NO. 11.

BERT STREIGEL SET FREE.

The Murder Theory Against the Husband of Bessie Sparr-Streigel Unproved and Case Dismissed.

A special dispatch from Boulder, Col., in the Denver News of Sunday tells of the dismissal of the case of wife murder against Bert Streigel. Mrs. Streigel was Miss Bessie Sparr before her marriage and lived with her parents in Goodland at one time, and the circumstances surrounding her sad death, which occurred August 22 last, are fresh in the minds of readers of The Republic. The dispatch follows: "Bert Streigel, accused of wife murder, was to-night discharged from custody. The prosecution failed to prove that Bessie Streigel was poisoned or that her death was due to any unnatural cause.

"Two witnesses occupied the entire attention of the court to-day. Dr. Batey occupied the witness stand during the morning session. His testimony as to the general appearance of the room and the condition of Mr. and Mrs. Streigel corroborated the former witnesses in the case. He was principally questioned, however, in regard to morphine poisoning and its effects. A long series of questions brought out the fact that in his opinion the woman died from unnatural causes and probably from the effects of some irritant poison, but he could not swear that he died from morphine poisoning, although he had conducted the post-mortem examination.

"In the afternoon Dr. Charles Skeele Palmer, professor of chemistry at the state university, told of the chemical analysis of the contents of the stomach of the dead woman as made by him. In spite of the searching examination he would not admit that he had found poison but declared that the traces of it, if any such existed, were so faint that he would not swear that he had really discovered any.

"At this point counsel for defendant moved to dismiss the case on the ground that the corpus delicti had not been shown. They assumed that inasmuch as Bess Streigel was not proved to have died from unnatural causes that no murder was shown to have been committed. The question was argued to-night before Judge Bennett and he took the matter under advisement. At a late hour to-night he granted the motion and Streigel was discharged."

Broom Corn Brings Good Prices

A carload of broom corn was brought into Goodland by farmers this week and sold to L. M. Hollingsworth, a buyer of Sterling, Kan., the price ranging from $60 to $70 per ton. The broom corn was all grown in Sherman county.

In Cheyenne county Hollingsworth picked up 15 carloads. Other buyers upwards of Voltaire township, hauled his broom corn to St. Francis where he received $85 per ton, it having been contracted for some time ago.

Potatoes Down a Dollar.

Potatoes are being sold in Goodland by the retail dealers at $1 per bushel, a reduction of a dollar on a bushel from what they were selling at a few weeks ago. The supply which the merchants now have on hand came from Ramah and Peyton, Col., a potato district that is fast pushing the famous Greeley section for first place. Thorson's grocery sold a carload in two days last week and other dealers done nearly as well. A good many people layed in a supply, thinking that the spuds may take another jump to the two dollar mark.

Land Increasing in Value.

It is the prediction of the local real estate men that by the first of January it will be impossible to buy a quarter section of land in Sherman county for less than $500. Lands are being picked up rapidly and buyers are here from the east nearly every day. Some of these investors are from as far east as New York, others from Illinois and Iowa and many from all sections of the great state of Kansas.

Ed Fender Sold His Farm.

Ed Fender sold his farm in Logan township Tuesday to Wesley Taylor, of Russell county. He is a brother of the three Taylor brothers from Russell county who located in Logan township the first of September. The four brothers will be in the same neighborhood in this county. Fender will devote his entire time hereafter to the managing of the Rhine skimming station.

Sold Big Bunch of Cattle.

C. N. Marsh, a stock man living on the Beaver, sold 140 head of two-year-old steers to Lowe & Liken, of Atlantic City, Ia., last week. They averaged in weight about 1,000 pounds each and for 100 steers Marsh received $35 per head and 40 were sold at the rate of $30 per head. The bunch brought $4,700.

Ohio Man Buys Horses Here.

G. F. Sater, of West Unity, Ohio, bought 22 head of horses in the county last week at an average of $70 per head. The horses were of all grades and prices ranged from $30 to $80. The horses were shipped to Ohio and left Sunday morning.

TALE OF A PAIR OF PANTS.

The Man That Arose Early Believed That the Early Bird Got the Best Clothes—Now a Jail Bird.

F. M. Smith, a wanderer who says his home is in Omaha, was given accommodations at the Commercial hotel Tuesday night and assigned to a room with Albert Ford, the man who had his feet crushed at Peyton, Col., last week while beating his way on a passenger train.

