A TALE OF TWO COUNTIES

RURAL.

Roads very muddy.
S. C. Poppino is contemplating moving to Chanute soon.

E. P. Bodle is laying the foundation of his new barn.

A crowd of young folks attended the spelling school at Earleton last week.

Mr. Johnson of Big Creek is visiting Mr. McFarland's this week.

Boys gather your cow bells and conch shells and pay particular attention in the future.

J. Nooner will farm the Hathaway farm this year.

Messrs. C. A. Hessong, P. D. Browning and Miss Minnie McFarland, will attend the township examination next Saturday at Earleton.

Miss Grace Wilson visited S. C. Poppino and family Sunday.

C. W. Hessong is working for Mr. Bodle this summer.

Mrs. Pullen is still very ill at this writing.

Grant Ivey, of Virginia, Ill., visited his uncle Mr. McFarland and family last week.

Mr. Elston has had a slight spell of grippe, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. Lena McCaw of Everton, Mo., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pullen.

Will Reeve and wife, of Earleton, called on his parents last week.

My mother suffered with chronic diarrhoea for several months. She was attended by two physicians who at last pronounced her case hopeless. She procured one 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and five doses gave her permanent relief. I take pleasure in recommending it as the best on the market.—Mrs. F. E. WATSON, Aiken, Ala. Sold by all Druggists.

DISTRICT COURT.

New Hampshire Fire Insurance Co. vs. Eli Neff et al; an action for foreclosure of mortgage on real-estate.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Probably fifty pupils will take the examination for common school diplomas Saturday. The board of examiners will have charge of the examination and will grade the papers. The pupils will be required to write with pen and ink.

John W. Locke, register of deeds of Neosho county, called at the court house at Fredonia last week.

You can be cheerful and happy only when you are well. If you feel "out of sorts" take HERBINE, it will brace you up. Price 50 cents. Sold by George P. Wilder.

REST.

Go to Hughes & Givens for seed potatoes.

Grandma Cooper is very sick with pneumonia.

Strange mixture, spring rains and winter blizzards.

Hughes & Givens have the finest assortment of calicoes ever shown in Rest.

Maxwell, the merchant, is very busy nowadays setting up planters, cultivators and plows, of the Bradley-Wheeler sort.

John Geer and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Polson and Guy Orendorf's family all pulled through the mud to headquarters in Rest on Monday to trade.

Hughes & Givens sell the celebrated Brown Hammock and Combined Cultivators, also the J. D. Tower Surface Cultivator.

School was out last Friday at 99 but owing to the rainy day they postponed the entertainment until next Saturday eve at the G. A. R. hall March 18th.

Jos Craig and Miles are making maple syrup. They use the gas for boiling; they have quite a maple grove and think they will make a good deal of it.

Wm. Colaw shipped hogs again yesterday the 14th. We were sorry to learn from him that his wife is suffering from a cancer of the worst kind in her mouth or lip, they will have it taken out as soon as possible.

Eddie Michaels and his mother from Ottawa are visiting and nursing the sick in Rest. Ed has been quite ill for some time with chills, whooping cough and la grippe, therefore is in a critical condition. Under his mother's care and nursing he has missed the chill for two days and some hope is entertained for his recovery.

If your child is cross or peevish, it is no doubt troubled with worms. WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE will remove the worms, and its tonic effect restore its natural cheerfulness. Price 25 cents. Sold by George P. Wilder.

For Sale.
A full blood jersey bull two years old; Inquire at this office.

WEBSTER.

Tuesday, March 14.—Oh! March, how capricious thou art! It's enough to break a farmer's heart.

Rev. Laughlin preached at Providence last Sunday and Sunday night.

Wm. Fleming made a flying trip to the Territory one day last week.

Mr. C. Williamson braved the storm Saturday and drove to Fredonia.

Charley Trimmel went to Kansas City last week with a car load of hogs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ratcliffe, of Sandy Valley, visited last Sunday with the latter's father, Mr. Fleming.

J. H. Ridlon made a trip to the county seat last Monday.

John Corjars and daughter, Miss Emie, visited the former's sister, Mrs. D. L. Matthews, of this vicinity one day last week.

Misses Mabel Laughlin, Omega Puckett and Viola Carter visited with Miss Ida Fleming last Sunday.

There will be a basket supper at Providence next Saturday night for the benefit of the Sunday school.

Attention, Farmers.

