THE FLAG

Two American flags have made their appearance in two high school rooms. A short discussion of flag etiquette was taken up in the classes and much patriotism was displayed when placed on the wall. The union of the flag should always be pointing to East or North. A flag should never be hoisted before sunrise, and should be lowered at sunset. It is an insult to let the flag wave over a building all night.

We print a patriotic poem, written by Wilbur D. Nesbit as expressing the ideal appreciation of the American flag.

Your flag and my flag
And how it flies today
In your land and by land
And half a world away!
Rose red and blood-red
The stripes forever gleam;
Snow white and soul white
The good forefathers dream;
Sky blue and true blue, with stars
That gleam aright
The glorious guidon of the day;
A shelter through the night.
Your flag and my flag!
To every star and stripe.
The drums beat as hearts beat
And fifers shrilly pipe!
Your flag and my flag—
A blessing in the sky;
Your hope and my hope—
It never hid a lie!
Home land and far land and half the
world around,
Old Glory hears our glad salute and
ripples to the sound!
Your flag and my flag!
And, oh, how much it holds—
Your land and my land—
Secure within its folds!
Your heart and my heart
Beat quicker at the sight;
Sun-kissed and wind-tossed—
Red and blue and white.
The one flag—the great flag—the
flag for me and you—
Glorified all else beside—the red and white and blue!

Safety First.

D. B. Louthan of the Rock Island gave an interesting talk to the high school Thursday morning. He was in Liberal in the interest of the safety first movement of which he said: Nothing has taken hold of the country as the Safety First movement which is a movement for injury prevention. In the factories and on the railroads and streets many deaths occur, which might be prevented. This movement of injury prevention started several years ago in the steel mills and now the railroads are taking the work up in real earnest. Every state welfare movement, Y. M. C. A., and all organizations drift along with the safety first movement. The railroads appeal to the people to help reduce the number of local railroad injuries. This can be done by children not playing around the railroad yards. Last year 50 employees and 150 trespassers were killed; 91 per cent of these lived within one mile of the place where the accident occurred. There were 200 accidents on railroad crossings last year. "Flipping Trains" or catching on to a train and riding a short distance and taking short cuts up the tracks is another way accidents occur. There is an uncontrollable desire of auto owners to "beat the train" but if drivers would "stop, look and listen" there would be fewer accidents. The movement is right and before long it will be stronger in all organizations.

Many of the students are interested in the masquerade ball to be given Friday in the Craig Hall.

Allen George, one of Liberal's old students is home from Manhattan. The call of spring was too much for the farmer boy.

The English three classes are revelling in "Burke" tests.

John Francis Sutton has gone to spend the summer on the George farm on the Cimarron.

The Junior Boys Glee Club met at the home of Orlo Bolo on West Fourth street last Monday evening.

A meeting was held last Monday evening in Mr. Beecher's room for boys interested in track work.

Several students went on Kodak expeditions Sunday.

Alva Eidson, who has been taking the buttermakers course at E. S. A. C. returned Sunday, having completed his course. He will now be employed in the Liberal Creamery.

The medals for the cross country run were placed on exhibition in the auditorium Monday noon.

Ward Staut was absent Monday. Ambrosia White, Clifford Leete, Fern McGregor, Louis Morrow, Eral Gray and Anna Miller were the week's absentees.

Miss Henry was forced to be absent the first of the week because of sickness.

Ellis Kimble will enter school a few weeks before school is out so he can finish his required work and graduate this year. Ellis has been taking work in Emporia Normal Training this year.

Phil Buckland, the candidate for West Point, took the physical examination last week at Fort Leavenworth. He passed in everything but the eyesight. He has, however, an extension of two weeks' time during which he will have his eyes treated and again try to pass.

The cross country run was held Thursday, and the Society track meet Friday. A full account of these meets will appear in next week's issue.

On account of Miss Henry's illness Monday, the classes in Methods and Cicero did not recite.

