In the duke of Orleans is real anxious to set foot once more upon the soil of France, he might better have a quantity imported.

WILLIE K. VANDERBILT is going to try yacht races with the British. Does he, too, propose to get into English society by letting English society get into him.

DR. PARKHURST has told Chicago how to do it. Now if Chicago will bring its celebrated I Will into play, Mr. Stead may find a different state of affairs on his next visit.

Now that those who have gone all sleep, in peace, may we not hope that the New York aristocracy will stop parading their petty family feuds in the presence of the dead.

It would be proper at present to say New York has the influenza to prevent humorously inclined paragraphers from re-working the old gag about that town never losing her grip.

It is said Americans are a nation of whistlers. The assertion is a slander, for to whistle is not to think. In model government, in ingenious inventions and marvelous progress, America has been doing the thinking of the world for a century.

The medical journals are urging the introduction of music into hospitals as a healing agency. A considerable part of the current music of the day is of the sort to make patients fighting mad, but perhaps that would have the same effect therapeutically.

It has been suggested that the Chicago drainage canal would lower the level of the great lakes; attention has been called to the fact that the Detroit and Niagara rivers, both considerably more extensive water courses than the canal, have been flowing for a long time without accomplishing that result.

SAVANNAH has yielded to the march of events, and has turned its clocks twenty-four minutes ahead of the sun in order to conform to the time of the seventy-fifth meridian. The only serious complaint comes from the saloon-keepers, who are compelled by a recent law to close at midnight, which now arrives at 11:38.

PUT this down for one of the maxims that the "little schoolmaster" is so usefully supplying to the business world: Advertising governs business; not business advertising. The proposition is perhaps novel and is rather startling, but has become true. And here is another truth, that advertisements worth reading are read attentively and critically.

The following adv. might properly though probably it does not, appear in the want columns of the Paris Jallies to-day: "Wanted—Situations as tutors, coachmen or footmen in respectable families. References furnished. Address duke of Orleans, duke of Normandy, Victor Napoleon and General Francis de Bourbon, kings, etc., of France."

"PERIODICALS ARE NOT SOLD HERE," said the proprietor of a Paris book store when asked for a copy of the French constitution. This characterization of France's governmental charters by the merchant of her metropolis is apt and striking. It is a country of lightning-like political transformations. The line, "To be continued in our next," in her fundamental law comes frequently.

In the anti-toxine factories of Paris a horse has blood drawn without injury once every twenty days, and enough serum is obtained at a single tapping to treat 150 diphtheria patients. Considering the incredibly high price of the remedy, it is strange that nobody has thought of starting a serum in the West, where live horses are a drug at $4 a dozen or thereabouts. There would be millions in it.

THE people of Chicago suffered so from the enterprising burglar that they attached electric alarms to their doors and windows. This insured safety for a short time, but the burglar now climbs to the roof by means of the lightning rod and makes his entrance into the house by way of the skylight. The only precaution that can be taken now is to grease the lightning rod.

MAYOR SUTRO of San Francisco, is stopped so often on the street by office-seekers that he presents to each of them a card on which is printed or written: "I claim the right of an ordinary citizen to walk the streets without molestation. If you have public business see me at the mayor's office." All of this goes to show that California may be depended upon to furnish any number of men who are consumed with a burning desire to serve their country.

THE press correspondents who started for Sassoun, which is in the territory where the Armenian atrocities were committed, have been halted at Erzeroum, and there will be no report on the condition of things in Armenia except such as the Turkish authorities may approve. That is equivalent to saying that there will be no official investigation worthy of the name and no report worthy of credence. The halted correspondents, however, may do some investigating and reporting on their own account.

TO THE PREACHERS.

CHRISTIANITY, PRACTICAL, SOCIAL AND POLITICAL JUSTICE.

Love God with All Thy Soul and Thy Neighbor as Thyself.—On These Two Commandments Hang All the Law and the Prophets.

Too many preachers are serving only the sentiment of their congregations. They listen too much to the conservative advice of the vestryman and not enough to the radicalism of Jesus Christ.

I am interested in the preachers, because I came very near being one myself.

Now, I couldn't hold a job in a pulpit, because I am a Populist and still cling to the teachings of the old fashioned agitator, Jesus of Nazareth.

Brothers, I know you are in a hard row of pulpits and surrounded with deeply rooted stumps.

