The majority of the itching humors body arise from a derangement of the blood, affecting the stomach and liver. In order to get rid of them, it is necessary to purify the system. Irregu-

-Emporia is importing potatoes from Dunlap.
The thermometer fell to 55 degrees Friday morning.
The Hotel Coolidge opened a new register Friday.
Venor seems to have made a pool with the stone dealers.
The new Fifth Avenue Hotel is to be warmed by a $25,000 furnace.
The ladies are beginning to dream of winter bonnets and real skin acquire.
J. S. McWheeler is improving his place near the Fair ground by additions, porches, paint, etc.
The man who can buy a hundred of potatoes now-days, is regarded as being on a very sound financial basis.
The Fall River (Greenwood) Continue has reached us and is a handsome and enterprising looking sheet.
The good words spoken for our Fair by the Eureka Herald and Madison Times are appreciated by our citizens.
Jake Taylor recently purchased three sections of land from Holmes & Holden, in the north part of the county for a total of $10,000.
By a letter from old Jay, in another column, it will be seen that he is now nearer leaven than he probably ever will be again.
It is strange that people will go into a store and buy a pair of shoes, and carrying with them considerable amounts of money.
If the present matrimonial boom continues in Emporia, it will soon be mighty lonesome for old bachelors in this city.
Messrs. J. L. W. Bell, of this city, and Mr. J. Netherland, late of Lafayette, Indiana, have purchased the Stafford stone quarries. So says the Ledger.
A week ago today the thermometer recorded 104 degrees. Friday morning slight sprinkling of snow fell. For extremes, common to us Kansas.
A powerful appeal was made to the sympathies of the Emporia public by the Kansas sufferers who returned from Topeka Friday in linen dusts.
Butler and eggs took a jump upward Thursday. Young men who contemplate matrimony had better keep an eye on the market quotations unless "her folks" are mighty "well heeled." Out of twenty-nine applicants for teachers' certificates examined in this city September 10, two received first-grade certificates, fourteen second-grade, seven third-grade and six failed.
Guests were people are these persons folks. They have lately subscribed $3, 000 to build a Presbyterian church.
-Fall River Times.
In a little over a year Emporia subscribed $30,000 for churches.
Commonwealth: Three men who had been licensed to sell wine at the fair grounds, and who on Wednesday night, and being detected, were promptly ejected from the grounds. Friday morning.
Emporia is to have a candy factory.
It is to be located on the corner of the building occupied by C. A. Cole at the corner of Sixth avenue and Mechanics street, and it is to be operated by F. W.
Princo & Co.
The News is indebted to our esteemed townsman, Wm. Jay, for an agreeable column of news in the way of some magnificent peaches which he forwards from Mount Magnificent, side his interesting letter on the third page.
The M. E. sociable at the residence of J. B. Hinkle Wednesday was a very pleasant affair. The orchestra furnished some choice music, refreshments were served, and every body present had the nicest kind of a time.
The prospect for an early and severe winter has no charms for the average people. It is generally conceded that to furnish fuel and light for a year during a protracted season of arctic weather.
Col. Davis, father of Major Frank Davis, brought his Texas office last Friday a lot of delicious papers, which were grown on the old Morris property on Merchants street. The Colonel's crop this year exceeds four bushels, all from young trees.
The Southern Association of Congregational churches held its fall meeting at Independence last week. Emporia was represented by Rev. Dr. Cordley, who returned home Thursday. He reports a good attendance and an interesting session.
The regents, after their business meeting at the State Normal Wednesday, visited the different departments of the institution and expressed themselves as highly gratified with the prospects for the coming year. A meeting of the executive committee of the board will be held hereafter once a month for the transaction of routine business.
A team belonging to Samuel Garrett, in charge of a man who met him at the depot on his return from Philadelphia Thursday, took flight at the cars and ran up Commercial street, colliding with a rig driven by H. J. Loomis in front of Tyler's lumber yard, completely wrecking the rig of the latter gentleman.
Fortunately no one was injured.
A gang of thieves got in their work industriously at the Crawford works, Topeka, Thursday night. There was an immense audience present. We are sorry to hear that two of our citizens were drawn on heavily. Leonard H. Johnson, who lives near America, was robbed of $2,000, in money and valuable papers, and J. H. Walkup, of this city, of $50. We have heard no further particulars.
Mrs. Wm. A. Smith was robbed of $50 this morning coming down from Topeka on the train. Her husband was with her and had handed her the pocket book to take care of. Some colored soldiers had been in the room where they had been making a good deal of noise and falling and tumbling about the seat they occupied. Mr. Smith had three of them arrested and searched at Reading, but did not find any trace of his money.
Ledges: The petitions which were circulated among the people last week for the purpose of effecting a change in geography, promised that the change should be made within a year, and the patrons. It now transpires that seventy-five cents must be paid for each mile, and Prof. Carmichael refuses to make the change unless the terms of that order are complied with. This action of the part of the superintendent will meet the approbation of the citizens.
Dr. J. W. Trueworthy, Deputy Grand Director, Knights of Honor, assisted by J. H. Hill, instituted a lodge of that order at Neosho Rapids Sept. 14, with a membership of twenty, and a number more are likely to join soon. The lodge numbers some of the best citizens of Topeka and starts out under very favorable auspices. The following officers were elected:
Past Dictator, Dr. J. H. Page; Dictator, John P. Tolson; Vice Dictator, J.
E. McLeod; Assistant Dictator, W. P.
Hancock; Reporter, O. F. Richmond; F. R. W. H. McMillan; Treasurer, Jas.
Jacobson; J. G. G. Frank; Grand Chaplain, Albert Stephenson; Guardian, William Jackson; Sentinel, Waldo Woodward; Trustees, Alfred Boatman, D. Post, C. S. Woodard. The following brethren report a very enjoyable time.