One hundred song books have been received at the high school. With the use of the old ones every student is provided with a book. They were in chapel Tuesday morning, and it was pleasing to note the increased volume in reading and singing. It is to be remembered that the books are to be handled carefully and not to be defaced with writing. Monitors have been appointed for each section of desks, and these eighteen boys collect books after each chapel exercise.

Meade Minister Speaks in Chapel.

Reverend Lydol of the Presbyterian church of Meade gave a splendid talk in chapel last Friday morning. The theme of his talk was preparation for complete living and service for others. He based his remarks upon the verse, "Cast your bread upon the waters and thou shalt find it after many days." His thoughts were given in a masterly way and every phrase was full of worth while thoughts.

Clean-up Day at High School.

Wednesday was clean-up day at the high school. Through the kindness of the domestic science and agriculture departments, the windows were washed. The class presidents saw that the remnants of class party decorations were removed from the front hall. By a slight effort on the part of many the building was put in "spick and span" appearance.

Ohio Infantry March.

One of the inspiring events of the year was witnessed Friday when the Ohio troops which detained in Liberal, marched.

Mrs. F. O. Rindom and Miss Rand were hostesses to the Pollyanna club Tuesday evening. The entertainment was unique and the luncheon dainty.

Paddles Are Good If Not Misused—Adams

Believing the sane use of the paddle is not a bad custom, Mark Adams, president of this year's freshman class, stated this morning in an interview that the paddle privilege, if granted, would probably be abused by some.

"I think that the freshmen ought to wear their caps during the football season, but I cannot see why it is necessary for a freshman to wear a cap in the spring," said Mark. "I am not altogether opposed to paddling, and would be in favor of it if I did not think that if the privilege were given some of the upper classmen would abuse it."—University Daily Kansan.

Mrs. S. L. Davis of Gaymon, Okla., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. M. M. Gipson since Sunday. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Gipson spent Tuesday with Mrs. George Gipson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dunn of Mullinville visited with Miss H. E. Johnson this week.

M. Hagner of Hutchinson, made a short visit with his friends, Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Pellette, this week.

Democrat's Booster Dope Inspires Reader for Verse

"I wish you would keep my name on the subscription list for one more year. I think the Liberal Democrat is a good booster for Southwest Kansas, and I have a ranch over in Stevens county and see it has doubled in taxable valuation in the last year, since John W. Baughman has been putting on some of his stunts, land is going out of sight as I was reading some time ago in a real estate journal. I will give John W. Baughman the Live Wire Real Estate Booster of Liberal a share of the credit," writes John P. McCormick, of Creston, Ia., to the Democrat, inclosing the needful for a year's subscription. Then he adds the following verse:

A FOOL THERE WAS
A fool there was in a western town,
Who bought some lots for a dollar
down;
And a dollar more each month to
spend.
His neighbors grinned and said done
brown.
The fool kept paying his dollar down.
Ten years passed
Skyscrapers rose round the base of hill,
Where the fool owned the lots on the tip top still.
The town folks grinned and said done
brown,
The fool kept paying his dollar down.
They wanted pure water and planned until
"We need your lots for a filter,
Bill."
"Now what will you take for your little old hill?"
The fool he grinned and said done
brown,
You will pay me just a million down.

Miss Faye Curtis of Hugoton spent a few days in town this week, the guest of her many girl friends.

Mrs. L. C. Payne arrived Tuesday from Medford, Oklahoma, to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Francis Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Buchfink had as their guest last week, Mr. Buchfink, mother and sister from Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tregallis visited a few days the latter part of last week with relatives and friends at Pratt.

Miss Lelia Liggett, milliner at the Summers sore, held her opening last Friday and Saturday, and had one of the prettiest displays in the city. Her display window was the result of her own effort, and was beautifully arranged.

EYE-TIRE

Many of the headaches, attributed to NEURALGIA, are not real headaches at all, but SYMPTOMS of EYE TIRE.

In other words, yours is a case of eye-strain that can be relieved by properly fitted glasses.
