Richard Henry Lee on Woman's Rights.

A gentleman of Virginia, well known to us for his sound learning and many accomplishments, has politely communicated to us the subjoined letter, addressed, in the year 1778, by Richard Henry Lee to his sister, Mrs. Hannah Corbin, of Richmond, Va., and which has never been previously published.

In order properly to appreciate the origin and motive, as well of Mrs. Corbin's letter to her brother as of the arguments contained in the reply of the latter, it is only necessary to refer to the great principle for which the American colonies were then struggling against the mother country—the doctrine that taxation and representation should be inseparable.

But to the letter of Richard Henry Lee, which we shall make the foundation of our further remarks by way of appendix:

CHANTILLY, March 17, 1778.

"My Dear Sister: Distressed as my mind is, and has been, by a variety of attentions, I am ill able by letter to give you the satisfaction I could wish on the several subjects of your letter. Reasonable as you are, and friendly to the freedom and happiness of your country, I should have no doubt about giving you perfect content in a few hours' conversation.

"You complain that widows are not represented, and that, being temporary possessors of their estates, ought not to be liable to the tax. The doctrine of representation is a large subject, and it is certain that it ought to be extended far as wisdom and policy can allow. Nor do I see that either of these forbid widows, having property, from voting, notwithstanding it has never been the practice either here or in England.

"At one of the Paris theatres they are preparing a piece in which the songs of Beranger are to be personified by actors, uttering their several parts in couplets from his writings. The principal character is represented by Mlle. Dejazet, a charming old lady who, at the age of sixty, now nightly acts at the Varieties.

"PISTOLS FOR INDIA.—The Hartford Courant says that Col. Colt is receiving more orders for his pistols than he can fill. The insurrection in India is the cause of the increased demand.

"THERE'S AN EXAMPLE FOR YOU.—A number of young ladies in Salem, Mass., having considered the state of the money market, and determined not to pay ten or twenty dollars for a winter bonnet, have set about making bonnets for themselves.

al property, but is accommodated to the high prices given for the annual profits. Thus, no more than one-half per cent. is laid on the assessed value, although produce sells now three or four hundred per cent. above what it formerly did. Tobacco (Tobacco) sold five or six years ago for 15c and 2d., now 'tis at 50 and 56. A very considerable part of the property I hold is, like yours, temporary, for my life only; yet I see the propriety of paying my proportion of the tax laid for the protection of property so long as that property remains in my possession and I derive use and profit from it.

"When we complained of British taxation we did so with much reason, and there is great difference between our case and that of the unrepresented in this country. The English Parliament nor their representatives would pay a farthing of the tax they imposed on us—but quite otherwise. Their property would have been exonerated in exact proportion to the burdens they laid on ours. Oppressions, therefore, without end, and taxes without reason or public necessity, would have been our fate had we submitted to British usurpation. For my part, I had much rather leave my children free than in possession of great nominal wealth, which would infallibly have been the case with all American possessions had our property been subject to the arbitrary taxation of a British Parliament.

"With respect to Mr. Flautleroy, if he speaks as you say, it is a very good reason why he ought not to be an assessor. But, if he should be, the law has wisely provided a remedy against the mistakes or the injustice of assessors, by giving the injured party appeal to the Commissioners of the Tax, which Commissioners are annually chosen by the freeholders and housekeepers (housekeepers,) and in the choice of whom you have as legal a right to vote as any other person. I believe there is no instance in our new government of any unnecessary placement; and I know the rule is to make their salaries moderate as possible, and even these moderate salaries are to pay tax. But should Great Britain gain her point, where we have one placeman we should have a thousand, and pay pounds where we pay pence; nor should we dare to murmur, under pain of military execution. This, with the other horrid concomitants of slavery, may well persuade the Americans to loose blood and pay taxes also, rather than submit to them.

"My extensive engagements have prevented me from advertising to you and Dr. Hall's subscription for Ld. Camden's picture not having been refunded, as the [rest] have long since been, but the money is ready for your call.

"I am, my dear sister, most sincerely and affectionately yours,

"RICHARD HENRY LEE."

Preachers has Ris.

The Nashville Why says the following conveys a practical lesson:

HAWKESVILLE, Ky., Sept. 2, 1857.

