

TALE OF TWO COUNTIES.

Fredonia.

Wednesday, October 13.—Supt. Sipe is making out a table of school statistics of his own origin for the benefit of teachers and all interested in school work.

Gov. Leedy and Congressman Ridgely spoke to a good audience in the court house Tuesday night.

Candidates are making their campaign strictly on their individual merits. People are inclined to look to the man rather than the party.

Prof. Howell, who lately resigned his position as teacher in the Fredonia schools, left Saturday night for El Reno, Ok., where he has taken the principalship of the city schools.

The Fredonia Odd Fellows celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their subordinate lodge last Friday night. There were members present from the different lodges throughout the county. The Rebekah lodge prepared supper for the occasion. After supper, J. T. Cooper addressed the public meeting held in the lodge room, upon the merits of Odd Fellowship and Fraternal organizations in general. After a short address by Rev. Blackburn, of Altoona, and some music, the meeting was dismissed with the feeling that the evening had been well spent.