Many of you would like to say things you don't dare to.

But Jesus wasn't afraid. Some of you have families to support, and have to "nurse your jobs" or starve.

But there are thousands of people in this country who are martyrs without even being professors of Christianity.

They can't even get a job of working for "Yonny Yonson," much less a job of working for Jesus in a fashionable church.

Preachers are only men, with appetites and passions as laboring men have. Though ever so richly endowed with the spirit, they are only instruments of expression, and entitled to material support only on a material basis.

The commonest clodhopper on earth can be a Christian—but he has to earn a living besides feeding the spirit.

If your preaching is not for the uplifting of all mankind materially, as well as spiritually, you are entitled only to spiritual support.

If you are teaching mankind that every man is his brother's keeper, then you are a benefactor of the community, and the people and God will provide for you.

You are entitled to support if you earn it—but if you are preaching for a salary that is paid you by men who deny you freedom of speech, then you are accepting a bribe to betray Jesus.

Some of you are weak and afraid to speak out lest you hurt the feelings of people whom you are convinced are conscientious in their errors.

What do you fear? What is conscience but a matter of teaching? You should root out the old conscience and build a new one. You are slaves to a system. Yes; but the whole system is wrong, and your business and God's business is to tear down an iniquitous system and establish the Kingdom of God on earth.

There is so much hell on earth that some people will feel at home in hell on the other side.

Show them the horrors of hell on earth as well as the tortures of the bottomless pit in the domain of disembodied spirits.

You don't like notoriety. Was there ever a man who received more notoriety and abuse than Jesus Christ?

Remember how the great newspapers and politicians denounced Dr. Parkhurst of New York as a fanatic, using all the vile epithets in the vocabulary of newspaper slang and political rot. Now they are lauding him to the skies for his success.

But you don't know of any such corruption to combat, then in the name of heaven it is time you were opening your eyes. Read the daily press with its budget of crime, starvation, misery, suicide and sensational headlines announcing to the greedy public the carrion on which the minds of the nineteenth century civilization feeds. Look in upon the palaces and banquets of the rich, visit the hovels of the poor and oppressed. Look into the grog shops and tenements of the cities. Behold the idle rich and the unemployed poor. See children growing up in ignorance and squalor—others growing up in arrogance and dissipation. Open your eyes.

There is hell on earth for you to fight. God is busy—better help him than to pat him on the back.

Try to bring the kingdom of God to earth, instead of carting hell to heaven. Bring heaven to earth and hell will move out.

Don't try to scare people with that old fake story about sulphur and brimstone. Men already in hell can't be scared. They want to get out—show them the way to heaven on earth.

Let the bishops discuss theology—study the sermon on the mount—preach Christ before he was crucified and denounce the spirit that crucified him.

That he was crucified is nothing—that such men as crucified him now rule the world, is the devil you must fight.

Don't weep over the crucifixion, but over the depravity of man. Teach Christianity, not popular sentiment.

Be sure you are not crucifying Christ yourself, before you slag Jesus paid it all.

The fact that Jesus died on the cross won't save you. You, too, must be willing to die for the salvation of the world.

Praising Jesus for what you would not do yourself won't do any good. God isn't fooled by flattery.

Even if Jesus were only a man, his example and teaching is worthy. You believe him a God, "one having authority." Then what are you whining about? Quote Him as an authority, and preach as he taught.

The teaching of Christ freed the black slaves, it should free all mankind from the burdens of monopoly and oppression.

No matter which one of the churches of men you are associated with, consult your Bible first, and all humanity before creed, party race or nation. Don't quarrel about the past, but study the present and help shape the future destiny of men and nations while on earth. God will take care of them when they die. Your care is that they should live right.

If you don't believe Christianity is practical get out of the pulpit and go to plowing corn. You will soon find out that the devil is practiced in his oppressions, anyway.

I don't want to abuse the preachers. I believe the church is the greatest power in the world for good—when it preaches practical Christianity.

But the fear of hell beyond the grave will never save the world.

Think about scaring a man into love—making a man love his neighbor at the muzzle of a shot gun.

GEORGE A. PUCKETT, Hardy, Ark.

BE ON YOUR GUARD.

The Program of the Money Leaders' Foreign League. (New York Recorder.)