"MESSRS. EDITORS: The following amusing incident occurred in our town a few weeks since. It will apply to other localities as well as this. A short time since it became necessary to adopt measures to procure the services of a minister of the African church in this place. Accordingly a committee was appointed to wait upon 'Bruder Pearce' (who was generally acknowledged to be the most suitable personage to fill that high and honorable station), and solicit him to accept the pastorate of their church. They were informed that he would undertake the laborious task for the very moderate sum of forty-five dollars per annum; but insignificant as the price seems, his flock thought it exorbitant, and peremptorily refused to give it.

Two or three weeks passed, and, being unable to get another preacher, it was finally agreed to pay the stipend, and on the ensuing Sabbath the following took place: 'Bruder Pearce, we's eluded to gin you forty-five dollars to preach for us,' said a benevolent colored individual; whereupon our clerical friend rose and responded: 'Brethren, I can't preach for that price.' 'Why you only axed forty-five,' cried a half dozen voices. 'Shore nuff I did, brethren, but dat you know was tree weeks ago, and preachers has riz.'"

Characteristics.

We find the following in the Christian Inquirer:

"Rev. John Pierpont, the poet of 'Palestine,' was at Niagara a summer or two ago, and it was a beautiful Sabbath morning, when he went out to worship, where the 'light wave just breaks, and whispers of its Maker's might.' One of those officious, silly creatures, whose religion consists in a straight-bodied coat, and occupied pew, and two sermons a week, posted after the poet like a missionary after a heathen. His soul—what little he had—was crooked up into an interrogating point, and wriggled with anxiety for the sinner's welfare.

"Was Mr. Pierpont going to church?" "Yes." "And whom would he hear preach?" "God ALMIGHTY," was the brief and pertinent reply, as he turned again from the buzzing insect to the eloquence of Niagara."

"PIERCE AND ARNOLD.—A correspondent thus writes: 'At a Lyceum held in Chester Academy last Friday evening, after an able discussion on the following question, 'Resolved, that Franklin Pierce is a baser traitor and scoundrel than Benedict Arnold,' it was decided by a vote of the members, 17 in the affirmative to four in the negative.—The chapel of the Academy was full, and it was one of the best Lyceums that has been held in this place for some years.—Bellows Falls (Vt.) Times, Sept. 23.

"At one of the Paris theatres they are preparing a piece in which the songs of Beranger are to be personified by actors, uttering their several parts in couplets from his writings. The principal character is represented by Mlle. Dejazet, a charming old lady who, at the age of sixty, now nightly acts at the Varieties.

"PISTOLS FOR INDIA.—The Hartford Courant says that Col. Colt is receiving more orders for his pistols than he can fill. The insurrection in India is the cause of the increased demand.

"THERE'S AN EXAMPLE FOR YOU.—A number of young ladies in Salem, Mass., having considered the state of the money market, and determined not to pay ten or twenty dollars for a winter bonnet, have set about making bonnets for themselves.

Up to the 30th of September there had arrived at New York 146,157 foreign emigrants, since the 1st of January, against 163,419 last year.

English Tribute to American Railroads.

The London (Eng.) Dispatch in commenting on the present panic thus speaks of the English stock-holder in our Railroads: "We repeat our warning to our readers not to be bamboozled into throwing away their American railway securities by the confused clamor and manufactured rumor paragraphs and articles 'got up' in Wall-street, and perhaps near home. The game of the swindling rogues who have been conspiring to beat and bang the New York market will not hold out if it be not fed by panic sales of foolish holders. It must be remembered that the average wealth of the American people is greater than our own. Money is more equally diffused, wages are higher, the people are more locomotive, and therefore better customers to the lines.—The cost of construction does not average one-third of that of the English lines.—Whatever, therefore, may be the sharper tricks of American financiers, and however great may be the temporary embarrassments of stock-dealers in reference to the command of money, we are very sure that American railways are safe as investments, even allowing an ample margin for speculation. American products are all of the sort to require large carriage costs to give them their value. The railroad is the very life of American commerce and agriculture. Wouter van Twyler's battles in 'Knickerbocker' sounded in description as if the very heavens and earth were warring and rushing to ruin; but when the net results came to be 'lotted,' there remained only a torn hat and a bloody nose. So we suspect it may turn out with this American panic. 'Sharp practice' Jonathan may draw in at a heavy discount our stocks sold in panic, and then laugh in his sleeve at this easy way of paying off bloated."

