

MUNSON & McNAMARA

123 and 125 Main Street.

GRAND EXPOSITION

AT THE

Largest Dry Goods House

IN THIS CITY.

Bargains in Every Department for FAIR WEEK.

Special early opening of High Class Exclusive Styles in

Silks, Plushes, Dress Goods

AND

FINE WRAPS

All Visitors in the City are invited to our establishment whether they intend to purchase or not.

MUNSON & McNAMARA,

123 and 125 Main Street.

Philadelphia Store

Corner Douglas av. and Market St.

The Fastest On Record.

Electric Prices

APPLIED TO

Blankets, Bed Comforts and Domestic Goods.

Sheetings, Shirtings, Tiekings, Prints, Cheviots, Sateens, Blankets, Bed Comforts, Etc. Etc.

Far Below What They

Cost the Men who Made Them

A WINDFALL

For Hotel Keepers, Boarding-House Keepers, Restaurant Keepers, Room Keepers, and others who are now Refurnishing.

Twenty Tons of Above Goods on Sale This Week.

A. KATZ.

S. W. Corner Douglas Ave. and Main St.

THE GALATEA WINNER.

The Great Race Between the Grey Hounds of the Sea.

Though Really a Floating Match, was Won by the British Cutter Galatea Which Drifted Across the Line in the Dark—A Very Tame Affair.

A Jolly Time with the Jockey Jockeys Some Fine Races—A St. Louis Exposition Event.

The Scientific Spar for Points Between Sullivan and Heard Ended in Ground Scuffle.

The International Sculling Match on the Thames for £1000 and Championship won by Beach.

Weather Report. WASHINGTON, Sept. 18, 1 a. m.—Indications for Illinois and Missouri: fair weather, in southern portion, local rains, followed by fair weather in northern portion, stationary temperature, variable winds, generally southeasterly.

For Kansas: generally fair, weather, nearly stationary temperature.

MARITIME MUSEMENT. Great International Yacht Race Run Off Newport, R. I.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 18.—10:15 a. m.—Wind blowing north by west twenty miles an hour but gradually dying out. Day clear and pleasant with prospects of a good race. The yachts will start about 11 o'clock. The yacht race is for the citizens cup in which the Mayflower, Puritan and Galatea are entered; it is the event of the day. There are four prizes, one each for the schooners for sloops and cutters over fifty feet and over for sloops and cutters under fifty feet; the race to be sailed under the rules of the New York yacht club. The course is triangular, about forty-five miles long, starting from the vicinity of Brenton's Reef lightship. Following is the list of competitors.

Schooners—Galatea, Mantauk, Sachem, Miranda.

First-class sloops—Mayflower, Galatea, and Puritan.

Second-class sloops—Bedouin, Stranger, Theis.

Third-class sloops—Cinderella, Clara, Bertie.

It proved a most disappointing affair and degenerated into a floating match, the result depending largely on luck in catching cap fulls of breeze, and to add to the anomaly of the whole affair, the first-class cup was won by the English cutter Galatea, whose only hope of doing anything against shallow American skimming dishes has all along been predicated upon her ability to get out in a race with them in a stiff wind.

Furthermore, the great "Grey hounds of the sea," both English and American, were outdistanced by the smaller fellow's drifting. On the second scratch the Puritan lost ground to several of the little fellows, and was overhauled by the Galatea. The Galatea was first to round the West Island buoy, and all the others were from two to five miles astern, and at the time of this writing neither at West Island nor at the finish is obtainable.

At midnight Commodore Gerry gives the probable winners, subject to claims of tools, as follows: Galatea, Stranger, Gitanita and Cinderella. They finished in darkness between the hours of 8 and 10:30.

NEWPORT, Sept. 18.—The course of today's race was changed this morning from the line drawn between the buoy off Brenton and the Galatea's anchor, to the southward of it, and around Hed and Chickens lightship, leaving it on the starboard hand, thence to and around Pig's lightship, leaving it on starboard; thence to southward of it between the lightship and flag.

