CORRESPONDENCE.

meetings at their church 2 miles north of town. Several accessions reported.

We are pleased to report Hon. J. W. Martin much better and on a fair way to recovery. Joe has the grit and never gives up.

J. C. Bell and C. H. Cross were each in Kansas City last week and report having bought good stocks of hardware and implements for the spring trade.

G. M. Coffman has bought an interest in J. C. Bell's hardware and implement store. The firm is now Bell and Coffman. This is a valuable addition to Mr. Bell's already large trade and we predict they will enjoy a lucrative trade.

Death again entered the home of G. W. Robinson, northeast of town, and this time took his amiable wife. This is the third death in the family within the last year. Mrs. Robinson's remains were laid to rest in Mt. Hope cemetery on Tuesday. The family has the sympathy of the entire community.

Shaw.

Shaw, Kansas, Jan. 26, 1897.—A. B. Colaw was over from Chanute Friday last.

Beamer and Fanati shipped a car of hogs Friday.

Lyle Rice is preparing to build a residence in Shaw.

Mrs. John Hudson and her son Ralph are both quite sick.

Fred Allen has a new girl at his house—about a week old.

Literary at Valley school house on Friday nights of each week.

Two of Mr. Liggett's brothers are here from Kansas City visiting him this week.

The roads have been so bad for the last two weeks that the oil man could not get here.

Grandma Spears went to Parsons again last Friday to have another operation performed on her eyes.

Urbana.

Urbana, Kan., Jan. 27.—Sunday school failed to meet last Sunday on account of cold weather and bad roads.

Dr. Neely is confined to his bed.

The Foster boys are putting up ice. This is the coldest weather of the season.

Wm. Carson was very sick last week but is now better.

Joe Meeker and wife were in the neighborhood visiting last week.

Mr. Shull, who was sick last week is now up and attending to business.

Layfe Hartley and wife of Lawrence visited friends and relatives here last week.

C. K. Noble is going out on the road to sell oil for the Monitor-Oil Co., of Cleveland, Ohio.

There was an oyster supper at the U. B. church Wednesday night for the benefit of the church.

Dr. Iles has traded his property in Thayer and 80 acres of land east of Thayer for 160 acres two miles east of Urbana.

After counting noses we find that all our friends who went to Topeka to attend the inaugural ceremonies, and for other purposes, have returned without the loss of one.

The sample copies of the TIMES we received last week were all distributed and were favorably commented on. We think that this paper will prove to be the best weekly paper ever published in Chanute.

Thayer.

Thayer, Kas., Jan. 27, 1897.—County Attorney Cline was in our city the 22d attending Justice Campbell's court. The action against Campbell for keeping a gambling house was dismissed on motion of the state.

Sergeant-at-arms Dunsmore made a flying visit home last week.

Mrs. A. G. Snoover, one of the first to inhabit this city, is seriously ill.

The cold snap is making thick ice, much to the joy of our ice men and the gratification of our young people.

Probate Judge Mills was over from the county seat from Friday until Monday. He bears his honor with becoming sedateness.

Tuesday was another occasion when this vicinity put on the reserved air of winter, and received a two inch fall of flakes of frozen vapor.

F. Hancock has succeeded Frank Shumard as agent of the S. K. Ry. Co. at this place. His wife and sister have also become citizens of the H. T. I. K.

The clerk of the weather did not slight this vicinity when distributing the blizzard Saturday and Sunday. We received our full share with some to spare.

A. W. Bullard lost his general stock of merchandise to a mortgagee last week. He has been struggling against adversity for some time and was at last compelled to succumb.

John H. Sperry, cattle king of Shiloh and grain merchant of Thayer, will move with his family into this city soon. An addition to our population will be very desirable.

Attorney S. W. Brewster, of here and there, was here last week, being Defendant Franklin's attorney before Squire Campbell. He was suffering from erysipelas. He returned there Monday.

Much interest has been manifested in the protracted meetings at the M. E. church the past several weeks. Rev. Mr. McNary, the pastor, is a very earnest christian, and sincerely endeavors to induce his fellow beings to be likewise.

Earlton.

Earlton, Kans., Jan. 27, 1897.—Miss Lizzie Frazier, our county superintendent, visited the Earlton schools Tuesday.

Mrs. Lucas is quite sick at present. George Adams will remain on the Towne farm the coming year.

Mr. Murphy and Mrs. Walt Cannon came down from Chanute Tuesday to visit Mrs. Lucas.

Mrs. Thad Stevens, accompanied by her brother from Missouri, came down Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Huffman.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church will give a coffee and cake supper at the G. A. R. hall on Feb. 22, proceeds for the benefit of the church.