Call early and engage some of the pure Iowa common flax seed. This gives you a chance to get pure seed flax for a number of years. Our flax is running out. Come at once as I only have a limited amount to loan. I have choice home grown seed to sell or loan, the best and cleanest that can be had.

17-3W R. V. MYERS,
Earleton, Kan.

WARD.

Some of our neighbors have their early potatoes planted.

Ed White is improving the looks of his place by putting a new coat of paint on his house.

Grandma Barber died last Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. Houghton and was buried last Sunday in the New Light cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Geer spent last Sunday at J. W. Starkey's.

James Crane is on the sick list.

Miss Nellie Gaughan is still very low with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Willmoth returned home from Iola one day last week, where they have been visiting.

Miss Lulu Starkey visited her friend Mrs. Millie McCain Huffman of Gilford one day last week.

Rev. McHugh of Earleton is going to move on Mr. Gaughan's place.

Nervous weakness or palpitation of the heart indicates disorder in the stomach and digestion. Prickly Ash Bitters is a wonderful remedy in such cases. It cleanses, strengthens and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, removes the cause of the heart symptoms and builds up a strong and vigorous body. Sold by J. L. Sewell.

VILAS.

Cap. Hardy has recovered from his illness.

Mrs. Jessie Steele returned to her home at Strong City Monday.

The lumber for the hall at Vilas is on the ground.

Joe Wiltse, J. N. Taylor and C. P. Swank were in Chanute Wednesday.

Some of our farmers are plowing a little wet.

You can get the Barteldes fresh bulk garden seeds at Hughes & Givens'.

Ed McMillen, who has been afflicted with consumption for several months, was buried last Monday. He was a young man highly respected.

Wm. Dulin arrived from Colorado last Monday and will take up his abode on his farm one mile north of Vilas.

W. P. Willmoth shipped one car load of hogs to Kansas City Tuesday.

New goods of all kinds arriving at Vilas every day. Come and see for yourselves.

The reason Hughes & Givens sell so many harness is that they sell good quality at poor quality prices.

Mrs. T. J. Binning departed this life last Sunday afternoon and was buried in the Zion cemetery; she was a model woman and loved by everybody. Her brother Edward of Wichita and sister, Violet, of Oakley, Kansas, were present when she died. She leaves a husband and son to mourn her loss, who have the sympathy of the entire community. The deceased's mother arrived here from Illinois, too late for the funeral.

For Sale.

I have about 2000 walnut and burr oak fence posts which I will sell at $5 per hundred. Wm. BERGHART, Rollin, Kan.

CENTER GROVE

The farmers are anxious for spring work to begin. They say the days are getting too long to loaf around.

Mrs. Gillispie, of near Iola, is the guest of W. I. Jewell and family this week.

W. J. Osburn and wife and Miss Hattie Brubaker Sundayed at Mr. Cochran's.

A cousin of Mr. Harner from Iowa visited him last week.

HIGH SCHOOL ITEMS.

Miss Radford has concluded to remain here.

Mr. Royster taught in Miss Radford's place Monday.

The high school pupils are joyous over the opportunity of going to the normal this summer. They expect to do more and better work than any of the former classes.

The Middle Latin class expects to read about four and a half books of Caesar this year. At that rate they will complete the full course prescribed. This has never been done by any class so far.

The next number in the lecture course, The Western Stars, will be given next Tuesday evening at the M. E. church. This company is sent out by the same bureau that sent out John Temple Graves. It is therefore a guaranteed success.

Flax Seed.

I am now engaged in the grain business at Earleton, Kan., and will handle all kinds of grain.

Have a lot of fine flax seed to loan on easy terms. It will pay you to call and see me before you purchase your seed.

Your business solicited.
W. P. WILLMOTH.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

Some windy weather this week.

A few people plowing.

W. G. Smith and family came up from Neodesha Sunday to tell friends and relatives goodbye. They expect to start for Edmund, Okla., this week, where Gil will farm this summer.

Iva Richardson is still very low with indigestion of the bowels.

Zella Witse visited in Vilas a part of last week.

Rose Coats went to Altoona today.

Mrs. Jennie Adams, of Chanute, is visiting in the Valley.

Little Ruth Sturdevant has the whooping cough.

Died, on Monday morning, Edward McMillen, of consumption, age 17 years and 3 months, he was buried at Thornburg Monday eve. He will be greatly missed in his home.

G. W. Smith and C. E. Wiggins drove to Neodesha Wednesday.

To Rent.