10:40.—The yachts crossed the line in the following order: Clara, Miranda, Galatea, Theis and Sachem; the Mayflower crossed at 10:45, Galatea 10:52, Puritan 10:59, Bedouin 11:05, Galatea 11:10, Puritan 11:16, Puritan 11:16.

Narragansett Pier.—The following received by honing pigeons: 11:20 a. m.—The Puritan gaining, Galatea still in the lead, Mayflower not gaining on Miranda. 11:35.—The Sachem is abreast of the Miranda.

New York, 12:40 p. m.—The Puritan is gaining on the Galatea, but the latter has a good lead. The Mayflower does not seem to be gaining.

1:10 p. m.—Wind getting very light, the race cannot be finished by daylight unless it freshens.

POINT JUDITH, R. I., 2:15 p. m.—The Mayflower rounded the buoy off Block Island at 1:24 p. m.

NEWPORT, 4:38 p. m.—The yachts are now about five miles from the lightship and coming before the wind. The Mayflower is in the lead and to windward. The Puritan is second, the Galatea third.

4:10 p. m.—The sloop Bertie passed Point Judith at 3:40 p. m. The Galatea is about three miles behind her and is apparently the next last.

Newport.—The wind has continued to fall and there has been a dead calm for some hours. The small yachts hugged Point Judith and got some wind; as a result they led the big sloops by several miles.

At last report the Galatea has had the best of position, was five miles ahead of the Puritan and Mayflower.

There is no time limit to the race, at best it cannot be finished for several hours. It is reported the Puritan is coming in to Newport. Darkness shuts out all further view.

4:35 p. m.—The Puritan has a slight lead and to the windward position closely pushed by the Mayflower. The Galatea is in line and far to windward.

The Races. LOUISVILLE, Sept. 18.—The sixth and last day of the fall meeting was well attended; the weather was pleasant, the track in good condition.

First race—purse $300, $50 to second, three-quarter mile, selling, starters: Melanchol Arch-Bishop, Monarch, Bertie Wilson, Henrietta, Vulcan, Ovid, Bob Swimm, Tchauptoulas, Mary Porter, Ovid won rather easily, Swimm 2d, Monarch 3d.

Second race—half mile, Sanford stakes, 2-year-olds, starters: Nellie L, Jauber, Clarion, Alimony, Nick Finzer, Banyan, Insolence, Catalpa, Tom Wood, Finzer won a neck and a half, Nellie L second, half a length in front, Tom Wood; time 1:45 3/4.

Third race—yearlings, selling, purse $300, $50 to second, three-year-olds and upward, starters: Dan, Dancing Kid, Violator, Ulimatum, John Sullivan, War Sign, Taxgatherer. Coming into the stretch Taxgatherer first only by one and one-half lengths, Sullivan second, Dancing Kid 3d, time 1:58 3/4. Violator pulled up lame.

Fourth race—Gee mile, purse $300, $50 to second, water weights, starters: Warrington, Long May, Dark Ball, Little Fellow, Grant G, Tom Ballow, Lizzie Carter, Schobloff, Feller Brock, Warrington won easily by a length, Schobloff second, Little Fellow 3d, time 1:47.

Fifth race—1 1/4 miles, free handicap, sweepstakes, for 2-year-olds and upward, starters: The Slashes, Hopedale, Macola, Sour Mash, Flor L, Panka, Hopedale won easily by a length, Schobloff second, Little Fellow 3d, time 2:11 1/2.

Sixth race—2:20 class was won by Nina in straight heats, Joe S. 2d; time 2:27 1/2, 2:28 1/2, 2:30.

SEVENHILLS, Sept. 18.—Winners: Malle McCarty, Last, Mona, Lucky, B. Grisette, Estralland, Becky B.

THE GRAND FINAL. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 18.—Today closed a successful week at the fair grounds. The weather has been favorable and the attendance has been good from first to last.

The unfinished running race, half mile heats, was decided today in favor of Lady Parish, Gray Elsie second; time 52 3/4.

Class 2:34, trotting, $500. White Stockings..... 5 1 1 Governor Wood..... 2 2 2 Light Bird..... 4 2 4 Robert Rysdyke..... 3 3 3 Diamond..... 5 4 5 Time 2:34 1/2, 2:35 1/2, 2:36 1/2.

