CURRENT COMMENT

Paul Jones, the editor of the Coffeyville Sun who has been married just two weeks asks this one: "Will some of the bunch that have preceded us kindly advise us how long a newly married man is supposed to wash the dishes."

A news item under a Chicago date line states that a cat sucked the breath of a three months old babe resulting in the child's death. Children ask your parents why it is that cats want to do such a thing, they'll be glad to explain it to you.

We are a good deal like old man Jinks. He came into the office this morning and after warming his shins for a moment remarked, "I've read eight colms about the trial of Rev. Barker the Coffeyville preacher and I'll be burned if I wouldn't like to know what they got agin 'im."

Twenty years ago Friday the Dutton Brothers made a raid on Coffeyville. Since their death it is reported that the field was turned over to the plumbers and policemen.

The Topeka Capital states that "The Kansas Football Teams Show Form." Most any one who uses as much padding as a football player can show form.

The Erie Sentinel a paper little larger than The Times set in its Saturday's issue carried four pictures of Woodrow Wilson. The inference is that the Sentinel is Democratic.

There's always some one seemingly ready to take long chances. The Salvation Army, for instance, is going to try to do something for South Coffeyville.

The Kansas Civilians are clamoring to know what they will do about the gas situation. Let's see, the Kansas City papers claim that Peruna is good for everything. Might try that.

Slough Holler Happenings. Sid Sellers is a goin fer to move out west. The sheriff is helpin him dispose of his property.

The new school ma'am's ordered the trustees to provide the buildin' with a wash pan and soap 'cause the Witherbys has opened up a jar of applebutter.

Mrs. Donk Willis's bought a new dress. Dunk's ma was burid in her weddin dress but Mrs. Duck seems a sight more perticular.

The Sellers and Haskins families is on 'speakin' terms agin. They found out that they'd been wrongfully accusin' each other stealin' at the post mortem of Mis. Dougherty's goat.

Vote fer Jeremiah Dobbs fer constabule. Jerry ain't touched a drop of likker in nigh a year.

PELLAGRA CONGRESS TO BE HELD

Dr. J. S. Hunter of the Entomology Department at the Kansas University has gone to Columbia, South Carolina, where he will attend a Pellagra Congress. One case of this disease was recorded from Chanute last summer. The patient died.

Dr. Hunter said of the disease:

"Pellagra is a mysterious disease, more horrible than leprosy and more fatal than cholera, and has appeared in several localities in Kansas. The disease first appears as an affection of the skin, later developing severe constitutional and nervous disorders, a wasting away of the flesh and finally insanity.

"The disease has spread terror in Italy and other European countries, and has engaged the attention of the ablest scientists of the day. The entomological department here is among those paying particular attention to the disease."

Two theories are advanced as to the origin of the disease. One theory is that it is caused by mal-nutrition, for which there is obviously no cure save an improvement in economic conditions. The other is that it is caused by a germ, and carried by sand flies.

EDGAR M. TAYLOR MARRIED

Edgar M. Taylor who formerly lived in Chanute and was employed by the Warren & Bloomheart Clo. Co. was married Sunday a week ago to Miss Lena Munchneyer. Mr. Taylor is in Pleasanton now and has a clothing store of his own. His marriage was a total surprise to his friends here.

Miss Margaret Gallagher, who is teaching at Petrolia, visited over Sunday in Chanute.

PRAIRIE CHICKEN HUNTERS RETURN

Over a Thousand miles in the Cavaness Car Got All the Chickens They Wanted.

J. F. Allen, H. H. McCall, James A. Allen and Wilfrid Cavaness returned late Sunday from a thousand mile motor trip in the Cavaness Sampson 30. The four left a week ago Sunday for Western Kansas to shoot prairie chickens. They had no motor trouble of any kind and went over the Santa Fe trail, which they say was fine, but found considerable sand in Morton county which made hard pulling. At the time of their crossing the Cimmaron river the quick sand bothered but they managed to get through without serious difficulty.

The "hunters" lived out in a dug out, sixty five miles from a railroad and found lots of chickens. They said that they got all they wanted to eat, but were not trying to break any records in the shooting line. Close to the ranch where the Chanut men stayed John B. Cook, the Kansas historian lived. Cook is probably the oldest Kansas Pioneer, and has wandered all over Kansas and knows much about its history. The motorists took the Central trail one way and the southern route the other way. They doubled back on their trail but once, and that was at the Petrolia corner as they were coming back to Chanute. Both routes are direct but do not cross.

