

Married.

Mr. Wm. McDermid, one of Lincoln township's best citizens was married last Wednesday evening to Mrs. Rich Denison. The ceremony was performed by Judge Fontron.

New Furniture Store.

Mr. M. L. Master's has bought the stock of furniture belonging to White & Zwing and has opened up a new and second hand furniture business one door north of his hotel on south Main street.

Keeps All Kinds.

J. F. Wass sells all kinds of Coal, also Hay and Flour and Feed, at 321 North Main street. Clean Coal and prompt delivery. A share of farmers trade solicited. Telephone 136.

In the Field Again.

Mr. J. W. Kanaga is again in the field for a share of the grocery trade of this county. He is located at Streeter's old stand and wants all GAZETTE readers to come in and see him. He will buy all your produce and pays the highest market price for good butter and eggs.

Lost his Foot.

A grocery business while on a trip happened to go through a barb wire fence where the gun he was carrying discharged itself into his foot and ankle. A physician removed the shot and some pieces of shattered bone. Inflammation set in later and for fear of blood poisoning the injured member was amputated on Monday. The accident is sorely regretted by Mr. Stone's many friends.

Universalist Church.

Universalist church, corner Maple and Second avenue east. Services next Sunday morning and evening, 11 and 7:30 o'clock. Subject: "The Essentials of a true Church," and "Is the Average Life Worth Living?" Sunday school 10 a. m., junior meeting 4 p. m. All are cordially invited to these services. Strangers especially invited to the evening service. GEO. N. FALCONER, pastor.

Closed Its Labors.

The convention of the Christian church closed its labors last Thursday evening. Several prominent ministers and church workers from abroad were present. Among them was Rev. Benjamin Smith of Topeka, who delivered a lecture on "The World's Tomorrow" in which he predicted a better people, which would teach a better philosophy, a better religion and have better health.

Before adjourning a resolution declaring for the enforcement of the prohibitory law was adopted.

One certain lot of $3.00 and $4.00 lots at only 48c now at I. Goldberg's.

"Alvin Joslin."

Charles L. Davis will be at the opera house Friday night, in his successful play, "Alvin Joslin." Whatever may be said or written of Chas. L. Davis it must be admitted that his conception of "Alvin Joslin" stands out prominently as an original bit of acting. The scenic effects are said to be particularly realistic and elaborate, showing Brooklyn bridge by moonlight, Five Points, the Bowery, and other familiar localities of New York.

Tickets on sale at Mantelle & Menke's, prices, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

It is no ones fault but your own if you do not take advantage of this Closing Out Sale at I. Goldberg's.

The Workmen.

The anniversary meeting of the Hutchinson lodge No 77 A. O. U. W. was well attended and a general good time prevailed.

A public meeting was held in the afternoon at the opera house. Mayor Vincent welcomed the visiting brethren to the city.

Grand Master Workman Wallace, of Kingman, delivered a fine address. An elegant dinner and supper was served by the ladies of the Degree of Honor, and at night 14 candidates were initiated into the order.

One dollar will do the work of two now at the closing out sale of I. Goldberg's.

PERSONAL.

Miss Minnie Huffman has secured a position with the Leader Dry Goods Co.

Rev. Father Kearful of St. Teresa parish has been transferred to St. Joe, Mo.

Emory McDeimed, of the Standard Grocery Store is confined to his bed from a hemorrhage.

County Clerk Yeager has rented the Bennett property on A east which place he will make his home.

J. C. Paddock and son, of Kremlin, Okla., came up from there last Tuesday. Mr. Paddock was formerly a resident of this city.

Jas. L. Rowley of Wichita, a brother of Mrs. I. L. Foster is visiting the editor's family. He came over with the visiting Workmen on Tuesday evening.

Hon. W. H. Mitchell of Abbyville, has been confined to his bed for several weeks from an attack of typhoid fever which at one time threatened to prove fatal. We are glad to announce that he is getting better.

A. N. Roots, formerly a resident of this county, but late of Haskell county has moved back to his old place in Ninescaw township. He reports a landslide to the peoples party in Haskell county at the late election, the populists overcoming a 150 republican majority and electing 4 of 6 officers.

Come to the Universalist church next Sunday.

Mrs. Lease's Lecture.

A small audience greeted Mrs. Lease at the Christian church last Friday evening owing no doubt to the severness of the weather, but those who did attend gave their "think-caps" a chance to go to work.

Mrs. Lease on the rostrum is somewhat a change from Mrs. Lease on the stump. She handles her subject well, but evidently she needs the applause that goes with a political speech to bring out her strongest points.

She spoke an hour and during that time her auditors never moved a muscle and she gave some of the old sinners who think that their mission for doing Christ's work ends at the Sunday evening service to be taken up the next Sunday morning, some thought provokers.

The lecture Bureau is to be congratulated for departing from the regular course into which all such organizations run into and giving the people a chance to be paid for the time spent in listening which is worse than thrown away setting down and listening to "A Model O'd Maid" and kindred subjects.

The Atlantic Monthly.

Conspicuous among the contents of the December Atlantic is another of John Fisk's historical studies. It has for a title The Starving Time in Old Virginia, and is an important historical contribution as well as delightful reading.

This issue also contains three short stories: Witchcraft, by L. Dougall; The End of the Terror, by Robert Wilson; and Dorothy, by Harriet Lewis Brailly.

Other articles of interest are A New England Woodpile, an outdoor sketch by Rowland E. Robinson; The Defeat of the Spanish Armada, by W. F. Tilton; An Idler on Missionary Ridge, a Tennessee sketch, by Bradford Torrey; Being a Typewriter, a discussion of the relation of the machine to literature, by Lucy C. Bull; Notes from a Travelling Diary, a study of the new Japan by Lafcadio Hearn; and To a Friend in Politics, an anonymous letter.

There are further chapters in Gilbert Parker's powerful serial, The Seats of the Mighty, and two poems of unexpected quality, The Song of a Shepherd-Boy at Bethlehem, by Josephine Preston Peabody, and The Hamdrayad, by Edward A. Ullington Valentine.

Book Reviews and the usual department complete the issue.