Class 2:40, trotting, $500. Trouble..... 1 1 1 St. Nicholas..... 4 2 3 Daisy Garret..... 8 4 4 Strangemar..... 3 4 4 Edwin J..... 3 6 7 Sushier..... 5 7 5 Barney Williams..... 7 8 8 Time 2:45 1/2, 2:46 1/2, 2:47 1/2.

Trotting race, 2-year-olds, $200, was declared off.

Consolation purse, $400, 2 miles: Jessie J first, Joe Lodge second, Panola and Kildare distanced; time 4:42.

Running race, 2-year-olds, mile dash, $300, divided. Vivian won, Grace D second, W Davis third, Seaman's Filly fourth; time 1:48 1/2.

THE DAILY BRUISER. Sullivan Knocks Heard Out in Two Rounds.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 18.—The contest between John L. Sullivan and Frank Heard, which was the sole feature for scientific points, and in which each principal was pledged not to hurt the other, was commenced in the Coliseum in Allegheny City tonight and proved to be what was generally expected—a desperate fight for the prize money. The men were yet struggling in a desperate embrace in the second round when Chief of Police Murphy with half a dozen officers ran on to the stage, pulled the furious combatants apart and declared the match ended. Then the referee gave the fight to Sullivan and 300 people howled with delight at the announcement of the result of the contest.

The air of Pittsburg has been thicker today than at any time since the discovery, and general use of natural gas, not with the old-time smoke, however, but with pallidism. Everybody has been talking about the great fight, the contest that was to settle an aching doubt in the minds of the American people as to whether John L. Sullivan was invincible, or whether the comparatively unknown gladiator from Philadelphia, Frank Heard, possessed the skill, backed up by pluck, to plant his fist on Mr. Sullivan's carcass often enough to score a majority of thumps, playfully called points, with the proneness of humanity to accept as gospel what they know rather than to pin their faith on what is only claimed to be true. Most of those who expressed an opinion at all, gave it in favor of Sullivan.

John is a big burly, and has thrashed a score or so already, and why should he not knock the head off Heard?

Six rounds, four ounce gloves, for scientific points only, was passed from month to month with significant grins. No knocking out—of course not; but it is safe to say that of the 3,000 people in the Coliseum when Sullivan and Heard took their corners, there were not a hundred who had not paid their $2 in the expectation of seeing one of these staggering exhibitions which the gentle John has made so popular. Even John himself had tacitly acquiesced with a knowing smile to audible conjectures made in his presence as to the likelihood of his knocking out Heard for his tormenting of the latter's men at all.

As to Heard he confessed that he had nothing to say until after the contest.

The immense coliseum with its capacity of 5,000 people was thrown open at 7 o'clock and the crowd that had been clamoring around the door for an hour had a rush. Two dollars admission and $7 reserved seats was evidently not an exorbitant rate in the eyes of Pittsburgers, and a thousand people were in the hall as quick as they could buy tickets. The audience was a miscellaneous one and comprised besides a large delegation of the "fancy," many solid citizens who all day long had been sitting in banks and mercantile offices in solemn dignity.

At 9 o'clock they shook hands. Heard seemed afraid of Sullivan and sprang for refuge to the cellar, from which he was dragged out by pluck, to plant his fist on Mr. Sullivan's carcass often enough to score a majority of thumps, playfully called points, with the proneness of humanity to accept as gospel what they know rather than to pin their faith on what is only claimed to be true. Most of those who expressed an opinion at all, gave it in favor of Sullivan.

John is a big burly, and has thrashed a score or so already, and why should he not knock the head off Heard?

Six rounds, four ounce gloves, for scientific points only, was passed from month to month with significant grins. No knocking out—of course not; but it is safe to say that of the 3,000 people in the Coliseum when Sullivan and Heard took their corners, there were not a hundred who had not paid their $2 in the expectation of seeing one of these staggering exhibitions which the gentle John has made so popular. Even John himself had tacitly acquiesced with a knowing smile to audible conjectures made in his presence as to the likelihood of his knocking out Heard for his tormenting of the latter's men at all.