NEOSHO PRESBYTERY MEETING

The Neosho Presbytery met Friday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church. The meeting was a called one and only about a dozen delegates were present. Rev. J. M. Douglass of Ottawa, who is Moderator of the Neosho Presbytery, had charge of the meeting. The stated clerk of the meeting was Rev. Combs of Cherryvale.

S. D. Wallace was received into the Neosho Presbytery from the Emporia Presbytery. Paul H. Combs of Cherryvale who is a divinity student at Park college, Parkville, Mo. was received under the care of the Neosho Presbytery. The matter of granting Rev. P. H. Parker a letter to the New York Presbytery was then taken up. Before doing this however the Presbytery went in secret executive session.

A LOG ON THE TRACK

Of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing indigestion. Michael Hesselmer of Lincoln, Neb., had been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thousands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only 50c at all druggists.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SARAH EDWARD

The funeral services of Mrs. Sarah Edwards who died at eight o'clock Saturday morning were held Sunday afternoon at three o'clock from the home, 701 South Ashby. The services were conducted by Rev. J. R. McFadden and interment was made in Elmwood. Mrs. Edwards moved near Chanute in 1864 and then a number of years ago made her home in Chanute.

BIRTH AND DEATH REPORT

According to the report of the city clerk Amyx there has been eight deaths in Chanute in September and seventeen births. The figures for August were sixteen deaths and sixteen births.

REVISION OF TARIFF THEME OF SPEECH

Campbell and Little Gave Opposite Sides of Tariff Question.

Phil Campbell spoke here a few nights ago on the subject of tariff. He expressed himself as greatly in favor of Protective Tariff. In his speech C. B. Little, Democratic candidate for Attorney General of the state, expressed himself as being in favor of a revision of tariff. He took up this question and discussed it from several points of view. Especially in regard to the difference in the price of American manufactured goods at home and abroad.

He also said "The concentration of wealth had been tremendous under the high tariff and that the high tariff was beneficial to the few but not to the many."

He also took up the record of John Dawson and discussed that, saying in part, "Dawson was maintaining eighty men out of the contingent fund and even then was not enforcing the laws, and that should he be elected he should enforce the laws."

THE RAINMAKER OUT AGAIN

Dr. Edwards with C. P. Garvin drove to Erie Sunday in Dr. Edward's car. It has been a standing joke with the Doctor's friends for a long time about the car being a rainmaker. It is seldom, indeed, that the car can be taken out for long trip but that it gets rained in. Rain caught them just out side of Shaw but they drove on in town through the shower.

PARSONS HERE FRIDAY

The Parsons High School football team will meet the Chanute team Friday afternoon at Athletic Park. This will be the first football game of the season on the home gridiron. When the team went to Parsons a couple of weeks ago the score spelled defeat for Chanute, but this time they expect to turn the tables completely. Coach Merrill has been putting the boys through their paces pretty hard this week and has his team in good form.

2 DIE FROM WORRY OVER HORSE PLAGUE

At Bennington, Kan., a young veterinarian and his sweet heart are suicides. Their death is ascribed to worry over the horse plague. Toman, the veterinarian, is only twenty-one years of age, and when the strange disease made its appearance the young man could not successfully combat it with the vaccine which he tried. However, no other doctor could either. Repeated charges were made that the young doctor was responsible for the death of the farmers stock. The theory of the tragedy is that he was so stung by the charges, that he sought his sweet heart and together they agreed to die. They took morphine and their bodies were found a few hours later.

The tragedy occurred after government experts had appeared on the scene and told the farmers that the use of vaccine had only abated the malady and increased the death rate of their stock.

Can you test this for absent mindedness? There is a Main street business man who prides himself on being at his place of business by eight o'clock in the morning. The other morning, just a few days ago, as he was going up Main he pulled his watch out of his pocket and said "Five minutes to eight and I've forgot and left my watch at home and won't have time to go back to get it."