"Are you afraid of banks failing?" asked the cashier, as Mrs. Partington went to draw her pension. "Banks failing," said the dame, "I never had any idea about it at all. If he gets votes enough I don't see how he can fail, and if he don't I can't see how he is to help it." "I meant," said he, "the banks that furnish currency for the country." She stood a moment counting her bills—"Oh! you did, did you?" said she; well, it's about the same thing. If they have money enough to redeem with—and heaven knows there is need enough of redemption for a good many of them—and more grace than they allow their customers, they may stand it, but doubtful things are uncertain." She passed off like an exhalation, and the cashier counted out one hundred and fifteen dollars and seventeen cents fifteen times while pondering what she said, in order to catch her meaning.—Boston Gazette.

"COTTON IS KING.—The New York Express says, that in spite of the anticipated reluctance of England to send specie to America, sore pressed as she is by the Eastern war, "nevertheless, gold must come, no matter what it costs us—for 'cotton is king,' and cotton alone can be had of us in sufficient quantity to meet the overruling demands of the British manufacturers. Bread may be got elsewhere, and other things also; but cotton is American, and cotton must be had, and gold must pay for the cotton."

"RATHER COOL.—A Mr. Taylor, of Cohoes, N. Y., one of the Central America's passengers, saved, was in the water ten hours. He was floating about on a plank with another man, a New Yorker, and states that after having been in the water four or five hours, with scarcely a hope remaining of being picked up, his companion addressed to him the following query in the most nonchalant tone:—"Well, Taylor, where are you going to put up to night?"

"THE NEW GOV. OF MISSOURI.—Gov. Jackson went out of office yesterday, and Gov. Stewart went in. The inaugural address of the new Executive is a well-written document of accepted generalities, unmarked by any special recommendations or novel suggestions. Mr. B. Gratz Brown, of St. Louis, was constrained to compliment it as "a pretty good Free Soil document"—a piece of approbation which, we opine, will not augment its acceptability to the Governor's friends.—St. Louis Evening News.

John T. Gilman, editor of the Bath Organ, Maine, says, after extensive traveling in both regions, that more corn, wheat, beans, peas, buckwheat, barley, potatoes, etc., are raised to the acre in the East than in the West. The raising requires more labor in the Eastern States, but more attention is paid to fertilizing.

"TONNAGE AND MEN.—An article in the French Monitor, on the tonnage of the different nations, shows the following facts:—"Norway has a tonnage of 552,000, or one ton for every 3 of its inhabitants; the United States has 1 ton to every 4½ inhabitants; England 1 ton to 6½ inhabitants, and France 1 ton to 41 inhabitants.

"APPROPRIATE TO THE TIMES.—We copy the following from a number of the National Intelligencer, dated August 28th, 1828. A Fourth of July Toast Drank in Virginia: Why is the community so much embarrassed? Because banks lend money that have not got it to lend; and Because people spend money who have not earned it to spend.

"REMYD: Own the money before you lend it; Earn the money before you spend it.

"SPEAKING OF EPITAPHIS.—A correspondent in Maryland writes as follows: "I wonder if Willis, in his fancy for queer epigrams, ever came across my favorite: 'Here I lie With my three daughters, All of drinking Cheltenham waters; If we had stuck To Epson salts, We'd not have been lying In these here vaults!'"

"You call that good, don't you?" said Mr. Fanshaw, offering a $5 note on a Providence Bank, at the bar of one of our hotels. "O yes, it's good, undoubtedly," replied the attendant; "but, like Deacon Craston's piety when he gets swearing mad, it is not immediately available!"

HORNSBY & FICK, MERCHANTS, EMPORIA, KANZAS.