As to Heard he confessed that he had nothing to say until after the contest.

The immense coliseum with its capacity of 5,000 people was thrown open at 7 o'clock and the crowd that had been clamoring around the door for an hour had a rush. Two dollars admission and $7 reserved seats was evidently not an exorbitant rate in the eyes of Pittsburgers, and a thousand people were in the hall as quick as they could buy tickets. The audience was a miscellaneous one and comprised besides a large delegation of the "fancy," many solid citizens who all day long had been sitting in banks and mercantile offices in solemn dignity.

At 9 o'clock they shook hands. Heard seemed afraid of Sullivan and sprang for refuge to the cellar, from which he was dragged out by pluck, to plant his fist on Mr. Sullivan's carcass often enough to score a majority of thumps, playfully called points, with the proneness of humanity to accept as gospel what they know rather than to pin their faith on what is only claimed to be true. Most of those who expressed an opinion at all, gave it in favor of Sullivan.

John is a big burly, and has thrashed a score or so already, and why should he not knock the head off Heard?

Six rounds, four ounce gloves, for scientific points only, was passed from month to month with significant grins. No knocking out—of course not; but it is safe to say that of the 3,000 people in the Coliseum when Sullivan and Heard took their corners, there were not a hundred who had not paid their $2 in the expectation of seeing one of these staggering exhibitions which the gentle John has made so popular. Even John himself had tacitly acquiesced with a knowing smile to audible conjectures made in his presence as to the likelihood of his knocking out Heard for his tormenting of the latter's men at all.

As to Heard he confessed that he had nothing to say until after the contest.

The immense coliseum with its capacity of 5,000 people was thrown open at 7 o'clock and the crowd that had been clamoring around the door for an hour had a rush. Two dollars admission and $7 reserved seats was evidently not an exorbitant rate in the eyes of Pittsburgers, and a thousand people were in the hall as quick as they could buy tickets. The audience was a miscellaneous one and comprised besides a large delegation of the "fancy," many solid citizens who all day long had been sitting in banks and mercantile offices in solemn dignity.

At 9 o'clock they shook hands. Heard seemed afraid of Sullivan and sprang for refuge to the cellar, from which he was dragged out by pluck, to plant his fist on Mr. Sullivan's carcass often enough to score a majority of thumps, playfully called points, with the proneness of humanity to accept as gospel what they know rather than to pin their faith on what is only claimed to be true. Most of those who expressed an opinion at all, gave it in favor of Sullivan.

John is a big burly, and has thrashed a score or so already, and why should he not knock the head off Heard?

Six rounds, four ounce gloves, for scientific points only, was passed from month to month with significant grins. No knocking out—of course not; but it is safe to say that of the 3,000 people in the Coliseum when Sullivan and Heard took their corners, there were not a hundred who had not paid their $2 in the expectation of seeing one of these staggering exhibitions which the gentle John has made so popular. Even John himself had tacitly acquiesced with a knowing smile to audible conjectures made in his presence as to the likelihood of his knocking out Heard for his tormenting of the latter's men at all.

As to Heard he confessed that he had nothing to say until after the contest.

The immense coliseum with its capacity of 5,000 people was thrown open at 7 o'clock and the crowd that had been clamoring around the door for an hour had a rush. Two dollars admission and $7 reserved seats was evidently not an exorbitant rate in the eyes of Pittsburgers, and a thousand people were in the hall as quick as they could buy tickets. The audience was a miscellaneous one and comprised besides a large delegation of the "fancy," many solid citizens who all day long had been sitting in banks and mercantile offices in solemn dignity.

At 9 o'clock they shook hands. Heard seemed afraid of Sullivan and sprang for refuge to the cellar, from which he was dragged out by pluck, to plant his fist on Mr. Sullivan's carcass often enough to score a majority of thumps, playfully called points, with the proneness of humanity to accept as gospel what they know rather than to pin their faith on what is only claimed to be true. Most of those who expressed an opinion at all, gave it in favor of Sullivan.

