Harwood & Sewell.

EVERYBODY KNOWS Dr. Burt. His election as coroner is a foregone conclusion.

EX-SECRETARY R A ALGER has withdrawn from the senatorial race in Michigan. His alliance with Pingree was too much for him.

ALL over the south part of the county Will Ross is known as a young man of ability. He is a hustler and will make the county a first-class clerk.

MATT KING's record as commissioner is endorsed by everybody in the first district regardless of party. They will re-elect him for another term.

No better man can be found for sheriff than Dave Young of Long Island. He is popular, and besides is eminently well qualified for the office.

THOMAS DYE is an old soldier who carried a musket through the civil war. The republican ticket hasn't an old soldier on it. Mr. Dye will easily be elected.

TOM COOK is one of the most efficient men ever nominated for the office of register of deeds. He has had years of experience as a bank clerk and cashier, and as an abstractor and is thoroughly familiar with all the record books of the county.

THE eastern cities are so prosperous that Secretary Gage paid the interest on the public debt before it was due to prevent a money stringency in New York. How prosperous we are! Then again what a beneficent government to pay the New Yorker their interest in advance! The central and western states help pay that interest, yet nothing is ever advanced to them.

ROYCE claims to keep the conscience of both the democrats and the middle-of-the-road populists. He knows exactly how both classes feel. He loves them alternately. When he is loving the democrats he despises the pops vice versa. There's only one way in which he classes them together and that's when he calls them all "copper-heads."

PRESIDENT KRUEGER has at last given his reply to Great Britain. It is a manly, patriotic reply, and does credit to the brave Boers who are making a heroic stand for independence. If President McKinley wants to do a Christian act and at the same time advance the cause of freedom let him say to England what President Cleveland said to her in the Venezuela trouble--"Hands off until the matter can be arbitrated." Such a message would be heard the world around and do more toward making the United States felt and respected as a world power than a thousand years of fighting naked Filipinos.

ROYCE so loves the old soldier that without doubt he will vote for Thomas Dye, who wore the blue for four long years in defense of his country and freedom.

THE gold gamblers and bond-holding syndicates furnish the Dispatch with ready-made plate editorials and Royce prints them and palms them off as his own.

CAPTAIN DREYFUS who was pardoned and set at liberty last Friday by the French council of ministers, is coming to America to regain his shattered health. He will spend the winter at San Antonio, Texas.

ROYCE's ready-made editorials are quite fin de siecle. No doubt the voters of this county need instructions from some spectacled snob down east who presumes upon the ignorance of Kansas farmers, and proceed to tell them how to vote.

PAUL LAWRENCE DUNBAR the noted colored poet is not an imperialist. He considers the Filipino in the same light he does the Cuban, and says this government ought to treat the one exactly as it promised to treat the other.

THE Dispatch says the pops "don't know what issues they are going to fight the campaign on this fall," and proceeds to score these same pops for their opposition to tariff, trusts, the Philippine policy of the president and their adherence to free silver at 16 to 1. Great head this Dispatch man has.

POOR old France furnishes an object lesson to the world of what militarism will do for a Republic. The McKinley administration is trying to establish militarism in this country just as fast as possible. Will the great American citizen soldiery of the country--the pride of the whole world--will they permit it? We think not.

IT is now 15 months since Captain Carter was convicted of misappropriating $1,600,000 of public money by a unanimous verdict of a court-martial of fourteen army officers, presided over by Gen Ous. Carter was sentenced to dismissal from the army, to five years imprisonment and in the publication of his disgrace in the papers of his native town for one year. President McKinley is still withholding the execution of this just sentence and refuses to tell why. The reason is plain. There is a syndicate composed of Hanna, Brother Abner, et al, who are today looting the treasury of large sums. If Carter is pushed he would equal. Never in the history of the civil war were such glaring frauds perpetrated in war contracts as are going on today. Over $30,000,000 per month war expenses and the amount growing constantly.--Wellington Voice.

W H HASKELL of Gaylord, is being boomed as a candidate for congressman-at-large on the republican ticket. Mr Haskell is a good man, but we notice the gag do not push him when there's a show for election.

THE Dispatch man has taken the job of manufacturing sentiment in this county in favor of McKinley's policy of shooting Filipinos for the benefit of the bond holders and office seekers who expect to prey off of that people. We predict he will have a hard job, as republicans almost every day tell the HERALD they are opposed to the British policy of war for conquest, and will not support it.

THE g. o. p. leaders in Ohio are so badly scared that they are going to drag the president out of the White house and away from his duties, to make speeches in that state, in a desperate attempt to save the day. It will be the first time in our history that the spectacle of an American President laying aside the dignity of his high office and engaging in an offensive partisan scramble for the offices of a state government, was ever presented to the American people.

THE Barber county republicans nominated a young soldier in the 20th Kansas for county clerk at their convention last Saturday. When the populists show their appreciation of the boys of the gallant 20th, ever!--Dispatch.

ABOUT two years ago when our post office was open to a republican there was a good loyal and patriotic soldier sought the place, but there was a man whose pocketbook was greater than his heart, who was troubled over the situation until he was deprived of his sleep. One night he found himself before the oracle asking whose the victory should be. He then heard this reply in thundering tones: "It is to fall to a true, just, loyal and patriotic citizen who lights through his truthful columns to suppress populism and demagogism and who holds dear to his heart the patriotic soldier." The editor jumped upright in his bed and said "that's me!" The oracle's prediction was true. Oh, Royce, practice what you preach! Why are you so loyal to the soldiers? A DISPATCH READER.

THE Dispatch Reader might also have mentioned the fact that when the 21st Kansas was being raised a subscription paper was circulated to secure money to assist the boys in going to Smith Center to enlist. Royce refused to contribute, saying that "the government paid their bills." The state senate passed a bill appropriating money to pay the boys $5 per month additional for the time they served, but the republican house killed the bill and instead voted them "thanks"

HE Fooled the Surgeons.
All doctors told Renick Hamilton, 18 West Jefferson, O., after suffering months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest cure on earth, and the best Salve in the world. 25 cents a box Sold at James & Co's drug store.

MORE republicans are joining the people's party in Kansas this year than any year since 1896, when the silver issue brought over a large number. The republican platform held out a hope to a good many, of international bimetalism, or a great many more would have deserted. Now that McKinley has recommended a gold standard pure and simple, following exactly the gold democratic platform, many republicans refuse to be led by Grover Cleveland and his lieutenants Secretary Gage and President McKinley any longer and are coming out bravely for an American system of finance and an American system of government.

ASIDE from all questions of constitutionality or mere expediency, it is the moral situation in which we find ourselves placed in the Philippines, which it seems to me ought to distress every true American heart. It is so utterly un-American in spirit, so almost inhuman. How any genuine American, with the principles of the Declaration of Independence in his can look complacently at what is going to day in the Philippines I cannot understand. With every fresh battle fought, I want to hide my face in shame and horror at what my country is doing there. What crime have those Filipinos committed that, under the very stars and stripes we should be shooting them down by thousands as the Spaniards did before us? Absolutely nothing, but that they want independence and self government like our own.--Bishop Vincent.

BANK COMMISSIONER BREIDENHAL stated in an interview a few days ago that the banks of New York have $900,000,000 of deposits and last Monday had on hand above their reserve only $75,000. This is conclusive evidence, he thinks, that there is not money enough to transact the business of the country. When Kansas and Nebraska were pouring interest into New York a few years ago they had more money, but two years of good crops and economical people's party administrations have paid off mortgages and stopped the interest, hence the big eastern banks are shy of money. Wonder if the republican papers will quote this interview of Breidenhal's?