HAVE opened a large, reasonable and well-selected stock of Goods in their New Store House, Directly Opposite to the Emporia Hotel. We will be pleased to accommodate all who may need anything in their line on the LOWEST POSSIBLE TERMS. We would state to the people of this vicinity and the public generally, that having purchased our goods in St. Louis, and shipped them, without unpacking, directly to this place, we are enabled to sell as cheap, and in most cases cheaper, than any other establishment West of the Missouri river. A full supply of everything usually found in Western Stores will be kept constantly on hand at prices that cannot fail to strike, as very reasonable, all who may favor us with their patronage. Our stock consists in part of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Groceries, Hardware, Tinware, Stoves, Drugs, Medicines, &c., &c.

It is no trouble to show Goods—call, examine, and judge for yourselves. HORNSBY & FICK, Emporia, Kansas June 6th, 1857.

Plows! Plows! Plows!

WE call special attention to the following advertisement, from which it will be seen that we are the only agents in Kansas, for the sale of the Celebrated Moline Center Draft Plow. We have sold several hundred of them this season, and all give perfect satisfaction.

ALLEN & GILMORE, John Deere's Moline Plows in Kansas! ON the opening of navigation in the spring, I shall send to Messrs. Allen & Gilmore, Lawrence, K. T., a large assortment of Breakers of all sizes, especially of my extra Two-Horse Mould Board Breakers, which has received the highest commendations from all who have used them; also a great variety of Stirring, or old Ground Plows, among which I would mention the Improved Clipper, the No. 4 or Eng. cast steel Plow, and the Michigan Double or Subsoil Plow, which should receive the special attention of those who wish to make a crop the first year. I have made some improvements on this plow from last year, and I believe it is now perfect to be used on Western soil. Also, Corn Plows, Cultivators, double and single Shovel Plows, Lancing Cutters and Chaps, Gauge Wheels, Truss Wheels, and other Plow Fixtures. The quality of the stock used in my plows is not equalled by any establishment in the West, and the plows are finished in a very superior style.

Having been engaged for eighteen years in the manufacture of plows for use in the Western States entirely, I can confidently say to emigrants from the Eastern States, that these plows will scour and work perfectly in any soil in the Mississippi Valley. All orders addressed to ALLEN & GILMORE, Lawrence, K. T., or to me at Moline, Rock Island Co., Ill., will receive prompt attention. June 6-1v JOHN DEERE.

NEW PROSPECTUS OF THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

VOLUME THIRTEEN. To Mechanics, Manufacturers, Inventors & Farmers. IN announcing the Thirteenth Annual Volume of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, which commenced on the 12th of September, the Editors and Publishers embrace this opportunity to thank their numerous friends and subscribers for the encouraging and very liberal support heretofore extended to their journal, and they would again re-assure their patrons of the determination to render the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN as most and more useful, and more justly and discriminatingly with all subjects of a Scientific and Mechanical character which comes within their legitimate purview.

Having entirely discarded the system of employing itinerant agents to obtain subscribers, the Publishers of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN propose to offer ONE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS IN CASH PREMIUMS for the fifteen largest lists of subscribers sent in by the first of January, 1858; said premiums to be distributed as follows:—

- For the largest List, $300
For the 2d largest List, 250
For the 3d largest List, 200
For the 4th largest List, 150
For the 5th largest List, 100
For the 6th largest List, 80
For the 7th largest List, 70
For the 8th largest List, 60
For the 9th largest List, 50
For the 10th largest List, 40
For the 11th largest List, 35
For the 12th largest List, 30
For the 13th largest List, 25
For the 14th largest List, 20
For the 15th largest List, 15

Names of subscribers can be sent in at different times and from different Post Offices. The cash will be paid to the order of the successful competitors, immediately after the first of January, 1858.

Southern, Western, and Canada money will be taken for subscriptions. Canadian subscribers will please to remit Twenty Dollars extra on each year's subscription to prepay postage.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Two Dollars a Year, or One Dollar for Six Months. CLUB RATES.—Five Copies, for Six Months $4; Five Copies, for one Year, $8; Ten Copies, for Six Months, $8; Ten Copies, for Twelve Months, $15; Twenty Copies for Twelve Months, $28.

For all Clubs of Twenty and over, the yearly subscription is only $1 40. The new volume will be printed upon fine paper with new type.

