Urbana.

Tuesday, March 9.—We had quite a flood here on the 4th of March; probably not as great as the flood of office seekers in Washington since that time.

Al Shepard is sick again. Mr. Gill is running a poultry wagon. James Neeley was home on a visit Sunday.

Dr. Neeley went to Parsons yesterday on business.

Harrison Williams is shipping a car of hay this week.

Sam Winfield and C. A. Cox were here on business last week.

Ed Houston of Shaw, passed through here today on his way to Oklahoma.

Will Milkin, an old resident of this place, is here visiting friends and relatives.

Comrade S. E. Noble who has been on the sick list for some time, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Sweeney, who was paralyzed last week, is still in a critical condition with little or no improvement.

Claude Gibson and Miss Christine Meldrum were married last Sunday. May happiness and long lives be theirs.

Comrade Lawson Williams was in town yesterday. Mr. Williams is a veteran of two wars, having served in the Mexican war and in the late war. He is a native of Kentucky.

As an evidence of better times, there was quite a large crowd at Tom Morrison's sale last Saturday, and property sold for good prices. Tom has traded for a stock of goods in Missouri and has left us for good.

Died, On March, 4, 1897, John P. Lyons, cause of death unknown. Death occurred sometime between four and eight o'clock a. m. He had called his son to get up and make a fire; that he was suffering pain. But before the young man could get ready, he told him that he felt better, and soon afterwards went to sleep. As they could hear him snore occasionally, they supposed he was sleeping, and did not disturb him. About 8 o'clock they found that he was dead—had passed away without a struggle. Mr. Lyons was born in Kentucky about 68 years ago, moved from there to Illinois when a young man. In 1878, he moved to Iowa, and from there he moved to this county in 1883, where he has since resided on his farm. Besides leaving a widow, Mr. Lyons has four sons and one daughter living in the neighborhood, who with many friends, mourn his loss. The deceased has a brother living in Missouri who was visiting him when he died. We tender our condolence to the bereaved relations. On March 5, the remains were laid to rest in the Galesburg cemetery with impressive ceremonies. Peace to his ashes.

Rest.

Wednesday March 10, 1897.—Spring has come at last. Farmers fixing fences and getting ready for farm work.

Muddy roads at this writing. John Sharp is moving on Mr. Perry's farm.

Geo. Denny is losing his hogs with cholera. Jack Warren is cutting hedge for his father.

We hear that S. G. Moffit has planted potatoes. The side track question is aboard, but no sidetrack.

Guy Riley sold some cattle to Geo. McFadden last week.

John Campbell is getting well from an attack of Pneumonia.

Rev. Wallace is going to break some prairie for Mrs. Kirk this week.

Tom Green is working for Mr. Roney after all his trouble to get a job.

Will Powell has gone to Warrensburg, Mo., his mother being sick.

Geo. Templeman sold all of his cattle to Ed Colaw some time ago.

Archie Parker has a new buggy. Watch out girls, he will be around.

Does the city mayor allow the chickens to run at large in main street?

Will Stevens has moved on his farm northwest of Rest, and is fixing up in general.

Home Maxwell is going to farm next season; he gets tired clerking all the time.

Sam Givens is expected home Sunday from Topeka, where he served as sergeant-at-arms.

There was a trial at Mr. Stevens' J. of P. office last Tuesday. We didn't hear particulars.

The hardware merchants of Rest have on some implements now. Come to Rest before buying.

The school at Mound Springs is out. Thursday, L. L. Heighes being teacher. We hear that he had very good success.

C. M. Carpenter has moved to Leanna, where he is blacksmithing. He gave excellent satisfaction in Rest. Wish we could have kept him longer.