Smith seems to be an early riser, at least he got up before his room mate awoke, and when Ford started to dress his pants and vest were missing, and in their place were older and more worn garments. Marshal Schell was notified and Smith was found wearing the pants and vest. He was brought before Prosecuting Attorney Andrews and upon being questioned said he was drunk and unable to distinguish between his clothes and Ford's, and accidentally got the wrong pants and vest. Smith was arraigned before Justice Robinson Wednesday morning and plead guilty but asked for clemency on the ground that it was his first offense and he wanted to go home.

Justice Robinson told the prisoner that he didn't know whether it was the first or thirty-first offense, whereupon he gave Smith ten days in jail.

An Excellent Concert.

Only a fair audience was present at the opera house Wednesday night to hear the concert given by Petrowitch Bissing, violinist, and Anna Beatrice Harts, vocalist, but they were treated to a programme of refined music throughout rendered in an excellent manner. That the audience was almost entirely made up of the music loving was shown by the enthusiasm greeting each number, and Prof. Bissing and Miss Harts responded to numerous encores.

The touch of the artist is shown in Prof. Bissing's playing; his tone is rich and his execution perfect. Miss Harts sings with ease, her voice is musical and of good range, and her interpretation very satisfactory.

A Y. M. C. A. for Goodland.

An effort will be made to form a branch of the Young Men's Christian association in Goodland. Andrew Baird, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will be in Goodland November 24 and a meeting will be held at the opera house and the secretary will present the features and benefits of the society, after which steps will be taken to form a local branch. It is proposed to make the organization in Goodland more exclusively of railway men, but those that do not toil for a railroad will not be excluded from membership if they wish to join. If the society meets with favor here a reading room, gymnasium and other features are among the possibilities.

William Jupe a Rural Mail Carrier.

The carrying of the Charlotte mail from Goodland is being temporarily performed by William Jupe. The subcontract, which was held by the late Joseph Walker, has been cancelled by the postoffice department and Postmaster Scott has secured Jupe to carry the mail until the original contractor, who lives in Denver, comes and makes other arrangements. The service is tri weekly.

Rev. Dixon Is Dead.

Rev. J. A. T. Dixon, who held the pastorate of the Congregational church in Goodland for a short time in 1899, died at the home of a daughter in Banker Hill, Kan., October 21. Rev. Dixon was buried at Atwood, where he formerly lived for many years and was pastor of the Congregational church. He was 73 years of age.

W. H. Stone intends to feed out a couple of cars of heavy steers this fall. He now has them on wheat pasture and will shortly put them on fall feed. Mr. Stone raised a fine crop of corn this year and will have plenty for feeding purposes.

The Goodland postoffice has undergone improvements that are a substantial betterment of the premises. Forty-eight boxes for newspapers have been added. Overhead partitions have been put in which will make the office more comfortable during cold weather.

PERSONAL NOTES.

W. R. Morton was in Denver this week. Mrs. G. L. Calvert is spending the week with friends near Edson. L. L. Hotchkiss, of St. Francis was in Goodland Wednesday.

F. L. Curwin and wife, of Pueblo, were at the Depot hotel Wednesday. The Round Table club will meet with Mrs. A. C. Adams next Wednesday. Mrs. E. F. Tennant is in White Cloud, Kan., for a visit with relatives.

A. P. Tone Wilson, of Colby, an attorney at law, was in town Wednesday. John Greene, the well known traveling man, was in town this week for the first time since last June.

Emma Richardson, of Stuart, Ia., was registered at the Depot hotel Wednesday. Josiah Crosby, of St. Francis, was in Goodland Wednesday on his way to Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Andrews, living near Brewster, are the parents of a girl, born October 20. S. S. Hockett, of Sterling, Kan., a broom corn buyer, was at the Commercial hotel Wednesday.

Chet Marsh and wife, of Sherman township, were guests at the Commercial hotel Wednesday. James N. Fike, of Colby, member of the state board of railroad commissioners, was in town Monday.

E. Mersinger, of Lincoln Center, was a Goodland visitor this week. He is agent for a cream separator. O. L. Lucas, of Baldwin, Kan., was in Goodland Thursday. He went out to Edson to see Henry Geyer.

Miss Estella Filer and Mrs. Sullivan have opened a dressmaking parlor in rooms in the Herron building. Mrs. L. Jewell, of Roswell, Col., formerly of this city, is in town the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. J. Denney.

A. R. Crandall has fitted up a rig and will leave overland for eastern Kansas and Nebraska next week. C. M. Sawyer, a banker of Norton, in company with J. R. Barrow, of Smith Center, were in the city yesterday.