The general character of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is well known, and as heretofore, it will be chiefly devoted to the promulgation of information relating to the various Mechanical and Chemical Arts, Manufacturers, Agriculture, Patents, Inventions, Engineering, Mill Work, and all interests which the light of Practical Science is calculated to advance. It is issued weekly, in form for binding; it contains annually from 500 to 600 finely executed Engravings, and a variety of American and European Improvements, together with an Official List of American Patent Claims published weekly in advance of all other papers.

It is the aim of the Editors of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN to present all subjects connected with its columns in a practical and popular form. They will also endeavor to maintain a candid fearlessness in combating and exposing false theories and practices in Scientific and Mechanical matters, and thus preserve the character of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN as a reliable Encyclopedia of Useful and Entertaining Knowledge.

Specimen copies will be sent gratis to any part of the country. PUBLISHERS and Patent Agents, No. 125 Fulton street, New York.

THREE THOUSAND SHARES SOLD IN THREE WEEKS!

A MAP OF KANZAS AND A SHARE IN SARATOGA CITY, consisting of Five Lots, with a chance of drawing the Principal Prize, of $10,000, FOR ONE DOLLAR!

The subscribers, at the solicitation of many shareholders, are induced to alter their original plan for disposing of Saratoga City, and have accepted the following: viz: Saratoga City is now divided into 500 Shares, each share consisting of Five Lots. There are three Springs, the largest Sixty by Seventy-five feet. These Springs will have Ten Acres of Land connected with them, and will constitute the principal prize, being valued at $10,000. The principal Prize is a fortune to the person who draws them. The water that discharges from them would supply a large city; and is pure, cold and sparkling, and possesses mineral properties which must render this city the Saratoga of Kansas. The Springs constitute one of the Five HUNDRED SHARES IN SARATOGA CITY.

Location of Saratoga City. Saratoga City is located in Calhoun Co., in Sec. 22, Township 9, Range 15—about 14 miles North of Topeka, 16 from Tecumseh, 25 from Leocompton, and 25 from Lawrence. It is adjacent to the Lawrence and Leavenworth R.R. The town is situated on a beautiful Reservation (30 miles square) which will soon be open for pre-emption.

10,000 MAPS! We are happy to state that one of our most respectable Land Agency firms are engaged in getting up the most authentic Map of Kansas that has ever been produced, and that we have engaged 10,000 copies for the first edition! We can now supply a beautiful colored Sectional Map of Kansas to those who do not wish to wait until our map is published.

Plan Suggested for the Distribution. It has been suggested by a shareholder that 10,000 Envelopes be prepared, and into 9,500 of these a slip of paper or card be inserted, with the words, "This Card entitles the holder to a Map of Kansas, which can be obtained by forwarding this Card to the Committee appointed to receive it," and into 500 of the Envelopes a slip or card be inserted, with the words "This Card entitles the holder to a Share in Saratoga City, which can be obtained by forwarding this Card to the Committee appointed to receive it." The Envelopes to be sealed and to be precisely alike—then to be indiscriminately mixed together, and numbered from No. 1 to No. 10,000, and those persons holding Certificates, by forwarding them to the Committee appointed to receive them, will receive their numbered Envelope, which corresponds with the number of the Certificate which they forwarded to the Committee, and which will exhibit to them the result. This plan, which will probably be adopted, as it will guard against imposition.

THE DISTRIBUTION Will take place as soon as the Maps are ready, about the 15th of November.

Land and Land Warrants taken in exchange for shares, and a liberal discount allowed those who purchase by the quantity. AGENTS WANTED In every city and town in the Territory. Inducements will be offered which will warrant attention to this enterprise.

Address GEO. W. GRAY & CO., Lawrence, K. T., enclosing One Dollar, and a Share will be dispatched by mail, and any information given that may be required. One Share, $1; six Shares $5; twelve Shares $10. If Newspapers throughout the Territory, and in the States, are requested to publish the above three months, and send their bills to the following address: [aug23-3m] G. W. G. & CO.

Steam Fire Engines. MILL MACHINERY, PRINTING PRESSES, Saw Fronts, Columns, Gutters, Conductors, Window Licks and Sills, Mowing Machines, Thrashers, and Little Giant Corn Mills, furnished to order by ALLEN & GILMORE, Cor. Mass. & Winthrop sts., Lawrence. June 6-1y