The Carlisle currency bill has been withdrawn, and a substitute has been offered in its place which is not sure to pass the house, and can not possibly pass the senate. But the discussion of it will not be a waste of time. It embodies, crudely, to be sure, and not to the satisfaction of the banks, the main features of the currency program which the national bank power has determined to force upon this country if it can.

Briefly stated, that program is this: To substitute a bank note currency, to be expanded, contracted and generally manipulated by the banks, for the government's own paper currency, issued in the nation's name and regulated by the nation's representatives in congress assembled.

This is the culminating aggression of the mighty bank power that has been built—just like that of Great Britain—on the foundation furnished by our immense war debt.

In 1860 the whole public debt was but $65,000,000, and in 1830 it was but $37,513. The government's creditors prior to the war had but little to do, if anything, in shaping its financial policy. The war came, and by the year 1866 the public debt amounted in round numbers to $2,700,000,000. At once the national creditors became a powerful and influential class. They were the first people to discover that our circulating medium and all the government issues should be made payable in gold.

They insisted that the principal and the interest of their bonds should be paid in gold, and it was done. From that hour there has been a continuous fight by the wealthy money lenders, mortgage holding classes of our own and foreign countries, where our bonds and securities have gone, to have all bills of credit, both public and private, made payable in gold.

Thus a persistent pressure has been exerted by the International Usurers' league to enhance the price of gold coin, decrease the volume of our currency, and increase the indebtedness of our people.

The Cleveland administration has been from the start, and is to-day, the political creature and cat's paw of the International Usurers' league. It was in the interest of that combine of money lenders that it first discredited silver and closed our silver mines, and it is in its interest that it is now trying to crowd a bank note inflation bill down the throat of congress. The ulterior purpose of that bill is to force the retirement of all the legal tenders, compel other and larger gold bond issues and transfer the entire power of issuing money from the people's congress to the parlors of the banks.

What is an Injunction? An injunction is a law which is found on no statute book. A law which has never been voted on by any set of legislators. A law which has never been signed by any governor or President. A law which exists without consent of the people. A law which came into being as the will of one man. An injunction is a law made by a judge; and its penalties are fixed by the same judge; and the offenders are tried before the same judge; and the verdict is rendered by a jury of one man—the same judge; and the sentence is pronounced by the same judge.

Now, dear reader, we hope you will take time to think whether there is not more in this trial and sentence of Mr. Debs than you ever dreamed of before. —Novada Director.

NATIONAL CIRCUS.

CONGRESS TRYING HARD TO PLEASE ITS MASTERS.

Mrs. Anne Diggs Feels Like Waking Them Up—Would Like to See a Real Woman in the White House.

[Correspondence, Topeka Advocate.] Plutocratic pirates and gold buccaners have full control of our once glorious ship of state. The few congressmen who have consciences and souls are perfectly helpless in the clutch of these high handed usurpers. It will never be different. The general public will never be served by the national congress until the two old party machines are broken, and a new element gains control; a new party which will come into power for the express purpose of serving the people instead of the plunderers.

There isn't the slightest use in looking to congress for anything save that which will enhance the fortunes of the greedy gluttons of fortune. It is a foregone conclusion that whatever legislation gets through this session will be such as will please the privileged class. This state of affairs is so fixed that it is of little interest even to watch the gyrations and listen to the vapors of the honorables while making grave pretense of serving their country.

The currency bill is under discussion in the house to-day. There was a comical performance going on when I entered the gallery. A big republican fellow from down east was reading his speech in thunderous tones, and it was so evident that he was making that speech to his constituents that no one in the house was listening. I think he must have been trying to "holler" a loud enough for his down east neighbors to hear him. He stood first on one foot and then on the other, thrust his hands into his trousers pockets while reading a page of his speech, which was bolstered up before him on a pile of books. Every few minutes his voice would tie up into a shrill sort of a yell, in order, I suppose, to give extra emphasis to the profound stuff he was getting off on the money question.

Here is one sentence which this orator shrieked out in extra high pitch: "Would I retire the greenbacks? Yes, I would."

The old chump! I wanted to throw something at him. If I could have aimed straight at that pile of books which supported the dreary stuff he was reciting to a suffering house, I would have been tempted to throw and risk arrest by the sergeant-at-arms.

Retire the greenbacks indeed! What for, I would like to know? Is it because they are the best money a nation or people ever had? Is it because they carried the country through a terrible war? Is it because they are connected with the memories of Abraham Lincoln's administration? Ah! what patriots these latter day republicans are.