George Kerns, of Wilton, Ia., was in Goodland Wednesday. He is looking for cattle as feeders to ship to Iowa. Mrs. Jennie Walker, department president of the Woman's Relief Corps, is away this week inspecting lodges.

Ernest White has returned from Colby where he conducted a barber shop during the absence of the owner. G. H. Woodhouse, of Wilton Junction, Ia., was in town Wednesday. He is a son of Col. Woodhouse, of Sharon Springs.

Thomas Cole, of Cloverdale, Putnam county, Ia., is here looking after his real estate interests. He purchased the Barnett place, near Kanorado, last spring. Mrs. J. B. Penn left Friday night for Mounds, I. T., where Mr. Penn had preceded her and where they will make their home.

C. S. Cox, representative of the Kansas City branch of the Alhewer-Busch Brewing association, spent Sunday in Goodland. Glen Filer has returned from several months' absence in Oklahoma where he has been working at the carpenter trade.

W. C. Dunham, of Battle Creek Mich., was in Goodland Thursday. He is looking for stock in anticipation of starting a ranch near Burlington Col. C. M. Nuiguet, of Osborne, Kan., was in the city Tuesday on business connected with a real estate deal. He is looking over the county for parties in Osborne with view of purchasing land.

D. A. Watson, of Lebanon, Smith county, is in town, accompanied by his wife, and may locate in the county and engage in the cattle industry. He is an old friend and acquaintance of J. A. Trent. Willard Simmons, of Norton, formerly of this city, was here last week for a visit with his father and mother who live near Ruleton. He was accompanied by his wife and baby. They returned to their home in Norton the first of the week.

A. A. Bower and family left Sunday for Norton where they will make their home in the future. Dell has been in charge of the Bower furniture store in Goodland for the past 11 years, and he goes to Norton to engage in the hardware business with his brother, Frank Bower.

E. E. Wilson, of Belle Plain, Sumner county, Kan., was in Goodland Thursday. He shipped in four carloads of cows, 65 head of which were Galo-way. He also brought in two registered Galoway bulls. The stock will be placed on the ranch of the Sumner-Sherman Cattle company on the Smoky, recently purchased of Frank Dawson.

A. H. Baker, of Cheyenne county, was in Goodland Thursday. He was here for the purpose of getting a copy of the constitution and bylaws of the Sherman County Stock Growers' association as a guide to the formation of a similar organization in Cheyenne county. He said the cattle men were trying to crowd the settlers out of the county.

Rev. E. C. Smith, who has been a student of the Moody bible institute in Chicago, and later been spending some time in Indiana and eastern Kansas, will return to his home in this county in a few days. Rev. Smith has been absent several months, accompanied by his family. It is said that owing to failing health he will give up the ministry and engage in the cattle industry. He has considerable land in the county and will add more to his holdings in order to have abundant range for his herds.

Our lines of men's suits at $10 to $15 will compare with suits shown up in any market.—Millisack. Go to Millisack's for any kind or style of work and dress gloves.

The new century business at the Wizard's is away ahead of that of 1900.

RAILROAD SPIKES.

Brakeman Kirk Walters has quit. Roadmaster W. E. Bogart was here Tuesday. Fireman Page spent a few days in Horton the past week.

Conductor S. R. Goode is laying off owing to a sprained arm. Andrew Frydendall is back at his old place as day clerk at the Depot hotel. A. A. Graham, of Topeka, an adjuster for the Rock Island, was in the city Friday.

Conductor Wickersham will report for work to-day after a few weeks' vacation. Fireman John Lee, of the Limon-Denver run, is spending a few days in Goodland.

Fireman "Count" McGuire is laying off nursing an injured finger on his right hand. Engine 806, Engineer Coats, broke an eccentric strap near Claremont on the other day.

Trainmaster John Boyle went to Pueblo Tuesday on business connected with his office. Walter Gordon, machinists' apprentice, has quit and has returned to his home in Topeka.

Dan Derby is erecting an addition to his house 20x20. W. L. White is doing the carpenter work. A heavy rain fell along the line of the Rock Island east and south of Belleville Wednesday night.

H. D. Lavery, operator at Limon, has resigned and has been relieved by Operator Williams, of Chicago. The Roswell switch engine, No. 62, was turned out of the Goodland shops Wednesday after undergoing thorough overhaul.

Brakeman J. E. Linsley has returned from several weeks' stay in Kansas City and is back on his car with Conductor Farley. Work was commenced on the steel work of the stand pipe Wednesday morning. The steel is all here and the work is progressing rapidly.