John is a big burly, and has thrashed a score or so already, and why should he not knock the head off Heard?

Six rounds, four ounce gloves, for scientific points only, was passed from month to month with significant grins. No knocking out—of course not; but it is safe to say that of the 3,000 people in the Coliseum when Sullivan and Heard took their corners, there were not a hundred who had not paid their $2 in the expectation of seeing one of these staggering exhibitions which the gentle John has made so popular. Even John himself had tacitly acquiesced with a knowing smile to audible conjectures made in his presence as to the likelihood of his knocking out Heard for his tormenting of the latter's men at all.

As to Heard he confessed that he had nothing to say until after the contest.

The immense coliseum with its capacity of 5,000 people was thrown open at 7 o'clock and the crowd that had been clamoring around the door for an hour had a rush. Two dollars admission and $7 reserved seats was evidently not an exorbitant rate in the eyes of Pittsburgers, and a thousand people were in the hall as quick as they could buy tickets. The audience was a miscellaneous one and comprised besides a large delegation of the "fancy," many solid citizens who all day long had been sitting in banks and mercantile offices in solemn dignity.

At 9 o'clock they shook hands. Heard seemed afraid of Sullivan and sprang for refuge to the cellar, from which he was dragged out by pluck, to plant his fist on Mr. Sullivan's carcass often enough to score a majority of thumps, playfully called points, with the proneness of humanity to accept as gospel what they know rather than to pin their faith on what is only claimed to be true. Most of those who expressed an opinion at all, gave it in favor of Sullivan.

John is a big burly, and has thrashed a score or so already, and why should he not knock the head off Heard?

Six rounds, four ounce gloves, for scientific points only, was passed from month to month with significant grins. No knocking out—of course not; but it is safe to say that of the 3,000 people in the Coliseum when Sullivan and Heard took their corners, there were not a hundred who had not paid their $2 in the expectation of seeing one of these staggering exhibitions which the gentle John has made so popular. Even John himself had tacitly acquiesced with a knowing smile to audible conjectures made in his presence as to the likelihood of his knocking out Heard for his tormenting of the latter's men at all.

As to Heard he confessed that he had nothing to say until after the contest.

could be done with terrible effect. Sullivan evinced the most desire to begin; he made several feints at Heard but the latter, lithe and active as a cat, got away and danced around the big man in a most aggravating manner. Sullivan was evidently getting mad, but Heard's face was as expressionless as a whitewashed fence. John could not stand it any longer. He made one of his famous rushes and sent a fearful header into Heard's stomach. Heard countered rapidly on the chest but got another one in the nose that sent him flying across the ring; but the Philadelphia pugilist was not to be so easily thrown away at the champion but with little effect, certainly, but with remarkably good intentions. There was no doubt now about the character of the contest. Sullivan meant to knock out his man if he could. The two fought wild for perhaps a minute and then clinched. There was some desperate hitting and Heard was forced over the ropes.

The referee—Break break away. But there was no break in the now maddened fighters, and amid the yelling of the crowd the pugilists were pulled apart by their attendants and forced struggling into their chairs.

The time was 2:34 minutes and Heard shook himself loose, while he was being sponged and rubbed down. He did not look much the worse for the rough handling he had received, and Sullivan was not hurt, but he was very, very mad. He had evidently found more powers of resistance in the Philadelphia boy than he expected.

The second round opened with cautious sparring and Sullivan was wary and Heard a little apprehensive of the giant's rushes. This time Heard was the attacking party. He had made up his mind that he must first knock out his man for a supreme effort and with an upper cut under the chin sent Heard flat on his back, an actual knock down. Heard was up like a flash and they clinched. The fight had become a mere rough and tumble. Heard slipped and fell, and the chief of police and his officers rushed in and with difficulty separated the men. All was confusion and the pugilists were both anxious to get on and if the officers had not kept them apart they would have fought with the police on the stage. Sullivan made a dash for the representative of a New York paper and the latter reached toward his pistol pocket, but the police disarmed him and forced Sullivan into his chair. The referee then declared Sullivan winner, while Heard's lacker protested that his man was still anxious to fight. Sullivan made a dash for the press representatives, in which he complimented Heard for his pluck, boasted of his own "talent," and declared himself still ready to defend his title of champion against all the comers. It was the opinion tonight that Heard would stand better than McCruffery did at Cincinnati.

