Friday.) Rev. and Mrs. Melville gave their members a reception in the lecture room in the M. E. Church last Tuesday evening. The room was beautifully decorated in ferns and cut flowers for the occasion, some very interesting addresses were made by Revs. Melville and Hutchinson and others. The music added very much to the pleasure of the evening which although made that one of the most pleasant evenings we have ever spent.

Mr. Frank Berton, of Baltimore is visiting at the home of Dr. Downey.

Prof. J. H. Shoemaker, of Penn., and Miss Hilda Devilbliss, of Md., returned to their homes last Monday after teaching a successful term in our high school which closed last Friday.

Mr. Manthly Wren, of Washington is visiting relatives here.

Mr. William H. Moyer, one of the best known farmers in this section, was taken to the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore Monday, where he will be treated for an abscess in the stomach. He was accompanied by his son Thomas, and Dr. Hisey, Wednesday. Mr. Moyer's condition had improved and it was thought that an operation would not be necessary.

The entertainment given by the members of the high school in this place last Wednesday and Thursday evening was a perfect success and one of the best local entertainments ever given in this place. The proceeds were $62.00. By request the entertainment was repeated Saturday evening.

The commencement exercises were held on Friday night. A most interesting program was rendered and the following graduates were awarded diplomas: Misses Eva Bromley, Katie Mose Whissen, Ophelia Wightman, Elizabeth Waterman, Jos Hisey, Milton Hollingsworth and Wm. Jennings.

Prof. J. C. Beal, of Shenandoah College, will fill the pulpit on Sunday morning and night. His wife will be with him and sing several solos.

A. G. Shaver & Brother has contracted with the Oliver Type Writer Company for the agency in this county. They received their sample machine on Wednesday.

R. F. D. No. 3.

Rev. D. H. Rhodes filled his regular appointment at Fairview last Sunday morning.

Miss Annie Clark returned to her home last Monday. Miss Annie has been living in Washington City for the past two years. Her many friends here all gave her a hearty welcome.

Mr. Milton Fravel purchased a fine young horse recently from Mrs. John Bly.

Quite a number of our citizens attended Court in Woodstock on last Monday.

Mr. Clinton Wisman was appointed a delegate from the Mt. Zion congregation to attend the Potomac Conference which will convene at New Market next week.

Those who spent the first of the week at Mrs. W. A. Sager's were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saum, Mr. and Mrs. Cleof Hoover, Miss Florence Hoover and Mr. Samuel Walker.

Mrs. P. A. Smoot is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Rada Sager.

Mr. Lester Wisman is working for Mr. James Richard this summer.

Mr. David Rau, of Mt. Olive, spent the first of the week with Mr. John Richard.

Misses Ola and Della Bly, Fannie Coffelt, Florence Gochenour and Mr. Samuel Walker visited Mrs. Sella Klipp's first of the week.

Mrs. Hampson Hotel, who has suffered four strokes of paralysis is very ill. All her children have been summoned to her bedside.

Two young ladies from this neighborhood went to Woodstock last Saturday to buy their summer outfits. They drove an open rig, which was very convenient going in, but on their return home got caught in the evening shower of rain and were compelled to ask for shelter for the night which was granted them willingly at the hospitable home of Mr. B. F. Coffelt. The ladies received comfortable quarters and all their goods were placed in the dry, except their hats, which were too large to get in through the doors and the only thing to do was to leave them on the outside in the rain.

The young ladies say they did not rest well that night, and early next morning they attempted to move their hats, which were thoroughly soaked with water, and now both of them are suffering with a severe spell of lumbago. Girls take warning and buy smaller hats.

LANTZ'S MILL.

Miss Vallie Holler has been much indisposed for a week with something like tonsillitis.

R. S. Tysinger and Simon Holler are building a large shed for J. O. Wakeman.

D. O. Coffelt is painting for Roland Lantz.

Lack of funds is bringing to a premature close, the repair work at the Forge Church. Mr. George K. Bowers who has the work in hand requests that those who have subscribed but have not yet paid, please do so at once so the work can go on. A comparatively inexpensive steel ceiling which would be a thing of beauty and of service forever as compared with the present unsightly one or even a newly papered one, could be had if just a few more would put their shoulder to the wheel. Mr. Bower's deserves the thanks of the public for the untimely time and attention he has given this cause.

Delbert Fadelcy, and W. W. Lantz expect to go to Mt. Solon Saturday to spend several days with Milt Coffelt who recently moved to that section.

Mrs. Laura Carpenter, of Lost City who recently underwent an operation in a Baltimore hospital returned Sunday and is at present staying with her sister Mrs. Simon Holler.

Charles Mumaw's house burnt last Friday together with part of the household property. Insurance about $700 we understand.

The John B. Cook big show is still in our town doing a big business. Large crowds have been enjoying the show every night. The various contests have created lots of interest and amusement. An elegant silk umbrella was won by Miss Mary Litten who asks us to express her thanks to all who helped her win this prize. Shoe lacing prize won by Milt Holler. Pie eating, Joe Christman. Loudest hallowing Fraik Christman. Milk drinking Ross Spiggie. Nail driving Lloyd Fadelcy.

Charles R. Estep left Monday for Danville, Va., as representative from this lodge to the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. which is in session there this week.

Mr. Samuel B. Coffman is some better this week being able to take some nourishment and in other ways showing marked improvement.

