POINTNER NO. 175.
When a man has nothing else to be proud of, he boasts of his enemies.

Most people have learned to expect great things of this store, but even the people who have learned to anticipate much have been taken by surprise have, been astonished by this week's unprecedented low prices, here—and its little wonder—such important events as these—such low prices as these—below—are by no means everyday occurrences here or anywhere.

COUNTY NEWS.

Hutchinson.
A good rain came last. All of two inches of water fell on Sunday and Sunday night which will soak up the ground.
The corn in this part looks as if the wind and sand had done its best, but it is looking better since the rain. Wheat ground is being planted to corn.
The ladies of the Christian church gave an ice cream social at Abbyville school house on Friday evening, May 31. It was a success in every respect. The boys turned out in good style and brought their best girls.
The winds have left the gardens in bad shape. John McKeon says the sand is five feet deep in his garden. I heard one man say he was out hunting scrapes to scrape it out, why not raise the fence John, it would be less work? But then John is one of the lucky ones, his corn did not blow out.
OLD TIMER.
Bell.

Elder Fry, of the Baptist church preaches at Olcott next Sunday and will be assisted by Elder Plug.
The Knights of Labor are to meet on Saturday, June 8th for the purpose of reorganization at Maple Grove.
Some of our people have planted as high as 300 acres of corn and have got to replant 100 acres, and others are busy sowing to their already large crop.
There has not yet been much said about celebrating the fourth of July, but at the approach of that day every patriotic breast swells with patriotic joy.
The dry weather discouraged the boys so base ball appeared to be the craze and that took the place of field labor to a large degree, but if we have reasonable rains many clubs will very likely discontinue.

The M. E. church people are well pleased with their new minister Rev. Kirkpatrick. May he do them good by preaching God's word in its purity. He preaches at Olcott every alternate Sunday at 3 p. m.

All nature is cheerful this Tuesday morning, as the beautiful yet copious rain which quenched the thirsty earth on Sunday night and cooled the atmosphere, causing bright faces and renewing the ambition of our vegetable producers.
GUEST.

For Five Years.
Last Saturday morning Judge Martin passed sentence on Rogers giving him 5 years at hard labor in the state penitentiary. A motion for a new trial was denied. His attorney will appeal.

KANSAS CROPS.
Recent Rains Have Improved Them, Corn Especially—Potatoes Good.
TOPEKA, Kan., June 5.—The weather-crop bulletin of the Kansas service for the week ended the 3d says: In the eastern division the high winds of the 27th and 28th did much damage to fruits and some other crops. The leaves on the southern side of the fruit trees were scorched as by fire, and much fruit blown off. The rains of the 29th, 30th and 31st have greatly improved conditions. Corn is clean and growing rapidly; flax, oats, pasture and meadows improving; potatoes are looking fine and in bloom. Wheat and rye nearly ready to cut, especially in the south.

In the northern and western counties of the middle division crops have made greater improvement than in the southern. The high winds of the 27th and 28th did much damage, and in sandy soils burned some fields with drifting sand. Corn is yet the best crop in this division; wheat better than oats, heading with short straw but good berry. Fruit much thinned by the winds.
In the western division the very good rains have greatly improved all crops above ground. Plowing will now be vigorously pushed for more plantings and a large acreage of fodder crops will go in. Much corn was planted this spring but a large part remained in the dry ground unspouted; the heavy rains of this week will start that. Alfalfa-cutting has commenced in the south.

CATHOLICS BARRED.
The School Board of Kansas City, Kan., Refuses to Employ Teachers of That Faith.
KANSAS CITY, Kan., June 5.—School teachers professing the Catholic religion have been barred out of the public schools of Kansas City, Kan., for the next term at least. The board of education of this city last night, after a lengthy meeting, in appointing the teachers for the fall term refused to give places to a single Catholic. The board is, with one exception, composed of Protestants.

—A gold-standard organ labors hard to show that the country does not need an increase of the currency, because, it is claimed, "all large commercial operations are mainly conducted by means of checks or drafts." It loses sight of the fact that a check or a draft is worthless unless there is a corresponding amount of currency behind it on deposit.—Journal of Agriculture

SILVERITES MEET.