Great Sculling Race. LONDON, Sept. 18.—Beach today defeated Gaudaur in a sculling race. The match was for £1,000 and championship of the world.

Enormous crowds of people lined the banks of the river. There was made at 4:56 p. m., the men getting away well together. Beach immediately got a slight lead, and at the Star and Garter was a third of a length ahead, pulling thirty-seven strokes a minute and Gaudaur pulling thirty-five.

At the creek Gaudaur led by a third of a length. Beach spurred at the half mile tree; he led by half a length at the Craven carriage steps and was the same distance ahead at Crabtree. At Hammersmith beach was half length in front. His time to Hammersmith was 10 minutes and 4 seconds, the same distance in 9:43. At Biffen's Gaudaur began to decrease his opponent's lead, and at Cheswick was only half a length behind. By the time Thorny croft was reached Gaudaur was half length in front. Beach, and at the pumping station he was still slightly in the lead. Beach then stopped rowing and Gaudaur obtained a lead of two lengths. At Barnes' bridge Beach again spurred and going to the front, won by four lengths.

Beach's time was 5:05. It was a very fully hard race throughout. The weather was clear and cold with the wind from the northeast. The tide was good. Before the start the betting was five to one in favor of Beach.

Ball and Bat. KANSAS CITY, Sept. 18.—Chicago 9, Kansas City 3, Philadelphia—Cincinnati 2, Athletics 1, 12 Innings. St. Louis—Detroit 9, St. Louis 1, Denver—Denver 10, Leavenworth 3, Leavenworth—Leavenworth 2, Topeka 7, Baltimore—St. Louis 3, Baltimore 2, New York—Metz 15, Louisville 8, New York 5, Philadelphia 2, Pittsburgh 7, Brooklyn 4, Boston—Washington 11, Boston 3.

A Pleasant Event. ST. LOUIS, Sept. 18.—One of the most pleasing attractions of the exposition thus far during its present season was the concert in the large music hall this afternoon, given by a chorus of two thousand children. The voices were selected from among the best in the public schools and they had been thoroughly trained, separately, by the music teachers at each school, and collectively by the director, Professor Froelich.

An Illinois Cyclone. CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The Inter Ocean's John H. special says: About 8:30 this evening a cyclone struck the southern limits of this city. A dozen frame buildings were leveled to the ground.

John Buckley's house was blown to pieces. All the family escaped. Buckley took refuge in the cellar, from which he was dragged out badly injured.

A woman whose name could not be ascertained was taken out from the ruins of her home with her leg broken.

The large grain elevator of Mr. Carpenter on Eastern avenue and the office building near the same were totally ruined.

Most of the street lamps were extinguished by the storm and as that part of town is in total darkness it is hard to obtain facts.

Trip to Big Tupper. PRESIDENT HOUSE, N. Y., Sept. 18.—President Cleveland's party returned tonight from their fishing and hunting trip to Big Tupper Lake, bringing a three-pronged fork which they had secured after a hard morning's work. This is the first week day of the President's party in the Adirondacks and they have spent it in a delightful manner. It is with regret that they prepare to leave this charming spot on Monday.

PERTURBED EUROPE.

Russia Announces Bulgaria's Independence, and that She will Maintain it.

Kaiser Wilhelm III, but Able to Witness Army Maneuvers.

Cardinal Jacobini, Papal Secretary of State, Ill, and Great Anxiety Felt for the Outcome.

Hostile Arabs of the Sudan, Assembled in Force at Dongola and Threaten to Invade Egypt.

The New Lord Lieutenant of Ireland Makes His Grand Entree at Dublin with a Flourish.

OVER THE OCEAN. Ireland.

DUBLIN, Sept. 18.—The Marquis of Londonderry, the new viceroy of Ireland, arrived at Kingston early this morning. His voyage across the channel was pleasant. The arrival of the lord lieutenant was signalled by a royal salute. He will not land until noon, when he will proceed in state to Dublin Castle.