I stood all of this rattling idiocy that was possible without becoming unamiable, then departed for the senate. The show was different there, but quite as farcical. Another down easter (this one a democrat) was reading his oration on the Nicaragua canal bond steal. Of course, he was in favor of it, but his speech was in lovely contrast to the orator at the other end of the capitol. The senator was spick and span just out of a band box, as to dress. He handled his gold eye-glasses dextrously, and spoke in modulated tones. Nobody was interested, of course. There was not a dozen senators in the chamber.

Merciful heaven! what is a woman made of who can be so heartless and selfish with such boundless opportunity and means to bless and brighten other lives that the President's wife has at her command? Oh, for a woman, a woman of the people, a woman with a soul, such a woman as Mrs. John Davis or Mrs. Simpson to occupy the white house and use the glorious power and privilege of her position to make other lives brighter.

Frances Cleveland is a woman after David Overmyer's own heart (I'll not say soul—I don't think he has one). Mr. Overmyer's kind of women are of the selfish, society sort; women who wouldn't do so unwomanly a thing for the world as to go to the ballot box and cast a vote for a better and more Christian order of business and of society, but who would feel entirely

PATRIOTISM IN JAIL.

Ringing Words of Patriotism From a Victim of Corporate Villainy. From the jail at Woodstock, Ill., E. V. Debs has issued the following manifesto to the American people:

"In going to jail for participation in the late strike we have no apologies to make nor regrets to express. We go to jail, not like quarry slaves, but sustained by the consciousness that we have done our duty. No ignominy attaches to us on account of this sentence. I would not change places with Judge Woods, and if it is expected that six months or even six years in jail will purge me of contempt the punishment will fail of its purpose.

"Candor compels me to characterize the whole proceedings as infamous. It is not calculated to revive the rapidly failing confidence of the American people in the federal judiciary. There is not a scrap of testimony to show that one of us violated any law whatever. And if we are guilty of conspiracy why are we punished for contempt? This question will continue to be asked with ever-increasing emphasis.

"I would a thousand times rather be accountable for the strike than for the decision. The ridicule of the press that we are 'posing as martyrs' will not deceive the people. We all have homes and loved ones, and none of us is here by choice. We simply abide by the arbitrary action of the courts. There is a higher power yet to be heard from. No corporation will influence its decision. Our cause is that of conscientious liberty and we have an abiding faith in the American people. We accept our lot with becoming patience and composure.

"We can afford to wait. So far as I am concerned I feel that when all the circumstances are considered it would only have been disgraceful if we had so acquitted ourselves as to have kept out of jail. Our enemies are entitled to all the comfort they can extract from our imprisonment, and our friends need have no concern.

"Questions of great and grave importance are for decision. Great principles involving the liberty of the citizen are at stake. Out of all this good will come. There is one fundamental, bedrock principle that the American people will never suffer to be sacrificed. It may be menaced, as it now is, but when the high court, 'We, the people,' have passed final judgment its entrenchment will be fixed and secure for all time.

"We are by chance the mere instrumentalities in the evolutionary processes in operation through which industrial slavery is to be abolished and economic freedom established. Then the starry banner will symbolize, as it was designed to symbolize, social, political, religious and economic emancipation from the thraldom of tyranny, oppression and degradation.

"EUGENE V. DEBS, McHenry County Jail, Woodstock, Ill., Jan. 8, 1895.

American Tenants. Some time ago a writer in the North American Review made the statement that the United States is the largest tenant farmer nation in the world. Here is a list of the tenant farmers in some of the states as given by the writer:

Table with 2 columns: State and Number of Tenant Farmers. Missouri: 39,872; Pennsylvania: 45,825; Maryland: 13,898; Virginia: 34,537; North Carolina: 52,728; Georgia: 63,175; West Virginia: 12,000; Ohio: 48,283; Indiana: 40,050; Illinois: 85,344; Michigan: 15,411; Iowa: 45,174; Nebraska: 11,491; Kentucky: 44,027; Kansas: 22,951; Tennessee: 57,296; Mississippi: 41,558; Arkansas: 26,138; Texas: 55,465.

Total: 749,210. Here are twenty-one of our leading states with more tenant farmers than England, Ireland Scotland and Wales.