NEW BUNGALOW ON THE RIVER

S. J. Bailey, A. N. Allen, W. K. Mathis and E. P. Burris are the joint owners of a bungalow on the river.

The bungalow is a new one and has not as yet been formally opened but the owners were out Sunday and enjoyed a roast beef dinner.

The bungalow is on the east side of the river, about a quarter of a mile north of the east river bridge. The bungalow is on a hill, something like seventy feet above the river. The ground near the house has been cleared off and a fine view is afforded over all the surrounding country. The bungalow itself is a homelike, commodious cottage consisting of a large living room 14 by 22, a kitchen and four bedrooms with a long screened in porch 46 feet by twelve feet wide.

The owners have named the bungalow "Oak Lodge." They had several visitors Sunday and all of them sing the praises of Oak Lodge and say it would be hard to improve on, for a place of its kind.

Benj. Fay Mills Addressed an Appreciative Audience.

"Makes no difference if you are a houn" or a standpatter the fact remains that, that man Mills is some orator. The crowd was not a record breaker but it was responsive and it came in with the applause at frequent intervals.

Considering the fact that the Bull Moosers did not get the band out to call the people together, the crowd at Central Park was a large one. Much interest was manifested in the address of Mills in which he gave his "Confession of Faith" and the reason for his being a Bull Moosier, or a Progressive.

Mills says "he has joined the Progressives because of his sympathy with the principles that they advocate. He outlines their principles as follows:

In the first place their platform entitles a contract with the people and the contract is not to be taken lightly. Second, sympathy with direct election of senators and presidential primaries. Third, they are in favor of W. man's Suffrage. Fourth, a proposition for the establishment of social and industrial justice. Fifth, "Conservation." Sixth, The watch word toward the trusts is "Concentration, Co operation and Control." Seventh, The proposal to abolish the sectionalism which has existed between the North and South for over fifty years. Mills is a good orator and seemed to believe fully in the talk that he gave.

STATE SYNODICAL MEETING

There will be held in Chanute from the 16th to the 18th of October a State Synodical meeting of the Missionary societies. Dr. A. M. Halsey of New York who is secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian church will speak here at that time. He is well known and has been engaged in this work for many years.

The delegates will be entertained by the local people and fifty or sixty of them are expected to be here from various parts of the state.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY

J. M. Thompson was completely surprised with a birthday party last Wed. Tuesday was Mr. Thompson's birthday and his family decided to give him a surprise. About fifty four of Thompsons neighbors and friends came to spend the evening. As a present they brought a big rocking chair for Mr. Thompson. Rev. Wilson presented the chair. A delicious two course lunch was served and the evening proved a very jolly and pleasant one for all there.

Scored Twenty One Points to Their Opponent's Goose Egg

The football game at Garnett was a case of taking candy from the baby with the Chanute team. A score of twenty one was piled up without very much effort. Three touchdowns were made. Hemphill was the hero of these. One safety then brought the score to 21. Gray was allowed to go in for two minutes in the last quarter and succeeded in making another touch down but the umpire declared him out of bounds and no score resulted from Gray's run.

Chanute had the game all their own way from start to finish and found that they could plunge Garnett's line for good gains every time but found also that their line was not any too strong. Garnet is coming down here for a return game. Parsons plays here next Friday. Chanute team is confident of winning.

The line up for the game was: Clarence Foote, L. End; Clyde Budd, L. Tackle, Fowler or Coats L. Guard, Fowler, Center, Owens, R. Guard, Jones, R. Tackle, Hemphill, R. End, Conklin or Barnes Quarter, Hamilton or Welch, R. Half, H. Foote, L. Half.

WITNESS IN GREENWOOD COUNTY CASE

Policeman Garrett went to Eureka today to attend the case of J. Butler, who was arrested here by Mr. Garrett on the advice of the Greenwood county authorities. Butler resisted arrest and Garrett was compelled to shoot him through the ankle. Garrett will be a witness in the case. The police were informed here, that the fellow was wanted on the charge of seducing Ruth Brace. Miss Brace will not appear at the trial. She is now in Muskogee. She was detained in Vinita by the officers but it was decided by the Greenwood officials that there was no necessity for her appearance in court.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Harmon of Independence drove to Chanute Sunday in their Ford car and visited home folks. Miss Mable Allen accompanied them home for a few day visit.