DEATHS.

John W. Wenger.

Mr. John W. Wenger died suddenly at his residence about one mile South of Woodstock on last Tuesday evening, aged 75 years. He had been in town on Monday and Tuesday morning. After dinner, on Tuesday, he was about ploughing when he was suddenly attacked by a severe ailment of the side. A physician was summoned and Dr. S. J. Hoffman found him suffering from angina pectoris or neuralgia of the heart. He was relieved for a time, but afterwards expired while his wife thought he was asleep. He was a native of Augusta county, where he has a number of relatives. He was deputy sheriff, and jailer of Shenandoah county for twenty years. He had been married three times. His first wife was Miss Cress, of Illinois; his second wife was Mrs. Susan Cress, of Illinois; his third wife who survives him was Miss Anna Rebecca Tysinger of this county.

He is survived by six children, Mrs. Ma Jones, of Augusta county, Mrs. Mary Haged, of Chicago, Illinois, and Miss Annie R. Wenger, at home, and Messrs. John G., of Seattle, Washington, Charles, of Augusta county and Bernard, of this county.

He had been a member of the Presbyterian church for a number of years. Funeral services were conducted at his home by his pastor, Rev. P. D. Stephenson, D. D., after which the body was taken in charge by Cassia Lodge, A. F. & A. M. of which he was a member, and buried in Massanutten cemetery on Thursday afternoon.

REV. J. W. D. SHERER.

Rev. J. W. D. Sherer died at his home in Burkettville, Md., Thursday morning at six o'clock.

Rev. Sherer was pastor of the Emmanuel's Lutheran church, of Woodstock, for several years, and had many friends here who heard, with great sorrow, of his untimely death.

Mr. Sherer is survived by his widow and three daughters, Misses Margaret, Elizabeth and Jennie Beil.

Mrs. Susan Funk.

Mrs. Susan Funk, wife of Michael Funk died in the Western State Hospital in Staunton, last Wednesday morning, age 75 years, 11 months and 10 days. Mrs. Funk's mind had been bad for several years and she was taken to the hospital for treatment about two months ago. She had a severe fall several days ago and never rallied from the shock. She leaves her husband and four children, Messrs. Samuel and Israel, and Mrs. Carrie Boyce and Mary Spitzer. Her remains were brought home on Thursday and will be buried in the Zion church cemetery.

Joseph Wright.

Joseph Wright, 72 years old, for nearly 50 years a leading hotel proprietor of Western Pennsylvania, died Sunday morning at the home of his son, Joseph Wright, Jr. He was seized with pneumonia a few days ago on a train while coming with his wife from Fredericksburg, Va., to visit his son in Winchester. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Melba Graham; two sons, one daughter and a sister, Mrs. W. L. Laughlin, of Fredericksburg.

Mr. William Chapman Williams and Miss Theresa Haislip were married at 9 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Haislip, on Sherwood avenue, in the presence of a few relatives, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. M. Fraser, D. D., pastor of the first Presbyterian church of this city.

Little Misses Catherine Holt and Frances Witz, cousins of the bride, were ribbon-bearers. There were no attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams left on a northern tour and will reside at Pittsburgh, Pa., where Mr. Williams is engaged in business.

Mr. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Williams of Augusta county, a graduate of the Staunton Military Academy and of Dunsmore's Business College and his bride is one of the most popular young ladies in the city, especially in church circles, where she has been active and useful, and where she will be greatly missed. —Staunton Leader, May 10.

Miss Haislip is a native of Woodstock where she has a host of personal friends.

There was quite a unique entertainment at the First Presbyterian Church parlors last Thursday afternoon given to Miss Theresa Haislip by the Young Ladies Missionary Society, of which Miss Haislip is president. There were about thirty members present.

After a mile boat opening and the usual accompanying exercises it was announced by the Vice-president, Mrs. Thomas H. Russell, that the society had two visitors, one from Japan and one from Korea, who would talk about the customs of their respective countries.

Miss Mazie Taylor and Nannie and Elizabeth Timberlake, representing brides of America, Korea and Japan, respectively, were presented and cleverly and gracefully told of the marriage customs of these three countries.

Immediately after this the three brides, each carrying a tray loaded with dainty and beautiful handmade gifts, entered the room and showered the president, in honor of her marriage which is to take place next Tuesday.

The surprise was so complete for Miss Haislip that she was at first too overcome to speak, but as she opened the gifts one by one, her great pleasure and deep appreciation manifested themselves.

When the presents had all been admired and nicely arranged on a table for further enjoyment, refreshments were served and the meeting closed on one of the happiest occasions of Miss Haislip's life.

Many good wishes were extended to the bride-elect and much interest was shown in the approaching nuptials. —Staunton Leader, May 6.

DON'T OVERLOOK GOOD THINGS

The Man who invented the hinged collar button and got rich by it, saw a good thing that had been within six inches of millions of men's eyes for fifty years.

A young chap came into the store Saturday—wanted to know the minute he got inside whether we had such and such a suit that was in the window on Monday. No it was sold—"I knew it," he said "A friend of mine has it on."

"I've admired that suit in the window two or three times but I'll be GIGGERED if I thought it could be bought for the price he told me he paid." "Got anything like it?" "Why don't you put prices on them in the window?"

"WHO MADE THE SUIT ANYWAY?"

"It's a Schloss Bros. & Co. Suit."