The state entry of the Marquis of Londonderry into Dublin was made with the usual official demonstration, but was devoid of incident. The marquis was accompanied by his wife, Lady Londonderry. They were received in Westland row by a crowd which cheered them. Both the marquis and Lady Londonderry proceeded to the station on horseback. Lady Londonderry, as a tribute to the people, wore a dress of white poplin. When the couple departed from the railway station they were greeted with cheers, followed by groans. The marquis recognized the greet- ing by lifting his hat and bowing with a smile to the crowd.

The entire route from the railway station to Dublin castle was lined with troops. Most of the buildings were decorated and the streets looked gay. The Hibernian bank building was conspicuous by its total lack of flags, hunting or decorations. Kill-dare street club house was filled with people. In Nassau street a banner with the inscription "The Queen and the Constitution" was displayed. During the progress of the vice-regal procession cheers nearly everywhere were accompanied by groans.

The vice-regal party was welcomed at the castle by a large crowd of loyalists who cheered heartily. There was also a hostile crowd there which did its best to offset the welcome by cheering loudly for Parnell and "United Ireland." The hostilities attempted to follow this up as the Marquis and Lady Londonderry entered the castle by singing "God Save Ireland," but the people rallied and put a stop to this.

Prussia. BERLIN, Sept. 18.—Emperor Wilhelm had a severe chill and is in feeble condition. He will not go to Metz.

STRASBURG, Sept. 18.—Emperor Wilhelm drove out today to the ground where the army maneuvers are being conducted.

Italy. ROME, Sept. 18.—Suici, the faster, successfully accomplished his task. He substituted thirty days without ordinary food, on mineral waters, and extract from a fungus root. He finished the task without being at all exhausted.

The illness of Cardinal Jacobini, papal secretary of state, has assumed a critical stage. The greatest anxiety is felt in papal circles about the issue of the cardinal's illness.

Bulgaria. SOFIA, Sept. 18.—The Russian agent has informed the Bulgarian government that Russia has not only resolved to maintain the independence of Bulgaria, but has reserved for herself the right of defending it.

Sobranj approved the bill appointing a court martial to try Major Graf and other officers associated with him in the coup d'etat on the charge of treason.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 18.—Hostile Arabs of the Sudan have assembled in force in Dongola and now threaten the Egyptian frontier. The convicts employed by the Egyptian government at the petroleum works mutilated recently. Twenty-four had to be killed before the others could be forced into submission.

France. PARIS, Sept. 18.—General Boulanger's belated utterances are much commented upon, especially the sentence, "at length we can abandon the defensive tactics and boldly assume the offensive."

POLITICAL POINTS. County Conventions. BELLEVILLE, Kan., Sept. 18.—L. L. Aldrich, of Cawker City, was nominated today by the Republican convention of the 1700th Representative district, Mitchell county. A full ticket was nominated and the convention harmonious.

PAOLA, Kan., Sept. 18.—The Republicans of the 17th Representative district met in convention in the court house in Paola today, and nominated W. W. McGruder of West township.

YATES CENTER, Kan., Sept. 18.—The Republican convention composed of ninety-two delegates met here today, and after passing resolutions, nominated Hon. W. H. Stevens to represent Woodson county in the next legislature.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 18.—Amos Townsend was nominated today by the Republicans of the Twenty-first district for congress.

Fussing About Bail. HALIFAX, Sept. 18.—Upon the hearing of the case of the seized fishing schooner, David J. Adams, being returned today before Commissioner McLellan, Samuel D. Ellis, of Victoria Beach, swore to having sold bail to the captain of the David J. Adams. At the conclusion of Ellis' testimony the court adjourned until next Monday.

Agreement Accepted. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—Representatives of the leading railroad interests met here today and accepted the agreement of the reorganization of the syndicate with the Gowen party.

Liabilities Stated. Assets.—NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—John F. Millemann & Co., provision dealers, made an agreement today with preferences amounting to $50,000.

CAPITAL BUREAU.