The Ladies Aid Society met at Mrs. Hilton's last week, and from all reports the dinner she served them surpasses our power of description.

J. B. Edwards has resigned as teacher of the Summit school, and will attend medical school at Louisville, Ky. The board has hired a Mr. Baker to teach the remainder of the term.

We understand a protracted meeting will be commenced at the M. E. church next Sunday. It was intended to begin this week, but owing to the inclement weather was postponed.

Vilas.

Vilas, Kansas, Jan. 27, 1896.—The north wind blows cold.

Only three more weeks of the Vilas school.

Mr. Fulgrum, of Fredonia, is in our city today on business.

J. E. Hanson is feeding over 200 head of cattle this winter.

Deputy Sheriff Roberge, of Fredonia, was in our city last Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Dutch is still very low and we think will hardly survive.

Aunt Tabetha Coats, who has been sick for several days, is improving.

Robert Allison, our township treasurer, made a business trip to Chanute yesterday.

Mr. Sturdevant and son Claud shipped their cattle and hogs to Kansas City Monday.

Jap Coats has recovered from his sickness and can again be found behind the counter.

H. V. Wiltse has several hands snapping corn this week. He is marketing it in the shuck.

A. S. Brichler carried the mail to Ward last Tuesday for H. O. Chaffin, who was unable to go.

Mayor Chaffin is unable to attend to his duties this week on account of a severe pain in his back.

Protracted meeting was begun at Peach Grove school house last night. A lady preacher is conducting it.

Mrs. S. N. Lines went to Fredonia last Saturday to spend a week with her son, W. C. Lines and family.

The following persons are afflicted

Twenty Years....

For more than twenty years we have been telling how Scott's Emulsion overcomes the excessive waste of the system, puts on flesh, nourishes and builds up the body, making it the remedy for all wasting diseases of adults and children, but it isn't possible for us to tell the story in a mere stickful of newspaper type.

We have had prepared for us by a physician a little book, telling in easy words how and why Scott's Emulsion benefits, and a postal card request will be enough to have it sent to you free. To-day would be a good time to send for it.

with lagrippe in this vicinity: Three of Jess Wilkin's family, Alex Pugh, H. Simmons, J. G. Anderson, J. P. Russell, James Mundell and Andrew Anderson.

We would like to see the trustee of this township compel the R. R. Co. to put in a culvert at the Vilas crossing, as it is almost impassable. They have never had but one culvert in at this crossing since the road was built, and the ditch that should carry the water off is completely filled up. We hope this will be sufficient notice for the company to at once fix the above crossing.

Union Valley.

Items of interest are scarce. Look out for the ground hog.

Diphtheria is reported northwest of here.

Mrs. Chas. Terry was very sick last week.

How did the weather suit you last Sunday?

Mrs. Kepley was having repairs made on her house last week.

L. P. Terry had the misfortune to lose a number of hogs with cholera.

Wes Bowers, of Chanute, was hunting in our neighborhood this week.

The protracted meeting at the F. B. church closed on account of bad roads and weather.

The work of constructing a new fence around the church and cemetery is in progress.

Miss Florence Holloway, of Chanute, spent last Saturday and Sunday in our neighborhood visiting friends.

Rollin.

Rollin, Kan., Jan. 28.—Mrs. George Woods has returned home after spending several days with her mother near Shaw.

Mrs. August Meyer is on the sick list.

Mr. Downing and family are visiting relatives in Austin.

August Meyer shipped a car load of wheat from this place Thursday.

Mrs. Alice McClelland, who has been very ill for several days is improving.

The young people of this neighborhood are enjoying themselves skating.

Rev. Shordte, of Parsons, preached at the North Valley school house Sunday morning.

Rural.

Miss Bessie Crockett was the guest of Miss Pearl Poppino last Sunday.

Ed Cole and family were the guests of S. C. and Mattie Poppino last Sunday.

Bert Poppino and wife visited the latter's parents, Mr. Golf and wife last Sunday.

We understand that J. F. Pullen and wife have been in poor health for some time.

Frank Perego and wife spent Saturday night and Sunday with their parents, S. C. and Mattie Poppino.

We learn that comrade H. M. Cole will soon move his family near Urbana where one of his boys has rented a farm for the coming season.

Miss Mary McAtee is still very poorly. Friends should call often, as company serves to cheer and strengthen as well as food and medicine.

Kansas-day will be celebrated in due form at Rural Friday night with an appropriate program. Every loyal Kansan should come out on an occasion like this and show his esteem and love for his country.