Al Prewitt has given up his position with the Dawson store and has taken the place of caller of engine crews on the night force in place of Jim Woods, who will work in the shops. Clyde Harper takes Prewitt's place at Dawson's.

Thirteen cars of cattle, one car of horses and one car of broom corn were shipped east from Goodland Sunday morning. Fifteen cars of stock were shipped from Colby Tuesday. The cattle being shipped east are generally feeders.

Operator W. L. Ekel is very sick in Colorado Springs with mountain fever. He was taken ill here but went to the Springs where he has friends. He is temporarily relieved by J. H. Fields, of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, at Hannibal, Mo.

Six carloads of material for the new ice house and switch have arrived at Smith Center. No work is scheduled to be done on the switch until the middle of the month, but the ice house will probably be erected at the lake at Smith Center at once.

Engineer Dave Pringle, recently discharged from the Rock Island at this point for breaking up a caboose at Limon the other day, has caught a regular engine on the Missouri Pacific out of Pueblo. Mr. Pringle is a first-class engineer and his friends at this point are glad to hear of his good fortune.

The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific road will let contracts this week for $3,000,000 of construction work on the cut off from Eldon, Ia., to Trenton, Mo. The new line will be 35 miles long and will be a reduction of 35 miles in distance from Chicago to the southwest. It will do away with numerous curves and grades.

Art Wells, at one time employed as lunch counter boy at the Ohmer, but now in the back shops at Goodland, came down Sunday morning and spent two days in this city. Conductor Hubbard's wife and little daughter came down from Goodland Monday morning for a day's visit in this city.—Phillipsburg News.

Cornelius Vanderbilt, who accompanied the Rock Island inspection party, does not look the money prince that he is. While neatly dressed, he was probably the most indifferent man as to his apparel in the party. The young man is a natural mechanic and is the inventor of a fire box and boiler, having entered the shops of the New York Central railroad when his father sent him off with $5,000.00 for marrying Miss Grace Wilson, who was several years his senior. Mr. Vanderbilt takes a great deal of interest in mechanics, and when the special train went west from Goodland he rode on the engine.

FALL 1901. We are doing the largest business in our history. We have made preparations to do a big business this fall. New fall goods are coming in, and we can show you the correct goods and name prices that will interest you to buy. It surely will pay you to come in and see us.—C. M. Millisack.

Residence Property For Sale. Residence known as Greenhill property for sale. Inquire of Mrs. Louise S. Jordan, at Kellogg's rooming house. Billy Ennis wants a telephone "hello" girl. Applicants should apply to him personally.

The Bower & Sons furniture store has an "Angelus" automatic piano player. It is a very ingenious device. Charley Dindra, of Grant township, has a large acreage of corn that is shucking out better than 35 bushels per acre.

E. F. Murphy's office in the M. Robinson building has been plastered, papered and painted and presents a neat appearance. Murphy's removal to the office across the street was only temporary, or until the repairs could be made.

ON A TOUR OF INSPECTION.

The Officials and Directors of the Rock Island Go Over the Road—Cornelius Vanderbilt a Guest of the Party.

A Rock Island special of seven cars bearing the directors and officials of the road on their annual tour of inspection, came into Goodland Saturday morning at 10:45. After a trip around the machine shops, round house and depot the party boarded the train and left at 11:15 for Colorado Springs and Denver.

Cornelius Vanderbilt was with the party as a guest of Ogden Mills of New York, one of the directors of the system. Others among the party were: E. R. Cable, chairman of the board of directors; W. G. Purdy, president of the system; H. A. Parker, vice president; John Sebastian, general passenger agent; A. J. Hitt; general manager; A. R. Swift, superintendent of telegraph; W. M. Hobbs, general superintendent; W. E. Dauby, chief engineer; G. F. Wilson, superintendent of motive power, and the following directors: D. R. Reid, W. B. Leeds, George H. Brewster, A. K. Flower, Ogden Mills, New York; W. H. Moore, Chicago; F. H. Griggs, Davenport.

Engineer George Kelly pulled the special from Phillipsburg to Goodland, and Engineer D. Hataway with the 804 took the train from here to Colorado Springs, Denver and back to Phillipsburg, passing through Goodland on the return trip Sunday night. Conductor Edwards was in charge of the train over the entire division, and Trainmaster John Boyle, General Foreman A. C. Adams and Superintendent F. C. Smith accompanied the party west from Phillipsburg and return. Traveling Engineer W. W. Leaman was with the officials on the tour of all lines west of the river. The inspection party went over the new line to Dalhart, Tex., and returned to Chicago by way of Ft. Worth and the Oklahoma lines.