The Illinois Convention Called to Order by Chairman Hinrichsen.

RELIGIOUS LIBERALS MEET.

Their Object is to Foster the Organization of Unsectarian Churches and to Develop the Church of Humanity.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 5.—With every train that arrived here to-day came large numbers of delegates to the democratic state silver convention and the fears of the leaders last night that the attendance would be small were allayed. Blue badges bearing the inscription: "Free Silver 16 to 1," fluttered from the lapels of the coats of almost all of the incomers and many delegations carried banners proclaiming their belief in the free coinage of silver on a basis of 16 to 1 of gold. There is no doubt in the minds of anyone but that a radical free silver platform will be adopted and that the democratic party of this state will be committed to that policy.
During the morning the different congressional delegations held sessions for the purpose of selecting members of committees on credentials, rules, permanent organization and resolutions. In many cases resolutions were adopted upholding the democratic state central committee in its action. These resolutions were distributed through the congressional committee meetings by representatives of the committee.
When the convention was called to order, Representative Hinrichsen of the state central committee, in the opening address, referred to the disorganization of the party last fall and declared that the state central committee's investigations showed that it was due to the failure of congress to establish a permanent currency system and the fact that democrats in high places had determined on a line of financial policy to which the rank and file of the party was opposed. Therefore the committee resolved to appeal to the democrats of the state for instructions and to call an early convention to forestall the proposed action of the national silver party and to open up the discussion at such a time as to prevent a hopeless split in the party. He referred to the defeat of 1888 as due to President Cleveland's mistake in not allowing a thorough discussion of the tariff question by not issuing his famous message in time, and declared that the committee did not care to imitate it. He held that the party in each state had a perfect right to discuss and pass upon a national issue, and he defended the committee from the various charges of the opposition.
Ex-Congressman Andrew Hunter, of Paris, then made a speech in which he attacked the policy of the president on the silver question and also the recent speech of Secretary Carlisle at Memphis, Tenn., after which he said: "The people of this country would be delighted to know how an international agreement could be executed and carried out so that it would benefit us. Such an agreement would not be a law that would bind any nation or individual. The different nations would have to call their law-making power together, then the question of confirmation would have to be settled. Who has the courage to believe that they would so legislate as to give the United States any advantage of them? All this dramatic talk about international agreement with foreign nations to secure some financial advantage to our own country is empty declamation and only kept before the people as one of the schemes of deception for the sole purpose of prostration."
Religious Liberals Meet.
CHICAGO, June 5.—"To unite in a larger fellowship such existing liberal societies as are in sympathy with the movement of undogmatic religion; to foster the organization of unsectarian churches and to develop the church of humanity" are the objects of the American Congress of Liberal Religions societies, which held its opening session last night in Sinai temple in this city. Rev. F. E. Dewhurst, of Indianapolis, Ind., was the first speaker introduced. He spoke for the independents, saying: "I am not flying the flag of independence to-night. There are times when we feel the need of intellectual isolation, and then independence is a good thing. But there are times when we feel the current of more external things. Then we crave dependence and fellowship. That feeling has brought us together. It is cheering and encouraging that we are not here to fly theological flags but to find a platform where we can meet in common."
W. L. Sheldon, of St. Louis, was introduced as the representative of the Ethical Culturists. He said: "What we want is equality and brotherhood. We could let the word religion go if need be, so that the thing remained. The distinctions between creeds we must have. There can be no brotherhood on a basis of zero. Our brotherhood is the brotherhood of suffering and sorrow. I long to go from one end of the world to the other and ask men what they have discovered that is helpful."
Dr. Hirsch presented Rev. Joseph Stolz to give the message, not of Hebrewism, he said, but of Judaism and the Jews. He said: "This congress is the prophet to emphasize that we must not idolize our own little creed and pull down the curtains lest a ray of light get in and a heretic get out." Jenkin Lloyd Jones announced that in the audience were represented thirty-five towns, from Massachusetts to Dakota.

The Formosan Republic Collapses.
HONO KONG, June 5.—The republic proclaimed a few days ago in Formosa has collapsed and President Tang has escaped. The Chinese forces in north Formosa are disorganized at the approach of the Japanese.
